Before it is too late. A MOTHER PRAISES THE BOY SCOUT IDEA

In the May Woman's Home Companion, a mother gives her personal experience with her troublesome boy of twelve or fourteen greats of age and tells how his connection with the Hoy Beouts of America made a better boy of him. "The twelve points of the Scout law," says the mother in her article, are :

- I. A Scout le trustworthy.
- 2. A Scout is loyal.
- IL A Scout in helpful. 4. A Scout in friendly.
- 5. A Scout le courteous & A Scout is kind.
- 7. A Scout is obedient. H. A Heout is cheerful.
- . D. A Scout is thrifty.
- 10. A Boout le brave. II. A Scout le clean. 12. A Scout le reverent.

After telling how her son enter the movement, she goes on to say: "I had hoped my boy would be all been things, and had so admonished blm. But these Scout laws, mind you, not advice and admonitions, not hopes backed by maternal pleadings and fear, but laws, self-imposed when the Scout takes his oath; for in taking the oath he promises to obey these laws. That settled it. If the Scout movement stood for these things, and 'inspired and exacted them, I was with about it," replied the smoker of the it, heart and soul. "From the start the whole thing was a great success. SUFFERED TERRIBLE PAINS OF INDIGESTION. MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

CURED HER. Mrs. Wm. H. MacRwen, Mount Trybu, P.H.I., writes:— For more than a year I suffered with all the terrible pains of indigestion, and my life was one of the greatest misery. It did not seem to make any difference whether I are or not, the pains were always there, accompanied by a severe bloating and beiching of wind. did not even get relief at night, and sometimes hardly got a bit of sleep. In my misery I tried many remedies said to cure indigestion, but they did me not one particle of good, and I fully expected I would always be afflicted in this way. I would always be afflicted in this way. At this time my brother came home on a visit and urged me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and got me a few vials. By the time I had taken one vial I began to improve, and could eat with some relish. I was greatly cheered, and continued taking the pills until all traces of the trouble had disappeared, and I could once more eat all kinds of food without the slightest inconvenience. I am so fully convinced of their virtue as a familymedicine, I have no hesitation in recom-
