DHIVIDGMART BYKMMOT. I'm thankful for a lot of things:

I'm glad to be alive. And thankful that I'm ein ynare old . Instead of only five.

I'm thankful for my tops and toys, And for my kitty gray, And thankful for the big outdoors

Where we can shout and play. I'm thankful for the things that grow These apples -oh, how good !

The corn where we play hide and see

As in a little wood.

I'm thankful for this pumpkin round Just like a golden ball: The Jack-o-lantern it will make Won't Irighten me at all. I'm thankful for Thanksgiving Day, For pies all in a row, And thankful Grandma made then She knew I liked them we.

I'm thankful for this turkey, too. Ho brown it looks and nice! I should be very thankful now For only one more alloe.

A Medical Sherlock Helmes, A physician was knocked down and rubbed while on his way to see a palent. His pockets were rided, and one of the articles stolen was a clinical thermometer with which he had earlier in the evening taken the tempersture of a patient. He remembered the temperature registered and also that be had not shaken down the mercury before putting the thermomster in his pocket. He communicated these facts to the police. Bome time afterward a thermometer tenistering the identical temperature was discorered in a pawnshop, and the police were enabled thereby to track the doctor's assailants and to arrest them.

Mr. James McLaughlin, Bracebridge, Ont., writes:—"In order to let you know what Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills have done for me, I am writing you.

"About a year ago I was troubled a great deal with a very sour disordered stomach and had terrible beadaches, that wars so bed I could scarnely do my work... "One day in telling a friend who had used your pills before how I felt, she told me to try them, which I did and to my great surprise after using one vial I was greatly relieved, and when the second one was finished I was totally cured, and have not been troubled when with either my stomach or the headaches, and I feel greatly indebted, first to the friend and secondly to Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills Price 25c, per vial or 5 vials for $1.00 of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited,

A CITT'S FLOWER FARM San Diego, Cal., is the only city in the United States that has a municipal flower farm started with the alm of providing floral and horticultural exhibite for the Panama California International Exposition in 1015. The city officials, who are promoting the farm, found they could save hundreds of thousands of dollars by utilizing the 1,700 acre tract in Balbo Parks to grow flowers, and it is expected many millions of plants will be ready in two years. The farm already has 1,000,000 geranlums as many red roscs, white roscs and twenty acres of California golden poppies. It has 100,000 palm trees The park consequally has become the most beautiful in colors and flowers in the country and thousands of tourists have made it a point to visit Sa Diago just to see the flower farm.

THE HENPECKED CLUB

Queer Methods of a Queer Boolety In Lancashire, England. Of all the queer clubs that exist in the world you will find some of the queerest in Laprashire, England. One of these is called the Henpecked club. As the life indicates, its members are all males, and you can come across a club in almost every Lancashire town of any also. The meetings are held, as a rule, in some bar parlor, and the discussions are about members and often nonmembers who have the reputation of being hennerked. When evidence has been brought to show that a particular man has allowed bimself to come under his wife's thumb they tax him with it in the place of meeting. The president delivers a lecture on the dancer of a husband permitting his wife to usurp his position as master, and when the others have indorsed his remarks the person to whom the speeches are addressed is warped that if he comtiques to stand the henperking he will be made the subject of a demonstra-

The announcement that a "bespecked" club demonstration is to take place is received in the district with mixed feelings. The men appland it, and the local police, recalling similar displays that led to trouble, become a little anxious. On the evening appointed the includers of the club meet at a public house, where they arm themselves with all kinds of bousehold utensils; then, led by concerting players or a tin whistle hand, they start out and march along the crowded stroots of the district. Ope man carries a broom, another a awab, a third a shorel or a coal scuttle or a fender or a poker. Fire tongs, blacklead derushes, washtubs, buckets-everything used in the home in fact-is carried shoulder high. As they march along to the music to front and the discordant clanging of their baggage they sing anatches of songs in which the name of the victim oc-

The mission of the verses, which have been specially composed for the occusion by a local poet, is to hold up the hennecked one to ridicule, the reason for the demonstrators bearing the household goods being, of course, to remind him that, having fallon under petticoat government, be will quickly become the slavey.

When they reach the cottage where their victim resides they form a circle in front of the door and sing and clang their fenders and coal scuttles more loudly than ever.

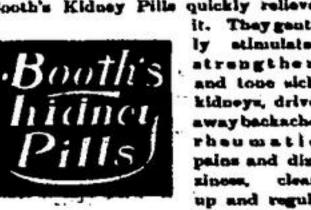

The man inside is invoked by the president during a balt in the program to "be a man" and join his the affair as more of a joke than anything else he does their bidding, and they reform and march to headquarters with him at their head. Usually, however, his wife appears instead with a bucket of soapy water, which she promptly throws over the demonstrators, or she quickly causes a clearance with a bose pipe. -To the onlooker it is just an exhibiion for laughter and nothing more, but hehind the scenes there is generally a lot of trouble and heartaching. good number of these "benpecked" demonstrations have sequels in police courts. Sometimes it is an enraged victim being charged with assaulting demonstrator, but more often than not the sequel shows a wife appealing to the magistrate for a separation order.-London Tit-Bitz

Mr. Chas, Martin, Box No. 367 while working in Hamilton, Ont., I was taken mick, and no one knew what ailed me. Every bit of food I ate I vomited up and consequently I became very weak. My landlord told me that after that he thought at one time I was booked for the cometery. Walking down street one day I happened to see Burdock one day I happened to see Burdock Blood Bitters in a druggist's window so went in and got a hottle. Hefore I had taken half of it I broke out, all round my loins in sores. I showed it to my land-lord and asked him what he thought of it. He told me it looked as if I had a heavy attack of chicken pox. Both he and his wife tried all they knew how to persuade me to stop taking the B.B.R., but it was no use. I had gotten so had I thought it did not matter much whether I went under or not, so I got a second bottle and judge to my surprise to see the scree begin to disappear, and by the time I had taken three bottles I did not have for the best man in Hamilton. We have been feeding for years, yet are all the time looking and auticipating some way to produce better results, writes an Ohio furmer in the National Stockman. Sometimes we think we are feeding more grain than necessary; then again we think we are not feeding enough. As rule, more pige any underfed than overfed. We find a good ration for developing youngsters is five pounds of O. P. oliment, ten pounds of wheat bran or middlings, fifteen pounds of commend and one pound of sail well mixed in a barrel with milk and warm water, feeding all they will but up clean morning and night. If you have apples, cabbage or roots feed them at noon. After they have eaten their evening slop feed them one bound of corn to each pound of live weight of pigs. Ground wheat, larley or oats can be substituted for a portion of the bran and middlings if desired.
