She was the daughter of Mr. William Trotter, and resided in Acton until about twenty years ago when she went to Toronto with her husband, who is a prominent merchant in that city. Mr. Edmondson, two sons and a daughter survive. Mrs. Edmondson was a member of a most lovely disposition and lived in the hearts of her family and friends. General sympathy will be felt here for her bereft family.

Left for Vancouver. Mr. W. Stark left on Saturday evening for his new home at Vancouver, B. C. Mr. Stark's many friends here wish him abundant success in his new field. He was a resident of Acton for more than twenty years and was associated with numerous interests here. Until last fall Mr. Stark was chief accountant for the large manufacturing business of Messrs. W. H. Storey & Son, and during the many years of his occupancy of this important position he enjoyed the unqualified confidence of the management. Mr. Stark was for many years an efficient member of Acton Citizens' Band, a member of Acton Gun Club and is interested generally in the athletic activities of the town. He was an accomplished gentleman and his removal is to be regretted.

Added to the Free Press Museum. Prior to his leaving for British Columbia, Mr. W. Stark very kindly presented to the Free Press his collection of fifty three photographs of natural history, birds, nests, eggs, etc., hand painted in life colors. This is a very valuable collection and was the result of years of work in procuring life photographs of the numerous subjects, and coloring the plumage, etc., in the colors natural to the bird or animal portrayed. The collection is one which would delight the heart of any naturalist, and will facilitate very much the study of natural history as to local birds and animals. Mr. Stark also contributed an authenticated roll of the warship "Nancy" destroyed in the Nottawasaga River in the war of 1812; the wings or postcard fine and full of a flying fish secured in the Bay of Bengal in 1878 and two similar copies of "The Kingdoms' Weekly Intelligence," and "The London Mercury" published in 1848, the days of Cromwell, and 1888, the time of the crowning of the Prince of Orange.

Boettger, also of Berlin, was a very interesting event. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. S. E. Marshall, B. D., of Berlin. At five o'clock the bride entered the parlor, while Mrs. (Rev.) E. Marshall presided at the wedding. The bride, who was dressed in cream silk, with val and silk trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of cream carnations. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Oram, of Toronto, acted as maid of honor and carried pink carnations. Master C. O. Heath, the little nephew of the bride, acted as ring bearer, dressed in cream flannel suit and carrying the ring in a basket of sweet peas and ferns. The bride's going-away gown was made of rose striped cloth with satin trimmings and lace to match, with cream point shoe and white waist. After the ceremony the company sat down to a dainty luncheon. An unique feature of the event was that it was also the 30th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, among which was a cabinet of silver from the groom's employer. The couple are at home to friends at 9 Foreman Place, Berlin.

Will Prosecute the Parties

The Milton Chamberlain says he will prosecute all parties accused of supplying liquor to "Influans," though in the present form of the law, he is handicapped. The law should be amended by requiring the local prohibited lists to be posted in all places where liquor is sold and depriving offenders of the excuse of ignorance.

An "Influans" Drinker Fined

Harry Hemming appeared before Police Magistrate Dies, at Milton, on Friday last, charged with being drunk. As Harry is on the Inluans list, he was fined $10 and costs. He was also compelled to give the name of the party who furnished him with the liquor. Prosecution of the offender, by the License Inspector, will follow.—Re-former.
