

MARRIAGE

CONFIRMATION—At Chalmers' Church, 10th Street, by Rev. H. A. Macpherson, Mr. Stephen Clegg, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clegg, daughter of the late Josephine Anderson, was confirmed.

LOUISA—PATRICKSON—At the residence of the Rev. W. G. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patterson, by Rev. W. G. Wilcox, M. A., Fred Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patterson, of Vancouver, B.C., in the 12th daughter of James Patterson, Esq., of Guelph.

DIED

WALTER—On Friday, Feb. 10th, at fifteen minutes past 11 P.M., at Milton, Ont., John Miller, 66 years, Mary, beloved daughter of Robert Carter, Town Clerk.

ANNIE—At Guelph, on Saturday, Feb. 11th, Annie Peters, widow of the late Wm. R. Peters, of Guelph.

CHARLES—At Guelph, on Monday, February 13th, Charles Ann Clegg, widow of the late Captain Fred Bafford, The Guard of Honour was conducted by a corps from the 90th Highlanders.

According to custom when His Honour learned that the House was without a Speaker, he retired. Thereupon, on motion of the Premier, Mr. J. P. Whitney, Hon. Thomas Crawford was re-appointed speaker, news of this being conveyed to him. The Lieutenant-Governor returned to the chamber and the speaker elect being duly presented, read the speech from the throne, which touched upon the following subjects:

The Postmaster-General has a bill before the House of Commons to amend the Post Office Act, the object of which is to provide compensation to the amount of $25 for lost registered letters or parcels posted by Canadians.

The Georgia Anti-Saloon League announces that it will prosecute newspapermen of the State for printing whiskey advertisements, on the ground that the papers are hired agents and collectors for whiskey houses, in violation of the State prohibition law.

Two-cent letter postage between the United States and Newfoundland will go into effect on March 1st, the Washington Cabinet having agreed to the reduction. The postage has hitherto been five cents. The reform is said to be due largely to Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, the Labrador missionary.

The estimates for the coming year were laid on the table before the House of Commons last week. True to its promise the Government has cut down expenditure to meet the decrease in customs revenue. Total estimates, $110,489,771; this means a cut of some nineteen and a quarter millions less than last year; and it is hinted that the supplementary estimates which ran up to $10,500,000 last year will be almost nil this year.

At the celebration of the Centennial of ex-President Abraham Lincoln's birthday at his old home in Springfield, Ill., last Friday, reference was made to his antipathy to the use of intoxicating liquors. Extracts from a speech he made at a banquet there in 1860, were quoted as follows: "Gentlemen — We must pledge our mutual health in the most healthy beverage which God has given to man. It is the only beverage I have ever used, or allowed in my family, and I cannot conscientiously depart from it on the present occasion. It is pure Adam's ale from the spring."

Local Option has justified its merits in many municipalities, says the Canadian Baptist, and the electors in all but two places where a repudiation was recently attempted, have declared by vote that they desire to remain under its law. This is significant; and we do not see how the Ontario Government can much longer decline to remove the three-fifths clause. Given a fair field and no favor, local option bids well to extend on every hand. But it seems unreasonable that its extension must be sought against the odds of that anti-slavery and anti-domestic three-fifths clause.—Dominion Presbyterian.

One of the reasons sometimes given for opposing prohibition of the liquor traffic is that the revenue derived from licenses would be lost, and direct taxation, or some other objectionable way of raising revenue, would have to be resorted to in order to make up the deficiency. The experience of Atlanta, Georgia, does not uphold this contention. In 1897, prior to prohibition, the revenue of the city was $2,142,071. In 1905, under local option, it $2,683,081, an increase of $541,000. Part of the increase in the value of property, and part from a wise use of their revenues on the part of the people. They spent their money for what enriched them instead of on what could only do them harm.

