Thanksgiving Day On both Sunday and Monday the Thanksgiving spirit was quite manifeet in town. The sermons in the varlone churches had much of the thought of thanksgiving. Many homes were day. culivered by the presence of the mem-points, and many entertained other visitors who were accorded sincers welcome. Pleasant autumn weather provailed on both days and many spent much time in the bracing open uir. The regular business of the town was almost entirely suspended. Paterfamalies generally spent the early hours of the day in changing screen for storm doors, putting gardens and Barrio. outside surroundings in good shape for winter, and tidying up generally. Some went out hunting, many took in the big football match, and there were numerous happy home gatherings. I'he Thanksgiving entertainment at in Berlin, Knox Ohurch was a fitting climax to the day's enjoyments. Hawthorne. Knox Church Thankagiving Tea

Every One of our 50 or More Departments is Ready with Fresh New Lines for Personal Use or for Gifts-And an Army of Salespeople is Walting with a Cordial Welcome.

IT is not too early to speak of Christmas. In the store all is bustle and eagerness for the coming of the shopping host. Fresh new merchandise of all descriptions, and from all corners of the globe, has filled in the great gaps made by the Anniversary Sale. Every salesperson is enthusiastic over the wonderful array of novelties and exceedingly special values that our increasing buying powers have enabled us to display.

One woman told us last year that it was "all very well for us to talk of shopping early, but if we had to meet the monthly expenses of running a household, we'd understand why there was always a last minute rush."

> All that Remains is for You to Come Here and Shop to Your Heart's Content

This was our answer: "If you do not feel that you can spend Christmas money out of November's income, talk it over with our Credit Office. If you are a dependable sort of person, we're more than ready to help you-to extend to you the same credit that business houses all over the world extend to each other-credit that entails no loss of dignity on your part, and which means that nothing is added to the purchase price of anything you desire, and that no interest will be charged."
