Why men talk liquor, that's a question that should be thought of by every man. For a man who never uses liquor, it's not his fault if he never talks about it. A man's talk is a reflection of his mind.

MARYE RIGHT

MARYE COSTLY CLOTHES

Mary had a little lamb—
"Twas Parisian—on her coat;
She also had a milkier lamb;
About her dainty throat;
A bird of paradise, a tern,
And ermine made a collar;
On her muff, a large rat;
Her tiny boots were white topped,
Her gloves were muslin too;
Her muff had heels and tails of half
The "critters" in the zoo;
And when she walked around I ween
She feared no wintry wind!
A keeping warm I was plain to see
The big all nature "take home."

PATIENT FAITHFULNESS MAY WIN THE CROWN

When Gilson and his three hundred men came to the Jordan in their chase of Zabal and Zaluma, the Midland Kings who had long ravaged Israel, they did not stop to rest but passed over, "faint, yet pursuing." Their mission was to undertake those things, not to keep themselves from weariness or from getting out of breath, and their chief ability which had fasted to the point of death was to undertake the enemy and stamp out Midland oppression. When we have a task to do, we need to stick to it until it is done.

EXPLAINED

Teacher (to new scholar)—"How does it happen that your name is Allen and your mother's name is Brown?"
Father (to new scholar's thought)—"Well, you see, it's this way. She married again and I didn't."

CANADA'S CHAMPION DANCER

Cared of Pity by Zam-Buk
Mr. Thomas J. Hogan, Champion Gung and Pederal Dancer of Canada, who resides at 31 Chatham St., Montreal, writes: "It gives me much pleasure to let you know my opinion of your wonderful Zam-Buk. For some time past I have been troubled with piles, but this year I suffered so much that I was obliged to cancel a number of engagements. I tried all the so-called remedies that were recommended, but they seemed to do me no good. Having been advised to try Zam-Buk I purchased a box, and after applying it a few times I felt marked relief. I continued with the Zam-Buk treatment, and the relief was extended into a permanent cure. I gladly permit you to use my experience as an illustration of the great value of Zam-Buk for piles."

A DISGRACED REPORT

"Rosah!" said a hotel manager, "was once pronounced by a friend a 'dinner of turkey and truffles.' The friend however showed a disposition to postpone the feast, and to make excuses. But Rosah, button-holing him one day, said:
"Look here, how about that truffled turkey dinner?
"The turkey is no good this season," said his friend.
"Bah! Don't you believe it," said Rosah. "That report was started by the turkey."
