The Acton Free Press AT THE

Watch Repairing at Moderate Prices

Quelph

PENS PARCE BUILDING Is what we aim at gy Humanityton One dellar per year findymee. $1,50 to subscribers in the mist. All subscriptions discontinued which for which they have been paid and. The flate to which every subscripted is demoted by the address label. Translant advertises contract per Hosparell line for first and 5 contract per line for each subscription. Contract display advertises with or inches more. Der annum 10

Advertisaments without specific directions il be inserted till forbid and charged accord-ity. Transless advertisaments must be paid Advertisements will be changed once each month, if desired; . For changes oftener than above manifoned the sairs composition must be said for at regular rates,

All accounts collected monthly. H. P. MOORE, Editor and Proprieto

Ensiness Birectory.

MEDICAL. FTHOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL I. R. C. P. RDINBURGE. L. R. F. & B. GLASOW. RESERVED BRITTER MEDICAL ASSOCIATION BYO

R. B. HOLMES, M. D. (Lood.) ale House Hargeon to Ht. Joseph's Hospital, ale Chief House Physician to the Victoria Lemital, Surgeon to The Meredith Memorial Memorial Hospital, London. Office at residence, Mill Street, Phone Mo. 10.

ACTON TOHN M. MACDONALD, M. D., C. M. Late Prop. and Hupt. Massey Hospital. Discount of Women and General Surgary. Phone North KNA

LEGAL. ----J. MACKINDON A. BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, CONVEYANCES. Ownes-Mill Street, in Storels' Block,

J. MOMABB. Cork Fourth Division Court County of Hal-AUTON COMPANIES Agent Fire and Life Assurance

Heal Retain Agent. Money to loan, ele.

OFFICE Perryman a Block

(BER.

DENTAL. The state of the s DR. J. M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S. DENTIST. Office at Meeidence, Corner Mill and Frederick

MOSON GRADUATE OF TORONTO UNIVERSELY The latest annesthetic head if desired. DR. H. S. HARDIH, L. D. S. Chat-class Dontletry in all its branches. 00-36 Douglas St. (upstairs) . GUMLPH

R. L. L. BENNETT, DENTIST,

MISCELLANDO US.

RL AND J. HARDY & CO., ADVERTISING CONTRACTORS AND NEWS CORRESPONDENTS. 30 Fleet Street, London, E. C., England-A File of this Paper out he seem free of sharps by visitors to London, to whom advice grails will be given if required.

MANUE SIONARY BOOKBINDER. Wyndham St., Guelph, Ontario (Over Williams Store.) Account Books of all kinds made to order principals of every description carefully bound, whire measive and promptly done

MARRIAGE LICENSES. H. P. MOORE Legues or Marriage Louiseas. Private Office. No witnesses required. Install Free Press Office, AOYON

A. BLACK LICENSED AUCTIONEES

For the Counties of Balton and Wellington.

ire Basek and Implements, Furniture and

Beal Betale Helas Bolistad, Helistastics goaranteed,

TATM REMETERET. For the Counties of Wellington and Halson Orders left at the France Practs office, Lebou, or at my residence in Acton, will be promptly attended to Turne Resconding.

orms, and at the lowest rates of interest, in LERR Taken conducted with salisfaction and apositionable terms.

Deferry by inter to bilineas P. Or, or Chieden behavious in residence in connection with the salestone in residence in connection with the behavious in residence in a transparant of the sales and after sales on with W. J. Gordon, Marnaus Maker, Acton, will receive inimediate fitention.

Passers to Real on Maker.

Fasters to Real on Maker.

DAMES McDONALD AUCTIONER

Satisfaction

G. T. R. WACH N SPECTORS

Charge of the contract of the

Ice Cream Season

Has Come Again

And we are ready to emply you with the best in the land, We have used improvements, and will be, in

Pincappies, Oranges, Bananae and Lemons at right prices, quality con-sidered,

Harold Wiles

THE ACTON CAPE & MILL Street

Coursement

Waters Bros.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

O. A. C.

School · Supplies

NATURE STUDY

BOTANICAL

ETOMOLOGICAL

DRAWING

PADITINO

41 Wyndham Street

Phone 850

EDUCATION FOR SUCCESS

Large Business Office to a great Canadian sty had dismissed in quick encounting four insumptions stemagraphers. Just then a mailing boy walked in and answered the

GUELPH BUSINESS COLLEGE

That Was Restles Age, but that boy is still on the job, holding successfully his well-paid position. The responsibility has increased, at has also his salary, for he is frequently in charge of that office. In short, where others fulled he has made good and achieved success.

