ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 8, 1912.

SINGLE OUPIES---THREE CENTS

KVERY THUBBOAY MORNING ART THE

THE TICHTED AND PROM PROOM BULLDIAN TERMS OF BURGULIPTION-Ope dollar per year detaily in advance. $1.50 to subscribers in the Inted States. All subscriptions discontinued then the time for which they have been paid when the time for which they have been paid has expired. The date to which every subscription in paid is denoted on the address label.

Anymorphism Rates — Translent advertisements, in cents per line for each subscription and 5 cents per line for each subscription and 5 cents per line for each subscription. Contract display advertisements, for 10 or inches more, per annum, 10 cents per inch each insertion. Yearly contracts for reading matter 10 cents per inch each inser-

Advertisements without specific directions ill be intered till forbid and charged accordingly. Transient advertisements must be paid Advertisements will be changed once each above mentioned the extra composition must be paid for at regular races.

All accounts estimated monthly,

Editor and Proprietor

H. P. MOORE.

Entered to the state of the sta MEDICAL. FIRHOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL

Ensiness Directory.

L. R. O. P. Epochopan. L.R. F. P. & S. GLASCOW. MEMBER BRITISH MEDICAL ASSOCIATION MY Office Frederick Street

E. HOLMES, M. D. (Lond.) M. P. S. O. Late House Surgeon to St. Joseph's Hospital Late Chief House Physicism to the Victoria Hospital, Surgeon to The Meredith Memoria Maternity Hospital, London. Office at residence, Mill Street, opposite Phone No. 10. MOTOM

TORN M. MACDONALD, M. D., C. M. Late Prop. and Hupt, Massey Hospital. Discusses of Women and General Surgery. Fhone North mes

LEGAL. J. MACKINNON

BARRISTER, BOLLOTTOR, CONVEYANCER, OFFICE-Mill Street, in Stoyels' Block,

D J. MONABB. Court, Pourth Division Court County of Hal-en, Conveyancer, Agent Fire and Life Amurance Seal Betate Agent. Money to loan, etc. Owner-Perryman & Block ACTOM ONT.

DENTAL. THE STATE OF THE S DR. J. M. BELL, D.D.B., L.D.B. DRETTIPT, Office at Hasidance, Corner Mill and Frederick Momen GRADUATE OF TOBORTO UNIVERSITY The latest anneathetic used if desired.

DR. E. S. HARDIN, L. D. S. DENTIST Office-10 Dougles St. (upstairs) . (IUML)*H

TH. L. L. BENNETT, DENTIST, CHRILMAN BLOCK GROBERT

MISCELLANBOUS. ADVERTISING CONTRACTORS AND NEWS CORRESPONDENTS. 30 Fleet Street, London, E. C., England

A File of this Paper one be seen free of charge by visitors to London, to whom advise grade will be given if required. EMBANGIS NUMAN BOOKBINDER. Wysellam Ht., (Over Williams Store.)

Associat Books of all kinds made to order periodicals of every description carefully bound. FARRIAGE LICENSES. ISSUED OF MARRIAGE LACERSES Private Office. No witnesses required. less

Free Press Office, ACTON A. BLACK. . LICENSED AUCTIONEES For the Counties of Halton and Wellington, Live Stock and Implements, Furniture and Seal Metate Sales collected, Matinfaction guar-

NATE REMETERET. LICENSED AUDITORNER

Orders left at the Farm Prints office, Auton, or allegy residence in Acton, will be promptly at tended to Terms Rescondie. Also, money to loan on the most favorable orms, and at the lowest rates of interest, in sums of $400 and upwards.

and Deferie, and the city of Quelph, Bales conducted with satisfaction and up telephone in residence in connection with the field, where extended on the distance of the man be made. Orders left at France Panes of with W. J. Gordor, Harness Maker, acton, will receive immediate attention, acton, attention to pales in Acton and violally. PARSES TO GELL OR KENT. TAMES MCDONALD

LICENSED AUCTIONEE se, dales, etc., apply to lies srt. cu-17 Sydenham St., GUNLPH, whose let, Guelph, y be arranged at Faus Paras office.

