BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

The shortest day of the year.

The schools close tomorrow for vacation.

Christmas home-comers are already arriving.

Mrs. W. A. Stewart's sale to-morrow afternoon.

The influence of Christmastics joys is already manifested.

Remember the Oddfellow's Concert on Christmas night.

Dr. Nixon's majority has been officially declared to be 332.

Christmas services will be heard in all churches next Sunday.

Looks like good old-fashioned Christmas weather after all.

The dealers have been paying 15c.
per bushel for turnips the past week.

Nominations of Reeve, Councillors and School Trustees at noon to morrow.

We wish you the old wish "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Bring in your evergreens. Make the old home gay and bright for Christmas.

Good morning! Have you renewed your FAXX PAXX subscription for another year?

The Colonial Repertoire Co. will appear in the town hall to-night and to-morrow night.

The mysteries and secrets relative to Christmas will all have been revealed by Monday next.

This has been an unusually lively week with our merchants. The Christmas trade has been heavy.

Misses John Frank and Son have purchased from Wm. D. Swatchman, Acton, his farm, lot 21, cost 1, Eques-ting.

Christmas is loving and making life more worth living to others less lucky than you.

Santa Claus, whose portrait we published almost life size on our front page, pays his best respects to all children who love him, this morning.

If this busy shopper does not see and is unable to decide upon what she wants the FAXX PAXX advertising columns will no doubt solve the problem.

At St. Catharines on Tuesday Judge Arsenault sentenced Burner Good all to two years in penitentiary for writing obscene letters to Miss Anna Black.

It will be the chief pleasure of the fathers and mothers, big brothers and sisters to prepare the Christmas tree decorations, or fill the kiddie stockings, it is Santa Claus.

One of the new Boardrooms switches will open up within a few feet of Agnes Street on their property between Higin and John Street. The filling there is now in progress.

Chief McLeod made a tour of the merchants last week advising of the danger of Christmas decorations con-ting into contact with electric light wiring or other lighting systems.

Flowers were fairly general among the farmers of this vicinity during the past week. Here in town Oared Hibbenbrand has his gardens plowed ready for early spring planting.

See that the Weekly Sun, the one paper that fights the farmer's battle, is sending them you subscribe for. It gives its readers the unvarnished truth, not the biased opinions of politicians who are expressed for party purposes. It can help you in your business.

THE QUAKING CONTEST

In order to give all our Quakers a reasonable opportunity for attending services in connection with our big gosling contest—for which a sum of $250 overplus will be given away, it has been decided to extend the time for the opening of the ball box from Saturday, Dec. 2nd, to Tuesday, 26th Dec.

Mrs. F. A. MacLean, manager Merchants Bank and H. R. Burling, manager Metropolitan Bank, have kindly consented to count the numbers of hours and paces in the gosling jar on Thursday afternoon.

Two boxes will be awarded to the two contestants on Tuesday evening and will be published in the FAXX PAXX.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by medical treatment of the ear, as a rule, but it can be relieved by surgery. In most cases, however, the deafness is not due to any physical defect in the ear, but to a lack of nerve power in the brain. The information can be obtained from the physician, who can then refer you to the surgeon. The surgeon can then advise you as to the best method of treatment. The cost of the operation will depend on the complexity of the case, but it is generally from $100 to $500. The surgeon will be pleased to give you a free consultation.
