For instance, "whose means to stop at once and stand per feetly still, "got up" to go straight aboud and at once, "back" to stop backward, "easy" or "steady" to slow

These words the horse readily learns and takes kindly to. "Walk" means to change at once to a walk, and "all right," spoken in a calm, resouring tone, means "don't be afraid-that won't hart you," and it is wonderful to see what a calming effect it has. Speak firmly, but not sharply, to the borses, of the West.

When we speak of the gift of perseverance, we misuse the word alno times out of tau. Purseverance is not a gift in the majority of cases. It is an achievement.
