The Acton Free Press.

VOLUME XXXVII.---NO. 45.

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 9, 1912.

SINGLE COPIES---THREE CENTS

The Acton Free Press Satisfaction MARKA ARRESTOVA MOUSING

TERMS OF HUBBIRISTION -- One dollar per year strictly in advance. All appeariptions discon-tinued when the time for which they have been paid has expired. The date to which every submittable is paid is denoted on the address Abventuation Matter - Translent advertise-ments, 20 could per Nonparoll line for tirst mertion and 5 couls per line for easi: stan-Adverthements will be changed once each mouth, if desired. For changes oftener than above mentioned the extra composition must be said for as regular rates.

All accounts collected menticly.

DANGE PROOF BUILDING

English office, 30 Floot Street, London, W. C., where Measure, k. and J. Hardy & Oo. will re-ceive for an automaticion and advertisements, and where Canadians van, free of charge, say our paper when in England. E. P. MOORE Editor and Proprietor

Susiness Birectory.

MEDICAL PRHOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL L. R. P. P. & B. GLANGOW. MENINGS REPORT MEDICAL ASSOCIATION M

R. HOLMES, M. D. (Lord) M. P. S. O.

Late House Harmon to Ht. Joseph's Hospital, Late Chief House Physician to the Victoria Raspital, Surpose to The Merchib Memorial Materially Hospital, London. Office at renderes, Mill lynds' Joyellery Store. - ACTOR

TORN M. MACDONALD, M. D., C. M. Late Prop. and Supt. Masony Hospital LEGAL

J. MAKEINHON BARRISON, SOLICITOR, CONTREASORS. Owner-Mill Street, in Storele' Block,

D J. McHABB, Cherk, Fourth Division Cours County of Hal-on, Ostroganeer, Agent Fire and Life Assurance Bush Botate Agent, Meany to loan, etc. Courses—Parryman a Block

R. J. M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S. at Maddenes, Corner Mill and Frederic House GRADGATH OF TOROUTS UNIVERSE

The latest appearibatio used if desired, TR. E. S. HARDIK, L. D. S. First class Dentistry in all its branches. Office - 20 Douglas St. (upstairs) . GURLPH

R. L. L. BRENETT, DENTIST.

MINCHLIANNOUS.

AND J. HARDY & CO. ADVERTISING CONTRACTORS AND NEWS CORRESPONDENTS. so Fleet Street, London, E. C., England. A File of this Paper sen be seen free of charge by righters to London, to whom savise gratic will be given if required.

CHARCIS NURAN BOOKBINDER. Assessed Broks of all kinds made to orde

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

H. P. MOORE

- 'A. BLACK, ... GO LICENSED AUCTIONEES For the Chemica of Halton and Wellington Live Stands and Implements Pursiture and Implements Paretters and Inches Butche Ballahetton guar-Telephone St. Acton, or Fant Passe Office.

WM ABMETREET,

Por the Counties of Wellington and Halson Orders left at the Faun Pares office, Aston, or at my residence in Aston, will be principlly at-tended to . Forms Resourchie. Also meany to loan on the most favorable perms, and at the lowest rates of interport, in rems of $600 and appeards.

Rana bell where arrangements as to dates and adver-ingly where arrangements as to dates and adver-sating can be made. Orders left at Fans Passes, acting on with W. J. Bordon, Harness Maker, Asian will receive immediate attention, acting attention to pales in Acton and vibinity. PARSON TO BELL OR REST.

TAMES MCDONALD LICENSED AUCTIONEER Watch

Repairing Moderate Prices

Is what we aim at Savage & Co.

G. Y. R. WATCH INSPECTIONS Ontario A. D. Savage Guelph

TO STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF TH Ice Cream Season Has Come Agein

And we are ready to supply you with the best in the land. We have made improvements, and will be in better position than ever to serve you in our Cale. We will also be prepared to fill all orders—large or small in bulk You will find our store complete with best Confectioney. Choice Pinsepples, Oranges, Bananas and Lemons at right prices, qual-

Harold Wiles THE ACTOR CAPE - MILI Street to the ten and property and and the true to the

Waters Bros. Quelph

HEADQUARTERS FOR

O. A. C. School Supplies NATURE STUDY BOTANICAL ETOMOLOGICAL DRAWING PAINTING

41 Wyndham Street Phone 350

Golden Opportunity GUELPH BUSINESS'COLLEGE

for now be is earning and enjoying a year! to get a thereagh beniness admention at this famous inetitation; for it brings within easy reach the Gorden Opportunity, and Six and qualifies you to profit by it.