Own Explanation, in a contrast inter-introduct MacCotutock, is given in the words. "Thanks to your experts training." His happy experience is that of many whom we have educated for HUCORSE, large, honcedirect to the College Office, 127 Upper Wynd-ham Hirest, or address

KEIL

Malcolm MacCormack, B. A., Prin.

TROOPS OF THE PROPERTY OF THE

MOTON

PRACTICAL

PAPERHANGER

PALUTER,

37 Years Benerience

PROMPT ATTEMPTON

ESTIMATES FREE

..PAPER..

MAKERS

QEORGETOWN. ONT.

BOOK, NEWS AND

COLORED PAPERS

JNO. R. BARBER

The Old and Raliable

Company of the Compan

GEORGE

training at the

. . Quelph

Ontario

Most preserving failures are caused wag the old kettle just once too often We have bettles all sizes, also strainers uanels, spoons, etc. All orders promptly delivered.

Our prices are right.

The BOND HARDWARE Co.

WHY RISK YOUR GOOD PRUIT BY

USING A WORN-OUT

REMOVAL NOTICE!

Wyndham St., where Eyes will be Examined, Leases Ground and Glames Fitted. A. D. Savage, Quelph

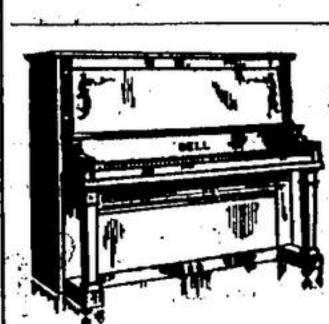

ACTON VERY

RXCLUSIVE OPTICIAN

BUS LING The undersigned respectfully solicits the patronage of the public. and informs them that Well Equipped and Stylish Rigo

A comfortable bus meets all trains between 10.00 a.m. and 6.19 p. m. Careful attention given to every order. The wants of Commercial Travellers (ully met.

JOHN WILLIAMS

"BUILT TO LAST: A LIPRITHE"

Bell Pianos embrace every merit that has made the Bell an excep tional instrument. It has an artistic case design, beauty of finish, full, melodious tone and has the endurance so essential to the demande made on first-class Instru-

Chas . W. Kelly

13 Unear Wyndhau St.

BINDER TWINE

WHAT KIND?

Plymouth Gold Medal Silver Sheaf

WHERET

R. NOBLE N. F. MOORE, Menager

Spring @ Summer SHOES Granite and Marble Dealers

We are manufacturery and direct importers work. We call direct to our enstrement at while sale witches, thus saving our sustement at passent. We have the best appliances and the colly mechanics in the Dominion who can the same street where you have so many shapes and sixes. Take a look at the shoes in our windows and get acquainted with the new styles, our passent took properly. We can give references from our superb stock where you have so many shapes and sixes. Take a look at the shoes in our windows and get acquainted with the new styles, in our windows we can show but a few of our latest, but those shown will give you stand law suits in order to collect. We have a large assortment of high grade there.

"The Home of Good Shoes"

REPORE IT IS TOO LATE Preserving Kettle If you have a gray-haired mother In the old home far away, Sit down and write the latter You put off day by day. Don't wait until her tired steps Heach heaven's pearly gate, But show her that you think of her

Hefore it is too late. f you have a tender message Or a loving word to say, Don't wait until you forget it But whisper it to-day. Who knows what bitter memories May haunt you if you walt, So make your loved once happy

Before It is too late. The tender words unapoken The letter never cent; The long forgotten messages The wealth of love unepent. or these some bearts are breaking, For these some loved ones walt. show them that you care for them ilefore it is too late.

