A POOKET OF SUNSHINE

- "A pocketful of sunshine Is better for than gold : It drowns the daily serrows Of the young and of the old ; It fills the world with pleasure
- In field, and lane, and street, And brightens every prospect tif the mortals that we ment. "A pocketful of sun-hine
- Can make the world akin And lift a loud of sorrow From the burdened backs of sin : liffusing light and knowledge Through the thorny paths of life, It gilds with allver lining the storm clouds of strife.
