May Remove From Toronto to Acton

A corps of gentlemen from Toronto were prospecting for property for residence on Monday. They were pleased with Acton's location, tidy appearance, thrifty look of its streets and homes, and they may locate here. They say Toronto's taxes are too prohibitive for ordinary citizens.

Promoting County Good Roads

Captain John M. Newton, Reeve of Harris has written for particulars about the good roads by-law in Hamilton. He intends to introduce a good roads scheme in the county council of Lambton. He is a Hamilton and Kewington club, commanded No. 2 Co., 24th Regt., Stewarttown, at one time and was known as a crack shot.—Milton Champion.

The Woman's Institute Meeting

The last regular meeting of the Woman's Institute for the season will be held in the Council Chamber on Friday afternoon at three o'clock. In addition to the regular business of the session Rev. Chas. D. Draper will give an address on "What are we Worth and What is Worth While?" Special music will be rendered. All ladies welcome.

Was a Painful Shock

On Tuesday evening a number of boys were playing on Bower Avenue, opposite the residence of Mr. D. Henderson, M. P., Master Willie Atkins caught hold of the chain depending from the electric street lamp support and instantly received the charge of electric current passing through that circuit of the street service. He could not release his hand from the chain and withal in agony. A citizen in passing succeeded in releasing him, but the pain caused by the shock was severe for some time afterward.

A Pic Social at Bloom

A Sunday School at the Brick Church, was held on Tuesday evening and was a very enjoyable one. Rev. Mr. Douglas, who had just returned from Conference, was chairman. Solos were rendered by Miss Lydia Smith and Jessie McDonald and Mr. Leonard Warden readings by Miss Clara E. Moore and Master Leonard Douglas. Mr. A. T. Brown gave a splendid number of gramophone selections. Mr. Bert McKown, the Superintendent, gave a brief address and Rev. Mr. Douglas presiding information respecting Conference proceedings.

The Base Ballers Break Bones

The past week has been rather fatal for the physical comfort of several of our baseball players. Jack Englin, the third baseman of the Methodist team, had the misfortune to get his left leg fractured at the ankle in the game on Saturday afternoon. He has suffered a good deal since but is making fair progress. On Monday when Acton was playing Hillsburg at that hamlet, Billy Laird was struck on the nose and right eye by a fly ball he was endeavoring to catch. The sun was in his eyes and he missed it. The bridge of his nose was broken and the eye was badly injured. He is now in bed.

Two More of Our Boys Have Won High Places in their Arts' course at Toronto University

Mr. James P. Henderson has passed with second class honors and Mr. J. Ralston Brown with third class honors. It is now J. P. Henderson, B. A., and J. R. Brown, B. A. Congratulatory Both these young men took their matriculation work in Acton High School. Further gratifying evidence of its ability in soundly grounding the elementary studies. Mr. Lloyd Smith took first class honors in his third year and Mr. A. T. Brown his first year in medicine.

Instead of the Father, the Children

It is interesting to note that in connection with the address on "Witnessing for Christ" read by Miss Lottie E. Speight on Sunday morning in the Methodist Church, as supply for the pulpit in the absence of Rev. Mr. Draper at Conference, that on the corresponding Sunday in June, 1881, her father, the late John Speight, who for years had been able and effective local preacher, delivered his last sermon, as supply for Rev. T. L. Wilkinson, who was at Conference. Mr. Speight died very suddenly not many weeks later. His last words, "Aris ye and depart, for this is not your rest."

Interesting Summarizing Magazine

An illustrated story descriptive of a journey into the Arctic is contributed by Dr. Luther Harvey as the opening number of the June issue of Red and Gun in Canada published at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. Taylor. It will furnish a pleasant solution of the problem what to do with the boy during the good old summer time. In an article on the Grand Caspasia, the great-salmon River of Eastern Canada, Mrs. M. G. MacNeil McWhirter recalls familiar sportsmen who have fished in its waters, including Sir Charles Ellis, Lord Dufferin, the Marquis of Lorne, Lord Lansdowne and Stanley.

Methodist Services Last Sunday

In the absence of the pastor last Sunday at Conference the morning service of the Methodist Church was conducted by the Epworth League. Mr. John Leighton, who is a local preacher, taking the opening and closing in the theme which was an excellent extension of God's Kingdom. The evening service was conducted by Mr. Ralston Brown, who has just completed his course in Arts at Victoria University, and will shortly go out to one of western conferences to take up work as an assistant pastor on one of the western circuits. His sermon was upon Ps. 91, "Heavenly Father, Everlasting Thou art God." The subject was well presented, carefully throughout and showed considerable independence of thought. Mr. Brown is an earnest young man and with the experience of practical work on the field will make a useful and no doubt successful pastor.

Oakville Property Sold for $300,000

The Oakville Record reports twelve farms on the lake shore adjoining Highway 10 have lately been sold to many Toronto purchasers, comprising 1102 acres. The aggregate purchase price was about $300,000.

Two Deaths from Gasoline

The death of Margaret Farrier, 14-year-old thirteen months, who was burned with her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Leinhardt, as a result of a gasoline explosion on Sunday morning, took place on Monday.

The King's Birthday

About the only local observance of the King's birthday on Monday was the flying of the flag at the masthead at the Town Hall and the closing of the banks. A few citizens took advantage of the cheap fares and made trips out of town.

Will Claim Damage

About four weeks ago J. A. Fraser stepped on a horse plank on Elizabeth Street between his house and that of Judge Gorham. He says he had complained of the bad state of the walk and will claim damages from the town.—Milton Champion.

