THE NEW YEAR
 Another New Year is on the threshold. How shall we enter it and live through its coming days? Putting new calendars on the walls, and changing the date at the head of our beds, there are some people who seem to be living the same old year over again, and have been doing so the larger part of their lives, instead of taking advantage of the first of January to make a change.

EDITORIAL NOTES
 There promises to be a lively debate on the local option hotels motion to be moved by W. H. Scott at the annual gathering of the commercial travellers to be held in Toronto to-day. There are a number of the travellers who are expected to advocate the local option viewpoint of the question, but others are not satisfied to put up with the loss of the regular inspection and regulation of hotels, as provided for under the Ontario Liquor License Act.

We are simply too busy to write much this week. The Fall Stock Show is over, but I am busy attending to Santa Claus, who is in my window. There will be no doubt about where my stock is, because it is always crowded, watching Santa go down the chimney and into the house, after he drives up his sleigh drawn by four reindeer. Bring the children to see him. Pringle, the Jeweler, Guelph.
