FOLLOWING UP the British press in Central Prison. suggestions that some of the British Cabinet Ministers should return the visit of Premier Borden and his leagues, it has been announced that Canada has extended an invitation Rt. Hon. Winston Uhurchill and other Ministers to visit the Dominion next fall when the navel debate is on.

BILLS have been introduced in Co green to reduce letter postage in t United States from two cents to cent per ounce, and the indications at favorable to such a change being o fected. President Taft and Postmaster Hitchcock are in favor of the duction, and there is little opposition to it from any quarter.

FOLLOWING THE ACTION recently taken by the Pennsylvania Railros in prohibiting the sale of liquor on dining care while passing through the State of New Jeropy, the Lackswans Railroad officials last week sent or word that bereafter there will be liquor sold on the cars of their road is New Jersey. .

A MARKDALE BUSINESS MAN WAS In Owen Sound at the Orange demon stration on the twelfth and was been · · to remark that he had seen but two men the worse for liquor, one of them an Indian, who said he brought his supply from the Indian Peninsuls. This man having an eye to business, interviewed several business men in the Sound as to the results of Local Option, and they were all strongly in its favor from a monetary standpoint,-Markdale Standard PICTION PREVAILS in the Canadian Magazine for August. There are in all eight short stories by Frederick C. Curry, C. Lintern Sibley, Ashby Ford, M. G. Cook, Ether Hamilton-Hunte and others, with sketches and verse by Professor Archibuld ManMabhan, Arthur Stringer, Verna Sheard, Isabel Hoclestone Mackey, Brian Bellasia and W. H. Belford, with articles by I A. Wrightman, W. Arnot Ornick, and Vincent Basevi. There are excellent illustrations, particularly the pen-and ink drawings by C. W. Jefferys.

THE PIONEER under the heading "Good Testimony for a Dry Town. mays: "A brief Item in the Guelph Mercury this week is, indirectly, pretty good testimonial to the working of the Local Option law in the fifteen days in the year instead of five neighboring town of Acton. The Item says : "Robert Shanks is very fond of the beer which made Milwankes or some other place famous. This morning he was up in police court for the third encountry time in two weeks and as he is on the Indian list, he w fined $10 and opsts. Robert halls from Acton, the dry town."

A DECISION which, if sustained, w. have an important bearing on the ad ministration of the liquor license act in local option municipalities was handed down by Magistrate Blake, Galt, on Saturday In the case of the Lion Brewery, of Berlin, charged with soliciting orders in a dry district by mesha of an advertisement in a lucal paper. ' Evidence' was heard June 20th; but judgment was reve ved. The Magietrate decided on Satur day that advertising was the same soliciting orders and therefore a cor travention of the act. He imposed fine of $200. It is undersoud that Me James Haverson, who saied for the defendants, will enter an apprai.

BAD BURGLARS AT STATHAMS' Theives Broke into the Store Early on Sunday Morning

BVIDENTLY KNEWTHEPREMISES Karly on Sunday morning this broke into the grocery of T. Statham & Bon, Main Street, and stole a caddy and a half of tobacco, all the fine cut tobacco they could find, a half dozen cans of sardines, and a few other small commodities.

Indications point to the fact that they first tried to effect an entrance a the rear, but, after smashing severel lights of glass, were unsuccessful getting into the main store by that route. They then went to the front and deliberately amashed a pane of THE WHEAT CROP of 1912 will be the glass in the door. This gave them free access to the lock and turning the key they walked in.

A basket of potatoes stood beside the counter. This was overturned on the the tobacco, etc. In their hurry in getting over the rear fence part of the THE JUDGMENT of the Privy Council | booty was lost, and more of it was picked up at another point.

The thieves came out to the street between Henderson's and Soper's stores, from which point the trail was lost. # Here's a True Story!

ON Saturday evening a gentleman came into our store and enquired if we could fit him out from head to foot, we certainly had great pleasure in telling him that we could as we had quite recently put in the celebrated American Shoe (The Regal) which made our stock of Men's Wear complete. He at once started purchasing and the whole transaction only lasted twenty minutes, the whole outfit only cost him twenty dollars. And did you see him on Sunday? He was, the
