

A Complete Stock

Hair Brushes, Tooth Brushes, Fine Combs, Dressing Combs, Back and Side Combs, Hair Pins in Shell and Wire. Call in when you need any of the above. Our Prices are Low.

GEO. HYNDSON, 1000 BAY ST. TORONTO, ONT. MAIL ORDER BUSINESS ISSUED

A Woman Wants The Home Paper

MAKE HER HAPPY BY TAKING IT THE YEAR ROUND The Acton Free Press

STORE NEWS

"Sold on 30 days free trial" These are the terms we give on every

CARBO-MAGNETIC RAZOR

Every razor is electrically tempered and hollow ground to give the peculiar wear and will hold its edge for years without honing.

PRICE $2.00

R. F. Johnstone

The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1930

BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

Still snows every day, or so, for a change.

Watch for the overhanging icicles these coming days.

Dogs in town are being un-leashed now as required by law.

The winter roads have seldom been in worse condition than they are now.

A few inches more have been added to the depth of snow the past week.

The next sitting of the Division Court here will be held on Thursday, 10th March.

Mr. James Rath received the sad news of the death of his mother last Sunday at Dundalk.

The Young Ladies' at Home at the town hall last Thursday evening was largely attended.

Clear off your roofs. There is an immense weight of snow on some of the low-pitched roofs.

Bob Cook, the Orangeville desperado, has been sent to Kingston Penitentiary for two years.

The anniversary will be held at the Methodist Church next Sunday. Rev. Dr. Antill will preach.

Mr. Martin Murphy has sold, through W. H. Donny, his property on Arthur Street to Mrs. Elizabeth Dwyer.

Rev. Mr. Bishop of Toronto will deliver an address to the Y. P. A. of Knox Church, next Thursday evening, March 8th.

The apprehension of the losses on the Acton House has not yet been satisfactorily adjusted by the insurance companies interested.

Rev. George Clark, Ph. D., of Georgetown, preached carefully prepared and impressive sermons in the Methodist Church last Sunday.

Mayor Johnson has issued his proclamation re-muzzling of dogs, in accordance with instructions issued from Ottawa.

At the last meeting of Nassauville Township Council Major Beattie, of Campbellville, was appointed Clerk and ex-Reverend Mallon, Treasurer.

Mr. Alex. Joe has purchased the Duncan Kelly farm on the second line, Highway, and will add this fine property to his farm adjoining on the first line.

In answer to a question at the Dominion Alliance Convention at Toronto last week Provincial Inspector Ayscarr replied in the negative to the allegation that there was more bottle drinking where Local Option was in force.

Mr. Jeremiah Bull, Nassauville, has sold his farm and will sell his stock and implements by auction next Thursday, 27th March. Mr. Hill is the auctioneer. Mr. Hill is in his new residence on Church Street, built last autumn.

His Grace Archbishop McMoran formally opened the new Holy Family Catholic Church at Brampton on Sunday morning. The church is built of brick and interior finished in natural wood and presents a very attractive appearance.

On St. Valentine's night Mrs. George F. Cox, Linthouse, entertained a number of her young friends in honor of the day. A pleasant time was spent. Supper was served at the beginning of the night, after which the guests paid a visit to St. Valentine's well where the God of love bestowed gifts on each, after which all went home delighted.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT

Another Lecture by Prof. Reynolds. The Shakespeare Club has arranged for a lecture by Prof. J. B. Reynolds, of Guelph, on the play "As You Like It" on Friday evening, 14th March, in the Methodist Church, Guelph. This will be Prof. Reynolds' third lecture here on Shakespearean plays. The previous ones have been most edifying and instructive and the members of the club are looking forward to the coming event with pleasure.

Mr. A. J. Johnson, of the Dominion Hotel, called at the Press on Monday to explain to the editor of the "Globe" the reasons for the "Globe" being put in this week.

