

WALLPAPER

New stock now opened. From 5c. per roll upwards.

CURTAIN POLES

4 and 5 feet. White and oak.

WINDOW SHADES

In cream, green and white. Plain and insertion.

CALL IN AND SEE OUR NEW STOCK

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

GEO. HYNDY ACTON ONTARIO

May's Business College Close For Vacation During the Summer

ELLIOTT

REAL ESTATE

Money to loan at lowest rate of interest. Large number of farms for sale, cheap. Billings and other farms.

The Acton Free Press.

THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1913

BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

Victoria Day, to-morrow.

Hold your flag in honor of Victoria Day, to-morrow.

Swat the flies, and deposit the dirty bank bills in the nearest bank.

The City of Guelph has made the sale and setting off of five craters illegal.

Mr. Chas. Churchill is building an addition to his residence on Agnes Street.

Between four and five inches of water fell during the rains of the past week.

May's frequent rains should insure a fine yield of hay and good spring crops.

Taylor-Forbes football team of Guelph play Acton in the park here next Saturday.

Contractor Campbell has laid down the new road of building material on his Church Street lot.

Potatoes were down to $1.50 on Guelph market on Saturday. Butter was 26c. and eggs 20c.

Single fare for round trip over the railway going today or to-morrow and returning on Monday.

Mr. J. B. Deacon, Public School Inspector, is making his semi-annual tour of inspection in Nipissing District.

Alton Brass Band has reorganized with Mr. Amos Mason as leader again. The band has a membership of 30.

Mr. Harry Frankum has passed his final examinations at the School of Pharmacy and is now a full-fledged druggist.

Mr. W. J. Gordon has let the contract for his new brick house on Frederick Street to contractor J. H. Mackenzie.

The summer meeting of Hallowell Women's Institute for this section will be held in Acton on Monday afternoon, 19th June.

Guelph has planted 10,000 trees on the new bridge today. At least 10,000 more are being planted before the new bridge is completed.

The continued wet weather is causing apprehension among some of the farmers as to the effect upon crops on low-lying fields.

The old-time Twenty-fourth of May holiday, dear to every boy and girl for over half a century, will be observed again to-morrow.

A very interesting programme has been arranged for the second Hamilton Conference Summer School, to be held at Blora from July 8th to 15th.

The substantial of the old bridge at Guelph collapsed last week. It will be some months before the new high level bridge to replace it is completed.

A Church Base Ball League has also been organized in Georgetown. The season's schedule was opened with a match on Saturday between the Methodists and Presbyterians.

Mr. Benj. Green, who recently bought the Luther Lyman property on Elgin Street, has recently bought the property and greatly improved the appearance of the premises inside and out.

A Free Press subscriber in Wingham writes requesting that address be changed to 280 Dufferin Ave., but fails to send his old name. Kindly advise, so as not to miss your favorite home paper.

Mr. Hugh Wallace, who is the representative rider of the section of Essex which has been holding a Sale of the Presbyterians General Assembly and will go to the Assembly meeting at Edmonton, Alta., in June.

A fire Rev. supposed to have been caused by lightning, took place at the Farmers' Block Twine factory, Brantford, Monday night. The factory was destroyed with a probable loss of $60,000 or $70,000, mostly covered by insurance.

On May 21st the B. A. band will visit Acton and give an afternoon and evening programme of vocal and instrumental music. The Acton people are looking forward to a "big day," when the band favours their town.

Guelph Herald.

Another man has been caught by the Williams Shoe Factory at Guelph in the same one that broke the case of Jno. Williams, the proprietor. The man had been working for the factory and had been caught by the owner.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

Paper on Street Street the House

Mr. J. B. Deacon, Public School Inspector, is making his semi-annual tour of inspection in Nipissing District.

Alton Brass Band has reorganized with Mr. Amos Mason as leader again. The band has a membership of 30.

Guelph has planted 10,000 trees on the new bridge today. At least 10,000 more are being planted before the new bridge is completed.

The continued wet weather is causing apprehension among some of the farmers as to the effect upon crops on low-lying fields.

The old-time Twenty-fourth of May holiday, dear to every boy and girl for over half a century, will be observed again to-morrow.

A very interesting programme has been arranged for the second Hamilton Conference Summer School, to be held at Blora from July 8th to 15th.