We Educate for Jurge and honorable passess. No better time to enter for a source than NOW. Come direct to the sollege office, MY Upper Wyosham Birect, or address Malcolm MacCormack, B. A., Prin STORT OF THE PROPERTY OF THE P

GEORGE KEIL ACTON PRACTICAL PAPERHANGER PAINTER

ETC. 27 Years Experience GOOD WORKMAMBELLY PROMPT ATTENTION ESTIMATES FERE CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF T

..PAPER.. MAKERS

GRORGETO N N. ONT.

BOOK, NEWS AND OOLORED PAPERS

JNO. R. BARBER

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

TO STATE OF THE PARTY OF

W is are maintacoliprete and direct importane work. We sell direct to our outsement at whole work. We said direct to our outsement at whole where you have so many shapes and sizes only mechanics in the Dominion who can specially mechanics in the Dominion who can specially mechanics in the Dominion who can specially and get acquainted with the new styles, and get acquainted with the new styles, and get acquainted with the new styles, is our windows we can show but a few of our redevences from purposely. We can give to our latest, but those shows will give you be just to fix the investment of high grade in the West, we are indicated in the large amortment of high grade in the West, we are indicated in the large amortment of high grade in the West, we are indicated in the large amortment of high grade in the West, we are indicated in the large amortment of high grade in the West, we are indicated in the large amortment of high grade in the large amortment of high grade in your weeks.

"the Home of Good Shoes"

BOND STORE

Che

Headquarters

FISHING

BOY'S 12-FT. POLE FOR X.

BAMBOO IOINTED POLES

FINE IOINTED POLES

EXTRA-STEEL POLES

If you want anything special we

Get what you want NOW-then yo

The BOND HARDWARE Co.

ACTON

LIVERY

BUS LING

The undersigned respectfully solicits the petronage of the pub-lic, and informs them that Well

Equipped and Stylish Riggs

A comfortable bus meets all trains between 10.00 n.m. and 6.10

p. m. Careful attention given to every order. The wants of Commercial Travellers fully met.

JOHN WILLIAMS

PROPRIETOR

pleasure out of it every day.

above easy terms.

ILE Lipper Wyndham St. .

Why do you besitate? Why no

A post card to-day will bring to

SEED

Timothy, Red Clover, Alsike and Lucerne.

SEED

Goose Wheat.

Seeds.

Oats, Barley, Peas

SEED

Mangel, Sugar Beet

Turnip and all kinds of Field and Garden

R. NOBLE

N. F. MOORE, Manager

ov a Victor while you pay for it?

The Best in Glasses

quickly get it for you.

RAMBOO LONG POLES

Is a Real Sporting Goods We had the funniest story In our paper t'other day. About a mule and buggy That scared and run away. I'd like to die a-laughid'. And so did pe and Josh. But mother couldn't stop to bearfile was tury with the wash. Last week we had a pic-nic Out to Mechanicaville : I went with L'zy Forgus, And pa took Jen and Bill; The time we had a funnie Flys, Lines, Roots, Floats, Huckets, Would leat a story-land, also Hooks, Speece, Sinkers, Minnows, But mother couldn't go along-She had preserves to cusk. On Munday was the circus; We had a glarious time

Boetry.

A scein' brests and serpents. And birds of every clime : We went in bright and early To see the show go round, But mother stayed at home to sew On Jen's alpacky gownd. Last full when all the Hanking Chape down to stay a week. We went one day for walnuts Way out on Sugar Creek : We took our dinner with us And stayed the whole day through,

At Reasonable Prices Hut mother couldn't get away-The scrubbin' was to do. To-morrow night's the concert; I said I'd go with Jen And Bill and 'Lity Forgue And Salrey True, but ther After I'd done and mid it The thought of mother came; That's half-way worth the name. She's lookin' worn and weery. And It's necurred to me

To send her to the concert. If only she'll agree t No odds if Jen does coax, For mother needs a little fun The same as other folks.