Referring to Warden Swackhamer's election the Georgetown Herald says: "Mr. Hiram Swackhamer, of Acton, is the new Warden of the County of Halton. Warden Swackhamer is a son of Mr. Christopher Swackhamer who resides on the old homestead, lot 33, in the fourth concession of Equeston township, one of the most reliable and estimable the township has ever produced. His son, Hiram, was a schoolmate of the writer and the only objection we ever had to him was the length of his name. Some years ago he was elected to Acton Council and later to the Township. He seemed to be well to the teeth of even opposing elements in the Township and finally has brought the honor of the Wardenship to Acton. May he have a pleasant and successful year, regarding the welfare of his native county as the highest responsibility that belongs to the honorable office to which he has been elected."

THE LADIES' FAVORITE

Wherever Parisian Sage is Known It Has the Call

Parisian Sage, that most efficient of all hair restorers, is a very delightful and refreshing hair dressing. Besides possessing those qualities it will positively make any woman's hair soft, luxuriant and attractive. A. T. Brown sells it and will return your money if you are dissatisfied.

Just read this: "After using one bottle of Parisian Sage, I now have a better growth of hair and I found your Hair Restorer pleasant to use. After the first few applications my hair stopped falling out, and it has been restored to its natural color. I now recommend your Parisian Sage to all my lady friends. Little Rock, III. Mt. Hope Ave., Rochester, N.Y."

THE LEGISLATURE OPENED

With Large Attendance of Visitors and Brilliant Ceremonies

THE BICKER FROM THE THRON

Toronto, Feb. 17th.—The first session of the twenty-third legislature of Ontario was formally opened yesterday afternoon by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, J. M. Gibson. There was a large attendance, fashion being out in force. His Honor was escorted to the halliards by the Royal Canadian Dragoons, his arrival being heralded by a salute by the Ninth Battalion Canadian Field Battery. The Guard of Honour was mounted and a corps from the 90th Highlanders.

According to custom when His Honour learned that the House was without a Speaker, he retired. Thereupon, on motion of the Premier, Mr. J. P. Whitney, Hon. Thomas Crawford was re-appointed speaker, news of this being conveyed to him. The Lieutenant-Governor returned to the chamber and the speaker elect being duly presented, read the speech from the throne, which touched upon the following subjects:

The Postmaster-General has a bill before the House of Commons to amend the Post Office Act, the object of which is to provide compensation to the amount of $25 for lost registered letters or parcels posted by Canadians.

The Georgia Anti-Saloon League announces that it will prosecute newspapermen of the State for printing whiskey advertisements, on the ground that the papers are hired agents and collectors for whiskey houses, in violation of the State prohibition law.

Two-cent letter postage between the United States and Newfoundland will go into effect on March 1st, the Washington Cabinet having agreed to the reduction. The postage has hitherto been five cents. The reform is said to be due largely to Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, the Labrador missionary.

The estimates for the coming year were laid on the table before the House of Commons last week. True to its promise the Government has cut down expenditure to meet the decrease in customs revenue. Total estimates, $110,489,771; this means a cut of some nineteen and a quarter millions less than last year; and it is hinted that the supplementary estimates which ran up to $10,500,000 last year will be almost nil this year.

At the celebration of the Centennial of ex-President Abraham Lincoln's birthday at his old home in Springfield, Ill., last Friday, reference was made to his antipathy to the use of intoxicating liquors. Extracts from a speech he made at a banquet there in 1860, were quoted as follows: "Gentlemen — We must pledge our mutual health in the most healthy beverage which God has given to man. It is the only beverage I have ever used, or allowed in my family, and I cannot conscientiously depart from it on the present occasion. It is pure Adam's ale from the spring."

Local Option has justified its merits in many municipalities, says the Canadian Baptist, and the electors in all but two places where a repudiation was recently attempted, have declared by vote that they desire to remain under its law. This is significant; and we do not see how the Ontario Government can much longer decline to remove the three-fifths clause. Given a fair field and no favor, local option bids well to extend on every hand. But it seems unreasonable that its extension must be sought against the odds of that anti-slavery and anti-domestic three-fifths clause.—Dominion Presbyterian.