At the home of the bride's aunt, Miss H. A. Gordon, on Wednesday, February 20th, the marriage of Anne A. McDonald and Frederick A. Williamson, was conducted by Rev. J. C. Wilson, D. A. Unattended the bride and groom took their places in the drawing-room with Miss Margaret McDonald, sister of the bride, played the wedding music. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Williamson left on the evening train for Stratford and Utterton. They will reside in Toronto.

Met Harry Lauder in Chicago. The Chicago Times-Courier says: "Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lauder met a good many Scotch friends socially during their stay here, and were entertained at an end of luncheon. One pretty girl from Acton, province of Ontario, by the name of Miss Lishman, happened to meet the Canadian one evening and the dialect between them flew fast and in most friendly fashion. Both are so typically Scotch that their friends who happened to be present in Chicago as much as they did." Miss Lishman is a nurse in Chicago.

Will be Rich Mining Property. A meeting of the shareholders of the Hewitt Gowanda Mining Company was held in Guelph on Wednesday, 19th day. Sheriff Webster, of Milton, occupied the chair, and Mr. W. S. Chisholm, was Secretary. Very encouraging reports of the progress and prospects of the mine were given by the secretary.

Death of Peter Mann. The news reached his father and other friends here last Wednesday of the sudden death of Peter Mann, at his home in Orillia, from pneumonia. A later despatch told of his death. The remains were brought to Acton and the funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, from his father's home, at the residence of Rev. J. C. Wilson, D. A., officiating. Peter Mann was the son of Ronald Mann, and spent his boyhood and early manhood in Acton, about twenty-five years ago he settled in Orillia where he was engaged in a market garden. He was a member of the Brethren and quite active in Christian effort. During the recent Local Option campaign in Orillia, he was one of the most aggressive workers.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

Lost Their Dear Little Daughter. Wednesday morning, February 14th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, 318 North Perry St., Johnston, N. Y., occurred the death of their little daughter, Edith Chisholm, aged two years and seven months. She had been sick but a few days with croup, and notwithstanding all their human aid could do, she peacefully passed away. She was one of the sweetest of children and loved by all who knew her.

This Infraction was Punished

Magistrate's decision in the case of the Hon. St. Uther's, was on Monday. The fifty dollars and costs for a breach of the liquor license act. A week ago Saturday a boarder ordered a dozen bottles of beer sent to his room. These were consumed at a table by a number of men, only one of whom was a regular boarder. A discharged employee informed the police and the charge followed. The Magistrate held that the law was to prevent the illegal sale or consumption of liquor, and that he has no alternative but to impose the fine prescribed.

Another New Firm For Job Dept. In November the Press Press installed one of the fine Golding Jobbers, manufactured by the Golding Printing Press Manufacturers, Hamilton, Mass. This press has proven so satisfactory, and the demands upon us for fine job printing have continued to grow rapidly, we decided to introduce another press of this famous firm's manufacture. It has just been put in a Golding Jobber, which has arrived and is in running order. It is a really little press, with all the latest improvements, including steam cylinders, patent belt drive and counter, etc., and has a capacity of over 2,000 impressions per hour. The Press Press has now one of the best equipped printing offices in the country.

The Lord's Day Alliance. A meeting under the auspices of Acton Branch of the Lord's Day Alliance was held in the Baptist Church last Thursday evening. Rev. W. G. Hann, D. A., General Secretary for Ontario, delivered a highly interesting and informational address on the Lord's Day Act of the Dominion of Pennsylvania, and the Lord's Day Alliance and its work. Mr. Hann showed that through the efforts of the Alliance thousands of men and women throughout the Dominion, who through the greed of men on the part of their employers, were forced to work on Sundays, are now enjoying a weekly rest day, and are blessing the Alliance for its efforts in their behalf. Mr. W. J. Chapman, President of the Acton Branch, occupied the chair.

