The death of Hugh Mann, of this own, father of Sir Donald Mann. foronto, occurred at his residence or Queen Street, Acton, last Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, after an ill som of only two days, from cerebral emorrhage. The old gentleman had seen falling for months, but was able o be about and drove down town the saturday before and was in several of hestores. He was in his ninety-fourth year, and was the oldest resident o Acton and vicinity, having lived here or sixty-seven years, with the excep tion of a brief period spent in Mani-

Mr. Mann was a native of Badennel parish of Laggan, Scotland, and was the fourth son of the late Donald Mann, for whom his illustrious son, Sir Donald, was named. His father came to Canada several years before him and settled on the farm nov occupied by Beardmore Crescent, then owned by the late John Burns, where he died in 1848.

He married Helen Macdonald, Inverness, on the 20th June, 1821, at shortly after the marriage came Canada. He first settled on lot' con. 4, Requesing, a mile cast of Acton Here most of the members of the family, including Hir Donald, were born 100 acres adjoining, a bush lot, only a few acres of which were ever farmed and which was bought this spring blanks and addressed envelopes have from Mr. James Brown, of been sent to all whose date of payment | Angeles, Usl., by the Toronto Line Company for the wood still standing

The story is told by early settler that Mr. Mann was positive one time that there was coal oil on this farn and often would bring samples of the alleged crude petroleum to town for inspection. Those were the when nearly everybody kept a bottl of ardent spirite in the house, and the bottle would always be emptied of the oil well sample and return home filled with a stronger commodity.

It was while living on the secon line farm that Mr. Mann's greatest orrow came into his life; when 1800, leaving him broken-hearted and with a family of motherless children In 1870 or 80 Mr. Mann disposed of ils property here and followed his sons Allan and Donald to the North West He took up a homestead in the vicinity low years, but did not like the country and longed for the old Ontario nome. MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF LAD

Gordon Haggarty, aged 15 years, who was a ward of the Children's Ald So cloty of this city, at the village Lowville, Halton County, on June 3 has caused a great deal of interest is that locality. He was apprenticed farmer named John Thomas. June 2 Mrs. Thomas and her young son came to the olty, and Mr. Thomas went to work, after instructing Haggarty to hoe in another place. When he returned to the house at noon he found it locked up and after affecting an entrance, found young Haggart on the floor dead, and entirely naked His hands were folded across his breast, and by his side was a teaspoor containing some sugar and grains of strychnine at his side. Crown Attor ney Dick, of Halton, was notified, as was Coroner McColl, and It was thought that strychnine caused the death, but owing to the peculiar con dition in which the body was found was decided that the contents of the stomach be analysed, and they were sent to Toronto. The inquest was adjourned till June 26.

LIMEHOUSE

It would have been a fine time, to ake the census of this stirring hamlet ast Thursday night. The big garden party at Manager Gowdy's residence swelled the population by 500 or 600 and gave us perhaps the higgest gathering of people ever seen here. The evening train brought in about 50 from Acton and Guelph and the big crowd was swollen by single and double rige driving in from all direc-

The event was gratifyingly auccessin all respects, and the large gathering of people who attended enjoyed a very pleasant evenlag. The tes was very appetizing; the booth refreshments toothsome and in great demand, and the programme was fully up to expectations. P.of. and Miss Kelly ably sustained the splendid reputation they sojoy. Miss Miller's numbers were all enjoyed, and McLaren's Orchostra gave generous repertoirs of excellent selections, Mrs. Moore, of Guelph, also took part in the programme with much acceptance and Mr. Gowdy binnelf contributed a series of popular gramaphones num-

PURIFIED HIS BLOOD

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Healed Mr. Wilson's Scres

When the sewers of the body-lalwels, kidneys and skin ducts—get clogged up, the blood quickly becomes impure and frequently sores break out over the body. The way to heal them, as Mr. Eichard Wilson, who lives near London, Ont., found, is to purify the blood. He

"For some time I had been in a low. depressed condition. My appetite left me and I soon began to suffer from indigestion. Quite a number of small sores and blotches formed all over niy skin. tried medicine for the blood and used many kinds of oidtments, but without satisfactory results. What was wanted was a thorough cleansing of the blood, and I looked about in vain for some medi cine that would accomplish this.

were brought to my notice, and they are one of the most wonderful medicines I have ever known. My blood was puri-fied in a very short time, sores healed up, my indigestion vanished. They always have a place in my home and are looked upon as the family remedy." Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cleanse the system thoroughly. Sold by all

Store News

Just a few words about the way Merchandise is marked and handled in this store. Every article is marked in plain figures, and all customers can see for themselves the price of the article they are buying. There is no juggling with figures or private marks. The price is plainly written and I have NO SECOND PRIOR. Every line of merchandise I advertise is exactly what my advertisement. states, and what my salesmen represent to customers. It is a pleasure at all times to show goods. You are never worried to buy. You are at liberty to look over my stock, and compare values, prices and etyles with other stores' values. From the many years' experience I have had in dealing with the public, I am thoroughly convinced that the only satisfactory way to conduct a successful husiness is to cultivate the confidence of the purchasing public by doing strictly what I advertise, and marking all merchandise in plain figures, and have only ONE PRICE TO ALL. I am showing the finest line of merchandise in TIES, SHIRTS, UNDERWEAR, SOX, BELTS, BRACHS, GLOVES, STRAW HATS, FUR AND FELT HATS, PANAMA HATS and men's wear of all kinds that I have had the pleasure of placing before the public. My stock of WOOLLENS, l'ANTINGS and SUITINGS is one of the finest in the trade. My prices are reasonable, and workmanship, style and fit guaranteed. Being a practical sufter and tailor, I look carefully after every detail of the trade and you are assured of perfect satisfaction at all times. If you have not been a customer in the past, I cordially invite you to visit my store and become a customer. I have many customers who have patronized me for nearly a quarter of a century in this city, and are still appreciative, valued patrons of this store.