One of the reasons sometimes given for opposing prohibition of the liquor traffic is that the revenue derived from licenses would be lost, and direct taxation, or some other objectionable way of raising revenue, would have to be resorted to in order to make up the deficiency. The experience of Atlanta, Georgia, does not uphold this contention. In 1897, prior to prohibition, the revenue of the city was $2,142,071. In 1905, under local option, it $2,683,081, an increase of $541,000. Part of the increase in the value of property, and part from a wise use of their revenues on the part of the people. They spent their money for what enriched them instead of on what could only do them harm.

Referring to Warden Swackhamer's election the Georgetown Herald says: "Mr. Hiram Swackhamer, of Acton, is the new Warden of the County of Halton. Warden Swackhamer is a son of Mr. Christopher Swackhamer who resides on the old homestead, lot 33, in the fourth concession of Equeston township, one of the most reliable and estimable the township has ever produced. His son, Hiram, was a schoolmate of the writer and the only objection we ever had to him was the length of his name. Some years ago he was elected to Acton Council and later to the Township. He seemed to be well to the teeth of even opposing elements in the Township and finally has brought the honor of the Wardenship to Acton. May he have a pleasant and successful year, regarding the welfare of his native county as the highest responsibility that belongs to the honorable office to which he has been elected."

THE LADIES' FAVORITE

Wherever Parisian Sage is Known It Has the Call

Parisian Sage, that most efficient of all hair restorers, is a very delightful and refreshing hair dressing. Besides possessing those qualities it will positively make any woman's hair soft, luxuriant and attractive. A. T. Brown sells it and will return your money if you are dissatisfied.

Just read this: "After using one bottle of Parisian Sage, I now have a better growth of hair and I found your Hair Restorer pleasant to use. After the first few applications my hair stopped falling out, and it has been restored to its natural color. I now recommend your Parisian Sage to all my lady friends. Little Rock, III. Mt. Hope Ave., Rochester, N.Y."

THE LEGISLATURE OPENED

With Large Attendance of Visitors and Brilliant Ceremonies

THE BICKER FROM THE THRON

Toronto, Feb. 17th.—The first session of the twenty-third legislature of Ontario was formally opened yesterday afternoon by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, J. M. Gibson. There was a large attendance, fashion being out in force. His Honor was escorted to the halliards by the Royal Canadian Dragoons, his arrival being heralded by a salute by the Ninth Battalion Canadian Field Battery.

The Guard of Honour was mounted and a corps from the 90th Highlanders.

According to custom when His Honour learned that the House was without a Speaker, he retired. Thereupon, on motion of the Premier, Mr. J. P. Whitney, Hon. Thomas Crawford was re-appointed speaker, news of this being conveyed to him. The Lieutenant-Governor returned to the chamber and the speaker elect being duly presented, read the speech from the throne, which touched upon the following subjects:

The Postmaster-General has a bill before the House of Commons to amend the Post Office Act, the object of which is to provide compensation to the amount of $25 for lost registered letters or parcels posted by Canadians.

The Georgia Anti-Saloon League announces that it will prosecute newspapermen of the State for printing whiskey advertisements, on the ground that the papers are hired agents and collectors for whiskey houses, in violation of the State prohibition law.

Two-cent letter postage between the United States and Newfoundland will go into effect on March 1st, the Washington Cabinet having agreed to the reduction. The postage has hitherto been five cents. The reform is said to be due largely to Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, the Labrador missionary.

The estimates for the coming year were laid on the table before the House of Commons last week. True to its promise the Government has cut down expenditure to meet the decrease in customs revenue. Total estimates, $110,489,771; this means a cut of some nineteen and a quarter millions less than last year; and it is hinted that the supplementary estimates which ran up to $10,500,000 last year will be almost nil this year.

At the celebration of the Centennial of ex-President Abraham Lincoln's birthday at his old home in Springfield, Ill., last Friday, reference was made to his antipathy to the use of intoxicating liquors. Extracts from a speech he made at a banquet there in 1860, were quoted as follows: "Gentlemen — We must pledge our mutual health in the most healthy beverage which God has given to man. It is the only beverage I have ever used, or allowed in my family, and I cannot conscientiously depart from it on the present occasion. It is pure Adam's ale from the spring."