The substantial of the old bridge at Guelph collapsed last week. It will be some months before the new high level bridge to replace it is completed.

A Church Base Ball League has also been organized in Georgetown. The season's schedule was opened with a match on Saturday between the Methodists and Presbyterians.

Mr. Benj. Green, who recently bought the Luther Lyman property on Elgin Street, has recently bought the property and greatly improved the appearance of the premises inside and out.

A Free Press subscriber in Wingham writes requesting that address be changed to 280 Dufferin Ave., but fails to send his old name. Kindly advise, so as not to miss your favorite home paper.

Mr. Hugh Wallace, who is the representative rider of the section of Essex which has been holding a Sale of the Presbyterians General Assembly and will go to the Assembly meeting at Edmonton, Alta., in June.

A fire Rev. supposed to have been caused by lightning, took place at the Farmers' Block Twine factory, Brantford, Monday night. The factory was destroyed with a probable loss of $60,000 or $70,000, mostly covered by insurance.

On May 21st the B. A. band will visit Acton and give an afternoon and evening programme of vocal and instrumental music. The Acton people are looking forward to a "big day," when the band favours their town.

Guelph Herald.

Another man has been caught by the Williams Shoe Factory at Guelph in the same one that broke the case of Jno. Williams, the proprietor. The man had been working for the factory and had been caught by the owner.

The New Street Lamps

The ten or a dozen Hydro-Electric lamps, which have been scattered through town, give an idea of the superior street lighting.

Mr. J. B. Deacon, Public School Inspector, is making his semi-annual tour of inspection in Nipissing District.

Alton Brass Band has reorganized with Mr. Amos Mason as leader again. The band has a membership of 30.

Guelph has planted 10,000 trees on the new bridge today. At least 10,000 more are being planted before the new bridge is completed.

The continued wet weather is causing apprehension among some of the farmers as to the effect upon crops on low-lying fields.

The old-time Twenty-fourth of May holiday, dear to every boy and girl for over half a century, will be observed again to-morrow.

A very interesting programme has been arranged for the second Hamilton Conference Summer School, to be held at Blora from July 8th to 15th.

The substantial of the old bridge at Guelph collapsed last week. It will be some months before the new high level bridge to replace it is completed.

A Church Base Ball League has also been organized in Georgetown. The season's schedule was opened with a match on Saturday between the Methodists and Presbyterians.

Mr. Benj. Green, who recently bought the Luther Lyman property on Elgin Street, has recently bought the property and greatly improved the appearance of the premises inside and out.

A Free Press subscriber in Wingham writes requesting that address be changed to 280 Dufferin Ave., but fails to send his old name. Kindly advise, so as not to miss your favorite home paper.

Mr. Hugh Wallace, who is the representative rider of the section of Essex which has been holding a Sale of the Presbyterians General Assembly and will go to the Assembly meeting at Edmonton, Alta., in June.

A fire Rev. supposed to have been caused by lightning, took place at the Farmers' Block Twine factory, Brantford, Monday night. The factory was destroyed with a probable loss of $60,000 or $70,000, mostly covered by insurance.

On May 21st the B. A. band will visit Acton and give an afternoon and evening programme of vocal and instrumental music. The Acton people are looking forward to a "big day," when the band favours their town.

Guelph Herald.

Another man has been caught by the Williams Shoe Factory at Guelph in the same one that broke the case of Jno. Williams, the proprietor. The man had been working for the factory and had been caught by the owner.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Edie Naar was home from London for a week end visit.

Mr. J. B. Deacon, Public School Inspector, is making his semi-annual tour of inspection in Nipissing District.

Alton Brass Band has reorganized with Mr. Amos Mason as leader again. The band has a membership of 30.

Guelph has planted 10,000 trees on the new bridge today. At least 10,000 more are being planted before the new bridge is completed.

The continued wet weather is causing apprehension among some of the farmers as to the effect upon crops on low-lying fields.

The old-time Twenty-fourth of May holiday, dear to every boy and girl for over half a century, will be observed again to-morrow.

A very interesting programme has been arranged for the second Hamilton Conference Summer School, to be held at Blora from July 8th to 15th.

The substantial of the old bridge at Guelph collapsed last week. It will be some months before the new high level bridge to replace it is completed.

A Church Base Ball League has also been organized in Georgetown. The season's schedule was opened with a match on Saturday between the Methodists and Presbyterians.