Family Reading

OU lingered a moment at the found herself watching Lilian with Lou was looking at things with different whole summer scane with the supprised interest. The girl ont syes to-day. It was not only beslightly absent eyes. It was dear, yes | was so thoroughly and comfortably at | came she was seeing Lilian with clear of course it was dear and lovely to her ; bome in this plain old farmhouse. And vision now, realizing to the full what it was bome, but how would it look to bow asidently she was enjoying to! manner of guest she was. Lou was Lillan's brown ever } Almost Lou re. She seemed as a matter of course to be also taking in with involuntary admir penied her invitation, that invitation taking her part in the morning duties. atlou the attitude of her friend Been which she had been so anxious to give When it was time to shell the pear for the independence, the fineness of her and for which she had coaxed a consent from her mother.

ask her," said Mrs. Ballinger, after her | brought their pans to the comfortable | shoulders. daughter in a breathless voice had set side porch. "Sit still, mother?" It forth all the reasons for the invitation. | was Been' voice gayly peremptory, and "Thank you, mamma," Lou had re-

You Can Easily Carry it! know of course it will make mone little through in no time." week that will bring a Victor late your room, you know-I'll have to get a ber big chair. bome, but you'll get many dollars worth of to buy a few things for some of the and one new table cloth at least. door the finest voice re producing machine with a good selection of records, on the mother had answered. "I am afraid ing something to entertain her? She Mrs. Whitcomb in the porch hammock splitchness, his gallant fight with for ation of animals and birds. Table lines costs a good deal and we'll eyes met Lilian's with an affectionate the long, long thoughts of youth, children and their mother, we are sure older or younger, richer or poorer than

"Ob mamma!" Lou had broken in and we haven't a tablecloth that isn't darned !" The mother's sweet eyes looked troubled as she watched the girl's dis-"But dear, she won't be unpleasant ly critical-1'm were she len't that kind of a girl" "But alse has so much money herself, mamais. Do you suppose the in dear, blessed girls gave me such a sur soul in top valley the situated. Mother notices that father used to naphing you can almost see prise -packed me off for a day at my soft summer wind rippled the cornfield and the boys were too far away from through? And we haven't any really mister's-concocted a little plot with -the tall stocks bent and swayed and bulences and ought to live nearer the nice guest room towels either. We'll her, if you please, so that I would be twirled their shining blades in varying office and shop, and so she quietly a love letter that her father had writsimply have to get a few of those !" And the end of it had been as Loo had weent it should be.

board of peoples, the "porch furnishings bank" they had called it as one easy chairs and a hummock, toc. You winged a little as she thought of mother's tired back and father's larging steps at the close of the day ! The purch furnishings would have done so much to rest father and mother. But they had rifled the bank with no protestation, and pounted out the coine in neat little piles.

"We can begin to save again for the porch," Lou had said comfortingly. "And you know mother we do need the napkins and towels and things for the house summer and winter both." But she had not felt altogether satis fied with becolf, after all. It was sollled that when father we into Springfield the coming Friday to take his eggs to the commission man. Lou should scoompany him and make the Presentary surchases

Then, on Tuesday came a note from liess Whitoomb, who lived on a farm for a fortnight : " spend a day with us before Lilian goes tell you to be sare to pome. We shall be cel'ed merry. be just four girls together for you It was slittle later when Boss and know mother is as much of a girl as Lon were on the porch, for a moment Perhaps a little breath of a sigh came

"You done to will

Possibly the stiffed sigh was not only for the separation from her bright in a deep sigh of satisfaction.

her beart. What was it made Mrs. I suppose it was just silliness on my his mouth organ strains of "Home, Whiteomb seem so undeniably girlish, part to worry about her so much, but | Sweet Home." in apits of the added, years? But she you can't belp it when its your could not stop to meditate long over mother, you know."