Local Option has justified its merits in many municipalities, says the Canadian Baptist, and the electors in all but two places where a repudiation was recently attempted, have declared by vote that they desire to remain under its law. This is significant; and we do not see how the Ontario Government can much longer decline to remove the three-fifths clause. Given a fair field and no favor, local option bids well to extend on every hand. But it seems unreasonable that its extension must be sought against the odds of that anti-slavery and anti-domestic three-fifths clause.—Dominion Presbyterian.

One of the reasons sometimes given for opposing prohibition of the liquor traffic is that the revenue derived from licenses would be lost, and direct taxation, or some other objectionable way of raising revenue, would have to be resorted to in order to make up the deficiency. The experience of Atlanta, Georgia, does not uphold this contention. In 1897, prior to prohibition, the revenue of the city was $2,142,071. In 1905, under local option, it $2,683,081, an increase of $541,000. Part of the increase in the value of property, and part from a wise use of their revenues on the part of the people. They spent their money for what enriched them instead of on what could only do them harm.

Referring to Warden Swackhamer's election the Georgetown Herald says: "Mr. Hiram Swackhamer, of Acton, is the new Warden of the County of Halton. Warden Swackhamer is a son of Mr. Christopher Swackhamer who resides on the old homestead, lot 33, in the fourth concession of Equeston township, one of the most reliable and estimable the township has ever produced. His son, Hiram, was a schoolmate of the writer and the only objection we ever had to him was the length of his name. Some years ago he was elected to Acton Council and later to the Township. He seemed to be well to the teeth of even opposing elements in the Township and finally has brought the honor of the Wardenship to Acton. May he have a pleasant and successful year, regarding the welfare of his native county as the highest responsibility that belongs to the honorable office to which he has been elected."

THE LADIES' FAVORITE

Wherever Parisian Sage is Known It Has the Call

Parisian Sage, that most efficient of all hair restorers, is a very delightful and refreshing hair dressing. Besides possessing those qualities it will positively make any woman's hair soft, luxuriant and attractive. A. T. Brown sells it and will return your money if you are dissatisfied.

Just read this: "After using one bottle of Parisian Sage, I now have a better growth of hair and I found your Hair Restorer pleasant to use. After the first few applications my hair stopped falling out, and it has been restored to its natural color. I now recommend your Parisian Sage to all my lady friends. Little Rock, III. Mt. Hope Ave., Rochester, N.Y."

THE LEGISLATURE OPENED

With Large Attendance of Visitors and Brilliant Ceremonies

THE BICKER FROM THE THRON

Toronto, Feb. 17th.—The first session of the twenty-third legislature of Ontario was formally opened yesterday afternoon by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, J. M. Gibson. There was a large attendance, fashion being out in force. His Honor was escorted to the halliards by the Royal Canadian Dragoons, his arrival being heralded by a salute by the Ninth Battalion Canadian Field Battery.

The Guard of Honour was mounted and a corps from the 90th Highlanders.

According to custom when His Honour learned that the House was without a Speaker, he retired. Thereupon, on motion of the Premier, Mr. J. P. Whitney, Hon. Thomas Crawford was re-appointed speaker, news of this being conveyed to him. The Lieutenant-Governor returned to the chamber and the speaker elect being duly presented, read the speech from the throne, which touched upon the following subjects:

The Postmaster-General has a bill before the House of Commons to amend the Post Office Act, the object of which is to provide compensation to the amount of $25 for lost registered letters or parcels posted by Canadians.

The Georgia Anti-Saloon League announces that it will prosecute newspapermen of the State for printing whiskey advertisements, on the ground that the papers are hired agents and collectors for whiskey houses, in violation of the State prohibition law.

Two-cent letter postage between the United States and Newfoundland will go into effect on March 1st, the Washington Cabinet having agreed to the reduction. The postage has hitherto been five cents. The reform is said to be due largely to Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, the Labrador missionary.