Family Reading

OF FAILURE RECEIVED BY STATE OF THE STATE

(CYOOD-BYK, Edmund,' "Goo y bye, mother." It was a happy boy the walked brickly along a little narrow street in the cool of a March morning. Mrs. Price was a widow and Edmund was the oldest of her four children. It was necessary for her to help as a bread-winnner, and he had just ob tained a position in a grocery and provision store at three dollars a week. The mother lovingly watched her boy from the front door until he dis appeared around the corner. Soon Edmund was busily engaged arranging boxes and cane, and sorting fruit and vegetables. He did bis work so neatly and was so prompt to wait on customers that Mr. Harroway, the proprietor, was much pleased with

"There's just one thing the matter with you, Edmund," the man said in the course of the afternoon. give a little too good measure and you don't work off the unsaleable things. "The unsaleable things," said Ednund, only half comprehending. "Yes, rotting stuff," exclaimed the store-owner, blantly, with a grim mile at the boy's innocence, "I can't afford to lose money on stale truck, you know, and it all has to be worked off. For instance, when you're filling measure of apples, smuggle a bal rotten one in, so that it won't be see and always tell the people that th stuff le firet-class. Edmund was a well-bred boys care fully trained in right-doing and be was repelled almost beyond expression at what his employer had said. In a momentall the bright air castles be was building for the benefit of mother and little sisters at home top pled over, for he was afraid that he would not be able to keen his place. He looked very grave, but before be could reply a unstomer came in a welltressed, gentlemanly looking man.

"How-de-do, Mr. Reamer." said Mr. Harrowsy, from the back of the store. But he left the filling of the order to Kdmund. Among the articles desired by Coamer was a peck of pears.

they all nice and sound?" be asked, as the boy measured the fruit. "They are fair, sir, for this season of well as by Mr. Harroway. "A few of the year," answered Edmund, determined to do right by his customer as them are slightly speckled and a little over-rine, but they are all still fit for present use." Mr. Reamer, who was a prosperous manufacturer and man of business. looked at Edmund with a pleasant

"All right," he said kindly, paying for the goods and ordering them sent to his house on the next square. "Look here, Edmund," said Mr. Harroway, when they were once more alone, "you didn't do as I told you,

It just happened that Mr. Reamer was sort of tickled with your telling the truth and took the pears. Most other folks would have said they didn't want 'em. But I'll tell you what we'll do. You plok out the specked ones and put om in a pail, and when children come in for a few mote' worth, or people that don't know bow much to ask for pears, sell 'em the bad ones, and keep the best for folks like Beamer. "No. alr." he said, with difficulty controlling the contempt in his voice. "I couldn't impose on children and ignorant people." Mr. Harroway winced. 'Then you want to lose your job bere?" he said sullenly. "Oh no, sir, I don't," replied Edmund changing his tone as be thought of his mother and elsters at home, and their manty mouns of subsistence. "I'll do anything for you that is right and just. Why not sell the speckled pears for that they are, or ___ I" "Anybody working here has got to do as I tell blm. Here's your wages for to-day, now go l" It was evening by this time. Lamps warn lighted in the street, and the gas flared brightly in the Harroway storewindow, as Edmund stepped out with his half dollar in his hand and his beert almost irresking with disappointmant: It would not be easy; he knew, to get another place. He was small, and not vey strong, and there were me many lays seeking work. Poor Edmund had expected such a man" and he had enjoyed the teasing. poots. His efforte had failed. moment he was almost tentpted to go Grinning, the farmer replied :

Harroway store on any terms, Then be recalled a centiment that he had lately read somewhere. It was Success often treads on the brele failure," This thought steaded his resolution and made him ashamed of his temporary weakness as he walked home in the gathering darkness. Mrs. Price was as much disappointed as Kilmund had been, but she heartily approved of what he had done. "Don't worry, dear," she said, klesing him before he went to bed : "It will all come out right in the end."