Mr. Benj. Green, who recently bought the Luther Lyman property on Elgin Street, has recently bought the property and greatly improved the appearance of the premises inside and out.

A Free Press subscriber in Wingham writes requesting that address be changed to 280 Dufferin Ave., but fails to send his old name. Kindly advise, so as not to miss your favorite home paper.

Mr. Hugh Wallace, who is the representative rider of the section of Essex which has been holding a Sale of the Presbyterians General Assembly and will go to the Assembly meeting at Edmonton, Alta., in June.

A fire Rev. supposed to have been caused by lightning, took place at the Farmers' Block Twine factory, Brantford, Monday night. The factory was destroyed with a probable loss of $60,000 or $70,000, mostly covered by insurance.

On May 21st the B. A. band will visit Acton and give an afternoon and evening programme of vocal and instrumental music. The Acton people are looking forward to a "big day," when the band favours their town.

Guelph Herald.

Another man has been caught by the Williams Shoe Factory at Guelph in the same one that broke the case of Jno. Williams, the proprietor. The man had been working for the factory and had been caught by the owner.

WELL, WELL!

THIS IS A HOME DYE. THE ANTI-FADE. THE ANTI-SET.

Mr. J. B. Deacon, Public School Inspector, is making his semi-annual tour of inspection in Nipissing District.

Alton Brass Band has reorganized with Mr. Amos Mason as leader again. The band has a membership of 30.

Guelph has planted 10,000 trees on the new bridge today. At least 10,000 more are being planted before the new bridge is completed.

The continued wet weather is causing apprehension among some of the farmers as to the effect upon crops on low-lying fields.

The old-time Twenty-fourth of May holiday, dear to every boy and girl for over half a century, will be observed again to-morrow.

A very interesting programme has been arranged for the second Hamilton Conference Summer School, to be held at Blora from July 8th to 15th.

The substantial of the old bridge at Guelph collapsed last week. It will be some months before the new high level bridge to replace it is completed.

A Church Base Ball League has also been organized in Georgetown. The season's schedule was opened with a match on Saturday between the Methodists and Presbyterians.

Mr. Benj. Green, who recently bought the Luther Lyman property on Elgin Street, has recently bought the property and greatly improved the appearance of the premises inside and out.

A Free Press subscriber in Wingham writes requesting that address be changed to 280 Dufferin Ave., but fails to send his old name. Kindly advise, so as not to miss your favorite home paper.

Mr. Hugh Wallace, who is the representative rider of the section of Essex which has been holding a Sale of the Presbyterians General Assembly and will go to the Assembly meeting at Edmonton, Alta., in June.

A fire Rev. supposed to have been caused by lightning, took place at the Farmers' Block Twine factory, Brantford, Monday night. The factory was destroyed with a probable loss of $60,000 or $70,000, mostly covered by insurance.

On May 21st the B. A. band will visit Acton and give an afternoon and evening programme of vocal and instrumental music. The Acton people are looking forward to a "big day," when the band favours their town.

Guelph Herald.

Another man has been caught by the Williams Shoe Factory at Guelph in the same one that broke the case of Jno. Williams, the proprietor. The man had been working for the factory and had been caught by the owner.

The RIGHT HOUSE

HAMILTON'S FAVORITE SHOPPING PLACE

A FITTING CLIMAX TO THE GREAT

Profit-Sharing Sale

Saturday-50c. Day

In every department of The Right House very special 50c. values have been arranged for Saturday, the last day of the highly successful Profit-Sharing Sale.

Great values are to be offered on that day for a half dollar. Prices on regular stock will be severely reduced to come with the 50c. scope.

Here are a few of the articles that you may buy at The Right House on Saturday for 50c.:

4 yds. of 36 in. English Longcloth, selling regularly at 12c. per yd.

4 yds. of Scotch Gingham in plain, stripes, checks and plain, selling regularly at 20c. per yd.

5 yds. of White Checked Muslin for dresses and waists, selling regularly at 45c. per yd.

1 yard of Foulard Silk in any color, selling regularly at $1.00 and $1.25 per yd.

1 yd. of Black Paillette Silk, selling regularly at 75c. per yd.

1 yd. of 48 in. all wool Navy Katanine Serge, selling regularly at 65c.

