

MEMORIAL SERVICES TO THE KING. Impressive Words Spoken by Ministers and Citizens on King Edward's Funeral Day.

REVERENT, LOYAL, HEROIC. With the most impressive of Church services and the loyal gathering of citizens on a most Acton here tribute to the memory of the beloved King Edward VII, the "Peace-maker," last Friday, Nov. 20, the death of the revered and much loved Queen Victoria had been the subject of the day.

At 10.30 in the forenoon, Rev. R. E. Kellerman, R. A., rector of St. Alban's Church, led a memorial service in the town hall, and the beautiful and touching service of the Church of England, in an appropriate sermon from Matt. 23, 11: "He that is greatest among you shall be your servant."
