VOLUME XXXIV .--- NO. 21.

ACTON, ONT.

Rypry Rubscription Paid in Advance.

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 19, 1908.

Bulecription Price, $1.00 Per Annum.

SINGLE COPIES---THREE CENTS

Acton Free Press THURRDAY MORNING AY THE Free Press Blenm Printing Office, AILY, HTREET.

Termin of Subscription-One dollar per year strictly in advance. All subscriptions, discontinued when the time for which they have been paid has ex-pired. The date to which every sub-teription is paid is denoted on the ad-dress label. Advertising States—Transient adver-liasments, 10 cents per Nonparell line for first insertion, 2 cents per line for Advertisements, without specific directions, will be inserted till forbid and charged accordingly. Transient advertisements must be paid in advance.

Advertisements will be changed once and month, if desired. For changes oftener than above mentioned the composition must be paid for at regular rates.

Changes for contract advertisements Accounts payable monthly. English office, 10 Fluet Straet, London, M. C., where Messes, M. and J. Hardy & Co. will receive for us news subscriptions and advertisements, and where our readers can, free or charge, see our paper when is England.

II, P. MOORE,

Editor and Proprietor.

Business Directory.

MEDICAL.

THOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL L. R. C. P. EDINBURAN. I. L. P. & S. GLASGOW.

MEMBER HEITIGH MEDICAL ASSOCIATION ETC Acton, Out Mos-Frederick Street E. D. AULT, M. D. C. M.

Office-Perrymen's Block, corner Mill and Office Hours-9 to 13 a.m.; 1 to 6 and 7 to 0 Night calls suswered from residence, Freder-lok Street. - - - ONT.

DR. A. L. HORE. Graduate of University of Toronto Office at resultance, on William Street,-ba-Phone No. 20.

> LEGAL. J. MACKINNON

HANNISTEN, HOLICITOR, CONVEYANCES. OFFICE-Mill Street, in Storels' Block, Georgetown Branck-Main Street, open Vednesdays and Saturdays.

D J. MONABB. cork, Yourth Division Court County of Halon, Conveyancer, Agent Virgand Life Assurance lies? Estate Agent. Money to loan, etc.

Ovvica-Perrymans Block
AOTON
ONT.

DENTAL. DR. J. M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S. DESTINT. Office at Residence, Corner Mill and Prederick

The latest anaesthetic used if desired. At Hockwood fuesdays. L. BENNETT, L.D.S., DENTIST, ARGRANTOWN, ONTLRIC

HONOR GRADUATE OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY.

MISCELLANEOUS.

R. AND J. HARDY & CO., ADVERTISING CONTRACTORS AND NEWS CORRESPONDENTS.

30 Fleet Street, London, E. C., England. by visitors to London, to whom advice grads will be given if required.

MRANOIS NUNAN HOORDINDER

Wyndham Hi., (Over Williams Store.) Assount Books of all kinds made to order periodicals of every description cavefully bound. ulius neastyand promptly done MARRIAGE LICENSES.

II. P. MOORE BRUES OF MARRIAGE LICENSES. 'sivate Office. No witnesses required. Issued Free Press Office, AOTON

WM HEMSTREET,

Іленивии Дистонина For the Counties of Wellington and Halton Ordersieft at the Para Paras office, Acton, or at my residence in Acton, will be promptly at-tended to Terms Reasonable. Also money to loan on the most favorable sums, and at the lowest rates of interest, in sums of $500 and upwards.

LICENSED AUCTIONERE Orders left with the FREE PARES, Actum, will TAMES MCDONALD LICENSUIT AUCTIONNER Vor the counties of Wellington, Ifelton, Waterloo, Wentworth and the City of Guelph. Hales conducted on reasonable terms and Por terms, dates, etc., apply to iter and Blore toad, (UMLPH, Out. Telephone 147, Guelph, dates may be arranged at Farm Parse office.

R. I. KERR

LICENSED AUGTIONEER For the Counties of Wellington and Halton, Orders by letter to Mitnoss P. O., telephone to Mimosa or Osprings, or left at Faux Paus omes, Acton, will receive immediate attention.

