THE BRAMPTON BANKER gives Hor W. T. White some of the tredit of th recent government grants to Halton It says: Hon. W. The White, Minis ter of Finance, remembered his native county, Halton, pretty well in th supplementary catimates. Acton gets a postoffice starting with $10,000 and Milton $5,000 for the same. Burlington is allowed $25,000 for harbon Improvements.

MR. HANNA's license law amendment bill makes a man who has been found intoxicated a competent and compell able witness in an attempt to find out where he obtained the alcoholic liquor that made him drunk. Refusal to give the desired information may be punished with imprisonment for three months. This is similar to the clause relating to those on the "Indian List." It will render Local Option even more effective.

TRULY the way of the transgressing liquor seller is being made hard by the Government of the Province of Ontarto. Hon. Mr. Hanna's awending bill. which became law last week, removes the distinction between illegally keeping liquor for sale and selling it illegally. It also increases the flues, Previously the maximum fines for keeping were $50 and $00 for first and second offences. Now the maximum for either keeping or selling is $500 for first offence and imprisonment for subsequent offences. Under this new amendment the penalties of $1,700 in posed for convictions in Acton the past year would have been $3,200. Hence forth any man who salls liquor from flask or bottle on the streets of Acton, as some have been doing the past year is liable upon conviction to a fine $500 and in default of payment imprisonment. . .