"I'll be back of course, in time to go to Springfield | with father on Friday," she said to her mother. "I'm going to try to get napking ready beauted, They have them sometimes at such bargains-real hemstitched ones. months ago."

bow unconscious Lou had been of it. The two girls were at the gate to lag." meet her, and two pairs of warm young arms were around ber.

"I'm so glad you could come," Beet the porch. sald, and I'm so glad I could I" schoed that more change had not been made been on her own visits here. But Bees alared ber room with Lilian. brightly. "We have been looking for: little board of pennise and nickele diward to it."

And how fresh and rested Bese' mother looked. Evidently "company" wasn't allowed to wear upon her. "Why yor, Lou, of course you may belves in two big gingham aprons and tality bring no burden on parental "If you think she will enjoy it and are school by Lilian's, "We are beginning od, to be sure! The stewed chicken earlier than necessary, and breides, and pessand new potatoes were deli-'too many cooks'-you know the rest close enough of themselves to need no plied, and then, rather anxiously, "you of it, mother. No, Lou dear, we'll be added seasoning, but quips and jokes changes necessary in the house. My Mrs. Whitcomb nestled back into happy effect, and the coffee served new bed spread and we'll simply have "Oh, the way these girls spoil me?" other rooms. Some better napkine "Of course I'm need to it from Bees, away! After the dishwashing which float drowelly down, and the fields are but Lillan is just as had. Bless the the 'quartet' made a function to be at reaped and bare. Father's flower

"But Lou, we can't afford it," ber at the very time I feel I should be do kitchen, there was a resting time for themum, and, remembering his unhave to do the best we can with what smile, and again Lou felt vaguely un- under the "five pines" on the billaide.

passionately, "our napkins are so this protested. "As If you weren't enter- wafted refreshingly to her slightly uptaining me all the time and in just the turned little nose, new half-formulated maybe moving. We still have moving they require (hat, chair, etc.), giving loveliest way! I couldn't enjoy it half thoughts came to Lou, thoughts to be days, for we are yet nomadic people. up your seat for them if necessary. so much if you didn't let me act as if I more fully translated into deeds later We are compelled from time to time to Never interrupt when a person in belonged here. Oh, we have had the on, when mother was to have some of best times!" Litten added to Lou. the petting and of that "spoiling" if we were dwellers in tents. It may "We've been plo-nicking and berrying. | which Mrs. Whitcomb claimed the be that all last winter the house rented

"And felly-making!" put in Mrs. would have ample time for my jolly 'Oh, I had almost forgotten. There was a certain little bank a bee of it then and rush it through, pers for you to take to your mother, which had slowly been accomulating a I want off, protesting of course, intend- Lou. I'll never forget what the told and another had added pennies and things. Not much of a 'bee' did I that little sister of beer who died." nickels to the board. It had meant mean to let them take part in. But "Oh, I had forgotten," Lou almost restful day, what do you suppose I fullness and to think that Bees had saw? Fifty glasses, of grape jelly- been the one to remember. was one of the bottest days we've picking just two then."

Ine Joined in the laugh with the sweet, sun dried, clean tea towels. sickness came with the thought | Here Lou. was Mrs. Whitcomb laughing like a a few colles from the village and who girl and as therry and acceptable a was entertaining the charming Lilian part of the quartette as any girl in bec teens could be! How different her "We want you to come out and laughing ways were from mother's! Mother amiled more than she laughed to you," said the note. "I she so little aloud-always such a sweet ready smile. But-but-it suddenly dawned alone together that Bess asked with in the stage back to the little village with high wife spientile green may." her till site was but to bight, will tiled. Amendedy Here Toute.

"I'm so glad." Been' breath came with only strangers for her travelling daughter Lau for a day, but for some- think she does myself, now, but in the thing like homesickness creeping slowthing in that "four girls together" in spring I could not belo worrying about by over her. Suddenly shefelt anxious her. I think peps did, too. It was to be home with father and mother.

