BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

—The rains of the past week have been very beneficial.

—There was a big area of fall plowing done during the past week.

—The Firemen's Annual Ball and Supper on Friday, 11th December.

—Well, we had a taste of Indian Summer during the week, after all.

—The open weather has greatly facilitated the completion of outside work.

—The Court of General Sessions will be held at Milton on Tuesday, 8th December.

—Dr. E. D. Ault's re-modelled residence on Frederick Street is nearing completion.

—The sleighing and skating disappeared as rapidly as they came, but they'll return again.

—About 12,000 feet of water mains have already been laid for the new waterworks at Oakville.

—Remember the auction sale of household furniture, by Messrs. Biggar and Rice, next Tuesday afternoon.

—Methodist Church Anniversary, Sunday, 6th December. Special sermons by Rev. T. Albert Moore, of Toronto.

—Dr. Elliott has purchased the stone residence on Main Street formerly belonging to Mrs. Freeman of Burlington.—Herald.

—If you have a visitor at your home rush the news to the FREE PRESS. Don't wait for a week until the item becomes stale.

—The Methodist Women's Missionary Society is preparing a bale of clothing to be sent to the needy by the central committee.

—According to the Brampton Banner, a protest will likely be filed against the return of Richard Blain, the member elect for Peel.

—Georgetown High School Concert will be held to-morrow evening. Ruthven McDonald and Miss Pearl O'Neill are the principal attractions.

—In order to keep his carpenters busy during the winter months Contractor Mackenzie will manufacture baking cabinets, step ladders, farm gates and other sundries.

—The young ladies of the Epworth League are engaged in dressing dolls again for presentation by the Deaconesses in one of the cities among the girlies of poor families.

—Mr. Fred Wilds entertained his friends last Thursday evening, at a venison supper, on his return home after a deer hunting trip to Dunchurch. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

—Messrs. Johnstone & Co. have put new embossed metallic ceilings in the offices and shipping rooms of the Canada Glove Works. They made a very fine job which has greatly improved the appearance of the premises.

—Milton Council has had Morgan Crowson down to "water witch" an additional supply of water for the inadequate town system. It is alleged that he located a large spring available for addition to the present supply.

—The Methodist Sunday School will hold an entertainment on Christmas night as usual. The programme will be a choice one and will be superintended by Miss Doty, who has given such admirable satisfaction on numerous occasions.

ONE BAD MISTAKE

Is Frequently Made by the Wisest of Acton People

It's a serious mistake to neglect backache. Backache is the first symptom of kidney ills. Fatal complications may follow. Booth's Kidney Pills act quickly to overcome kidney ills, do not delay until too late, it may mean Diabetes or Brights Disease. Read what a Brampton resident says, You can obtain Booth's Kidney Pills in Acton at Brown's Drug Store.

Mrs. Ellen Henry of John St., Brampton, Ont., says: "My son used Booth's Kidney Pills and pronounces them fine. He suffered from a kidney irregularity, backaches and pains through his muscles and limbs. Booth's Kidney Pills did him more good than all the other remedies he ever used. I also used this remedy and found in it a good tonic, invigorator and back strengthener. We are glad to add our endorsement to this valuable kidney and bladder regulator."

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

Burglary at Milton

Last Sunday night the store of Bastedo & Co., was entered from the rear and some $500 worth of valuable furs and fur-lined coats stolen. The thieves left their old overcoats on the premises. Detectives are working on case.

Terribly Injured at Georgetown

Charles Heath, a young man from Guelph, was returning from Toronto on the midnight train on Monday, when he fell between two cars at Georgetown and had his head crushed and his skull fractured. His injuries may prove fatal.

Good Times Really Here

The general impression prevails that the financial depression has gone and that good times have really put in an appearance again. Nearly every man takes a hopeful view of the future and the merchants say business continues to improve and farmers are quite optomistic. If people generally would talk good times the situation would still further improve.

Married at Acton

A wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at Acton in which two young people of the city became man and wife. The bride was Miss Margaret Nesslin, of Guelph, daughter of Jacob Nesslin, and the groom John K. Saunders, also of the city. The bridesmaid was Miss Della Leach and Mr. Joseph Riley, of London, acted as best man. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Acton.—Guelph Mercury.

High School Concert

The High School entertainment next Monday evening will in all probability be regarded as the very best event of the kind ever presented by the school. The recital of "Jean Valjean" by Rev. Dr. Cleaver, of Toronto, is one of the most interesting features, and those who enjoy an eloquently told story of a classic piece of literature will be delighted. The glees by the students will form an enjoyable introduction to the evening's proceedings.