The New Market Street Bridge

The new overhead bridge on Marie Street, over the new hardware store, is completed except for the painting. A good coating of paint will improve its appearance. By its location a new and more convenient route to business Crescent is opened.

We congratulate the Markdale Standard upon the improvement of its last issue. The Standard has always kept up to the times as a clean, wholesome, enterprising local paper.

Former Residents Sadly Bereft

On Thursday last week, Lulu Margaret, the last surviving member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson, of Johnston, N. Y., former residents of Acton, passed away in her thirtieth year. She had been ill for several months of diphtheria. She was a bright little girl and much beloved by all who knew her. General sympathy will be felt for the bereaved parents when it is known that during the last two years they have lost their three children—a daughter of two years and a baby son of two months. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, Rev. A. J. Russell officiating. Many expressions of sympathy were shown by Johnston friends and floral offerings were numerous. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryder, Brookville, Mrs. A. E. Ranshaw and Miss Ruth Dill, Toronto, attended the funeral.

The Warrens-Morris Wedding

A marriage of great interest in Woodland took place at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Mary Lee Morin, daughter of the late Col. Jas. K. Morin, and Dr. Cameron Warren, Toronto, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride, Division Street, Rev. Dr. Thompson, of Holy Trinity Church officiating. Miss Frances Toronto, and Clarence Morin, of Hamilton, brother of the bride, groomsmen. The bride was given away by her brother, Frank E. Morin, Bridgeburg. Dr. and Mrs. Warren left on the evening train for New York, Atlantic City and other eastern points. They will take up residence in Toronto.—Globe. Dr. Warren's many friends in town extend hearty congratulations.

Pretty May Wedding at Ashgrove

A pretty home wedding took place at "Fairview" the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Rudolph, Ashgrove, on Monday, May 25th, when their eldest daughter Miss Florence Isabel became the bride of Mr. Robert H. Wright. The bride, unattended, entered the room on the arm of her father, in the strain of Lohengrin, the bridegroom played by her sister, Miss Olive. She was becoming gown of cream silk Landerwines, veil with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of cream roses. The ceremony was performed under an arch and well of blossoms by Rev. S. M. Roadhouse. A tasteful wedding dinner was served in the dining room which was appropriately decorated with roses and blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Wright left on the evening train for Toronto, en route to Winnipeg and Neepawa.—Herald.

Chairman Nixolin at Saskatoon

Mr. A. E. Nixolin, Chairman of the Board of Education, who is spending the summer in the west, writes that he and Mrs. Nixolin enjoyed the trip and are quite taken up with the bustle of the lively new city of Saskatoon. From present indications he thinks the place will grow this year more fast than last year. Real Estate is not particularly active, but prices remain firm. The city has accepted an offer from a firm of contractors for the construction of the proposed street railway line, and it is expected operations will soon be commenced. Grain has gotten a good start and the promise is bright for a good harvest. He called at the Johnstons', met Billy Anderson and Tom Wren and others all of whom are busy. Has been out in the country for several auto trips and finds the crops west of the city especially looking very fine. "I look for the FRANK PRESS with much interest every week. It is always welcome with its records of the doings in the home town. I am sure Acton is looking at its very, very best just now. I still think of it as one of the best spots. I hope the citizens are showing a keen interest in the school improvement by-law and that they will support it strongly and with a large majority. Kind regards to all."

DID HE MEAN IT?

"He—"Do you just that handsome little dog you had?"

"She—"Yes, in a railroad accident. I was saved but the dog was killed."

"He—"What a pity!"—Boston Transcript.

GOOD GAMES IN CHURCH LEAGUE

Jack Englin Gets his Ankle Broken in the Methodist-Anglican Game

METHODISTS ARE TALENTED

The game scheduled for last Tuesday night between the Methodists and Presbyterians, owing to the wet weather, was postponed until Wednesday night. The Outcasters, as usual, started things on the move and were ahead by five runs when Hests Hynds, Billy Twilfer, let several walks and hit several nuns. The Methodists got one run in by this pitching, then Lou met a new hit which cleared the bases and he finally landed at home. This tied the score but the Outcasters soon led away again and made the final score 127 in their favor. F. A. MacLean was the umpire. The following was the score:

NATURALIY GAME

The game on Saturday was a fine one and drew a big crowd. The Anglicans again got the bulge on the Methodists by leading off and kept the advantage throughout the game. The closest the Methodists were able to get was 7-5, and then it didn't stand at that very long. Lou Waddell tied another of his stiles for home but caught this time. In a flying leap for third, Laird, of the Anglicans, landed on Jack Englin's ankle. Englin limped for some time but never stopped playing the game. Then S. Smith stepped on his ankle again and this time he was forced to retire and Green was put on in his place. He started to walk up to the doctor's but only got as far as the gate. From there he was taken to Dr. Holmes' office by Dr. Cox in his car. Upon examination it was found that his ankle was fractured and he will have to stay in bed for a month. A benefit game is likely to be played for him. The Umpire was Rev. F. G. Burrell. The score:

Banker MacLean, of the Anglicans, Again Proves Himself Fast

AN ENGLISH CHEMIST HAS DISCOVERED HOW TO GROW HAIR

In England the ladies have entirely abandoned wearing hats, which is due entirely to this new discovery.

It has been proven that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-sought-for article is proven every day.

The chemists are now placing on the market a preparation containing the extract from Henna leaves, which is having phenomenal sale.

This preparation is called GALVIA and is being sold with a guarantee to cure "Dandruff" and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perfumed GALVIA makes a most pleasant hair dressing. K. J. Hassard, your druggist, is the Retailer. This preparation (into Acton) and a large quantity of bottles can be purchased for 50c.