Something in the phrase caught after Cousin Kilen died, you know, Only one day away from them-and Log's attention too, "Why, Men, mamma was so food of her, and it yet-Whitcomb is a good deal older than | wented to pape and me that mamma | A little boy on the front seat with you, mamme," she said loyally, but a didn't look just like herself for a while. | the driver unconsciously volced her vague feeling of discomfort tugged at | She did line a little in weight and -oh. | sentiments as he laboriously drew from Somewhat a mixture of pressures, but her marning was plain, and Louamented substily, "Yes, of course." "lan't Illiam a darling?" Hear said impulsively. "We were so glad alse could come for this visit. Manua luvely day, I'm glad to get back to you, wanted ber almost as much so I did.

saw some marked away down at the She's loved Lilian ever since she spent with a throb of joy bow truly she Plymouth when we were there two a day with us a year aro. You never did see a lovelier guest, Lou, only you'll So it was in the little flutter of plane | forget she is a guest. She fits in as if for the visit with Hees and Lilian, and she'd always been here. And thought- and exclaimed over by her mother with the preparation for the coming of the ful! Why Lou, I keep wondering how | shining eyes, Lou said hurried : latter to ber own home, that Lou took she can be so sweet and thoughtful in . "Mamma, I've changed my mind the stage drive in the early morning. every way when she's had everything completely about wanting to have the The mother watched the clumsy old all ber life that she's wanted. But It's house any different while Lillan's here vehicle disappear down the snuff-col- just Lillan all byer. No one-could libe's not the girl to give a thought ored winding road. It was queer how spoil ber. She's the most unselfish to any of the things I spoke about. Guild with good results : often she had sighed the last few days girl you ever saw in your life. Always And anyway - I wouldn't want to when thinking of L. m. and queer, too, belping when she's needed and yet spend any money that way. You were never obtruding her belp-never insist | so dear to plan to let me, it was just

> There wasn't any time for any more ust then for Lillan was coming out to

A half-bour later they were gathered around the triendly farm table in the "We'll go right up to my room, Lou. dining room which Lou acknowledged I suppose you feel dusty the way I al. to berself was every bit as plain as their wave d after a ride in the stage." A lown. As for the napking, Lou unfold m ment more and she had taken Lou lug here was struk by the homelike into the little low ceiled room unstairs thinness of it. And the table cloth which contained all her girlish belong- too, was darned. Lou noticed with ings. Left alone in it Lou glanced involunary surprise that the table aparound her with a feeling of wonder pointments were precisely as they had In it for Lillan's coming. She know deptly there had been no special, illafforded expenditures such as she was Mrs. Whitcomb met ber at the head planning for her prospective guest. She of the stairs as she came down. "I am thought with a quick pang of shame so glad you could come," she said of that rifled bank at bome, of the verted from their prupose of "porch How pleasant that "we" sounded. furnishings" into an outlay for things to satisfy her silly girlish pride. verted? No. thanks to this vielt at Bess' bome, not quite diverted yet More than once that morning Lou | Every cent of it should be put backdinner or pare the fruit for apple giving freely of what she had, withsauce, Lilian and Bees evolved them- holding nothing, yet letting the hospi

How jolly Been' father and mother were! And how much they all langit by no means brilliant did produce that with an abundance of country cream seemed like ambrosia.

All too fast the rest of that day sped In the soft murmur of those pines, "Why, Mrs. Whiteombe," Lilian with the fine scent of their needles making next day-said we could make must get a bunch of pink lady saliping to make up to them next day for us that day-how she'd loved them their staying at home to look after ever since she used to find them with what do you think? When I drove inurmured, but she checked berself in back in the evening, after such a dear, time. She was sahamed of her forget-beautiful, firm jelly, too-standing on "There are some perfect beaution the pentry shelf! Those girls had done | half way down the hill on some docaythe eatire work; it was a part of their log old tree trunks," Bees explained. plot in getting me away -so they could ."Lillan and I were there only yester: surprise my !- Ob, such girls, and it day, but we contented ourselves with

