BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

-Another taste of winter this week -You had botter keep in a sup of coal for a few weeks longer. -The wheels and the runners are frequently intermittent this winter. -You, the bear was able to see his shadow, and he is now, no thoubt, in comfortable winter quarters again. -The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the close of the evening service in the Methodist Church next Sunday.

- It is hoped the prompt re-covering of the wheat and clover with a good depth of snow has averted any serious injury to these crops. -Longboat's stock went up consid erably here at midnight fast Friday when the news of his victory over Shrubb at New York, reached town. -A meeting of those interested in the Lord's Day Alliance will be held in the Council Chamber on Wednesday evening, 17th inst., for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year -Mr. James Mills, who had the misfortune to fracture the large bone at the heel of his right foot by jumping out of a rig on the frozen ground about New Years, has discarded his crutches and is now able to get about with the ald of a cane.

-A large measure of credit should be given Mr. E. B. Swackhamer, son of Warden Swackhamer, for th Christmas window dressing at R. Johnstone's hardware store, awarded a prize by Hardware and Metal. Mr. Byackhamer is quite an adopt at window dressing.