SUBSCHIBED STOCK CAPTIAL, $195,000 00 THE WELLINGTON MUTUAL INBUBANCE COMPANY. Matablished 1840. Head Office . . GUELPH, ONT

r variliance on Cash and Mutual plan. Any

Also agent for The Union Inquestor Co.

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

W is are manufacturers and direct imported work. We sail direct to bur customers at whole sais prices, thus saving our customers to percent. We have the test appliances and the only mechanics in the Bominion who can operate pneumatic tools properly. We can give references from huntrade of our customers in Toronto and other places, where others have to tand law suits in order to collect. We have the largest and heat stock of Granite in the Bominion, or more than any three dealers in the West. We are legitimate dealers and supplies up agents, and do not annoy or pest questions to sollely the mending out ignorant agents to sollely omers by sending out ignorant agents to sollely orders—we employ mechanics only and dely

HAMILTON & SONS

EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING - ONTARIO

Gimson

Painter Paper Hanger Sign Writer Picture Framer

posite Williams' Livery.

Furniture, Tinware, etc. unnecessary delay. Knives ground. Scissors sharpened. Courteous attention and

..PAPER..

COLORED PAPERS

JNO. R. BARBER

Nassagaweya Lumber Milis hand, cheap. Bill stuff cut to order.

. SAYERS & SONS NASSAGAWEYA. P O

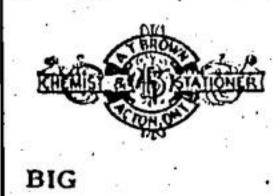

ACTON

BUS LING The undersigned respectfully

mercial Travellers fully met.

JOHN WILLIAMS

PROPRIETOR

BARGAINS

IN

Paper

MILL ST.,

ACTON.

EVERTON AND EDEN MILLS

Manitoba

Vamily and Pastry

Our Own Make ***

Chopping Done and Oats Rolled every

Everything

Hardware'

Our Priges Are Always Right

BOND HARDWARE CO.

CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGI Toronto, has Harred thou on the easy way to Latependence and aucoces. Let us give you the right start. Write for fishelogue, mostle with us. Roter any time. Address W. H. Shaw, Principal. Younge and flerrard titreets, To-

PAINTING AND PAPER HANGING AND DECORATING

STEPHEN CORDINER s prepared to take contracts for any wor in above lines. Work done prompily and | to his spoken command.

in the most workmanlike manner. Estimates cherrfully furnished. Orders left with Juo. R. Kennedy will given immediate attention. S. CORDINE

Raw Furs!

We are now paying as follows: RACOON-No. 1 Prime, Black Extra dark $1.50 to $3.00.

LARGE MEDIUM SMALL MINK $6.00 84.00 Extras will be paid extra. FOX, red $5.50 $3.75 $3.00 No. 1 No. 2 No. 3 No. 4 SKUNK $1.50 $1.00 50-750 350

Bell direct to the manufacturer and get full value for your polts at Lafontaine's Establishment

95-7 Quebec Street,

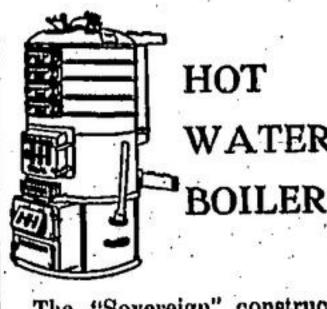

The Canadian Junk Depot · Pays Cash for Old Iron, Rags, Rubbers and Fowl Second hand stoves and repairs for Tom. arm machinery supplied. MORRIS BAKE, Proprietor, Box 430, Acton, On t

DYEING All kinds of Garments cleaned, dyed and finished like new on short notice Ruch as Gent's Suits and Overcoats, Ladius' Silk and Wool Dresses, Jackets, Blouses, House-hold Goods, Kid Gloves, Glippers, Hibbons, etc Ostrich Flumes and Tipe cleaned; dyed and curied. Hair and Wool Matiresses and Feather

T.H. GEMMELL & CO. | only Steam Dyers and Cleaners 106 Upper Wyndham St. Established 1887 MISS PERRYMAN, Acton, Agent.