Toward morning there was a hear fall of snow. Edmund was up early trying to earn all he could by shovelling snow from the sidewalks. "Why," a gentleman said, as handed him a quarter for cleaning a pavement in front of a large, handsome residence, "I thought I saw you the other day in Mr. Harroway's grocery store. Edmund looked closely at the man who was standing in the open front door and recognised him in a moment as Mr. Reamer.

But I .- I didn't quite suit Mr.

There was a twinkle in Mr. Reamer's won't press you to tell me just why you didn't suit Mr. Harroway because fancy I know a little about it already. I think, however, that you would suit me admirably as an assistant to my private secretary. You will be entrusted with large sums of money and with important messages, and I will give you eight dollars a week to begin

The morning sun barst forth daxaliggly on the fresh-fallen snow at Edmund's feet : but the brightness of it was as nothing to the brightness within the boy's beart as be thanked his newly-found friend and ran bome to tell his mother of the success that had trodden so closely upon the beels of fallure.

TO MAKE A FLYLESS TOWN Cleveland is to be classed and cate logued as a flyless town. In the compaign inaugurated for the extermination of the fly four steps have been

FIRST .- To educate the people as to the deadly nature of the fiv. SECOND. -To kill off all winter filesthose hidden about the houses, wait ing their esseen of forage.

THIRD .- To do away with all breedng places for files. FOURTH.-To trap all flies that hap-

As to the first step addresses on the subject are being made before the vartous women's clubs and in the schools bullating will be placed in the schools and one of my legs was broken." in the street cars and other public places, carrying the seculon of the My should not drop their toys.

is a problem for the individual house. | per?" keeper. Don't let one fly secape you, Bunt for them and kill them, for the cheking as he tries to speak : "Honwinter fly is the most dangerous of the oursble chief of the council, you know tace. The winter fly is the mother of I have a mouth that really opens all next year's terrible throng.

ness, for the fly is a scavenger, a lover throat. of filth and a habitual follower after fed. I saw Betty once take off the Olean houses, gardens and yards, clean streets and alleyways discourage the fly in its breeding proclivities, and therefore the doctrine of cleanliness is at once. The Elephant may speak to be presched by the anti-fly crusaders, along with the sermons on deadly character of the insect.

And carrying out the fourth step all thehouse furnishing stores in the city | The Tigen; "Where is the Klewill be asked to carry in stock and phant? Has anyone seen the post the sale of fly trape, marvelow | phant? little wire screen houses to be baited | One of the Pige : "I saw him in ped is doomed. With the campaignof | Bobby's fire engine." which may be placed on porches or milk waggon." window sills, on warbage palis-anywhere that flies are likely to congre- torspeak before, because she is ac gate, but always on the outside of the small: "I saw the Blephant just house-always outside. Catch the fly before ten. He had been put in the on the outside of the house before it toy sallboat and he was out salling in has a chance to come in and spread its the brook. He was too beavy for the polson and disease. This city is to be divided into distriots and sech district divided again into clans and clubs, and from each center, small or large, branches will phast is drowned!" reach out, grapoling with the subject that individual section.

cry. It is to be a fight of man against his enemy the fly, and of the fly against man .- Cleveland Loader.

FATAL ROMINDER

gurgled as he buried his manly mous- the ark. tache in his charmer's soft silk neck. that your father will consent to our marriage P" course, papa will be sorry to lose me-

"But." interrupted the ardent one "I will remind him that instead of losog a daughter be will gain a sou. A deadly pallor o'exspread her damank check. "Clarence," she oried, "If you really want me, Limplore you to my nothing so foolish. Papa has three such some living with him now, and here is very touchy on the subject." CORRECTED calves in a field near by.

WHAT SECAME OF THE ARK Y It is so late at night that the stars are chining brightly in at the nurser; window. Bobby and Betty are cound salespin their cribs. On the bearth Nosh's ark. It is made of wood and painted yellow and red on the outside with green and gold triumings on the It is a very beautiful Noah's comes a growling and blesing are muttering and chattering, very muc like the noise that is made by animals in a zoo. At last one of windows of the ark swings open, and the giraffe, an animal with a very long neck, puts out his bead and looks all about the nursery.

