EDITORIAL NOTES

Returns from the Chief Inspector' office at Winnipeg on Saturday show ed that a new high record in crop movement had been made by the rall ways for September, 0,817 cars of wheat passing inspection, as against 2,010 in 1907, 7,085 in 1906 and 8,108 in 005. The year 1007 cannot fairly be used for comparison, owing to the fact that the barvest was abgormally late, bat in 1008 and 1005 the harvest was, if anything a little earlier than it was

The battle in England over the licens ing bill grows warmer. There is now one calcon to every 370 inhabitants is England. This bill proposes one saloon to every (00) or 800 inhabitants in the towns and oltles, and 100 to 500 in the country. A recent demonstration in its favor at Hyde Park saw 100,000 persons participating. "Less beer and more boots" has become a catching motto. The opposition is florce. If the bill is passed, it will put about 30,000 val, were attractive. W. Cooper had saloons out of business.

From rural mail delivery will o much to rolleve the monotony of fara life. It is a hig undertaking and will require a large expenditure, but the Laurier Government is accustomed to doing blg things-and doing them officiently. Postmaster-General Lemfeux says the country can afford the expenditure, and the Government which turned a Tory deficit of nearly a million dollars a year to a surplus of one million dollars last year, after reducing the rate of postage one-third and in some cases one-half and giving free delivery in cities of the third class can be relied upon to make the financial

By the Members of St. Alban's Church

The many friends of Mrs. Wilson wife of the Rector of St. Alban's Church, met on Monday night at the home of Miss Moore, Wilbur St., to welcome her and her little son, Lionel, home after a sojourn of three mont in the old country. A very pleasant and enjoyable evening was spent in song and sentiment and readings by members of the congregation and others. An address of welcome from St. Alban's Bible Class and Brotherhood combined, was read by Mr. John Nicolt. The address was tastofully embossed with an illuminated border of the Maple Leaf, the Rose, the

Thietle and the Shamrock entwined y Mies E. White. The address was as follows : We, the members of St. Alban's Bible Class, Sunday School and congrogation, assisted by the St. Alban's Brotherhood, have great pleasuse in welcoming you back amongst us. It dves us much pleasure to know that ou have been permitted to see your mother and renew the deargesociations of the land of your birth ,and we trust that you will ever cherish the memory