THE UNAPPROACHABLE "SOVEREIGN

The "Sovereign" construction is the only type of boiler made that can be repaired, if necessary, without taking down the whole furnace. Its life will be as long as that of other. the most substantial building in which it may be installed.

The "Hovereign" Hot Water Roller never grows old. It is made up of separate parts and sections and be readily replaced without unne-

Be Posted. Write for our Booklet. TAYLOR-FORBES COMPANY QUELPH, ONT.

> BRANCHES. 1088 King Street West, Toronto.

Poetry.

THE HABIT BUILDER 'How shall I a habit break ?". As you did that habit make, As you gather you must lose ; As you yielded, now refuse. Thread by thread the strands we Till they bind us, neck and wrist; Must untwine, ore free we stand. As we builded, stone by stone, We must toll, unhelped, alone, Till that wall is overthrown. But remember, as we try. Lighter overy test goes by t Wading in, the stream grows deep

Toward the centre's downward sweet Hackward turn, each step ashore, Hhallower is than that before. Ah, the precious years we waste Lovelling what we raised in haste : Doing what must be undone, Ere content or love be won! First herosa the gulf we cast Kite-horne threads, till lines are puss

And babit builds the boldge at last! .. John Boyle O Rellly.

Belect Family Reading The state of the s Uncle Jed First To Tom

OUNG Thomas Vincent crack- must instantly be up and doing to help ed the long leather lash of his ! Uncle Jed. driving-whipmerrily over the oxen, and the slow beasts turned out. of the middle of the road in obedience gittin' where you kin command a little the opposite direction pulled up his ones till the crops begin to bring in horse when he came even with the ox- | somethin', an' food'll be mostly gardencart, and signated to Tom that he sasst' wished to speak with blin then and "III, Tom!" he said.

"Wheat" shouted Tom clearly to his big boasts of burden, and they stood quietly by the country roadside chewing their ands. drive my team of cattle," announced | if you take up with Si's offer of a job Mr. Situs Hill abruptly. He sat in the drivin' his cattle. He probably made middle of the buggy seat and was so the offer guassin' how twas with me," elzable a man that he took up nearly | continued the man. all the available room. "Where's Bill Jenkins?" asked Tom. "Itill's gone over to Randall's Mill to drive the town that carte iron to Arthoton. They give him more money over there than I could afford to pay." "Maybe Mr. Hawkins would know of some man for your job," suggested Tom. He was a sturdy lad, and the Jed? he demanded. "Do you want to faded blue joans he were set loosely on got rid of me?" ble well-knit figure. "Jed Hawking nin't goin' to think on which is yorself?" The flattery was clover and subtle. but somehow it struck Tom disagree- returned Tom couragonusly. But his ably as he listened, and he shifted the beart was fearful. Quickly there was heavy ox-whip he held from one hand flashed from Tom's heart a cry for to the other without making any com- | help

ONT. of anythin, Tom; I kin easy guess thinkin of myself. I don't want it to that. An' I'm willin' to give yer a bit | come down hard on you." of money every month in return fer drivin' my cattle," continued Mr. Silas | fellow like Tom Vincent? Was it fun Hill persuasively. "I ain't lookin' for any job!" said good one fer the takin'!"