The Giraffe: "The council may be called. Bobby and Betty are asleep the soldiers are in the attic, and Indians are left out in the garden to tine. There is a Bear with a pole hold when he dances. There is a yellow Lion with a long mane. There is and a Leopard who has spots. There is a real Cow, and there are a few eyer. "Well," he said pleasantly, "I other smaller animals - Sheep, and affe follows at the end of the line. carefully closing the door of the ark behind him. The beasts all sit down in a circle on the purery hearth to bold a council.

The Tiger, who is the council chief "The beasts may stand in order, beglining with the bear. Kach may tell family to Toronto.

what has happened to him." The Bear: 'There was a company child in the nursery to-day. company child wanted to play me at the same time that Bobby wanted me. The company child pulled me, and Bobby pulled me, too. They broke my dancing pole. The Tiger to the Bear : "Did you ever pull Bobby P'

The Bear: "No." The Tiger: "Very good; you may be seated. The Lion is next." The Lion: "Betty has pulled ou some of my mane to sew on the reg doll's bead for bair."

The Tigger: "Does Betty like to have her mane pulled ?" All the animals: "No, indeed I" The Tiger, to the Lion : "Sit down What has the Leopard to say ?

The Leopard, who showed when be with the nursery paints to-day. . He | them most, gaveme purple and pink and green should never do. What has the Cow, bride. . .

to tall us ?" of the city, circulars and booklets will I was dropped the whole length of the lovelier than garden flowers at a on the streets, Thomas A. Edison be distributed among the children of front stairs to-day, and at the foot, wedding, and your girl friends should was a boy of this class and so was the schools, to be carried by them to when the children picked me up, they have taste enough to arrange them Daniel Manning, who, in later life betheir homes; posters and illustrated found that my horns were both gone artistically.

The Tiger: "Bobby and Betty in case of rain-or your church, can land Stanford, who was the prime has happened to the Giraffe this after-The extermination of the winter fly | poon? I notioed that he ate no sup-The Giraffe, coming forward and with a spring. Bobby fed me peanuts To do away with the fly breeding to-day, and wads of paper, and butplaces is merely a matter of cleanly tons. They are all sticking in my

The doll was taken away from Betty There is no sound in the council.

The Elephant is not there. He did not come with the other animals from the ark.

with milk, wherein a fly once entrap- backyard this morning, harnessed to education will be given complete in- One of the Dogs: "I mw the Riestructions for the use of the fly trap. | phant this afternoon drawing the toy The Oat, who has not been allowed boat, and it leaked before he was put in it. He was einking." All the animals, wringing their paws

'The Elephant le drowned ! The Elec The Tiger: "Hush! The Elephani in whatever way seems best adapted to | knows how to swim. He will make his secape. He will go back to the Death to the fly is to be the battle fungle and there he will live happly with the tribe again."

The Bear: "Let us follow the Ele phant. Let us go back to the jungle. All the animale: "We will go back and live with the tribe again." The animals break council and fe "Do you think, my darling," he low the Tiger, who loads them all into

The door of the sirk is closed, and the Giraffe looks out of the windows to see that none of the other toys are in a sound, unadulterated state a "Well, popking," she replied, "of awake. All the toys seem to be sleep. ing, so the Giraffe closes down the By its gradual and judicious use the window.

> came down when Santa Claus brought | restoratives. "It relieves those to it. Perhaps it sails through the nur- whom a chronic state of morbid sary window. Perhaps it sails out of despondency, and lack of interest in the open door and down the front life is a disease, and by tranquilizing way the ark salls because no one sees parseshing sleep imparts vigor to the it go, but it carries the animals all action of the blood, which being back to their tribes in the jungle.

But the surse does not know. Only to the public their especiar Quisine.

TWENTY YEARS AGO tions From Our Issue of Thursday. Augment 445, 1985 and their friends, with the members of Rockwood Howorth League on rocks on Mouday afternoon, and the Pray if you must, in your full heart, Lougue meeting in the evening, were thoroughly enjoyable. The latter The world is full of good advice, was in charge of Rev. Mr. Edge, and Of prayer and preise and preach was of a spiritual character. It was entered into heartly.

ing on a hay-lifter in his father's barn | A noble life's the best of creeds; on Munday, fell to the floor, and a And he shall wear a royal crown place of timber fell upon him. right arm was broken.

