OLD AND NEW PHIENDS Make new friends, but keep the old Those are silver, these are gold,

New-made friends, like new-made

Ago will mellow and refine. Friendships that have stood the test, Time and change, are surely best. Brow may wrinkle, hair turn gray, Friendship never owns decay ; For oild old friends kind and true We once mere our youth renew, But alas! old friends must die: New friends must their place supply Then cherish friendship in your breast New is good, but old is best. Make new friends, but keep the old ;

Those are silver, these are gold. -Henry Van Dyke.

WIIV WOMEN SHOULD SWIM

One of the many reasons why women should become good swimmers. is that the sport makes one healthy and bentiful at the same time. This does not mean that it produces "protty" face, but it goes further than that; for it brings about a grace and loveliness of form which no other athletic exercise dods. #### NOT DECAYING

But when it comes to a question of war, the Briton's blood bolls. He pre parce to fight with the utmost deliberation. He has often a hard struggle before he wing, but he is rarely beaton. The American colonists threw off his yoke, but even the great Napoleon could not vanquish "perfide Albien." sons believed England would be deprovailed. The Briton is, indeed, slow. but he is "hard to beat." He never travels too fast, but in the flores rivalry of nations he holds his own. England may be declining, but she is still strong. And Mr. Wolls is not exactly to predict his country's downfall.