An Intermediary Fined

A few examples like that made at the police court this morning and the members of the local Indian list will go dry indeed. A local man attempted to break the act by purchasing booze for one of the members of the distinguished order. His attempt was a most successful one for he was able to convince the court of his guilt through the assistance of Inspector Oakes, and was called on to contribute a mere trifle of $25 and costs to the police court fund.—Guelph Mercury.

Third Year in Succession

The report from militia headquarters, dated Tuesday, Nov. 10th, states that Pte. Fred Mossop, of Company F., 20th Regiment, Acton, was the winner of the Best Shot Badge for 1908 for the 20th Regiment. This is the third year in succession Acton Company has won this distinction. Sergt. Wansborough won the Badge in 1906, and Col.-Sergt. Lynd in 1907. Capt. Gamble is justly proud of the distinction won for his Company. Pte. Mossop used the Ross rifle in making his crack shots.

Big Game Comes to Acton

Messrs. Fred Wilds and Wm. Johnson were each successful in shooting a deer in their recent trip north. Mr. Wilds favored the FREE PRESS with a generous cut off his, when it arrived last week. On Monday Councillor Williams received part of the carcass of a very fine moose from his son Mr. Carl Williams, Sault Ste Marie. The generous Councillor remembered many of his friends in town and they all pronounced the brand of moose meat received to be very fine provender.

Anniversary and Tea-Meeting

Anniversary services will be held at the Brick Church, Siloam, next Sunday and the following Tuesday, Dec. 1st. Rev. George Lounds, of Burford, a former pastor, will preach at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. On Tuesday evening the anniversary tea-meeting will be held. The programme will include musical numbers by Dr. Abbott, of Erin; Misses Mabel Chapman and Gertie Johnstone, and the Methodist Sunday School Orchestra, Acton; recitations by Miss Gertie Swackhamer and Mabel Chapman, Acton; Addresses by Rev. G. Lounds, Rev. G. W. Barker, H. P. Moore and others. The pastor, Rev. D. H. Taylor, will occupy the chair.

Death of Mr. Stephen Coon

The funeral of the late Stephen Coon, whose death occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, on Saturday, was held on Monday afternoon from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. S. Matthews, Young Street. The deceased was born in Grimsby on October 11th, 1822, and was in his 87th year. He resided for many years on the sixth line, Esquesing, and moved to Guelph some years ago. He was a man of quiet habits, but was well known and esteemed by all. He is survived by his wife, four sons and two daughters. The children are: Isaiah, of Acton; Jacob, of New Westminster, B. C.; Herman and William, of Guelph,; Mrs. Wiswell, of Guelph, and Mrs. S. Matthews, of Acton. The remains were interred at Fifth Line Cemetery.

St. Alban's Church

Last Sunday the congregation enjoyed the visit of Mr. Adam Brown, of Hamilton, formerly member of the House of Commons for Hamilton, and now postmaster for that city. He gave a stirring and most helpful and inspiring address both at Acton and at Rockwood, on the subject of the Church of England Missionary Movement, and an address which promises to have very practical and fruitful results. ....The Right Reverend, the Lord Bishop, will hold a confirmation service at St. Alban's Church, on Saturday evening, Nov. 28th, at 7 o'clock. The people of Acton are invited to attend the service.....Special mission services will take place next Sunday morning and evening, Nov. 29th, at 10.30 and 7 o'clock, and also on Thursday, Dec. 3, at 8 p. m., when the Rev. J. K. Godden, M. A., Rector of Caledonia, and Rural Dean of Haldimand, will preach. The offerings will be devoted to missions.....St. Alban's annual Christmas sale on behalf of the Building Fund will take place in the little store at Clavel's, Mill Street, on Dec. 16th and 17th, afternoon and evening of each day. Plain and fancy needle work, also farm produce, and home-made cakes will be on sale.

More Houses Going Up.

Mr. J. H. Mackenzie, contractor, has the foundation ready for another double house on Main Street. He will utilize the frame of the old Adams house at the corner of Church and Mill Streets and move it to the new foundation next to the house recently sold to Mrs. John McKinnon.

A Magnificent Concert To-Night

The Presto Choral Club, of Guelph, will give their annual concert in the Royal Opera House this evening. In addition to a chorus of 60 voices, Madame Florence Mulford, mezzo soprano, of New York, and Mr. Paul Hahn, the renowned cellist, will take part. Mr. Ernest Shilldick is the conductor.

Veterans' Land Certificates Valuable

The report comes from Ottawa that an offer of from $500 to $550 for their land certificates has come to the members of the South African Veterans' Association, in a letter to their Secretary from a prominent Calgary business man, himself a veteran of the Boer war. The offer is at least $100 higher than the prices offered by speculators heretofore.