The Acton Free Press Satisfaction

Watch Repairing Moderate

Prices

Is what we aim at

G. T. R. WACH NSPB CLORS

Quelph

THE REPORT OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PERSON OF Ice Cream Season

Has Come Again

Ontario

And we are ready to supply you with the best in the land. We have made improvements, and will be in better position to serve you in our We will also be prepared to fill all rders—large or small in bulk or You will find our story complete with best Confectionery, sholes and Pincappics, Oranges, Ransaus and Lessons at right prices, quality con-sidered.

Harold Wiles THE ACTOR CAPE - Mill Street the part of the property of the part of the part of the part

Waters Bros. Quelph

HEADQUARTERS FOR O. A. C. School Supplies NATURE STUDY

BOTANICAL

ETOMOLOGICAL

DRAWING

PAINTING 41 Wyndham Street Phone 550.

EDUCATION FOR SUCCESS

Large Business Office in a great Canadian oily had damissed in quick succession four incompetent strongraphers. Just then a smiling boy walked in and answered the manager's pointed question, "Mr. I got my GUELPH BUSINESS COLLEGE

That Was Reaths Age, but that boy is still on the job, holding successfully his well-paid position. His responsibility has increased, as has also his salary, for he is frequently in charge of that office. In short, where others falled he has made good and achieved success. ille Own Explenation, in a courteous letter to Principal MacCormack, is given in the words
"Thanks to your careful training." His happy experience is that of many whom we have educated for HUCCEPI, large, honor-

No Botter Time to enroll than NOW. Come direct to the College Office, 12f Upper Wynd-bess Htreet, or address Malcolm MacCormack, B. A., Prin.

PERSONAL PROPERTY AND PROPERTY GEORGE KEIL ACTON

PRACTICAL PAPERHANGER PAINTER

27 Years Experience GODD WORKMANSHIP PROMPT ATTRIFTION ESTIMATES FREE Committee of the commit

ETC.

..PAPER .. MAKERS

GHORGETOWN, ONT.

BOOK, NEWS AND COLORED PAPERS

JNO. R.BARBER

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

Foreste and other places, where others have to stand law exite in order to collect. We have have a large assortment of high grade the largest and less stock of Granie is the short.

Orders Wanted By the BOND Hardware Company

FOR GRANITEWARE -(Preserv ng Season) Kettles, Funnels, Spoons, itrainers, Measures, Pitchers, FOR TINWARE- Boilers, Kettles, 'ails, l'ans, Bread and Flour Boxes. Full line of Small Tins. FOR WOODENWARE - Tulm, Bowls and Bread Boards. Our show window displays a fu line of Preserving Granitoware. Good results obtained with proper utensils.

The BOND HARDWARE Co

REMOVAL NOTICE!

We find it necessary to move temporarily to our old location with Savage & Co., 2 ed, Leases Ground and Glames Pitted. A. D. Savage, Quelph

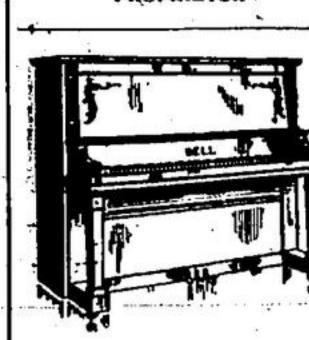

EXCLUSIVE OPTICIAN

ACTON LIVERY

> BUS LING The undersigned respectfully solicits the patronage of the publio, and informs them that Well Equipped and Stylish igu

A comfortable bus meets all trains between 10.00 s.m. and 6.19 p. m. Careful attention gives to every order. The wants of Commercial Travellers fully met.

JOHN WILLIAMS PROPRIETOR

The BELL Piano

"BUILT TO LAST A LIFETIME"

Bell Planos embrace every merit that has made the Hell an exceptional instrument. It has an artistic case design, beauty of finish, full, melodious tone and has the endurance so essential to the demande made . first-class instru-

Chas . W. Kelly

BINDER TWINE

WHAT KINDY.