Through tangles of wild vines and underbroah the three pairs of girlish other two girls, but somehow she felt feet hurried. A chorus of delight bit whoomfortable. Her thoughts greated the exquisite probids where were turning back to the little brown | they swayed, dosens of them, above a house in the village, standing in its fallen oak trank. Such mysterious acre yard with barberry bushes sour beauty, in the pink-velocd inflated the back door, from which mother was flowers, tossing in the wind and seems taking, perhaps this very minute, the | ing to exchange their own mysterious thoughts with each other, for surely Strange what an almost pang of bome- they must have thoughts, it seemed to " 'Hast thou named all the birds without a gum? Loved the wood rose and left it on its Lillan quoted softly. 'That came into our minds vesterday, didn't it Bees? So we compromised with our conscience ee by picking only two. But it's different now, when its for Lou's mother. very far apart, and mother mays to on Lou that mother could hardly ever Let's fill a box for her to take home. Another merry meel in the plain farm dialog moon, and then a burried > them, hugging them each in turn. "I money. led. "Ob, your mother? Why-young will never forget it." They waved to | SALVIA is a beautiful, pleasant.

companions, Lou felt a weight of come-

Lightly she flew up the walk to the little old front perch that so much needed repairs, but at that she looked uncritically now, for mother was walting behind the vines. "You derling !" Lou sald with her arms tight around her. . "You, I had a I'm always glad!" And she realised meant it.

Ten injustee later when the box of pink lady's-slippers were being opened like you, but I-I've changed my mind

TWENTY YEARS AGO tome From Our Issue of Thursday, May 10th, 1862

Rev. Dr. Frager, of Hamilton, will reach at Knox Church-anniversary pervices -- next Sunday.

Rev. J. W. Itse, of Knox Church, will conduct a bible reading at the Rpworth League meeting next wiefk. Methodist services are to be withdrawn for Knox anniversary next Sunday night.

A neat (ence has been erected around Mr. Alex. Secord's newly purchased Drill Shed property. May seems to be hovering between

At the recent sale of the Building ly. Association Terrace on Bower Avenue Mr. W. H. Storey purchased the first four houses, Mr. James Brown the two in the centre, and Mosers. Christie and Henderson the last four.

Mr. Chas. T. Moore, of Limehouse, who has been with Mr. C. W. Bill. photo artist, at Munroe, Mich., the past two years, is going to start business for blusself at Lancaster, Oblo, a town of 8,000 with two studios. Mr. Joseph Kentuer, an old resident of Ballinafad, highly respected, died on the 27th April.

PROUT-IN Erin, on May lot, to Thomas Front, a daughter. MARRIED JERMYN-GOODENOW—At the residence of the bride's father, on May 11th, by Rev. W. E. Norton, Mr. R. H. Jermyn, merchant, Asten, to Laura, second daughter of Mr. L. W. Good-how, Postmanur, Georgetown, MOTHER'S DAY We ought to have a Fathers' Day. If ever we determine to have one, it should come to us in Indian summer, when there is a hint of frost in the air, and the yellow leaves are beginning to child, I've been thiving such a vacation most sujey, despite the heat of the labouid, in perference, be the chrysan- not forget to close it after you. of tune, and the love be bears the Never be rude to anybody, whether that the sours in his praise should be yourself. cheery and tuneful.

woman what with housekeeping and the door for them, bringing them what change quarters and pull up stakes as girls had given her. From the very was imperfectly heated, and we decide appex of one of those blue given pine then another season will find us more Whitcomb with a laugh. "Lou, these trees a brown thrush poured forth its comfortably and more economically sure to go. They persuaded me that I shades of green. Suddenly Best rose brought them round to the opinion, ways and means were discussed, and a of her courtable. She read the letter removal this spring was the result. All days in home life are Mother's days. How many steps she takes, how mother raved with anger and stamped many stitches she sets in garmonts for the wee ones, in frills and furbelows daughter to have anything to do with for the daughter growing up, and renovating making over the hand-me cal stuff to a girl. The girl then gave downs, that go far, in the good the latter to her mother to read and management of the income Kverywhere in the big cities men and women who, in the background of their minds, always have a picture of the mother at home, are spleadidly forging ahead. They came from the country equipped for life and service, because she sent them forth, brave, bonest and daring. Oblidren do not fully understand their mothers until childhood is over-In the formative period they simply accept Mother as the central figure in aggravate the others. We have, how the bome, and under her brooding care ever, in Quinine Wine, when obtained develop their individuality and ber in a sound, unadulterated state a come what she means them to be.

