BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

—Let everybody give thanks.

—Thanksgiving next Monday.

—Milton is likely to have a moving picture theatorium.

—The street crossings will stand cleaning again now.

—There was a brilliant display of aurora borealis on Monday night.

—Mr. Joseph Lasby has purchased the residence of the Misses Graham Bower Avenue.

—Dollar wheat is here again. That price has been paid on the market here during the week.

—Single fare over the railways for Thanksgiving, good from Friday until Wednesday, 27th inst.

—His Honor Judge Gorham will be in town on Saturday to finally revise the Voters' List for Acton.

—Acton citizens went to Erin Fall Fair last Friday in large numbers. It was as usual a great success.

—E. B. Geer has purchased the farm in Nassagaweya belonging to the estate of the late Duncan Taylor.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Thurtell has sold her house on Main Street to Mr. David Ross, of Esquesing. The price paid was $700.

—Guelph Road Race Association has arranged a very attractive programme of races for the afternoon and evening of Thanksgiving Day.

—A by-law to provide $5,000 for water-works extension at Galt was defeated at the polls on Monday by a vote of 84 for to 98 against.

—Frank Blanchard, Appleby, won the PRESS' special prize at the County Fair for the best map of Halton by a public school pupil.

—Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., is soliciting subscriptions this week from the congregations of Rockwood and Eden Mills in aid of Knox College.

Mr. W. D. Anderson's new brick house on Bower Avenue is nearing completion. Mr. Anderson intends occupying the new building himself.

—Noble's elevator was broken into last Thursday evening but none of the contents appear to have been disturbed. A tell-tale gauntlet was left behind by the burglar.

—Miss Dobble, assistant in the continuation school at Milton, and who applied for the position at Acton, has secured the principalship of the public school at Southampton.

—Revs. J. C. Wilson and J. R. Dodds, of Rockwood, exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning. Mr. Dodds' sermon in Knox Church was an impressive and helpful discourse.

—Rev W. G. Wilson, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Guelph, who was given a call to be assistant to Rev. Dr. Milligan, of Old St. Andrews, Toronto, has decided to remain in Guelph.

—Notwithstanding the numerous houses erected the past summer Acton still has a house famine. Enquiries are being made every day for houses by families desiring to settle in town.

—At the meeting of the Council on Monday evening Rev. J. Cooper Antliff, D. D., was appointed to the vacancy on the Free Library Board caused by the removal of Rev. G. W. Barker.

—There is no way of improving a place so much as by encouraging good merchants, good schools and good people to settle among you and this can not be done unless you spend your money at home.

—Mr. J. H. Mackenzie has carpenters at work converting the old Adams homestead, which he recently moved from the corner of Church and Main Streets, to a lot next Mrs. Mackinnon's, into a double house.

—At a meeting of Acton Branch of the Lord's Day Alliance last week Dr. A. L. Hare, secretary, tendered his resignation owing to his removal from Acton. Mr. W. S. Chisholm, manager Merchants Bank, was elected to fill the vacancy.

—The beautiful plants and flowers which adorned so many of our lawns and homes this summer and which escaped serious injury from frost until this week, were irretrievably cut down by the heavy frosts of Monday and Tuesday nights.

—It will pay every man who will need a buggy, implement or machine of any kind before next May to read my advertisement in another column and if you need roofing or wire fence or a stove of any kind, look this way for best possible values. G. A. BLACK Mill St., Acton.

"The D. & L." Emulsion will build you up, will make you fat and healthy. Especially beneficial to those who are "all run down."

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT

Just Like the Farmer's Crops

An advertisement is to a merchant very much what sowing seed is to the farmer. It may take a little time for the results to become apparent, but they are sure to come. The wise farmer is not niggardly with his seed, nor the wise merchant with his advertisement.

Thumb Gashed with Circular Saw

While working with a circular saw at the Acton Tanning Company's shops on Tuesday afternoon, James Wilson had the misfortune to have his right thumb come in contact with the saw. It was very severely gashed into the bone but the surgeon hopes to save the injured member from amputation.

Evangelist Gale at Brampton

The union special services held for three weeks in Guelph by Evangelists Gale and Hatch were concluded last Friday evening. The services were characterized with very marked success. All the protestant churches will be built up and quickened in spiritual life. The evangelists, with Professor Collison, the leader of the music, left Guelph for Brampton, where they are now conducting evangelistic services.

Promoted with Increased Salary

Mr. A. E. Matthews, of Denver, Col., son of Postmaster Matthews, who has been filling a position with the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company for a number of years, has been promoted to the very responsible position of Manager of Credits and Collections of the Company. The new situation carries with it an increase of $500 per annum in salary. The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company did a business last year of $25,000,000.

Badly Burned at Milton

Last Wednesday night, at about eleven o'clock, as Chas. E. Galloway was going downstairs to the cellar at his home on West Mary Street, carrying a lamp he tripped and fell. The lamp broke and burning oil ran over his right hand and arm, up to his shoulder and face. He was slightly dazed by the fall and his burns are the worse on that account. His hand suffered most, so badly that he is likely to lose the nails from both fingers and thumb.—Champion.