Rev. W. G. Charlton, who has just closed his pastorate of the Disciples Church, was presented at the close of the Bible Study Circle service on Friday evening, with a very appreciative address signed on behalf of the class and the teachers of the Sabbath School by Misses Balla Hill and Lila Toyell, accompanied by an elegant gilver berry dish. Camp Ivanhoe, Sons of Sootland, held an enjoyable garden party Mrs. O. S. Smith's grounds at Fairview wonderful mechanism God gave you Place Friday evening. Members from in your hand, to your foot, to your eye, Georgetown, Milton, Guelph and To- in your ear, and then ask some doctor Dogs and Pigs and a Cat. The Gir. routo were present. Visitors by train to take you late the dissecting room were met at the station by Past Chief and illustrate to you what you read Allan, Chief Arch, McNabb and Pip- about, and never again say that you ers Sharpe and Johnstone. A number have no capital to begin with. Equipof addresses were given by leading ped? Why, the poorest young man is rentlemen of the Order as wall as by Mr. D. Henderson, M. P., and others. Mr. Robert Craine le moving bie

Dr. McKeague, who has purchased Dr. Lowry's practice, arrived in town them what capital they had to begin The | vesterday.

Mesers. Arch. McNabb and W. H. Speight left yesterday for Bracebridge and true beart—the boy who has these where they will be engaged for a God-given gifts can never say that he month or so in putting in new vats in has no capital, or that he never had a the Beardmore tennery there.

at Fairview Place. Mrs. H. Ebbage, of Toronto, is visiting Acton friends this week. Mrs. Gray, of Hamilton, has been of an American," by Jacob Rils, and the guest of her son at "The Maples." the past week.

Miss Lottle Hemstreet has gone for a few weeks' visit at Aylmer. DON'TH FOR BRIDES

Don't get a more elaborate trosseau than you need. Hetter hold over part | who began life as poor boys." stands up that all of his snots are not of your money and get your handthe right color: "Bobby painted me somest fracks when you will need

Don't be a procrastinator in ordering your trossess. Last minute fit-The Tiger: "That is a thing a child tings do not make for a beautoous fact that the sharper the struggle the

Don't Invite more than your house-socommodata: Don't lack system in receiving and that the name and address of the sendbought, is marked in an alphabeted book as each package is opened. Obeck off each name as a note of thanks is written.

Don't use your calling cards for your "thank you" notes. It is a Michael Faraday, who became the wretched form. A wedding gift de wonder of the age in scientific schievemands a grateful and gracious answer ments, was also a newsboy. Poverty

The habit some girls have of shifting successful men. No, it was not "tuck ! is rude, and gives rise to many ridical- cannot be cheapened that way. The and stereotyped. A bride often makes and industry, will call it lock, but he a bad impression by her wedding is mistaken. The boy who trusts to notes to strangers that it takes years luck to advance himself in life is the to effice. Be grateful without being boy who is building splendid air outles

Don't fail to mention the name of your flance in writing your notes of thanks. The gift are cout to you both though they belong to the bride. HECHOSITY

(Time, the Sabbath Day.) The Elder-'Tammas, d'you ken the meanin' o' a work of necessity !" Tammas-"Ay, fine that." The Elder-"Wis shooting that have a work o' necessity ?" Tammas-"It wis that."

The Elder-"Hoo d'you mak"that As good's reason for necessity as No boy in the world has greater op-many now given on behalf of Sunday portunities in life than the Canadian bosiness. In fact, does not the above boy. If you were to travel in other contain the very gist of the reasons tands you would find this to be true. given for Sunday work ?-- Contributed. The "chances," as you may call them,

There mover was and never will be-universal panaces in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is beir. What would relieve one ill in turn would aggravate the others. We have, how ever, in Quinine Wine, when obtained remedy for many and grievous tile. Then the ark sails away. Perhaps cence and strengh by the influence It calls up the chimney the way it | which Quinine exerts on Nature's own stimulated, courses through the veins THE LIFTERS

Give him a lift! Don't kneel in prayer, Nor moralise with his despair. The man is down, and his great need The visit of Acton Epworth League Is ready belp-not prayer and creed. One grain of help just now is more. To him that tomes of saintly lore.