The boy shook his head. "I'm well enough where I be, Mr. Hill," he said, as he raised his whip. "It would be a good chance fer ver o.come with me," argued the man per-

"I ain't never made any complaints of Unclo Jed Hawkins' livin'!" retorted Thomas Vincent, ox-boy, was an orphan, and Uncle Jedidiah Hawkins was a relative of the lad's by courtesy

"Well, Jest think it over, Tom !" admonished the man, as he slapped the - GUELPII | roins over his sleek chestnut horse. Tom shouted to the yoke of oxen in | boy I said Uncle Jedidish Hawkins. his charge, and cracked the leather lash encouragingly as they swung the honey cart back into the center of the love. road, and the wide three sank to their places in the deep wheel-ruts.

lumbering oxen, thinking intently of the conversation which had just placed | est garden-same together an' git along | him with an umbrella !" botwoon Mr. Silas Hill and blowalf. himself that the offer the man had made him was a tempting one, for he know he could got just as much fun anil satisfaction out of extra money as ad Tom. any other boy of elytoen. But he considered soborly how it had been with answer. him during the past few years. Pinally he nut the idea of leaving Jedidiah Hawking from blue.

Left adrilt by the death of his father at the morey of whoever chanced along, Tom Vincent had found life no casy proposition until Jedidish Haw- cally. kins had discovered the lad's misery that!" and taken blin to ble own solltary house at the top of the long bill. There, in the square thing to come at me that | sinv!" way !" declared Tom. A big pine log burned on the brass andleone, and Tom Vincent raised a sitting on the opposite side of the brick

The oxen had long since reached home and been unyoked, and now were numbling their buy in the stalls, while Uncla Jed." Tom told Mr. Jedidiah Hawkins of bis mosting with Silas Hill on the Arling- autumn, Jedidish Hawkins stood on sufferers here at this time. ton road that afternoon.

"Don't make up your mind so fast un' auro, buy t" said Jedidiah. "They's | returned Tom, pulling a roll of bills somethin' for Jodidiah Hawkins to say from his pocket. i there before you make up your mind | "Mr. Haunders said the pumpking for keeps. Sallors tell about rate brought down to-day was extry good leavin' a wornout ship when sho's like an' so he gave me half a cent more to be the played-out ship." pair of thin hands out tit-the blazing his thin hands were strong and brown how transparent and blue they were, and his young heart swelled in his bosomi "Well. I nin't the rate!" he said | makin' up for the lean kine gone beblantly. "Don't go ou so fast an' sure, boy ! Listen while, I tell you how 'tie, on' then use the hest sence you've got.".

"I aln't never blu worth so much the drough last year." "They nin't goln' to fall Uncle Jed." declared Tom. "That's loft in God's hands. 'Neither is he that planteth anythin'; but God I've got left now is the place here an' cart and led them into the barn.

the yoke of cattle you drive."

Tons felt as if life heart would burst with the pity of it all. He had never once dreamed it could be like this! In day?" his young strength the lad felt that he

"N .w. I kin git along alone without y m if it ain't so pleasant; an' you're wages over 'n' above food an' clothes. I'm afraid if you stay long of me this The man driving a high top buggy in | summer, Tom, clothes'll hav' to be old

> "I don't mind that," sald Tom stout-"The won't be ham!"

But Tom did not smile at the allubion to his proverbial appoilte for ham. dead. "An' if the grope full agin this year, I don't see what the winter's goin' to "Then he's all the meaner'n I thought

"Hi's jest lookin' out for himself, Ton, that's all. An' he thinks it's only fair for you to take up with a ship that ain't in a sinkin' state." Tom jumped to his feet. "Do you want to get rid of me, Uncle before i" cried Tom hetly.

"Do I want to get rid of you Tom! It's hard tellin' how I'd git on here suggestin' the one I'm lookin' fer - alone without you, boy : but I don't want you to sink with the ship." "We ain't goln' to sink, Uncle Jed!"

"May be set May be not set I've noked "Jed Hawkins ain't payin' yer much | God to take care of that part, so I ain't "Come down hard on a big hulkin" for you to look out for the little Ton. you first brought here? All the time ! had the fever, an' like to died, it was "Maybe not; but I'm offerin' yer a you that took care of me an' paid the went on board a vessel that was in the might have put him off; but I don't doctor! When I broke my leg last harbor, and asked the captain if winter you done it all again! You didn't do all that for fun. Uncle Jed, and now if I kin do somethin' back it's time handing the Irishnian a piece of only fair to stay.' Unclo Jed Hawkins laughed.

