A LITTLE CHILD

In a railway station a little child sat by his mother. He held a big apple in his hand...

"Please give me one apple, son." "No, I can't spare it." "And the child looked at the mother...

"Well," said the father in mock pleading, "give me just a bite of this one." "And he held out his hand as though he really wanted it and expected it..."

"Say, I can't afford to give you any more of the apples," said the father, "I can't afford it."

Thus the little child was being taught selfishness by those who loved him. Neither the father nor the mother was aware of what was said to the child but the little one thought "Why-ay." One apple would have been quite enough for the lad, and far more than he held really out. Here was a fine opportunity to teach unselfishness to the child...

Later the lad was stuffing himself with apples and bananas. Selfishness and probable sickness. A poor way to show love for a dear child.

It also is intended that the parents shall learn from the children: to be made better, more patient, tender, sympathetic, loving—more like him who loved little children. How dull, how slow, we often are to learn of them.

Blood Was Bad. From impure blood comes Pimples, Boils, Ulcers, Tumors, Abscesses, Freckling, Itching, Rash, Constipation, Headaches, etc.

Get pure blood and keep it pure by removing every trace of impure material from the system by using BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

Mrs. Fred Higgs, Kingston, Ont., writes: "I was completely run down, my blood was out of order, and I used to get so weak I could not get up in bed for weeks at a time..."

When a woman realizes that she is likely always to be people talking about her mental ability. Hope for the Chronic Dyspeptic.—Through lack of consideration of the body's needs many persons allow disorders of the digestive apparatus to continue until they become chronic...

Life's burdens are light when the heart is young. Those who are physically ruined before they are spiritually restored.

It is sometimes difficult to distinguish between a sympathetic person and a curious one. It is easier to prevent than it is to cure. Insanitary diet, neglected colds, and once it finds a lodgement in the system it is difficult to deal with.

The crooked man seldom squares accounts. Think quickly, act promptly, and ask no questions.

Avoid alcoholic and capsaicin tonics which burn hair and scalp. Use Bearine, a hair's grease pomade, which feeds the roots and makes hair grow.

The power of endurance lies in the conservation of energy. Heaven will have to be mighty wise to make up for all that we had to stand for in this world.

Be careful of the Farm.—Heavy former stock raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil on hand, not only as ready remedy for ills in the family, but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency.
