MR. TAPTO HEW YEAR

President Taft will be a weary man before New Year's day is over, but n doubt his perennial smile will conces the fact. Every year the President gires a New Year's reception at the White House. An ingenious statistician has figured that he shook a mile of hands last New Ypar's day, and this time he may have more than a mile of shaking. Last Jan. You the statistician wrote as follows:

"The Taft handshake yesterday was a long one. It is estimated that all the hands if raise I one above the other would be taller than the combined beights of Kiffel tower, the Metropol- eyes, itan Life tower, the Singer building. the Washington monument and St

EDITOR JONES BOITOR

The editor of the Springhill Tribune had a call from Mr. Sanford, of Sanford's Weekly, last Wednesday, and this is what he says about it :

"N. S. Sanford, of Sanford's Weekly was in town on Wednesday. He was, and we noticed that he had a new pair of pents and a brand new mit of clothes, and otherwise looked See, thinking no doubt, that a good, fat Government job was about of him after the "very" able service he rendered in the late elections. He was beading for Jordan's Restaurant."

We note that Mr. Sanford, according to the Tribune, "had on a brand secontial garments, and slee a new pair of pants. If frere Sanford is sporting around the country with two pair of pants on we want to known it, for it may be necessary for us to borrow a pair. HIS OWN GATE

An old farmer, says the Zion's Her ald, invited a young man who was walking to ride tich him. The young man had a kodak in his band, and come pictures in his pucket. They disused the pictures as they went along. One of them in particular charmed the old man when his attention was called to it. The young man had taken it but a few days before. As the farmer turned into his gateway, he said to the young man, "Well, I'll have to let you off here." Then seeing the surprised game of the young artist, he reked

"Why, this is the gate that I showed you," said the younger man, smiling. At the same moment he held out the picture the old man had so admired. The farmer looked from the picture to the gateway, and from the gateway to the picture again. "Well," he exclaimed, "and to think

Nearly everything that enters a weak, dyspeptic stomach acts as an irritant; bence the difficulty of effecting a cure. Burdock Blood Bitters will relieve all the distressing symptoms of dyspepsia and in a short time effect a cure.

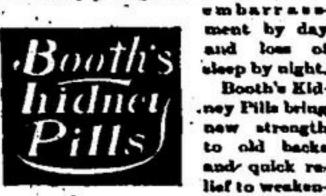

Mrs. F. C. Gross, Berlin, Ont., writes:
-"I have been troubled with my stomach for the last seven years and tried all kinds of medicine for it, but some of them ever cured me, for as soon as I would quit using any of them, the same old trouble would come back. Last fall I was ad-vised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and used four bottles, and now feel so strong I can do all my house work nicely and can cat almost anything without it affecting me in any way.

"Our boy is also using it; he always complained of pain in his stomach and all over, like rheumatism, and at the age of ten had to stay home from school. He hasn't quite used two bottles yet and is feeling good, can attend school regularly and cats heartily." B.B.B. is manufactured only by The T. Millsura Co., Limited, Toronto, Out.