The estimates for the coming year were laid on the table before the House of Commons last week. True to its promise the Government has cut down expenditure to meet the decrease in customs revenue. Total estimates, $110,489,771; this means a cut of some nineteen and a quarter millions less than last year; and it is hinted that the supplementary estimates which ran up to $10,500,000 last year will be almost nil this year.

At the celebration of the Centennial of ex-President Abraham Lincoln's birthday at his old home in Springfield, Ill., last Friday, reference was made to his antipathy to the use of intoxicating liquors. Extracts from a speech he made at a banquet there in 1860, were quoted as follows: "Gentlemen — We must pledge our mutual health in the most healthy beverage which God has given to man. It is the only beverage I have ever used, or allowed in my family, and I cannot conscientiously depart from it on the present occasion. It is pure Adam's ale from the spring."

Local Option has justified its merits in many municipalities, says the Canadian Baptist, and the electors in all but two places where a repudiation was recently attempted, have declared by vote that they desire to remain under its law. This is significant; and we do not see how the Ontario Government can much longer decline to remove the three-fifths clause. Given a fair field and no favor, local option bids well to extend on every hand. But it seems unreasonable that its extension must be sought against the odds of that anti-slavery and anti-domestic three-fifths clause.—Dominion Presbyterian.

One of the reasons sometimes given for opposing prohibition of the liquor traffic is that the revenue derived from licenses would be lost, and direct taxation, or some other objectionable way of raising revenue, would have to be resorted to in order to make up the deficiency. The experience of Atlanta, Georgia, does not uphold this contention. In 1897, prior to prohibition, the revenue of the city was $2,142,071. In 1905, under local option, it $2,683,081, an increase of $541,000. Part of the increase in the value of property, and part from a wise use of their revenues on the part of the people. They spent their money for what enriched them instead of on what could only do them harm.

Referring to Warden Swackhamer's election the Georgetown Herald says: "Mr. Hiram Swackhamer, of Acton, is the new Warden of the County of Halton. Warden Swackhamer is a son of Mr. Christopher Swackhamer who resides on the old homestead, lot 33, in the fourth concession of Equeston township, one of the most reliable and estimable the township has ever produced. His son, Hiram, was a schoolmate of the writer and the only objection we ever had to him was the length of his name. Some years ago he was elected to Acton Council and later to the Township. He seemed to be well to the teeth of even opposing elements in the Township and finally has brought the honor of the Wardenship to Acton. May he have a pleasant and successful year, regarding the welfare of his native county as the highest responsibility that belongs to the honorable office to which he has been elected."

THE LADIES' FAVORITE

Wherever Parisian Sage is Known It Has the Call

Parisian Sage, that most efficient of all hair restorers, is a very delightful and refreshing hair dressing. Besides possessing those qualities it will positively make any woman's hair soft, luxuriant and attractive. A. T. Brown sells it and will return your money if you are dissatisfied.

Just read this: "After using one bottle of Parisian Sage, I now have a better growth of hair and I found your Hair Restorer pleasant to use. After the first few applications my hair stopped falling out, and it has been restored to its natural color. I now recommend your Parisian Sage to all my lady friends. Little Rock, III. Mt. Hope Ave., Rochester, N.Y."

THE LEGISLATURE OPENED

With Large Attendance of Visitors and Brilliant Ceremonies

THE BICKER FROM THE THRON

Toronto, Feb. 17th.—The first session of the twenty-third legislature of Ontario was formally opened yesterday afternoon by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, J. M. Gibson. There was a large attendance, fashion being out in force. His Honor was escorted to the halliards by the Royal Canadian Dragoons, his arrival being heralded by a salute by the Ninth Battalion Canadian Field Battery.

The Guard of Honour was mounted and a corps from the 90th Highlanders.

According to custom when His Honour learned that the House was without a Speaker, he retired. Thereupon, on motion of the Premier, Mr. J. P. Whitney, Hon. Thomas