1 yd. of 44 in. all wool Navy Panama, selling regularly at 65c.

1 yd. of 41 in. Black Nun's Veiling, selling regularly at 65c.

1 yd. of all wool 41 in. Black floating Serge, selling regular at 65c.

5 yds. of all pure Linen Towelling, with plain or colored borders, worth 65c.

3 yds. of 31 in. Dish Towelling, worth 65c.

4 of Christy's Famous Bath Towels, large size, worth 70c.

1 dozen yards of colored edged Wash Trimming, worth 60c.

Slightly Imperfect Vests and Drawers. The Vests are with short sleeves, and the Drawers umbrella style, lace trimmed. Worth at least 50c. per garment. On Saturday 3 for 50c.

Women's Black Silk Lisle Hose or Tan Lisle Hose with double heels and toes. Regularly 35c. per pair. Saturday 2 pairs for 50c.

These items are from only a few of the more than sixty departments at The Right House. REMEMBER, EVERY DEPARTMENT HAS ITS SPECIAL VALUES FOR THIS DAY.

TRANSPORTATION FARES REFUNDED

Thomas C. Watkins, Limited

King and Hughson Sts. HAMILTON, Ont.

RUBBER-OID

ROOFING

gives longer and more complete protection, per dollar of cost, than metal roofing, shingles or any other ready roofing.

Mr. J. B. Deacon, Public School Inspector, is making his semi-annual tour of inspection in Nipissing District.

Alton Brass Band has reorganized with Mr. Amos Mason as leader again. The band has a membership of 30.

Guelph has planted 10,000 trees on the new bridge today. At least 10,000 more are being planted before the new bridge is completed.

The continued wet weather is causing apprehension among some of the farmers as to the effect upon crops on low-lying fields.

The old-time Twenty-fourth of May holiday, dear to every boy and girl for over half a century, will be observed again to-morrow.

A very interesting programme has been arranged for the second Hamilton Conference Summer School, to be held at Blora from July 8th to 15th.

The substantial of the old bridge at Guelph collapsed last week. It will be some months before the new high level bridge to replace it is completed.

A Church Base Ball League has also been organized in Georgetown. The season's schedule was opened with a match on Saturday between the Methodists and Presbyterians.

Mr. Benj. Green, who recently bought the Luther Lyman property on Elgin Street, has recently bought the property and greatly improved the appearance of the premises inside and out.

A Free Press subscriber in Wingham writes requesting that address be changed to 280 Dufferin Ave., but fails to send his old name. Kindly advise, so as not to miss your favorite home paper.

Mr. Hugh Wallace, who is the representative rider of the section of Essex which has been holding a Sale of the Presbyterians General Assembly and will go to the Assembly meeting at Edmonton, Alta., in June.

A fire Rev. supposed to have been caused by lightning, took place at the Farmers' Block Twine factory, Brantford, Monday night. The factory was destroyed with a probable loss of $60,000 or $70,000, mostly covered by insurance.

On May 21st the B. A. band will visit Acton and give an afternoon and evening programme of vocal and instrumental music. The Acton people are looking forward to a "big day," when the band favours their town.

Guelph Herald.

Another man has been caught by the Williams Shoe Factory at Guelph in the same one that broke the case of Jno. Williams, the proprietor. The man had been working for the factory and had been caught by the owner.

OVERLAND

1913 Models are unsurpassed for value and efficiency.

Mr. J. B. Deacon, Public School Inspector, is making his semi-annual tour of inspection in Nipissing District.

Alton Brass Band has reorganized with Mr. Amos Mason as leader again. The band has a membership of 30.

Guelph has planted 10,000 trees on the new bridge today. At least 10,000 more are being planted before the new bridge is completed.

The continued wet weather is causing apprehension among some of the farmers as to the effect upon crops on low-lying fields.

The old-time Twenty-fourth of May holiday, dear to every boy and girl for over half a century, will be observed again to-morrow.

A very interesting programme has been arranged for the second Hamilton Conference Summer School, to be held at Blora from July 8th to 15th.

The substantial of the old bridge at Guelph collapsed last week. It will be some months before the new high level bridge to replace it is completed.

A Church Base Ball League has also been organized in Georgetown. The season's schedule was opened with a match on Saturday between the Methodists and Presbyterians.