"Yes, yes!" he drelated, but Tom saw that his eyes were very bright and tho laugh shaky. "You, I done it all tain, said-for pure fun. "Nonsonsei" the boy cried. The man nodded. "Yes," he repeated : "you I done it all for pure pleasure." "I don't see," said said Tom, possied "Why, Uncle Jed: how was it fun?" "Why! It's jost that I love you Ton dropped back into his arm chair. He had wekened without the

"An' you think I don't care a straw The boy walked along beside the bere all alone, Uncle Jed? I ain't gold' with Silas Hill nohow! You an' mo'll | tost," answered Miss Cayenne. "Try | dobts ! someway ! I ain't ashamed that I love He could not think of denying to you. Uncle Jedidiah!" declared Tom, "Roy, I want you to take an' do what's goin' to put you along right." "Aln't I doln' what's right?" demand-

Uncle Jedidlah Hawkins did no "You ain't never told me, Uncle Jed that God wants us to go around lookin out for our own pocketbooks all the time!" Tom was waxing indignant and mother when only ten years old, and his black eyes shot fire as he paced to and fro on the hearth. "No!" returned Uncle Jed emphati "No! I alo't never told you "Then you wou't think about askin the years that had passed since, the Jedidish? Recause sometimes the golu !" So long's you've gut a yoke of to take. "Ungle Jed, I don't think Si Hill did | oxen to drive an' kin use me I want to Judidish Hawkins held out his workpair of honest black eyes to the one God'll reward you somehow! I aln't

> Tom threw back his strong head. the wide doorstone of his house and Inquiry at the drug stores of this you belonged to him, too !"

"I'm afraid Si missed the straight an' of oxen up the long bill.

"Hello, Uncle Jedidiah Hawkins!

to go down on the voyage. I'm gettin', pound than he did last time," Tom explained, handing over the money. The man spoke slowly and spread a Jedidlah Hawking laughed happily log. Toro no leed for the first time now, and he had the look of a man who was experiencing prosperity. "This old farm never see such a goo year, Tom! It's the fat kine that's > fore," said the old than counting over the bills. "God braught us through, Uni

"He showed you the way to stand by The man was slient a moment before speaking further of what was in his, boy," said Jedidiah. Tom cracked the whip-lash over the oxen and started for the barn willstling noney as people hav' told for, Tom," His blue leans were no less faded than lip said at last, "An' lack ain't come before, and his big straw but had my way much lately in anythin! I've torn rim, but Tom know that upstairs undertook. You know yourself how in his closet there was a brand new twas the cows died in the winter, an' suit of clothes and a store hat. For a passed along to him.

Passing the open kitchen window sniffed the air and laughed. "Uncle Jedidiah Hawkins is cookir ham for supper, you critters!" he said that giveth the increase.' About all as he loosened the exen from the tips > EFFECT OF CIGARETTE SMOKING only 15 years of age. "You emoke thirty cigarettes "You, on the average."

down condition?" "Not in the least. I blame my har The physician shook his head. If smiled in a voxed way. Then he took

"You don't blame them for your run-a leech out of a glass jar. "Let me whow you something," said. "Bare your arm." The elgarotte amoker bared his pale arm, and the other laid the lean, black leach upon it. The loods fell to work builly. Its body began to swell Then all of a sudden a kind of shudder

"That is what your blood did that leoch," said the physician. He "Tom, I'm lookin' for somebuildy to but Tom, I ai i't blamin' you a particle | took up the little corpse between bis finger and thumb. . "Look at it," he said. "Quite dead, you see. You "I guess it wasn't a healthy losch in > amoker, quietly. "Wasn't healthy, ch? Well we'll try again.' And the physician clapped leeches on the young man's thin arm "If they both die," said the patient,

"I'll swear off-or at least, I'll out

Even as he spoke the smaller leach shivered and dropped on his know dond, and a moment later the larger me fell beelde it. "This is ghastly," said the young man : "I am worse than the pestilence to those leaches." "It is the empyreumatic oil in you lood," said the medical man. cigarette smokers have it." "Doctor," said the young man, regarding the three dead leeches thoughtfully, "I half believe you're right."