Plymouth Gold Medal Silver Sheaf

WHEREY

R NOBLE N. F. MOORE, Manager

Spring @ Summer 0 E

the Home of Good Shoes"

THE GOIN'-TO-DO That hides in their homes, books, la their toys.

may it's blue! has such a strange name, its called Racks, Baskets, Ironing Boards, Butter To be around with a boy-it tie forgets ble own name, (George his mil. Willia or who? Bays he's romebody else, I'm a Golo'-

On an arrand," or "There's weeds in the garden to hoe. But while father is waiting and da in view. Willia's watching the pranks of queer Goln'-to-do. His mother says, "Wille may that you can' You mother" says be. strange but it's true, to-do. His teacher says, "Willis, give atten-

And Willie says, "You, a great scholar I'll be." But the studies are hard, and the questions not few. And be can't see his books for a bis knows that be chests; And night after night he finds some thing to rue. Because he's been fooled by this queer Goin'-to-do. Guardian.

数数数数数数

Its Outcome By Sorak Lindsay Schools

thoughtful expression.

t headlong at his companion. "Well," he ejaculated in immense satisfaction, "it's certainly not going It was more than a minute before I must put self; and the corner I have

Aren't we lucky chaps, Fritzie?" the other answered, and then his words came very slowly. "I suppose Prexy'd think it a pretty ducer and ungrateful thing for a fellow to turn eyed amszement. "Turn it down?" he repeated. "Turn it down? Why Fred, are you crasy? You don't expect to put in the way of any member of graduating class for two or three years? And he's offered it to u Britzie. You can't help feeling good at the honor, though I've sense enough to know that being your friend has had a lot to do in bringing me to to be true."

"I'm afraid it is." the other answerknowing look came into his face. father and his failling bealth. But I wouldn't worry about that. He's too up a chance like this."

It was this question of his future that had kept Fred thoughtful all the way across the campus; it was this same question which made him lie awake way beyond his wont that night; and it was this question, too. that by its perplexity and need of de. bledon, dulted fust a little all the experlences of that commencement knew, too, in that self-respecting way more promising future than be. And I to be junior partner of Parks & Son." Acton. How for at the sight Male to the father was silent. The pride in the boy's most ambitious dreams for a day had reached its ollmax. beginning. He had been keen enough ;

"He thinks I would succeed," Fred told himself again and again, "and I know I could. For oh, how I'd work, been, and in the boy's there rang, th and yet it wouldn't be like work, for | same note of independent manhood I'd enjoy it all so, it would be the reached and assured, which the college knowest kind of pleasure. It's what president had recognized that after think it's a fairy; not content is this I've Always wanted. It's what I've noon. To the father, weary and over always felt I could do and do-best. worked, it brought the sudden con

And I've always hated the store -hat- schousees of rest and immense relief ed and hated it. The tasted I got of "Oh. yes you will, father." Fred sale it during vacation always seemed just | with a smile. shout as much as I could stand. It | Again the father was silent. doesn't ween as though I could spend too, as the college professor had don His father says "Willie, I want you to my life in it. But there's dad, doar | read all the unspoken details of the And then the current of the youth's father read it, not with his keenness thoughts would turn. "It's dad that's of intellect, but with the upselfish > lately, and then pretends he hasn't. last. That's dad. It always was. He's so | But Fred only smiled. "It's no mor unselfish. He knew how much I hated than you have given-I could not the store without ever being told, and your son and not stand a test like thi what he wanted me to do. And I believe he was needing me in the store every minute of the time. It's a big burden for him to carry alone and he boy ! But wishing doren't help matchance and understands what it means | the worth of true friendship.

on my accepting it. So my problem lan't so easy after all." He made his decision, however, just gineering you see and you know how as he had known in his heart from the first be would make it. But it was not until the afternoon before the actual commencement exercises that |go of it. Fred, down there." Be acted upon it. It was then that he once more sought the office of the college procident and found himself face answered cheerfully. to face with the man who for four years had been his ideal. Fred knew of few things in the world he cared more to do than to succeed in this man's eyes, and it seemed to him, as On a bright fall afternoon Philip be seated himself in response to the older, more, mature looking, a prosously out of the president's president's bidding, as if he had come perous and successful engineer, walked office, and one, the shorter and to take the step that would forever down the main street of the old town heavier set of the two, closed the door make that ambition impossible. Still and paused before the general met softly behind him. Both were like he did not hesitate. It was a very chandles store that bore the sign of able young fellows; one could see straightforward fuch that he turned "Parks & Son." He could scarcely that at a glance. They had honest toward the older man, and in the tones believe it to be the place he was look faces with straightforward, intelligent of his voice was a finality and a decisting for and which he had seen often eyes, and there was a swing and light- ion which told that for him boyhood during the vacations of his college was left behind and manhood with its years. That place had been a substanyouth, energy, and courage. The one | realisation of its responsibilities and | tial looking store, to be sure, but position you offered to me the other prising to find in such a burg.