The Championship Pennant

The pennant presented by Messrs. A. G. Spalding & Co., Montreal, to the Champions of the Halton-Peel Base Ball League, was received on Monday by Mr. Ed. Ryder, Secretary of Acton Club. Our Champions are very proud of this new recognition of their success in last summer's contests. It is in pennant form, of fine white bunting, with the word "Champions" in red, and is ten feet long. It is now on exhibition in the FREE PRESS windows.

Halton County S. S. Convention

The annual convention of Halton County Sunday School Association will be held in the Methodist Church, Milton, on Thursday and Friday, Dec. 3rd and 4th. There will be five sessions, beginning Thursday afternoon at 2.30. The Executive ask for an extra good representation from each township in order that the question of discontinuing the County Convention may be thoroughly discussed and settled. Everybody welcome. Annie A. Noble, Sec.

No Liquor for Railway Men

The Georgetown Herald says: Under a statute passed in 1906, hotelkeepers are forbidden to sell to a railway employee any intoxicating liquor, while the latter is on duty. Under the act, the proprietor of the Exchange hotel here was charged on Wednesday last that he "did sell, give or barter spirituous or intoxicating liquor to Wm. Johnston, conductor, and Alex. Ross, engineer, of the Grand Trunk Railway, while actually employed in the course of their duty in connection with the operation of a train, and that such liquor was supplied by his bar-tender." The Grand Trunk, through Mr. W. I. Dick, prosecuted, and Lawyer James Haverson appeared for the defendant. A fine of $10 and costs was imposed.

Death of Finlay McCallum, Esquesing

In the death at his home last Sunday of Finlay McCallum, Esq., Esquesing lost one of its oldest and most highly esteemed residents. Mr. McCallum was born at Loch Tay, Perthshire, Scotland, eighty years ago. In 1833 he came to Canada with his father, the late Duncan McCallum, who settled on lot 7, con. 1, Esquesing, which for seventy-five years was the home of the deceased. Mrs. McCallum and three sons and five daughters survive. Mr. McCallum was a good man and was connected with Boston Church from his boyhood days. He was well-known in Acton, was a nephew of the late Mrs. Janet Anderson, and was an executor of her estate. The funeral yesterday was very largely attended.

A. O. U. W. Banquet

The members of Acton Lodge, No. 307, A. O. U. W., and their ladies, attended a banquet at the Station Hotel on Tuesday evening, which was much enjoyed. The toasts of the evening were to the King, the Grand Lodge, Acton Lodge, the ladies and the host and hostess. They were responded to by Bro. R. E. Nelson, D. D. G. M., of Guelph, in behalf of the Grand Lodge; Bro. John Williams for Acton Lodge; Bros. C. Gamble and Carty, of Hamilton, in behalf of the ladies, and Bro. Gibbens for the host and hostess. After the banquet the parlors were thrown open and a most enjoyable entertainment was provided by the Leechman and Arthurs Orchestra, and others. This was one of the most enjoyable evenings the Lodge has ever had and all present felt that great credit was due to Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons for their splendid hospitality. Dr. Ault was chairman of the evening.

Important New Industry at Milton

The P. L. Robertson Manufacturing Co., Milton, have had considerable valuable automatic and up-to-date machinery installed for the manufacture of the Robertson Patent-headed Screw, and other useful inventions. The Robertson screw is a very important and far-reaching improvement in this useful and much-used little article, and is a radical change over the familiar screw of the slot-headed type. This new screw has a square recess in the head which is entirely encased by the rim of the screw-head, obviating all chance of the driver slipping, or the head being damaged. The screw is driven with less effort, is especially adapted for overhead work or work in angles or difficult places. It removes entirely the possibility of ragged looking heads, so frequent with the screw at present in use. The company has already a large trade in this novel invention and are preparing for a largely increased output. Mr. P. L. Robertson, the President of the Company, has already won the golden opinions of Miltonians by his enterprising spirit. Mr. A. E. Guildal, the Vice-President and Managing Director, is a hard-headed and experienced business man and will undoubtedly fulfil all the requirements necessary to make the business go.

The cheapest tea to use is not the lowest priced. You can buy tea a few cents a pound cheaper that will make a drink, but if you want an absolutely pure, healthful, cleanly prepared tea use "Salada." It is indefinitely more delicious and decidedly more economical than other teas, because it goes further.

Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

Twenty-five years ago it was difficult to sell spring wheat flour for pastry at any price.

People didn't want it—they were using soft, winter wheat flour, and saw no reason for changing.

But hard wheat flour was persistently pushed. The women tried it and succeeded with it,—to-day hard wheat flour is the favorite for Pastry as well as for Bread.

Ogilvie's Royal Household

is hard wheat flour at its best—milled by modern methods, retaining all of the good of the wheat. It is without an equal for every kind of baking in which flour is used. 16