Mr. Benj. Green, who recently bought the Luther Lyman property on Elgin Street, has recently bought the property and greatly improved the appearance of the premises inside and out.

A Free Press subscriber in Wingham writes requesting that address be changed to 280 Dufferin Ave., but fails to send his old name. Kindly advise, so as not to miss your favorite home paper.

Mr. Hugh Wallace, who is the representative rider of the section of Essex which has been holding a Sale of the Presbyterians General Assembly and will go to the Assembly meeting at Edmonton, Alta., in June.

A fire Rev. supposed to have been caused by lightning, took place at the Farmers' Block Twine factory, Brantford, Monday night. The factory was destroyed with a probable loss of $60,000 or $70,000, mostly covered by insurance.

On May 21st the B. A. band will visit Acton and give an afternoon and evening programme of vocal and instrumental music. The Acton people are looking forward to a "big day," when the band favours their town.

Guelph Herald.

Another man has been caught by the Williams Shoe Factory at Guelph in the same one that broke the case of Jno. Williams, the proprietor. The man had been working for the factory and had been caught by the owner.

FRANK E. HOLMES

EMBALMER AND FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Mr. J. B. Deacon, Public School Inspector, is making his semi-annual tour of inspection in Nipissing District.

Alton Brass Band has reorganized with Mr. Amos Mason as leader again. The band has a membership of 30.

Guelph has planted 10,000 trees on the new bridge today. At least 10,000 more are being planted before the new bridge is completed.

The continued wet weather is causing apprehension among some of the farmers as to the effect upon crops on low-lying fields.

The old-time Twenty-fourth of May holiday, dear to every boy and girl for over half a century, will be observed again to-morrow.

A very interesting programme has been arranged for the second Hamilton Conference Summer School, to be held at Blora from July 8th to 15th.

The substantial of the old bridge at Guelph collapsed last week. It will be some months before the new high level bridge to replace it is completed.

A Church Base Ball League has also been organized in Georgetown. The season's schedule was opened with a match on Saturday between the Methodists and Presbyterians.

Mr. Benj. Green, who recently bought the Luther Lyman property on Elgin Street, has recently bought the property and greatly improved the appearance of the premises inside and out.

A Free Press subscriber in Wingham writes requesting that address be changed to 280 Dufferin Ave., but fails to send his old name. Kindly advise, so as not to miss your favorite home paper.

Mr. Hugh Wallace, who is the representative rider of the section of Essex which has been holding a Sale of the Presbyterians General Assembly and will go to the Assembly meeting at Edmonton, Alta., in June.

A fire Rev. supposed to have been caused by lightning, took place at the Farmers' Block Twine factory, Brantford, Monday night. The factory was destroyed with a probable loss of $60,000 or $70,000, mostly covered by insurance.

On May 21st the B. A. band will visit Acton and give an afternoon and evening programme of vocal and instrumental music. The Acton people are looking forward to a "big day," when the band favours their town.

Guelph Herald.

Another man has been caught by the Williams Shoe Factory at Guelph in the same one that broke the case of Jno. Williams, the proprietor. The man had been working for the factory and had been caught by the owner.

Smart Clothes for Young Men at $15.00

The modern way to buy clothes is to go to the store and try on suit after suit, until you find the one that suits your fancy and fits you in every detail.

Mr. J. B. Deacon, Public School Inspector, is making his semi-annual tour of inspection in Nipissing District.

Alton Brass Band has reorganized with Mr. Amos Mason as leader again. The band has a membership of 30.

Guelph has planted 10,000 trees on the new bridge today. At least 10,000 more are being planted before the new bridge is completed.

The continued wet weather is causing apprehension among some of the farmers as to the effect upon crops on low-lying fields.

The old-time Twenty-fourth of May holiday, dear to every boy and girl for over half a century, will be observed again to-morrow.

A very interesting programme has been arranged for the second Hamilton Conference Summer School, to be held at Blora from July 8th to 15th.

The substantial of the old bridge at Guelph collapsed last week. It will be some months before the new high level bridge to replace it is completed.

A Church Base Ball League has also been organized in Georgetown. The season's schedule was opened with a match on Saturday between the Methodists and Presbyterians.

Mr. Benj. Green, who recently bought the Luther Lyman property on Elgin Street, has recently bought the property and greatly improved the appearance of the premises inside and out.

A Free Press subscriber in W