chair, and leaning back looked at the old times and the new. held them silent. One was full of sup- eyes. The expression on the clean-cut His family was mated with their auce

"Why not, Fred?" he saked quietly. | you." and the boy's decision was final and right. And as he snoke. Fred knew needs me, just now. For the present fitted myself for, back of me." "I sen," the other answered, and Fred know that the matter was settled.

He felt relleved and at case as he had not felt for a wook past.

self. Yes, it was a good businessgeneral supply boute in a thrifty, with a prosperous outlying farm district. The store had been his grandfather a before his father had it. The roung man did not add that it was in interests that meant most to him, and that, though it was a good business, it could never offer the future that the Why, the whole thing seems too good highest success of his own profession ble face and his tone were serious) of which this ambitious youth dreamed-onuld do. But the other man knew and understood. When Fred arose to leave, the president arose with him and held out his hand. Fred took it and they stood for "I ser," Fred, he said. "It's your an instant, each subily conscious that they were meeting, not as pupil and and teacher but as man to man.

"Remember one thing Fred," the procident's tone was deep and atimul ating. 'The man who can succeed In one line is generally the man who can succeed in another." Fied left the office cheered, an-couraged, ambitious, and happy as be thought he never could be again. This feeling stayed with him forcibly all the rest of the day and made him scrong for the intersies with his father, which came that evening. The whole family, father, mother and slaters, had come that morning to be on hand for the commencement ex- thing. ercises and it was not until evening that the father and win were left alone together. There had been little need on gommencement day, those of civil for talk between them, however, for course, and the faculty knew it. Fred | that words seemed almost sacrilege. of a person without conceit, that there | good one." Fred spoke lightly and was no member of the class whom happily. "I'm not ashaued of it, but the faculty looked upon as baving a I'm not going to take it. I'm going

this opening, an opportunity beyond | his boy which had dominated him a "I can't let you do that, Fred," he to read, too, all the college president's | said presently, very firmly and quiet

> The answering tones of his son we firmer than those of the father he boy's struggle and victory, though the of school, and to do it he has sacrificed at his son lovingly and frankly. "It's himself more than I ever realized until I too much for you to give," he said at he sent me here pretending that was -It is my turn now and there is mother and the girls. We must keep home

The father's expression wavered "You," he replied heeltatingly, "There needs help-the kind of help a son can lare mother and the girls and the give. If only one of the girls was a home." Fred knew he had conquered Fred looked back to his graduation ters, nor keep me from being the only | day, after it was closed, as one of the son. And yet (here again the current | happlest of his life. But it was a little He loves to play with him though he of Fred's thoughts would change) hard to break the result of his decision there's nobody prouder of my_record to Philip Gray. But Phil, be found as bere than father, and I wouldn't want | well as the president and his father. him to think I had failed to gain a understood. And the way the two good opening when other fellows had clasped bands when Fred was through -R. Walter Wright, in the Christian succeeded. And if he hears of my making his decision known showed

"You must let me know all about things down at the canal, Phil," Fred sald. "It'll keep me in touch with an-Interested I'll be in it all."