A Great Convention at Hand

The annual convention of of Ontario Sunday School Association will be held in West Toronto on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. There will be such speakers as Mr. N. W. Rowell, Rev. Canon Cody, Hon. A. B. Morine, Toronto; many expert workers from different parts of the province; Mrs. M. S. Lamoreaux, Chicago; Rev. Dr. McElfresh, International Teacher Training Superintendent; Mr. Walter M. Wood, General Secretary Y. M. C. A., Philadelphia; and a host of delegates. Two things specially emphasized this year are Missions and Adult Bible Class work. The great convention is so near to the schools of this vicinity that large delegations of Sunday School workers should embrace the opportunity of attending.

An Interesting Debate

The debate in the Epworth League on Tuesday evening on the topic: "Resolved that the characteristics of the Irish are more praiseworthy than those of the Scotch," created a very keen interest. As a result the attendance was unusually large, and enlarged numbers of young people and others who are not members of the League. Miss Edith Nicklin championed the side of the Irish and was ably supported by Misses Minnie Nelson and Bertie Smith. The Scotch were upheld by such well-known Scotchmen(?) as Messrs. Nelson Bauer, A. T. Brown and C. A. G. Matthews. All these young debators did exceedingly well. Their speeches and the arguments advanced gave evidence of wide reading and careful study. The young ladies manifested a freedom of delivery, however, which was not so characteristic of the gentlemen. The judges were Rev. Dr. Antliff, J. S. Coleman and H. P. Moore. In summing up they found that the preponderence of argument was presented by the affirmative side.

Knox Church Thanksgiving Tea

The annual Thanksgiving tea and entertainment to be given by Knox Church Ladies' Aid Society next Monday evening will be an occasion of genuine pleasure. For the musical section of the programme the Temple Male Quartette, of Toronto, has been engaged. The quartette is composed of Mr. R. A. Shaw, first tenor; Mr. J. E. Fiddes, second tenor; Mr. Geo. C. McIntyre, baritone; Jas. R. Milne, basso. Every member of the quartette is a specialist, and all hold solo positions in prominent churches in the city. Their repertoire will include a choice number of selections. Brief addresses will be delivered by Revs. A. Hair, B. A., Nassagaweya, Dr. Antliff and R. F. Kelleman. The serving of the Thanksgiving tea will occupy from six to eight o'clock, and the chair will be taken by the pastor promptly at eight.

Union Thanksgiving Service

A Union Thanksgiving Service will be held in the Methodist Church next Monday morning. Thanksgiving Day—at 11 o'clock. Brief thanksgiving addresses will be given by Rev. Dr. Antliff and Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A. An offering will be taken for the local poor fund.

What an Expert Thinks

Mr. C. Carey, the editor and publisher of the Yarmouth Light, Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, who has been reading the FREE PRESS for the past twenty years, says: "Your excellent Journal is received regularly and I consider it the best printed, cleanest family newspaper on my exchange list."

Milton People Liked Acton Fall Fair

Many Miltonians attended the Fall Fair at Acton on the 6th inst. They report that it was a success. The weather was beautiful and the attendance was very large, $520 being received at the gate. The show of horses was the best ever seen at an Esquesing fair and that of other live stock and poultry was excellent. The hall was well filled with well arranged exhibits.—Champion.

Don't be a Kicker, "Saw Wood"

If you are a kicker and see the shadows of failure in everything that is proposed to help the town, for goodness' sake go into some secluded canyon and kick your own shadow on the clay bank, and give the men who are working to build up the town a chance. One long-faced, whining, carping, chronic kicker can do more to keep away business and capital from a town than all the drouths, short crops, chinch bugs and blizzards combined.

King's Orderlies Pie Social

A somewhat unique but very enjoyable function was held last evening by the members of the King's Orderlies Bible Class in the Methodist School room. It was a pie social where pie, sandwiches and coffee were the chief items of the menu, which was served by the young men, without any lady assistants. The culinary section gave ample manifestation that some at least of the members of the class are quite capable of "keeping batch." An interesting feature of the evening's proceedings was a splendid address by Rev. Dr. Antliff, the pastor on "Some places I have visited and some men I have seen." A number of musical selections were also given by the members. The proceedings were under the direction of Mr. Nelson Bauer, the energetic president of the class.

Don't Ask for Goods on Sunday

In another column Messrs. Woodhall & McKay request that none of their customers ask them to supply goods on Sunday. They state that for the obligement of customers they have been giving out goods on that day, but advertise that they will not continue the practice. Owing to the well-known good nature of the members of this firm a number of thoughtless customers were served when requested. The violation of the Lord's Day Act grew more flagrant and complaint was made to the Lord's Day Alliance. When attention was called to the matter Messrs. Woodhall & McKay at once agreed to refuse all further requests and advertised the fact to their customers. For the information of any persons who may not understand the statute of the Dominion Parliament respecting this matter, the following section governing it is given: "It shall not be lawful for any person on the Lord's Day to sell or offer for sale or purchase any goods, chattels or other personal property or any real estate, or carry on or transact any business of his ordinary calling, or employ any other person to do on that day any work, business or labor, excepting only in cases of 'work of necessity and mercy,'" and the meaning of this term is carefully defined.

