BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

—Acton Fall Fair, 5th and 6th Oct.

—High School Concert next Monday evening.

—The County Fall Fair at Milton to-day and tomorrow.

—Mr. John H. Watson's new concert hall on Main Street was completed last week.

—An interesting congregational reunion will be held in the Methodist school room next Thursday evening with Inst.

—Mr. James H. Reid who sustained a serious fall in the silo, Mr. Robert Johnson's farm, is gradually recovering.

—Mr. John Cameron's pretty new bungalow on Main Street is being pushed toward completion. Its artistic design is much admired.

—Two ranks of bowlers went to Georgetown for a game last Thursday afternoon. The home team was victorious by three points.

—Owing to the Children's Day service next Sunday evening in Knox Church the Sunday School in the afternoon will be withdrawn.

—J. Holtz, of the Imperial Hotel, Guelph, and Joseph Zinger, of the Four Corners, were each fined $20 and costs last week for adulterating whiskey.

—Rev. E. W. Parsons, B. A., will preach in the Baptist Church next Sunday at 10 o'clock. Prof. Farmer, of McMaster University will preach on Oct. 12.

—Some of our streets and some vacant lots are still illegally decorated with noxious weeds and other rank growth. Someone is neglecting a very manifest duty.

—The new barn erected on Willow Street, a few feet from neighbour's front door, is not winning for the builder the unqualified approval and esteem of citizens.

—Messrs. Beardmore & Co. recently purchased the Burns farm, adjoining their other property. This is the farm Mr. Arch. McPherson has had leased for many years.

—Please notice the label on Fuzza Paste. If not removed kindly give us your order for one of your subscriptions. A prompt response will be greatly appreciated.

—The transformation of the old Methodist Church into two very comfortable houses has been about completed by Contractor Mackenzie for Mr. John Watson.

—A complete new set of water tubes was installed in the steam boiler used in the heating system of the Methodist Church last week, by Kjeng Construction Co., of Montreal.

—A Novice correspondent writes that Gladys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hamblin, fell off the delivery wagon of W. G. Soules last Thursday evening and broke her collar bone.

—The county stone crusher was moved from its location on the first line to Duncan McDonald's farm on the second line on Tuesday. Stone will be crushed there for the piece of road graded last summer.

—E. W. Grace, butcher, is figuring on cutting off the front of his building back to the new street and adding a new brick and plate glass front. The cost of the first floor will be utilized as a shop.

—The street crossings still await the attention of the municipal officer. Some of the Church Street crossings are covered with three or four inches of fine dust which many pedestrians are obliged to wade through.

—Mr. Gordon Hayward has purchased from Mrs. Bauer Plastik's house and lot on Bowery Avenue which has been his home for years. Mr. Hayward's friends are very pleased to see him come into possession of this tidy property.

—A most painful accident befel East Gaynor, clock in Nixon's Drug Store, on Monday, when a particle of chemical he was working with in a mortar flew into his eye. The eye was slightly burned but it is likely to be all right in a few days.

There is more Calcium in this section of the country than all other disease put together. For a great many years doctors pronounced it to be incurable and by constantly failing to cure it with local treatment, pronounced it to be an incurable disease. It is now known to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. It is now being manufactured by V. J. Clancy & Co., Toledo, Ohio. It is a simple, safe and effective powder. It is taken internally in doses from 10 to 20 grains. It cures the disease and removes the drops and irregular surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any sale to the highest bidder. Address: V. J. CLANCY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Take their Faculty Pills for constipation.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT

St. Joseph Rectory Improvements
St. Joseph's rectory has been repaired and is now looking throughout very attractive and comfortable. Father Walsh appreciated very much the transformation which has been effected largely through the kind-hearted generosity of a few interested parishioners.

Danish Burial From the Fall

After lingers from Wednesday morning last, when he fell a distance of 20 feet from the top of his sled, Mr. Chris. McBeath, of Aberfoyle, passed away on Monday morning without having regained consciousness after the accident. It is supposed that death resulted from concussion of the brain and the severe shaking up.

Knox Church Committee Services
Knox Church quarterly missionary services will be held on Friday evening at 7.30. Rev. H. F. Cameron, Guelph, will preach. Confirmation will be administered on Sunday morning when Rev. J. C. Wilson, the pastor, will preach. On Sunday evening the annual Children's Day service will be held. The subject for this service will be "What we are making of the Bible."

Knox Y. P. S. Social

The Young People's Society of Knox Church held a very enjoyable social on Tuesday evening. There were a large number of members and their friends present.

—Miss D. I'Y McDonald, who has been stenographer for Mr. W. J. Chapman the past year, left on Saturday to take a situation in Winarpe.

—Mr. William Carroll returned home last Thursday after spending a couple of months with relatives in Guelph, N. Y., and Toronto.

—Measures for the South and John Arthur left on Saturday for Guelph. Mr. Arthur will spend the winter at the Huron mines, in which he has interested.

—Mr. James Lawson, who has been in the Palace Drug Store the past year or so, left last week to take a situation with his former employer, Mr. E. A. Robertson, Stratford.

—Mrs. James McLean arrived here on Thursday after spending a couple of months with her son and other friends in Guelphville, N. Y. She left here for Midland on Monday morning.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stewart and Miss Stewart, of Muskegon, Mich., visit Acton friends during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart were esteemed residents of Acton thirty years ago.

—Mr. John Shaw, of Kearny, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Shaw, last week. Miss Blanche and Master Robert, who have been here for a couple of months, returned home with him on Friday.

—The new brick front of Brown's Drug Store is well under way.

—Go and hear O. A. Smily at the High School concert in the town hall next Monday evening.

—A strong Young Men's Liberal Club has been organized in George town with Mr. H. S. Little as Secretary.

—What about that proposed new skating and curling rink for which $10,000 stock was subscribed several months ago?

—A customer at Roulston's, Sack, writes: "Enclosed find money order for $0.20 in payment of printing received. We are well pleased with the work."

—The removal of the telephone poles and Mill Street to the new street line has very much improved the appearance of the street. It's up to the corporation now to move in the electric light poles.

—Considerable dissatisfaction has been expressed here that the Prize Lists for the Fall Fair, to be held here on the 5th and 6th October, have been so tardy in being distributed. The first copies arrived here on Wednesday.

—Mr. W. Lawler, late of the United States Tanning Corporation, of Pontiac, Michigan, is engaged in town this month to take a foremanship in Messrs. Beardmore & Co.'s leather tannery. He will reside in Mr. P. Bayes' new house on Church Street when it is completed.

—The man who whispers down the well about the goods he has to sell, will never reap the slender gains like he who climbs the hill and hollers. The object of advertising reliable goods is that when you need anything in that line you will automatically think of the advertised article.

—Engineer McLean of the Public Works Department of Ontario, Comptroller, Wilson, of Halton Good Roads System, Rose Motifphon, of Esquinton and Warden Swackhamer made a tour of inspection of Acton's new street improvements last Thursday. It was the general opinion that the steam roller should have been used more.

—At the Sons of Scotland demonstration at Erin last Thursday the Acton band won the silver cup in the competition with Grand Valley. It is a beauty and has been much admired in the Prize Window. Acton put up a good game and played all home men, whereas their opponents were an aggregation from four or five towns with only two men from Grand Valley.