Another Acton Boy Climbing Upward. The Western Outlook, of Winnipeg, gives the following interesting information in its last issue: "The Board of Health College has appointed Mr. H. J. Kennedy, of Winnipeg, Business Director of that institution. Mr. Kennedy is no stranger in the West, having been here for eleven years. He is an Ontario man by birth, born in Acton, of Scotch parentage. After graduation at the Guelph College, he entered the business life in the city of Guelph. From there he took charge of a business in Pitt, Mich., and from Michigan came to Winnipeg. For the past six and a half years he has been in charge of the business of the Western Outlook in Winnipeg. He is a man of high character and high ability, and his appointment to the position is a great credit to the Board of Health College."

Misses Daisy and Gwendolyn Campbell, of West Toronto, came to spend some holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Campbell, but were called home very suddenly owing to the death, from appendicitis, of their uncle, Mr. McCall.

Dr. Robertson has not yet fully recovered from his recent attack of la grippe. He was taken ill at the morning service at Knox Church last Sunday and, in consequence, Rev. W. M. Mackay officiated at the congregation. We are happy to say that, though rather alarming, Dr. Robertson's illness was not really serious.

Don't let an unscrupulous dealer force on you an imitation of the "D. & I." Menthol Plaster. Look for the "D. & I." trade-mark on the tin. It guarantees the genuine and the most effective remedy for Rheumatic aches, neuralgic pains, Lumbago, Sciatica, Backache, etc. 25c each. Yard rolls equaling seven of the regular size $1.00.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR INDIGESTION. If you have indigestion, your food ferments in the stomach and bowels. It does more to decay, and the nutritious matter which should go to make new blood decays with it, and this leads to an unhealthy condition of the blood, to nervousness, biliousness, constipation, sick headache, bad breath which disgusts your friends, and other disagreeable and unpleasant conditions.

And all this trouble is caused by the food that doesn't digest, but ferments and offends rote in the stomach. And fermentation is caused by the stomach not being strong enough and energetic enough to thoroughly mix the food with the digestive juices.

M-I-O-N-A is responsible for tens of thousands of cures. In fact, it is such a positive cure for indigestion and all stomach troubles that it is guaranteed by the manufacturer to cure or money back. The price of a large box of M-I-O-N-A tablets is 50 cents, and they are sure to promptly relieve the worst case of indigestion or gastritis. Try them.

6000 FACTS ABOUT CANADA. The public will warmly welcome the new 1000 edition of that indispensable booklet, "6000 Facts About Canada," compiled by Frank Veitch, whose writings and lectures on Canada are widely known. The popularity of this publication is shown by its sale of nearly 50,000 copies, not only in Canada, but throughout the Empire and indeed the world. The 1000 edition contains a large percentage of new matter. The book is a revelation of the riches and resources of the Dominion. 35 cents a copy by The Canadian Facts Publishing Co., 507 Spadina Ave., Toronto, Canada.

Convalscents from feverish conditions that have kept them bed-ridden for some time and all people run-down by illness generally will find a course of treatment with Ferrovin, the invigorating tonic, just the thing to put them on their feet again in good shape. Ferrovin is composed of fresh iron salt, Glucose of Iron and pure old brandy Sherry Wine. $1.00 per bottle.

Thursday night, March 23d, Mrs. J. J. Allen, of the Hotel, will be at the Dominion Hotel, Acton, House 12 to 4:30 p. m.

Guaranteed Full Weight

"SALADA" Tea is weighed by electric weighing machines. The net weight is printed on every package. We absolutely guarantee it to contain full weight without the lead covering. Have your grocer empty a package and weigh it for you.

Sealed "SALADA" Packets guarantee full weight and are unequalled for goodness, freshness and fine flavour.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Margaret Barry has taken a position in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williamson with home from Toronto over Sunday.

Mr. James FitzGerald, of Toronto, spent the week with Acton friends.

Principal Stewart has been laid up this week with an attack of grippe.

Mr. J. P. Scarran and family expect to return to Hull, England, next month.

Miss Lena Hayward, Myrtle McGeigh and Beale Gooch are attending the military openings in Toronto.

Mrs. Edward Couch and Mrs. Samuel Hayson, of Brampton, visited friends in Acton and vicinity, during the week.

Miss James Moffat and Miss Moffat, who have been spending a couple of months in Toronto, returned home on Tuesday.

