Last Week's Big Wind

The terrific gale which prevailed on Wednesday of last week did no serious damage in this section. Fruit and shade trees were blown down; fances levelled in many directions, shingles blown from some roofs, but the damage was light. A portion of the roof of Mr. Edw. Cleaves' barn, near the buck church, and also of the barn of the Chisholm property were blown off. A number of windmills were put out of commission, but this locality escaped the serious damages which befol other