New Zealand Outlook.

THREE ENDS OF A ROPE An Irlehman who was out of work lett wasn't in any great hurry, and could find him work on the ship. "Well," said the captain, at the same | the boys say, it was easy money."

that rope you shall have work." The Irishman got hold of one end

Then he took hold of the other and, to get in the habit of horrowin' from and showing it to the cantain as be- your friends. fore, said-"And that's two ends, your Then taking hold of both ends of the | 'Let me have a dollar,' says you, and ope, he threw it overboard, saying-"And faith there's an end to the that, before you realize it, you're they ought to have nor the children ope, your Honor!" He was engaged.

"Lnever thought much of the pin

NOT WORTH STEALING

RHEUMATISM RECIPE Directions to Prepare Simple Remarkable Home Mixture A well-known authority on Rhoumatiem gives the following valuable and tisn't friendship, ofther. Just you hough simple and harmless, prescription, which any one can easily preparo at home:

ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Byrup Sarsaparilla, three Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and ake a tempoonful after each meal and at bodtime. He states that the ingredients can tion pharmacy at small cost, and, be-

Fiuld Extract Dandellon, one-half

This pleasant mixture, if taken regu- all the stiffenin' out of your charse tarly for a few days, is said to over- ter. come almost any case of Rhonniatian. The pale and swelling, if any, dimish- | when you want something the wors "It's a fine thing you're doin' boy! os with each dose, until permanent re- kind, and haven't money enough to sults are obtained, and without injur- pay for it?" the youth inquired, as blood and replaces weakness with sayin' another word!" he said broken. Ing the stomach. While there are Uncle Aune stopped abruptly. many co-called Rheumatism remedies. patent medicines, etc., some of which ed., "Wait till you earn enough to | tions or for feeble old people is simply "God'll help us through somehow, do give relief, few really give perma- get it. It'll be yours, then. If you remarkable, nent results, and the above will, no ! Late one afternoon in the early doubt, be greatly appreclated by many belongs to the one you owe -- and watched Tom Vingent drive the yoke meighborhood elicite the information . I that these drugs are harmless and can "Helle i" he cried, us the blg beaute | the hought separately, or the druggists here will mix the proscription for our readers if asked to.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Yew Items of Interest from our Issue of November 22nd, 1868 The young people of the Methodisi Church have organized themselves lato a society with the view to sassistlog in the advancement of the spirit ual, soolal and financial interests of the church. There is a present membership of about 40. The officers elected are: Hon. Pres,-Rev. Dr. Offord Prosident-John W. Unmeron ; Vice Pros.-Miss Augusta Nicklin : Hierstary-N. F. Moore; Treasurer-Miss Lottle E. Speight. Mrs. Margaret Mann, widow of th late John Mann, died on the 10th lout, on the old homestead, lot 27, con. 3, Esquesing. Her juniden name was Kennedy .. She was born in Inverness, Scotland, in 1802, being therefore 80 years of age. Her husband died seven years itgo, aged 87. She had lived 56 years on the old himostead, to which the came from Scotland with husband and two children, and patiently endured the hardships and inconven the crops failed pretty much along of good share of the year's prosperity had lences peculiar to the lives of early settlers. Hhe was a good wife and a kind mother. A Glenwilliams girl, whose mind had been polsoned by novel reading. | cut who was just then in the yard. recently set fire to a closet in a house where she was employed in order to burn a sacque of a guest on whom she but as she did so, her claw caught in wished to have revenge. She was the wool of a sheep.

An enjoyable evening was spont last week at the home of Mr. John Warren, being a reception by the membors of the Baptist Church for the lows. Mr. Warren gave an address stood by the gate. of welcome, and Dr. Roe, of Georgetown, and Rev. R. B. Cook of the congregation here, gave short address- | ao, her horn grazed the skin of a os. Friends from Georgetown and horse who stood by a tree. Miss Jessie Warren contributed mustcal and vocal selections and Miss Tons Gordon a recitation.