"You may be sure I will." Ph promised cordially. "You'd have a big "I'm going to make a 'big go' of the

It was five yours before the two friends met again, and the place meeting then was Fred's home town scarcely to be compared with this one "I have come to tell you, President | This was at least three times the six Spear," he said, "that much as I ap- of the other, with show windows and had the square jaw and the more preciate it. I cannot accept that canal a look of prosperity and activity surcourse, he commented on it all to The other man turned a little in his friends later, as they talked over the youth before him with keen, kindly "Oh, yes," the older Mr. Parks said. face, even more than the forceful re- at the supper table. "Oh, yes, we are serve of his manner, revealed the man | by all odds the largest mercantile and told the secret of his power-keen- house in the county now. Everybody ness of intellect and breadth of mind, concedes that. And it was Fred here coupled with a sympathy equally who did it. There's nothing like having a bon in the business with

Fred smiled the old slow smile the

what he thought about it I would prove lt." "And do you like it-this business full of an uncomprehending amaze-like it to succeed."

better than you would have liked ongineering?"

Fred did not answer at 'once' and when he did the smile had gone from even beyond his wont.

"Phil." he said. "I think there mother reason why I have succeeded. In all three five years that question you have just put to me is one I have never seked myself; and as long as I live. I never mean to ask it. I keep from it by looking at father. And when I see the change in him, I keep from asking it."

DON'T BR A KNOCKER The following from one of our changes to well worth reprinting : "There is so much bad in the best talk about the rest of us." These words carry with them quite s lesson If we would but properly our sider them. Do not be a chronic faultfinder, continually registering objections to this, that and the other

If you have a legitimate kick, file

ity but don't go around looking for

The man who is forever ceeting about in hope of discovering comething that he can complain about, is payor landmark, was cut down the other day to make way for a new store to be built by Mrs. Andrew Morrison. A heavy storm bere last Tuesday evening did unich demage to wires and telephone service, also striking the dwelling of Mr. C. Kirkpatrick, Church Street. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. N. P. Mclam both sustained slight shocks, but recovered in a few president of Toronto University, died during the week. .

These are the successful candidates from Acton Public School at the recent looked up from his paper. "I don't Entrance Examinations at George- believe I've any bent for politics," she town: Chas. H. Moore, Fred Ross. said in response to his inquiring Holon Symon, Beatrice l'orkins, Frank glance. "Every time there's an elec-McIntosh, Rollie W. Smith, Arthur Lion of officers of the club I get into T. T. Moore, teacher.

In the Municipal Council the resigpation of Dr. W. H. Lowry, Roses, confidingly, "I didn't really care a fig. was presented and scorpted, owing to who is in office so long as I'm not. ble removal to Guelph.

plication of Miss Sarah Shortt was out sident, or secretary or on committees. motion of Trustees G. B. Cooks and J. Mclant, accepted, and she was engage I partial. But that wont work. If you ed at a $275 malary. Arrangements are now about complete for the grand Union Mass Meeting of Sunday Schools to be held in be out with both sides. the park next week.

CHANGING THE ATMOSPHERE

Jimmy Johnson dragged himself angrily downstairs, and, with a fine was sure of the nomination if I would disregard for the feelings of those who | vote for her. Would I? I thought it across the porch and threw himself Mrs. Tufts immensely, she is so lovely Into it. It was only six o'clock, and it and charitable. was vacation time; but what was the "To-day, just before balloting, Edith not sleep for the heat? Certainly the vote for Mrs. George. Edith said I hot and humid night that awaltering owed it to her-you know she has just humanity had just passed through helped me make over my blue foulard, had no duplicate. Worn out and and canned all those peaches for me wretched, Jimmy felt that he hated when cook barned her hand. the world in general, and, in parti- "Everybody wanted Mrs. Georges cular, the charge d'effaires of the at- Edith said, and if I voted for her she and slapped him on bis disconsolate I admire and respect her very much, and perspiring back.

his father's voice. Jimmy looked at his frivolous parent | ad her it was only proper that..." in amazement : then, before he quite knew what he was doing, be laughed for both W interrupted Mr. Eliot. shorpishly at first, and then beartly. And his father laughed with him. promised Edith because-" And after this performance Jimmy discovered that the birds were caroling | both ?" aweetly in spite of the weather. And wasn't a slight breeze actually percept. not be much of a politician, but I was lble? And the world did look mighty | brought up to keep my word," said fresh and green and attractive in the Mrs. Eliot, with dignity.

parly morning ! "That's, right, Jimmy!" said his father heartily. "That's just the way I was effected. It never falls, though t sounds foolish. By 'it' I mean the greeting I just 'handed' you-to use the elegant phrescology of your

