CAUSE AND EFFECT

Habitats and Withdrawals
A pleasurable pastime;
And a peaceful down
With a quiet journey.
Then later on, there comes to him A very common question: How would it be if that he Contracted Indigestion.

Coburn Giant Talks.

"What is shyness, ma?" "It's a man's cash surrender value."

Teacher: "Tell me a few of the most important things existing today which did not exist a hundred years ago." Thomas: "Growth."

"I hear you are having trouble in meeting your creditors." "Trouble in meeting 'em? Great Scott! My trouble is dodging 'em."

"What makes that goat shiver so?" He ate a lot of slight bites the other day, and everything he moves they tickle, and he thinks it's white."

"Colonel: "So poor old Mike has committed suicide, has he?" Well, I should have thought that would be the last thing had done." Tenant: "Which it were, sure."

Wife: "George, did you say that rabbit to-day?" George: (who paid a market price for it because he could not hit his haystack.) "Yes, dear." Wife (stepping back a pace):
"It needed it badly."

An old lady travelling for the first time in a large city saw a glaring sign on the front of a high building which read: "The Smith Manufacturing Company." As she repeated it aloud slowly she remarked to her nephew:
"Laws 'em' mewy! Well, I've heard tell of Smith's all my life, but I never knew before where they made 'em."

HOW HE QUIT

"No thank you; I don't smoke," replied a bank president as his host at luncheon tendered him a cigar. "Yes, I used to," he continued; but I quit it because I wouldn't be annoyed by the caviling for tobacco at times when it wasn't proper for me to smoke."

"I made a rule in the bank, you see, that the clerks should smoke during luncheon, but, of course, I had to keep the rule myself. And I would sit all the while he was smoking a cigar so bad and so anxious for business hours to be over so I could get at my cigar that I was intensely uncomfortable all the time. I could hardly hold my mind to my work."

"One day I got completely disgusted at the everlasting annoyance of it, and I said to myself, 'Here's where this nuisance quits.' And I haven't smoked since. I stopped with half a boxful of cigars in my desk and there are about a dozen left."

"Now it seems as much of a hardship as I expected. When now I wake up my mind that there wasn't any reason smoking for me, the wish for it didn't last long. In just a few days I was working along without any bother whatever."

GET THE TEACHER

In case of the St. Louis Sunday Schools the class rooms are separated by partitions. During a session of the school one of the teachers was much annoyed by loud talking in an adjoining room. At last, unable to bear it any longer, he mounted a chair and looked over the partition. Seeing that one boy, who was a little taller than the others, was talking a great deal, he took out his pocket knife and sliced the top of the partition in a chair in his room, saying: "Now be quiet." A quarter of an hour later a small head appeared round the door and a weak, scared little voice said: "Please, sir, you've got our teacher." - Nobody's Own.

FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIATHE GREATEST PART OF HELP-FULNESS

It is not always necessary to make a conscious effort to help others. If we are trying our hardest to do right, others will readily follow our lead, as heat radiates from a fire. If there is kindness and sympathy in our hearts, our very silence will be equa-lent. The greater part of helpfulness is the unconscious sort, which is the direct result of our being what we are.

BORN WAS HIS COOK

A minister had been urging his flock to give a hearty welcome to the stranger within the gate. After the service he went to the door, as usual, and began to shake hands with the people.
An intelligent-looking young girl, apparently a stranger, was greeted heartily.

"I hope we may see you here often," he said. "We always have a warm welcome for new faces."

"Thank you, sir," she replied, modestly.

"Do you live hereabout?" he went on.

The girl looked at him, puzzled.

"Yes, sir, I do."

"Will you kindly leave your address, and my wife and I will call on you some evening," he said.

"You would not have to go far to find me," she replied. "I am your cook."

CONSTIPATION

CURED BY THE USE OF MILBURN'S
LAXA-LIVER PILLS

Constipation is one of the most frequent, and at the same time, one of the most serious of the minor ailments to which mankind is subject, and should never be allowed to continue.

A free motion of the bowels daily should be the rule, even to one who dislikes laxatives.

Mrs. Paul Hall, 200 Illemaux Road, Montreal, Que., writes: "Having been troubled for years with constipation and trying everything known of a friend and doctor, I used to take a half-vial daily and completely cured. I can gladly recommend them to all who suffer from constipation."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25 cents per vial, or $1.00, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by

They Sooth the Excited Nerves.—Nor-able to defend digestion, as the stomach dominates the nerve control.

A course of Parmenter's Vegetable Pills will still all dispel the effects of this after, and by restoring the stomach to normal action relieve the nerves from irritation. There is no nervous-like feeling in the correction of irregularities of the digestive process; yet preparation has done so effective work as to be twofold by thousands.

A HELPFUL HINT ON TWO

Having the key to success is little use, unless you fit it into the keyhole.

It is true we don't get all we want we never get a lot of things that we don't want.

VIENNA'S ODD TAX

Judge Gaynor, Mayor of New York, who holds that all honest folk should pay their tax before midnight, would find Viennea, a city after his own heart.

The Viennese are subject to a form of tax, imposed, unknown to us, on the length of their noses.

They render their noses shorter by the use of snuff and snuffing.

Mr. John Sherratt, Father, Man, wife and son, has been a snuffer for years. A friend of mine told me about Hurdock Blood Bitters. I got a bottle, tried it and found it good.
I had suffered from a severe attack of toothache, and when I had used Hurdock Blood Bitters, I was sound and well.
