> The Woman's Institute Concert The members of the Woman's Institute are congratulating themselves upon the success of their concert in the town ball on Monday evening. The programme which was given by local talent was very creditable and thoroughly enjoyable. In her characteristically happy manner Mrs. W. S Ohisholm sang very aweetly two number which were loudly applauded. Her illustrated song "A Little Bit of String," was most taking. Misses Holmes, Grahams and Hammond sang with good effect a quartette taking the four parts in good form. Misses Ida Graham, Mabel Chapman, Bossie Husband and Gertrude Johnstone, also saug a quartetta with great acceptability. The highland danning by Miss Minnie Statker, to the planoaccompaniment by her slater Miss Jennie, brought down the house. Miss Stalker is a pupil of Piper Murray, of Toronto, and and observing the license law in all its though she has been in poor health for some time and unable to appear in improve the property, on the exterior, public her numbers were given with and in the spring will enlarge the splendid precision and were a credit to building and put in modern plumbing her instructor. Dominion Elections

No doubt the Dominion Elections will by the important subject of conversation for the next few days, and in such excitement one is apt to neglect or forget business.

Buch is not the case at the People's Store, we are always on the alert and ready to attend to the requirements of the Dry Goods trade. Clase attention to business, wisely and vigorously applied, never fails to bring success.

This season presents to us a very promising trade. As our large sales from day to day hear ample testimony. Money has commenced to circulate more treely, and most people are feeling that they have more money to spend than they really expected.

We have made emple provision for a big business this I'all and Winter. Our stock is immensely large, as at this season of the year great lots of goods are thrown on the market at less than the cost of production, and our close touch with the leading trudes and manufacturers enable us to secure the full advantage of such octavious. So our stock is now at its best, and we offer extraordinary inducements.

If there is one part of our business more than another that stands out prominent and right in the very front of all competition -if is the group of departments specially devoted to

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Garments Men's and Boys' Ready-to-Wear Clothing High-Class Dressmaking . Millinery, Underwear Hoslery and Gloves Staples and House Furnishings

We therefore, direct your attention to these departments without attempting to enumerate the many specialties in each. .
