Friday and Tasty Picnic Luncheon

At the meeting of the Women's Institute last Friday afternoon Miss Black, Domestic Science teacher at Ottawa, gave a very interesting demonstration on picnic luncheon. Miss Black skillfully connected stuffed eggs, ribbon sandwiches, and different kinds of salad, explaining and demonstrating the methods as the work progressed. New ideas in the preparation of picnic lunches, etc., were given and the ladies present appreciated very much Miss Black's splendid address.

A thrilling story by E. J. Moore, B.A., Toronto, "The Ark of the Edith M." is given the place of honor in the current week's issue of the "Youth's Companion," of Boston, Mass. It is a story of the rescue of a shipwrecked crew of a big coal schooner off the Prince Edward Island coast near Huelo, and is aptly illustrated by H. Burgess. Mr. Moore's magazine work is receiving considerable recognition. He completed a story of a shipwrecked crew of the Prince Edward more than a decade ago. F. Company off to Camp.

F. Company, 29th Regt. Halton Rifles, paraded from the park to the G. T. H. station on Tuesday morning to participate in the annual parade camp at Niagara. Capt.
