BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

—Coronation Day.
—Salute their Majesties.
—God save the King and Queen.
—Arrange to spend Dominion Day in Action.

—Owing to the dry weather the strawberry crop will be very short.

—A little crossing swooping on the main streets would be much appreciated.

—Good morning! Is this the day you intend to renew your Fluxus Pax subscription.

—From present indications Acton will have a steel road to Toronto before many months.

—Farmers say the hay and oat crop is likely to be short owing to the dry weather. Fall wheat is looking well.

—We find that the Township of Nelson will have enough oats to be entitled to a Deputy-Lieutenant next year.

—The soldier boys arrived home from Camp Niagara with a splendid dose of health and improved military bearing.

—At the sittings of the general session at Milton last week it was found there were only two prisoners in the county jail.

—Gardiner McClellan reports that the cost of food for prisoners in Nelson and last year averaged only 8c. per day for each prisoner.

—The Entrance examinations begin on Monday at 1:30 p.m., and continue until Wednesday afternoon. About thirty pupils will write at Acton.

—Acton L. O. I. No. 407 will attend services in the Baptist Church next Sunday evening when Rev. F. G. Hurst, of St. A., will preach the annual sermon.

—Mayor Higginbotham, of Milton, has sold out and will remove to his fruit farm at Nelson, B.C. He has been for twenty years a resident of Milton.

—The wooden flagstaff on the belfry of the town hall, which was shattered by lightning on the 31st ult., was replaced by a steel one last Saturday.

—Milton Champion.

—The Fourteenth Annual Convention of the Disciples Churches for the Wellington District will be held at Erin on Friday and Saturday, June 2nd and 3rd.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

Another Valuable Horse Killed.
On Thursday afternoon while Mr. Torrance Headmore's fine saddle horse was out in the paddock, for the riding he received a violent kick in the face, and killed him instantly. This fine animal was a great favorite with the programme. Convenient travel service from Acton and return.

Mr. Donald See C. N. R.'s Completion.

A dispatch from London, Eng., yesterday says: Mr. Donald Mann tells an interviewers that he expects the U. N. R. Toronto Montreal line will be completed next year. In recent years there has been a surprising increase of freight found in the west. The road will be completed to the coast in about two years.

Won't Pay Damages for Auto Accident.

On the recommendation of the standing committee on roads and bridges the County Council decided on Tuesday to pay no damages to Mr. Mood, of Toronto, who asked for $900 damages to his auto upsetting on the morning of April 18th, at the cemetery gate, near Oakville. Any damages will be defended.—Champion.

Epworth League of George Town.

The Epworth League of George Town, is undoubtedly the finest organization of its kind in Canada. The Epworth League has indeed been fortunate in securing their services for the garden party to be held in the park on Tuesday Evening, July 18th. The quartette will be assisted by one of Toronto's most popular soloists.

Rev. Dr. Andrew Macmillan, Services.

Rev. Dr. George Antill, D.D., who has been the much-loved pastor of the Methodist Church the past two years, completes his pastoral here this week and will preach his farewell sermons next Sunday. He will also deliver his farewell message to the Sunday School at the midsummer rally day service in the afternoon. Dr. and Mrs. Antill leave for Montreal early next week.

The Picnic's Demonstration.

The demonstration arranged by the Action Fire Brigade for Dominion Day has many features of interest. There will be base ball matches, both morning and afternoon; a football match and a long series of foot races and athletic contests. The band will be in attendance. A large number of visiting firemen and Halton Old Boys and their ladies are expected to spend that day in town.

Miss Ethel Coleman Librarian.

At the meeting of the Free Library Board on Monday evening seven applications for the position of Librarian, the Provincial Board of Health will again order that all dogs in the province must be muzzled during the summer months. It is expected in some quarters that a similar order will be issued shortly.

Copyrighted Names for Farms.

Here is an idea which looks good. Following the example of Missouri, the State of Iowa has decided to allow farm names to be copyrighted. The man who first files a certain farm name with the county recorder will secure the exclusive use of that name in his country. Every farm should be named, and this system will avoid much confusion liable to result from the duplication of names.—Farmer's Advocate.

Induction at Etobicoke.

The induction of Rev. Crawford Talis as a priest of Knox Church, Etobicoke, took place on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., of Acton, presided, and Rev. W. G. Dodge, of Guelph, addressed the ministerial.

Dr. Hobt. T. Lane, of Bruce Mines, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. N. E. Moore for a brief visit last week.

Misses O. O. Spight, Walter Bauer and Dunstan Blane, of Stayner last week on a fishing excursion.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Snyder left on Saturday visiting his mother, who is in the hospital for treatment there.

Miss Gwenelle Campbell and Alice Rains visited the former's grandmother at Victoria Villa, over the weekend.

Mrs. Marie Hamilton and family, who came here from Ireland some months ago, are removing to Guelph. Miss Nelly Byers, of Brackendale, is spending a week at the home of her cousin, Mr. Thomas Kerr, Sr.

Mr. Gilley and Miss East, of Toronto, visited Acton friends last week and attended the Convention at Keweenaw.

Mr. Neil McDonald is in Guelph on Saturday visiting his mother, who is in the hospital for treatment there.

Miss Gwenelle Campbell and Alice Rains visited the former's grandmother at Victoria Villa, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stewart, and Master Harold, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mason and Miss Kieran and Mr. and Mrs. Smith spent a couple of days last week with friends at Aberey.

Miss Eva C. Snyder, daughter of Councillor L. P. Story has successfully passed her first year's examinations at Toronto University in modern languages coming out with first-class honours—Oakville News.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Moore went to Toronto on Tuesday to attend the annual Canadian Press Association.

Mr. John Fulton, of Freeland, and Mrs. Rogers, of St. Catharines, visited their sister, Mrs. William Johnstone during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Swackhamer and Miss Gastrie attended the wedding of Mr. Ernest Richardson to Miss Flora Startup in Toronto on Monday.

Mr. T. K. Kerr, Jr., and Miss Gladys Ridder, of Toronto, visited their cousin, Mrs. Geo. Campbell, Victoria Villa, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Matthews, of Deacon's Col., arrived on Monday morning to spend about ten days at the home of Postmaster Matthews and other friends here.

CORONATION GARDEN PARTY.

A monster garden party will be held this evening—Coronation Day—in the park at Georgetown, under the auspices of St. George's Church. A thoroughly enjoyable evening is assured. Arthur Blight, Will J. White and 20th Regt. Band will provide the programme. Convenient travel service from Acton and return.
