THE MUTUAL banding back of the war trophies of generations ago, when Great Britain and the United States battled for the supremacy on this continent, may be a unique incident of the coming celebration of the centennia of peace. Among other trophies the Booker Hill cannon at Boston may come to Ottawa.

THE DEFEAT of the Salools Addition By-Law on Monday was really not a defeat. It is morely a temporary postponement of the consummation of the plans outlined by those entrusted with the custody of the educational privileges of the children of the community, and demanded by the Govern ment. It, however, revealed the strength of the opponents of the B law, who certainly cannot be regarded as broadminded and progressive citi sens and loyal to its best interests. ife of Canada to be solved in this generation is the organic union of Protesant churches. That question is present far forward, and is now to its last stages of solution as regards the Presbyterian; Methodist and Congregation al bodies. The votes of the people and of the subordinate courts of the church es were emphatically in favor of union. The Mathodist and Congregationalist votes were almost overwhelmingly unionist. Among the Presbyterians the chief opposition was not at all of the dootrinal basis, but almost wholly on matters of organization and administration. But even this opposition seen to be less insuperable than had been imagined. The action of the Genetal Assembly, now in session at Edmonton, reconciling the various nerties clears the air. BECURING STAFF FOR HEXTTERM

The Board of Education met be Monday evening in regular session The members were a trifle perturbed over the result of the election on By-law providing for the addition the school buildings, but freely stated their intention to do all in their power to maintain the aducational privileges of the town at as high a standard as the times demand and the status the municipality will reasonably war

The prowded condition of the pri mary department was discussed an it was deckled that the requirements of the Education Department in the matter of additional accommodation must be complied with.

Moved by John Kenney, Jr., second ed by J. R. Kennedy, and resolved that this Board be a Committee of the Whole to inspect and secure options upon such buildings in town as may be available for temporary quarters for the primary room of the Public School,—and that the Secretary be in structed to correspond with J. S. Deacon, Key., Inspector of Public Schools to ascertain such teachers as may available, so that one may be secured for this new room-such action being necessary owing to the illegally crowded condition of that department. The Committee on Finance presented their eighth report recommending payments as follows : T. Statham & Sons, supplies .. E. J. Hassard, books. Thos. Ebbage, repairs ..

The report was adopted. The Secretary was instructed to write the various teachers of the stat respecting re-engagement for nex term, the Inspector advising that al engagements be closed early. The Board then adjourned.

SCHOOL ADDITIONS POSTPONED Cause Building Operations to

be Delayed AND ADDITIONAL EXPENSE TO THE TOWN

The election on the By-law providing for the erection of an additional story to the echool buildings, held on Monday, failed to create as enthusiastic an interest on the part of the electors as the importance of the case warranted. The vote was twenty-five per cent less than that polled on the Hydro-Kleotric Bylaw on the 19th February last. As a result the By-law was defeated by two votes, and the much-peeded creased accommodation postponed for the present. The postponement only temporary for it must and will be provided, and the shortsightedness of "The general opinion of the members those who opposed the By-law will mean greater expense and unfortun walks already built in town were paid ate delay. Good respeciable retired farmers are always a valued acquisition to an urban municipality, and Acton has quite a number of such. But if the defeat of the School Building By-law was the work, as alleged, of the retired farmers, we may well feel sewrieved that they do not give due consideration to the interests of less favored citizens. Perhaps they felt justified in "keeping down the taxes," but after all they have altogether miserd the mark, for Monday's vote means only one thingan inevitable increase in taxes.

ness whose ways are not generally approved. It is contended that the Council if presented of public spirit and foresight for the welfare of the oncoming citizens, might have granted the school debentures without making the matter run the gauntlet of murmurers sgainst any policy which does not appear to give direct flauncial return-as was done by the Council twenty years ago when increased accommodation was before required.
