

SPECTACLES AND EYE-GLASSES
ALL THE LATEST STYLES
We Give Special Attention to the Repairing of Spectacles.
NEW TEMPLES, LENSES, FRAMES

Wedding and Birthday Presents.
GEO. HYNDS
JEWELLERY STORE - ACTON
MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED

STORE NEWS

Special for SATURDAY, 26th SEPTEMBER

Pocket Knives

| | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| 45c Knives for | 30c |
| 40c Knives for | 25c |
| 35c Knives for | 20c |
| 25c Knives for | 15c |
| 15c Knives for | 10c |
| EXTRA SPECIAL | |
| 35c and 45c Knives | 10c |

SEE WINDOW ON SATURDAY

R. F. Johnstone

The Acton Free Press
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1890

BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

-Acton Fall Fair, 5th and 6th Oct.
-High School Concert next Monday evening.

-Huron County Fall Fair at Milton today and tomorrow.

-The walls of Mr. John H. Watson's new concert hall house on Main Street were completed last week.

-An interesting congregational reunion will be held in the Methodstel School room next Thursday evening, 8th Inst.

-Mr. James H. Reid who sustained a serious fall in the aisle at Mr. Robert Johnson's farm, is gradually recovering.

-Mr. John Cameron's pretty new bungalow on Main Street is being pushed toward completion. It's artistic design is well calculated.

-Two sets of boxers went to Guelph Saturday night last Thursday afternoon. The home team was victorious by three points.

-Owing to the Children's Day service next Sunday evening in Knox Church the Sunday School in the afternoon will be withdrawn.

-J. Deltz, of the Imperial Hotel, Guelph, and Joseph Ziegler, of the Four Corners, were each fined $20 and costs last week for adulterating whisky.

-Rev. E. W. Parsons, B. A., will preach in the United Church next Sunday at 10 o'clock. Prof. Farmer, of Macdonald University will preach on October 3rd.

-Some of our streets and some vacant lots are still illegally decorated with noxious weeds and other rank growth. Someone is neglecting a very manifest duty.

-That new barn erected on Willow Street, a few feet from a neighbor's front door, is not winning for the builder the unqualified approval and esteem of citizens.

-Moore, Beardmore & Co., recently purchased the Burns farm, adjoining their other property. This is the farm Mr. Archibald Marion had leased for many years.

-Please examine the label on Prince Puffus. If not renewed kindly give me your order for renewal of your subscription. A prompt response will be greatly appreciated.

-The transformation of the old Methodist Church into two very comfortable houses has been about completed by Contractor Mackenzie for Mr. John Watson.

-A complete new set of water tanks was installed in the stone belfry used in the heating system of the Methodist Church, now in the King Construction Co., of Toronto.

-A Naval correspondent writes that Gladys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Humphries, fell off the delivery wagon of W. G. Simonds last Thursday evening and broke her collar bone.

-The county stone crusher was moved from its location on the first line to Duncan McDougall's farm on the second line on Tuesday. Stone will be crushed there for the place of road graded last summer.

-R. W. Grace, butcher, is figuring on cutting off the feet of his building back to the main entrance and building a new infill and plate glass front.

The whole of the first floor will then be utilized as a meat shop.

-The street crossings still await the attention of the municipal officers. Some of the Church Street crossings are covered with three or four layers of fine dust which many pedestrians are obliged to wade through.

-Mr. Gordon Hayward has purchased from Mrs. James Piriehouse her house and lot on Flower Avenue which has been his home for years.

Hayward's friends are very pleased to see him continue possession of this tidy property.

-A somewhat painful accident befell Berle Garvin, clerk in Nixon's Drug Store, on Monday, when a particle of a chemical he was working with fell into a mortor flew into his eye. The eye was slightly burned but it is likely to be all right in a few days.

There is more Captain in this section of the country than all other classes put together, and the Captain is the most popular. For a great many years doctors have been sending their patients to Captain, and by constantly falling to cure with local remedies, doctors have come to the conclusion that Captain is to be a constitutional disease and therefore require Captain to be treated. Captain is a native of Canada, manufactured by F. J. Chisholm & Co., Toronto. Captain is a native of Canada, and is made of wood and iron. They offer the best treatment and sediments. Address: F. J. Chisholm & Co., Toronto, Ont. Take Captain's Family Pills for constipation.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT

St. Joseph Rectory Improvements
Mr. Joseph's rectory has been repaired and decorated throughout, and is now very attractive and comfortable. Father Walsh appreciates very much the transformation which has been effected — largely through the kind-hearted generosity of a few interested parishioners.

Death Resulted From the Fall

After lingering from Wednesday morning last, when he fell a distance of 29 feet from the top of his site, Mr. Charles McEachan, of Altonbury, having on Monday morning, after having received considerable consciousness after the accident. It is supposed that death resulted from a fracture of the brain and the effects of shock.