Miss Tena Moffat who has been for some time an employee in the valise department of J. E. McGarvin & Co., shoop at the cat, and the cat at the left on Tuesday for Miss McPherson's convulsed it, and it fell to the floor training home in Stratford, whence the duck at the hon. What a face she will shortly leave, for missionary there was! And all because the hen work either in Winnipeg or London, In connection with Knox Church lecture course Prof. Panton, of the O.

structive and interesting account of the Mammoth Cave, Kentucky, A the first place," said the eigarette vote of thanks moved by Col. Allan and Mr. G. Wells, was heartly accord-MARRIED-On Oct. 31st, by Rev. Rigaby, at the Methodist Parsonage. Leamington, Mr. J. E. Bartle, of H. M. Customs, Niagara Falls, to Miss Ella down my daily allowance from thirty Bryers, daughter of the officiating ministor, and who formorly resided in EASY MONEY "Considerin' you're carning six I you ?" asked the toucher. dollars a week and baven't been at kind o' wondering how ye managed to ly answered : buy the Barlett boy's collection of stamps," Uncle Amos binted. His shrowd blue eyes would have stricken terror to a rostless conscience : list being entirely satisfied with his own financiering, Bob, Uncle Amor' nephow, morely smiled and waved hi "No trouble at all," he said. "Barthe know him very well, so I just borrow ed eight dollars from Ben Fowle. "Easy, hey?" The old man's tone rope, "If you can find three ends to was not agreeable. "Well, I won't dispute ye," he added, after a moment. of "I always found it easier to get into of the rope, and, showing It to the cap- I trouble than it is to got out of it. And I'll tell ye right now that the surest "That's one end, your Honor." way to land yourself in hig trouble is

"Yes, I said 'habit.' Yo gilde into it natural-like, as ye do into any other. your friend hands over. It's so easy borrowin' to huy things you don't real- into their schools who need to be ly want, and horrowin' because you taught, until the liquor traffic is think you'd feel more comfortable if abolished and the drink habit stopped. you had some extra change in your "That man is so honest he wouldn't | pocket, and borrowin' for no reason about whatever happens to you, left | steal a plo," said the admiring friend. | but just because you've got used to it | tests property ; promotes peace; pro-

"If you were a man in business, now, prophesies paradise. In view of its I wouldn't say a word against your | benefits why should any oppose it? going to a hank or another husiness man, if you had to, and navin' for a loan, man-fashion. But it lan't bustto go pesterla' your friends for money they maybe want to use themselves get to doing it. like some folks I've known, and protty soon your friends will dread the night of yet

"And suppose something happens so you can't pay back when you promised or they expected—then you'll be dreading the sight of your friends You'll feel mean overy time you meet 'em. You'll go sneakin' around corner to avoid 'em. There'll be strain on both sides, one that It'l be obtained from any good prescriptake protty strong friendship to stand And if you don't lose your friends, you man and boy had made a home for each | money does tempt me to go, an' I ain't | ing vegetable extraction, are harmless | lose the best part of yourself, because the dodglo' and apologizin' will tak borrow the money to buy it, it really

"But what are you going to do

A BARGAIN

Belfnda bought a bargalo Black not to make a dress; Marked down from something fearful

To half the price, or less. It only cost four dollars. The lining cost fifteen. And fifteen more for chiffen, The allk and not between,

Some face, a little velvet To brighten up the net. Thon twenty for the making-It is a bargain gown-t only cost four dollars.