But give him a lift-give him a start,

But the generous souls Henry Cole, of Kequesing, while climb- Give like a Christian-speak in deeds. Who gives them a lift when they are l'once beard a big, bealthy boy of sixteen say gloomily, that there was no chance in this day for a poor chap. and I felt like saying to him as a noted minister once said to a congregation of young men to whom he was speaking: "No outfit, no capital to start with? Young man, go down to the library equipped as only the God of the whole universe can equip him." Most of the really great men of the day could simply hold up their two hands in reply, if you were to ask life for themselves with. Two hands, a healthy body, a clean mind, a pure chance in life. Scores and scores of Mr. W. Allan, of Chicago, is a guest men have sarned the first ten dellars they ever owned with their own bands. Read Booker Washington's "Up from Slavery," or "The Making > then, if you dare, may to yourself that there is no chance for you. The president of one of the greatest of the American colleges has said : "There can be no doubt that the captains of industry to-day, using that term in its broadest sense, are men Competition along all lines of effort was never so sharp as now, you say? What of it? If you have the spirit of the conqueror you will simply gird up your loins anew and rejoice in the greater the triumph. A long list Don't spenda fortune in decoration could be made of the eminently suc-The Cow "I no longer have horns. -- if you can't afford it. Nothing is conful men who once sold newspapers came Secretary of the Treasury in the cabinet of President Cleveland. Lomover to building the first railroad across the continent, and who left answering your wedding presents: See thirty millions to build and endow a great university, carped his first dolor, also the place where the gift is lar by digging and selling horse-radish on ble father's farm. What chance, what capital, had he with which to begin life for himself?

his two hands and the determination Don't fall to write your own notes. who, in later life, became eminently this responsibility to their bridesmaids in a single instance. Their success ansuccessful man, whose fallure is Don't make your notes perfunctory often due to his own lack of courage while another boy is slowly and earefully laying the foundation stones of the structure on which his real land permanent success is to be founded. Are you a poor man's boy? Then take to beart these lines written by > James Russell Lowell : What doth the poor man's sob inherit?

>
> Broat muscles and a sinewy heart. A hardy frame, a hardler spirit, > King of two hands be doth his part
> In every useful toil and art,
> A heritage it seems to me A king might wish to hold in fee.

The boy who is "King of two hands" and whose parents have sent him strong and well into the world, is talking folly when he says that there is no chance for him to do or to be anything are greater by far in our country than in other lands, and it is usually ble own fault when the Canadian young man is a total failure in life. Poverty is ofter the very inheritance a boy needs to develop all that is greatest and best in him. An inheritance of wealth often dwarfs offert and sharad-

THE OLDEST JOKE

What is said to be the most ancient papyri of the sixth Egyptian dynasty -about three thousand two hundred years anterior to the Christian ereworked in the Temple of Thath, cocupled appartments where his neighbors stairs. No one is perfectly sure which the nerves disposes to sound and and is to this effect :- "According to It is morning. Bobby wakes, up strongthening the bealthy, animal on either side were a copparemith and and thinks be will play with the functions of the system, thereby a carpenter. These honset artisans Noah's ark animals a little while be making activity a necessary result were industrious workmen, and made The farmer was escorting the newly- fore be is dressed. He cannot find the strengthening the frame and giving such a noise all day and most of the different hampegoing. His seter Kate varived tourder, a young city lady, ark. The nurse comes in to dress life to the digestive organs which night that the poor scribe was alhad tossed him in a good-natured way from the texts to the farmhouse, when Bubby. She says the ark may have naturally demand increased substance most driven med. At length by a I at once she spled a small herd of been taken away in the avening to be -result, improved appetits. North: stroke of craftiness he buttonholed rop & Lyman, of Toronto, have giver, each neighbor separately, and bribed the shild with reside this story will By the opinion of spientists, the wine they did-each with the other," This approaches nearest perfection of any