Knox Church Services

The quarterly preparatory services of Knox Church will be held on Friday evening at 7:30. Rev. R. F. Cameron, Georgetown, will preach. Communion will be administered on Sunday morning when Rev. J. C. Wilson, the pastor will preach. On Sunday evening the annual Children's Day service will be held. The subject for this service will be "What we are making of the Little."

Knox V. P. S. Social

The Young People's Society of Knox Church has a very enjoyable social. Tuesday evening. There were a large number of members and their friends present. The programme consisted of well-rendered solo, duets, and quartettes, readings and recitations, instrumental and orchestral music.

At the close dainty refreshments in the form of ice cream and peachos, and tea and cake were served.

Many Pedestrians and Athletes

A practical outcome of an interesting paper and discussion on Athletics for Women, at the last meeting of Acton Woman's Institute, a small number of ladies in town have seen the book last Thursday afternoon in connection with the annual Royal Household competition.

Harvest Festival at St. Alban's

The harvest festival services at St. Alban's Church are being anticipated with much interest by the congregation. The week-night service will be held this evening and the church is being beautifully decorated with fruit and flowers, vegetables and grain for the occasion.

Archdeacon George Forrest

The harvest festival services at St. Alban's Church are being anticipated with much interest by the congregation. The week-night service will be held this evening and the church is being beautifully decorated with fruit and flowers, vegetables and grain for the occasion.

Successful Rally Day Service

The Rally Day and review service in the Methodist Sunday School last Saturday afternoon was a most interesting and gratifyingly successful. An added interest in Archdeacon Forrest's visit is the fact mentioned in the Prize Puffus Twenty Years Ago column two weeks ago that he preached the harvest festival sermon in September, 1888, during the incumbency of the late Rev. George B. Cooke. Rev. Mr. Kellman will preach harvest sermons next Sunday and the choir will continue with their special music.

Harvest Festival at St. Alban's

The harvest festival services at St. Alban's Church are being anticipated with much interest by the congregation. The week-night service will be held this evening and the church is being beautifully decorated with fruit and flowers, vegetables and grain for the occasion.

The new link fence of Brown's Drug Store is well under way.

High School Concert next Monday evening.

The walls of Mr. John H. Watson's new concert hall house on Main Street were completed last week.

An interesting congregational reunion will be held in the Methodstel School room next Thursday evening, 8th Inst.

Mr. James H. Reid who sustained a serious fall in the aisle at Mr. Robert Johnson's farm, is gradually recovering.

Mr. John Cameron's pretty new bungalow on Main Street is being pushed toward completion. It's artistic design is well calculated.

The two sets of boxers went to Guelph Saturday night last Thursday afternoon. The home team was victorious by three points.

Owing to the Children's Day service next Sunday evening in Knox Church the Sunday School in the afternoon will be withdrawn.

J. Deltz, of the Imperial Hotel, Guelph, and Joseph Ziegler, of the Four Corners, were each fined $20 and costs last week for adulterating whisky.

Rev. E. W. Parsons, B. A., will preach in the United Church next Sunday at 10 o'clock. Prof. Farmer, of Macdonald University will preach on October 3rd.

Some of our streets and some vacant lots are still illegally decorated with noxious weeds and other rank growth. Someone is neglecting a very manifest duty.

That new barn erected on Willow

Street, a few feet from a neighbor's front door, is not winning for the builder the unqualified approval and esteem of citizens.

Moore, Beardmore & Co., recently purchased the Burns farm, adjoining their other property. This is the farm Mr. Archibald Marion had leased for many years.

Please examine the label on Prince

Puffus. If not renewed kindly give me your order for renewal of your subscription. A prompt response will be greatly appreciated.

The transformation of the old

Methodist Church into two very comfortable houses has been about completed by Contractor Mackenzie for Mr. John Watson.

A complete new set of water tanks was installed in the stone belfry used in the heating system of the Methodist Church, now in the King Construction Co., of Toronto.

A Naval correspondent writes that Gladys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Humphries, fell off the delivery wagon of W. G. Simonds last Thursday evening and broke her collar bone.

The county stone crusher was moved from its location on the first line to Duncan McDougall's farm on the second line on Tuesday.

Stone will be crushed there for the place of road graded last summer.

R. W. Grace, butcher, is figuring on cutting off the feet of his building back to the main entrance and building a new infill and plate glass front.

The whole of the first floor will then be utilized as a meat shop.

The street crossings still await the attention of the municipal officers.

Some of the Church Street crossings are covered with three or four layers of fine dust which many pedestrians are obliged to wade through.

Mr. Gordon Hayward has purchased from Mrs. James Piriehouse her house and lot on Flower Avenue which has been his home for years.

Hayward's friends are very pleased to see him continue possession of this tidy property.

A somewhat painful accident befell

Berle Garvin, clerk in Nixon's Drug Store, on Monday, when a particle of a chemical he was working with fell into a mortor flew into his eye.

The eye was slightly burned but it is likely to be all right in a few days.