"One day, when I was eighteen and struggling against many disadvantages in the business world, a new sister-innew ideas. And on her trail there arrived a spell of the hottest weather in my recollection. It was very much or the order of last night, only worse and its arrival had been entirely un beralded a fact that made the affliction all the harder to bear. . "The fifth day of the spell broke the record, and on the following morning I did exactly what you did after a harrowing, sleepless night. And I took a vicious delight in making as much life in a small town?" Phil's voice was noise as possible as I went down the I could the poor fellow still had trouble stairs." (Here Jimmy Junior blushed with his eyes." in spite of the roughness of his chin and checks.) "I sat down in the dining room. wanted no broakfast. I wanted availabled the eve-doctor. "He had to nothing except to get out of the seething world and sleep forever. I didn't be couldn't add the figures correctly. ntend to go to work. I didn't care Ob, how sad! Poor man, what did about anything.

the door, looked at me and laughed though her own face was pale from chuckle: "You see, a gas company exhustion. " 'Merry Christmas, Jimmy !" ing ; and when I recovered I felt refreshed and had a fine appetite.

"My new sister-in-law put her head employer observing me intently. the end of the day he called me to " 'Young man,' he said, you're 'the "Several times that day when ooked up from my work I found my first cheerful-looking object I've seen all lile to which flesh is beir. What since this hot spell set in. " I don't know how you managed aggravate the others. We have, how It but the fact that you do manage it ever, in Quinine Wine, when obtained has helped me to a decision. The in a sound, unadulterated state a management is vacant in a branch remedy for many and grievous illa. office up-country. The chief require- By its gradual and judicious use the ment is an ability to look cheerful and frailest systems are led into convaleskeep your temper in spite of the cence and strengt by the influence weather, figuratively speaking. You | which Quinine exects on Nature's own are young, but if you want to try it go restoratives. It relieves those that sheed. It's more work but it's more whom a chambe state of more wedge, and the rost was may."

MOTHERS DAY IN THE MEIGH-DOCHROS

A woman in Maryland contributes the following to the Woman's Home any boy in the class. He knew it, of charged with happiness and sympathy the man who is siming to bolld up his Companion in the Department of life to the digastive organic which Practical Household News: .

three all'day, while the other mothers sportaches nearest perfection of an

THE PLIES REVENCE

Ton little files All in a line-One got a swat, Then there were.... Nine little flies Gricaly sedate Licking their chops—

Swat there were ... Right fittle flies Relaing some more-

Swat! Swat! Swat! Swat! Then there were Four little files

Colored green blue-Swat! (sin't it easy ?) Then there were .. Two little files Dodged the civilian-

KABLY WENT DAY THERE WERE A MILLION. -Buffalo News.

'Mrs. Ellot sighed so deeply as she took out her hatpine that her husband avold it." "You see, Harry," she continued, like all the members very well, and In the Public School Board the ap- would as lief have one as another pre-> forced to sweat and agonise, over candidates. You must be partizan, or "You know Mrs. George has been president for four years and every year Mrs. Tufts has tried to get Mrs. George out and berself in. About a

Some one came softly up behind him it over, and said I would yote for her. she is so witty and forcible when she "Merry Christmas, Jinmy !" oried presides, and she speaks French boautifully, and I thought if everybody want-

> "Yee, I promised Mrs. Tufte, as "But you didn't actually vote for

. "Do you meen that promised to vote

LONG WORDS Ourloaity seekers sometimes expend some of their spergy in making a list of the longest words in the English language, but the list usually includes words that are not yet recognized as legitimate. The longest distinctly recognized word the editor believes, is "transplatantialionalist," which has twenty-three letters. It may be found in the Century Dictionary. It is said that the Sanskrit the ancient language of the Hindus, has one word of one hundred and fifty-two syllables and the Greek one of seventy-seven sylla bles. The latter was made by Aris-

THE VERY THING "You it was a very bad case," said the oculist reminiscently, "Do what

"What was the matter?" asked hi

"You see, he saw everything double, give up his berth at the bank because "It wasn't so bad for him in the

The essentials to success in business are that a man should know himself know the other fellow, and know his own business. -- Mr. A. F. Sheldon.

