St. Alban's Minatrel Show The minetrel show given in the town hall on Tuesday evenlog, artistically at least, may be called a great ruccess. The whole entertainment showed careful preparation with especial attention to detail. The solos were carefully rendered and the charmos sung with a unanlinity which showed marked attention to direction and training. The jokes were carefully enunciated and could be distinctly heard. If would be hard to say what were the special features or which was the best number, as the programme was so varied in its selection. Mr. Durston's "Old Black Joo" and "Old Folks at Home" wore very well received, oncores being demanded to both songs. Miss Mamle Masales visited friends Mr. Littley's "If the Man in the Moon were a Coon" was also well received. Mrs. D. McMurchy and Miss Lily Mr. Littley's voice has a peculiar mellow and soft quality which is unusually Mrs. (Dr.) Dryden, of Quelph, visited attractive in a bass. Mr. Barnes in his "Georgia" and "Waltz Me Around Again Willio" showed to advantage his rare voice, which combines the quality and beauty of a woman's with the strength and vigor of a man's. Mr. Nutley's "Won't You be My Honey" was received with onthusiani. His voice showed to advantage in the large hall. Mr. Nutley also has considerable dramatic talent. Mr. Daniels' "Massa's in do Cold, Cold Ground" and "Down Where the Watermelone Grow" were well sung and as well received. Mr. Stock's "My Gal Ireno" received an oration. It was one of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Brown and Miss those rollicking, merry songs with a rousing chorus, which simply brings Miss Alice Kelth, of Guelph, visit- down the house.