Mr. Adolph Bauer, of Kikton, Mich., visited at the house of his brother, Mr. Adam Bauer, Buck Street, last week.

Mrs. Dacan is in Ingersoll, called there by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Stearns, who is not expected to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gurney, Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. David Mills, Opeongo, and Mrs. McNally, of Guelph, were here last week attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Robert Mills.

Rev. J. O. Antill, Mr. A. H. Rev. Dr. J. O. Antill and Mrs. Antill, Mr. J. S. Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Moore attended the convention of the Dominion Alliance at Toronto last week.

Misses Daisy and Gwendolyn Campbell, of West Toronto, came to spend some holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Campbell, but were called home very suddenly owing to the death, from appendicitis, of their uncle, Mr. McCall.

Dr. Robertson has not yet fully recovered from his recent attack of la grippe. He was taken ill at the morning service at Knox Church last Sunday and, in consequence, Rev. W. M. Mackay officiated at the congregation. We are happy to say that, though rather alarming, Dr. Robertson's illness was not really serious.

Don't let an unscrupulous dealer force on you an imitation of the "D. & I." Menthol Plaster. Look for the "D. & I." trade-mark on the tin. It guarantees the genuine and the most effective remedy for Rheumatic aches, neuralgic pains, Lumbago, Sciatica, Backache, etc. 25c each. Yard rolls equaling seven of the regular size $1.00.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR INDIGESTION. If you have indigestion, your food ferments in the stomach and bowels. It does more to decay, and the nutritious matter which should go to make new blood decays with it, and this leads to an unhealthy condition of the blood, to nervousness, biliousness, constipation, sick headache, bad breath which disgusts your friends, and other disagreeable and unpleasant conditions.

And all this trouble is caused by the food that doesn't digest, but ferments and offends rote in the stomach. And fermentation is caused by the stomach not being strong enough and energetic enough to thoroughly mix the food with the digestive juices.

M-I-O-N-A is responsible for tens of thousands of cures. In fact, it is such a positive cure for indigestion and all stomach troubles that it is guaranteed by the manufacturer to cure or money back. The price of a large box of M-I-O-N-A tablets is 50 cents, and they are sure to promptly relieve the worst case of indigestion or gastritis. Try them.

6000 FACTS ABOUT CANADA. The public will warmly welcome the new 1000 edition of that indispensable booklet, "6000 Facts About Canada," compiled by Frank Veitch, whose writings and lectures on Canada are widely known. The popularity of this publication is shown by its sale of nearly 50,000 copies, not only in Canada, but throughout the Empire and indeed the world. The 1000 edition contains a large percentage of new matter. The book is a revelation of the riches and resources of the Dominion. 35 cents a copy by The Canadian Facts Publishing Co., 507 Spadina Ave., Toronto, Canada.

Convalscents from feverish conditions that have kept them bed-ridden for some time and all people run-down by illness generally will find a course of treatment with Ferrovin, the invigorating tonic, just the thing to put them on their feet again in good shape. Ferrovin is composed of fresh iron salt, Glucose of Iron and pure old brandy Sherry Wine. $1.00 per bottle.

Thursday night, March 23d, Mrs. J. J. Allen, of the Hotel, will be at the Dominion Hotel, Acton, House 12 to 4:30 p. m.

SPRING GOODS in Gladsome Array

New Dress Fabrics, Dress Trimmings, Wearings and Millinery Have Filled This Store to the Overflowing

Once again this store presents its annual Spring showing of merchandise gathered from all quarters of the world - new fabrics from across the sea, trimmings from Paris, millinery lined with the influence of France, and wearings which reflect the new Russian effects. Everything necessary to correct appearing for Spring and the coming Summer are here, such in beauty of Spring time itself. Brightly colored cotton fabrics with the deeper toned woolsens, and exquisite headwear just waiting to enchant every onlooker.

Come and supply your needs from the vast assemblage of the new season's needs. It is the greatest array we have ever presented, and added to the charm of their beauty is a price alluringness that will win you at once.

The New Wall Paper