There never was and never will be a universal panaces in one remedy for would relieve one ill in turn would pay too, and it's in the line of advan, despondency and lack of interest in life is a discess, and by tranquilising "I took it; it' proved the opening the perves disposes to sound and refreshing sleep -imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the volus strongthening the healthy, animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result strong thening the frame and giving naturally demand increased substance one day in a week that they call rop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine. her own and the children of the other By the opinion of middlete, the win on the markel. All dendelate sell it little man ! know that you can belg

tion to me.

EXECUTE EXECUTE SEC. ness in their footsteps that told of looking, but the other had the more muscular build. It was he, too, who they crossed the college campus and turned their footsteps toward their fraternity house; but different reasons pressed excitement, the other, quiet and thoughtful, even beyond his wont. When they reached the room the two had shared now for more than three years of their college course the manner of one of them at least, change | keen, and equally broad.

to take me long to accept that job.

it. Such a chance paye for all our work. And It'll keep us together. ed without a smile. The light-haired youth eyed his friend again questioningly; then week. Two degrees were to be Fred's

There's a queer little thing that lives to one has described it though some

Bo every day with this elfin he meets

Belert Yamily Reading

with the fair hair was decidedly good Its independence, were his. Neither young men spoke much as ed decidedly. This time it was the taller of the two young men who The question was almost a form. The "How did you ever do it, Fred?" closed the door. He slammed it shut man knew, as plainly as if he had Phil asked when he and his old chum law arrived at our place with man with a bang, and grabbing a soft pil- board all the details of the situation, low from a neighboring couch, hurled

His friend looked at him in wideanything better than that do you? Didn't Proxy say it was an opportunity beyond anything he had been able good a father to ever ask you to give Fred suitled a very confident smile. 'Ob, no,-" he said with a little laugh. "he'd never ask it-not father." And than he added to himself in an undertone which his companion did not hear, "And that's just the point."

In our windows we can show but a few of supt electrical engineer, and in both the father's pride in the boy had made our latest, but those shown will give you onurses be had made the best record of an atmosphere about them all day so eatlefaction in offering it to him.

Poetry.

old dad." given me all these glorious four years sympathy of fatherhood. He looked be'll never think of himself and invist

"It's my father." Fred responded. simply. "He's not strong and he

It was not the end of the interview. however, for the president had questions of kindly interest to ask, Fred told his little story simply, gladly. warmed with a new interest in it himhealthy town of five thousand people a world utterly abut away from the staunch."

mercantile business instead," Fred

Phil had once known so well. I think the secret lies, perhaps, h remark 'Prexy' made to me the day I went to bim to 'turn down' she canal lob. He told me the man who succoods in one line is generally the man who can succeed in another. I made up my mind then that if that was

Fred smile again. "Of course," he said simply. "I had to make myself Phil crossed and uncrossed bis long loge; then leaned forward with his eyes looking searchingly at his friend. "You don't mean to tell me." he renested, the same note of incredulty in his volce, "that you like that business of us, and so much good in the worst of us, that it ill behooves any of us to town and community. Seeking and blundering are so far. good, that it is by seeking "and blunduring that we learn. -- Goethe. Coals of fire are not intended

TWENTY YEARS AGO Items From Our Issue of Thursday. August 11th, 1988

Mrs. Gardiner, of the check lies, sustained a fracture of the left arm by a fall last wook. Mrv. Margaret Nicklin has purchased the Maloney property on Willow Ht. The large willow tree at the corner of Mill and Frederick Streets, an old

Sir Daniel Wilson, the venerable

Pearson, Gordon Dean, John Mason. - some kind of a mess, try as I may to

"I had no favoritee. I'm truly imbelong to a woman's club you are week ago she came to me and said she were still in bed, pulled a chair moisily over and said I would, for I admire nse of staying in bed when one could Reymonds came to me and said I must would get the nomination. I thought

"Why, of course I did, Harry. I may tophanies for a special purpose .-Chicago News.

end," said the great man with beard about his case, and offered him she good pay to go round and read their meters for them !". .. -..

H