This fittle parable by an unknown author teaches its own fesson : A hen trod on a duck's font. She

"I'll pay you for that I" cried the goose, and she flew at the duck ; but as she did so, her foot tore the for of a "I'll pay you for that!" cried the

"I'll pay you for that I" cried the sheep, and she ran at the cat; but as she did so, her foot hit the foot of a dog who lay in the suo. "I'll pay you for that I" cried be, and

"I'll pay you for that!" cried she, and he rushed at the cow. What a noise there was! The horse flow at the cow, and the cow at the "Hit Hit What's all this?", cried A. C., Guelph, last week gave an in- "You may stay here," he said to the hen; but he drove the duck to the pond, the gome to the field, the cat to the barn, the sheep to her fold, the dog to the house, the cow to her-yard. and the horse to his scall. And so all their good times were over because Wm. Bryers, assisted by Rov. W. the duck would not overlook a little

> A little endured. A little forgiven, The quarrel is cured."

A SPECIAL OCCASION "Elele, when do you say Thank Elele's face lighted up, for that was work long snough to save much, . I'm one thing she know, and she confident-> had left his water proof in the compartment. He burried as the train was

they are all Macgregors." TEMPERANOE ITEMS

TOO WEAK TO WORK Wm. Brossesu, of Waterloo, Quebec. Buffered from Indigestion.

No Appetite, Headacties and Backache MADE WELL BY VINOL

I recommend Vinol to all those who need a flesh, nerve or theue tuilder." Wm. Brossau, Waterlee, Quelee. This is because Vinul is the best god liver and iron tonic in the world. It creates a hearty appetite, strongthons the digestive organs, makes rich, red strongth. The beneficial offect of "Do without I" the old man answer. Vinol in cases of weak-run-down condichildren, weak, run-down persons, there'll be times when you'll feel as If convalencents, or those suffering from chronic colds, coughs or bronchitis in this violalty to try Vinol on our offer Every person has two educations; to return their money if it does no.

Then forty yards of ruching And thirteen pounds of jet.

Becapse it was marked down. -Washington Post.

" TLU PAY YOU FOR THAT

lid not mean to do'lt, and it did not burt the duck much; but the duck enid, "I'll pay you for that !" So the duck fley at the old hen, but as she dideso, her wings struck an old goose who stood close by.

cat, and she started for the goose!

new minister, Rov. D. B. Gordon, Jumped at the sheep ; but as she did and family, who recently arrived from | so, ble leg struck an old cow who > and she ran at the dog ; but as she did "I'll pay you for that!" cried he, dog, and the dog at the sheep, and the goose, and the goose at the duck, and accidentally stepped on the duck's burt which was not intended. . . "A little explained,

"When we have company." IN THE COUNTRY OF MACE A gentleman was traveling in the north of Scotland. When he reached ble destination he discovered that he teaving, and shouted : "Is there a black mackintool in One of the gentlemen replied : "No

Many a man has enined his everight by sitting in a har-room tooking for The Mail says, colliorially, that "delaking at the open bur is rapidly becoming disceputable." Wise Sweden ! It closes the saloons on Saturday-pay day-and keeps thu savings banks open till addulght. The churches of Joses Christ will never be able to get the andlences Here is a pad with good sound p's in it : Prohibition provents poverty; pro--runnin' up the meanest kind of duces plenty; provides pleasure; prooures progress; perpetuates prespecit;;

> "Vinel is a wonderful medicine, and no appetite; my digostion was had; was suffering from hondsohes and backuche; I was so weak that I had not been able to work for months when a friend savised me to take Vinot. After I had taken one bottle I noticed my health was improving. continued its use and to-day am perfeetly well. It is with pleasure that one which he receives from others, and | good: We make this effect to show one more important which he gives jour lands to Vines. Live Mouraning

OUELPH

Mill St., Acton, op-Repairs promptly made to reasonable prices. W. GIMSON.

GEORGETO WN, ONT.

solicits the patronage of the pubilc, and informs them that Well can always be secured at his

Wall

Brown's

 The Best Quality of

MAKERS

BOOK, NEWS AND

Lumber, Lath and Shingles always on

A comfortable bus meets all trains between 10.00 a.m. and 6.19 p. m. Careful attention given to every order. The wants of Com-

Flour For sale at lowest prices

122 Graig Street West, Montreal.

DATTOR WILL."

Tom's eyes flashed. "I sin't giffn' !" he said.

We invite all old people, delicate