Halr Grow Now Bold In

have radiant bair. There are thousands of women do not try to iniprove it.

pride in having beautiful bair. Every action of the blood, which being Canadian women can have lustrous stimulated, courses through the veins and luxuriant hair by using SALVIA. the Great American Bage Hair Tonic. Byery reader of the FREE PRESSOAN bave an attractive head of hair in a strengthening the frame and giving donning of hat and gloves for the ride few weeks by using SALVIA.

Dandruff, stop falling hair and itching

O LITTLE MOTHER OF ometimes ig the bush of the evening When the shadows creep from th think of the twilight songs you sang And the boy you lulled to rest; The wee little boy with the tousled That long, long ago was thine : wander if sometime, you long that boy, :

O little mother of mine! and now he has come to man's value,

Grown stalwart in body and strong. and you'd hardly know that he was Whom you lulled with your slumber The years have altered the form and

But his beart is unchanged by time. And still be is only the boy of old, () little mother of mine! -Walter H. Brown.

GOOD RULES

Kvery boy and girl should read the following rules, which have been adopted by the Children's Guild of Courtesy in connection with the Lon don County Council schools. Many of the other schools in London and vicinity have followed the example of this

COURTEDIT TO YOURSELD He bonest, truthful and pure. Do not use bed language. Keep your face and hands clean and your clothes and boots brushed and Keep out of bad company. COURTERY AT HONK

Help your parents as much as you Be kind to your brothers and sisters. Do not be selfish, but share all your good things. Do your best to please your parents.

COURTRRY AT SCHOOL Be respectful to your teachers and belp them as much as you can. Observe the school rules. Do not copy.

Do not cut the desks or write to the reading books. Never let another be punished in mistake for yourself. This is coward-COURTINSY AT PLAY

Do not chest in games. Do not bully. Be pleasent not quarrelsome. Do not jeer at your schoolmates by names which they do not like. COURTERA IN AHE RIBERL Salute your ministers, teachers and equalitances when you meet them, who will miste you is return. Do not push or run ugainst people. Do not chalk on walls, doors, or

Do not annoy shop keepers by loitering at their shop doors or gates. Do not throw stones or destroy pro-Do not throw orange peel or make slides on the pavement. This often results in dangerous applicats. Do not make fun of old or cripples Be particularly courteous to strang

Remember to say "Please" at "Thank you." Always mind your own business. Before entering a room it is often courtsons to knock at the door. Do ers or foreigners.

Always show care, pity and consid-Always show attention to older In these May days mother is a busy | people and to strangers by opening

Be panetual.—Selected

A CRUEL JOKE A high-spirited girl recently played a cruel loke on her mother and this is how it happened. She actually found ten to her mother in the balevon days to ber mother, substituting her own name and that of ber lover. The ber foot in disgust, forbidding ber a man who would write such nonsenithe house became so suddenly quiet that she could bear the cat wink in the backyard. '

When a man is long on cowardice

There pover was and never will be a universal panaoca in one remedy for all lile to which flesh is helr. What would relieve one ill in turn would remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use the A Simple Treatment That will Make | frallest systems are led into convalescence and strength by the influence which Quining exerts on Nature's dwg Every up-to-date woman should restoratives. It relieves those to whom a chronic state of morbid with despondency and lack of interest in harsh, faded characteriess hair, who life is a disease, and by tranquillaing the nerves disposes to sound and In England and Paris women take refreshing eleep Imparts vigor to the strengthening the bealthy, animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result life to the digestive organs which E. J. Hassard solls a large bottle for | naturally demand increased substance... rop & Lyman, of Toronto, have giver. "I've had a lovely time," Lou told soalp in ten days, or refund your to the public their superior Quinion. By the opinion of scientists, the wine approaches nearset perfection of kiny the wishers the "All the wishes and it.