A COSMOPOLITAN STORE

The Right House, Hamilton, to be Greatly Enlarged

In connection with the growth of the business of the Right House, Hamilton, and the erection of the new six story building in rear of the present store, a very important and advantageous arrangement has been entered into whereby the Thomas C. Watkins' business becomes closely identified with the organization operating the celebrated McCreery stores in New York, the Wm. Hengerer and J. N. Adams stores in Buffalo, and the large and beautiful store in Pittsburg, with permanent buying offices in Paris, London, Manchester and other European centres, as well as New York.

The advantages of these connections and close relationship will be found in the purchasing power, enabling the Right House to buy goods still more cheaply as well as to receive and carry as up-to-date lines as are found in the above-mentioned stores, which are well-known to all who visit New York, Pittsburg and Buffalo. The personnel of the business of the Right House will remain much the same. Thomas W. Watkins will still be interested in the growth of the business, Reginald Watkins has been appointed vice-president and Ernest Watkins also remains actively identified with the new organization. The business will continue uninterrupted, and the policy of the new organization will be along the same lines that have made this up-to-date store so widely known for excellent and reliable goods.

The large new six-story annex will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible, and if needed, two new floors will be added to the present store. The arrangement of the new and present store will be on a scale most up-to-date.

One feature of several spoken of will be a mezanine gallery and rest room, with writing accommodation, lavatories, etc., seventy feet across the end of the new store, and will be much appreciated by the shopper. An auditorium and assembly room free for convention and meeting purposes is being planned, and, altogether, one of the most up-to-date dry goods establishments on the continent will soon be in Hamilton.—Hamilton Spectator.

STEWARTTOWN HOTEL BURNED

Also Alex. Bailey's House—the Hotel was Built 66 Years Ago

On Thursday morning the 7th inst. the hotel at Stewarttown was totally destroyed by fire. The fire started about 2 a. m. and having made considerable headway before being discovered the frame premises were completely destroyed with the contents.

The dwelling on the adjoining lot, owned by B. Hill, of Clinton, and occupied by Alex. Bailey, was also burned to the ground. Mr. Bailey's effects were saved.

The residence of Mr. J. A. Tracy had a narrow escape, the roof being ignited several times.

The hotel was built in 1811 by Col. Clay and Mr. Tracy Sr., the contractor being Caleb Griffin, and was first occupied by Alex. McKenzie, followed by D. Lindsay, Gus. Ryan, Geo. Whaley, Jas. Hull and P. Dundas in the old days. The township council meetings were hold there till 1870.

A SHOW OF
STYLISH FALL FURS

THE success of popular approval has been stamped on the display of Fall Furs. Many interested style seekers, of economy wise value hunters crowded our show rooms all this week and then and there demonstrated their delight with our choice offerings.

It was entirely involuntary and certainly merited. This display speaks forcibly as to what would be most favored by fashionable women.

We want you to visit our Fur Department to-morrow or the next day and inspect the assortment, while it is yet large and complete. You will find the goods displayed on the 2nd floor; also in the windows.

Qualities are top-notch and values, too, are remarkably high.

FUR LINED COATS, 48 and 50 inches long, in black, navy and green.

The Right House
Hamilton's Favorite Shopping Place
RE-ORGANIZATION
A re-organization of this old-established business is going on. We have just become another link in the chain of great stores which is known as the strongest organization of merchandising associations in the world, and through which THE RIGHT HOUSE becomes immediately identified with the famous James McCreery & Co. stores in New York and the Wm. Hengerer Co. store in Buffalo.
This is a great thing for the shopping public of Hamilton and vicinity. It means greater purchasing power to THE RIGHT HOUSE. The organization's foreign buying offices in Paris, London and other European cities, and in New York, will secure for our customers the very latest novelties in approved styles and exclusive merchandise, and all purchased direct from the great manufacturers of the world at lowest cost. Direct to the fountain head of production we can now go, which in many cases would have been heretofore impossible for one store alone.
The policy of THE RIGHT HOUSE in handling only reliable goods and giving of individual care to the purchasing of merchandise shall, as in the past, be carefully safeguarded. The personal tastes and wants of our customers, so well known to us, will, as in the past, receive the same individual attention.
The advantages of our new close connection with the best organization of dry goods stores will soon become apparent to all—a bigger, better RIGHT HOUSE is our aim.
Meanwhile we ask the public to be patient with any little inconveniences they may possibly be put to during our stock-taking, which is now rapidly nearing completion.
