EDITORIAL NOTES
The New Law in Ontario provides that in future when Division Court cases are to be tried before a jury, the jurors must be selected from different municipalities over which the Court has jurisdiction. The old law allowed the jurors to be selected from any municipality.

THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION has given out the results of the recent entrance examination of High School candidates in the Province. Out of a total of 22,165 candidates who tried the entrance examinations into the High Schools this year 12,038 passed—about 54 per cent, or 32 per cent, over the previous year. In Acton 100 per cent of those who wrote passed.

FOR BUYING LIQUOR in a municipality where no license are granted, Councillor Barnes, of Hamilton, Ontario, has been fined $20 and costs last week. His act automatically forfeits his office in the Council and disqualifies him for two years. In addition to this, should he decide to continue in his seat by paying a fine of $10 for each time he occupies it.

THE PROHIBITION of the proposed new motor car highway from Toronto to Hamilton would saddle one-fourth of the cost—$200,000—upon the four counties through which it is to pass. We venture the opinion that farmers generally throughout the counties concerned will not consider the proposal a most desirable one. Why should farmers, and ratepayers generally, have to pay for this fancy pavement twenty or twenty-five miles away, which they would never use, and which will be built principally in the interests of the city automobilists. The road will be a very nice lakeside drive, but the motor league people should not endeavor to saddle any part of the cost on the rural population remote from it.

MARRIAGE
Mrs. Catherine McPhedran passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alex. Campbell, on Monday afternoon, 29th July, at a few weeks' illness. A physician from St. Thomas and a trained nurse were in constant attendance, but their efforts could not save her life. The deceased was born in Ireland nearly 81 years ago, and was married with her parents when six months old. They settled in Nassagaweya, where Mrs. McPhedran lived practically all her life. Her husband died in 1901. One son, Alexander, of Nassagaweya, and Duncan, of Eramosa, survive, in addition to one brother, James Hunter, of Oregon, and the two sisters, Mrs. Isabel Miller, of Lloydminster, Sask., and Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis, of Nassagaweya.
The remains were brought to Nassagaweya and the funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon from the residence of her son.
This township lost a very worthy resident through the death of William Logie, after an operation at Guelph General Hospital of Tuesday. He was an elder in the Presbyterian Church for years. The funeral will take place from his late residence, lot 18, con. 5, to the Nassagaweya Presbyterian Cemetery, on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

OBITUARY
The Women's Institutes of Everton and Oshingaie have undertaken to raise funds for the improvement of the Everton cemetery. Mr. J. J. Hill, whose parents are buried there, has contributed liberally. The receipts of the garden party on Friday evening also go for that purpose.
The garden party was the best of the season. Mr. Harvey has improved since six years ago, and his selections were all that could be desired. The Salvation Army band, of Guelph, were also present and rendered some excellent music. The speeches were good, the attendance was good, the supper was good. In fact the event was a success generally.
A load of young folks were enjoying themselves on the grounds with cow-bells, etc., but happened to find their carriage wheels severely wired for the return trip.
Boston Bros. have disposed of their 200 acre farm with cow stock and implements to Mr. Urwin Walsh for $3,500.
Many of our citizens attended the sports in Erin and Acton on Monday. Mr. A. Sinclair went up north on a fishing trip.

LIMBODDS
Mr. W. McDowell, of Toronto, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. H. Lepoldy.
Mr. G. K. Polkinghorne and Miss Denby are visiting in Erin.
Mr. P. A. Ivers, of Toronto, spent Sunday and Monday with Limbods friends.
Miss Olive Marshall and Miss Winifred Polkinghorne were home for the holiday.
Limbods ball players met at Stratford on Saturday. The score was 12-3 in favor of Limbods.
Mr. J. Campbell, of Duluth, Minn., visited his sister, Mrs. M. Sharp, on Sunday.
Mr. W. Marshall and son, of Toronto, spent the holiday at the home of Mr. Richard Marshall.
Miss M. Jones is home from Toronto for a few weeks.

CIVIC HOLIDAY CELEBRATION

An Enjoyable Programme Provided and the Proceedings Generally Successful.
SPLENDID BASE BALL MATCHES
The civic holiday demonstration on Monday, the proceeds of which are for the benefit of Eddie Waddell, the baseball player who was so unfortunate as to sustain a double fracture of his right leg in a match between Acton and the Judsons, of Toronto, on the first of July, was very successful indeed.
When the unfortunate accident happened, the members of the Judson Club magnanimously offered to return to Monday, the proceeds of which are for the benefit of Eddie Waddell, the baseball player who was so unfortunate as to sustain a double fracture of his right leg in a match between Acton and the Judsons, of Toronto, on the first of July, was very successful indeed.

The local club accepted the kind offer, and players, merchants and citizens generally joined heartily in the effort, made preparations for a big day, and used every endeavor to provide an affair worth remembering. The day was as good as their word. They arrived in town bright and early on Monday morning, by first train, with ribbons and banners flying, accompanied by a Kiltie pipe and drum band, and a brass band. They evidently came to enjoy a day in the country and with their band and a superabundance of megaphones and lung power they certainly kept the loud tones lively all day long.

The Judsons brought with them a specially prepared club song sheet, containing a dozen songs set to popular air, and embracing local hits, which they sang with gusto during the day. The following were a trio of the favorites:
There's some pretty girls in Acton, and you'll get good satisfaction
If you're looking for a girl, who will come like a fire of $10 for each time he occupies it.
We are counting here quite often, because it's local
There's some pretty girls in Acton, and you'll make this our home, too.
No beer for sale, no beer for sale, no beer for sale in Acton!
You'll have to go to Georgetown for beer, you know, they don't sell it here.
You can't get drunk in Acton, for liquor is not for sale!
So we'll have to walk right in, and turn around and walk right out.

All the nice girls live in Acton, all the nice girls are here in town; for there's some pretty girls in Acton, and you'll make this our home, too.
You've a bunch of pretty roosters, and a team that's just the same. Win or lose, you're just the same. Ship about 100 lbs.

Two baseball matches were played and these afforded the best exhibition of baseball in Acton since the exhibition of baseball in a long time. The Judsons are crack ball players and manifest an efficiency of team play rarely shown in amateur clubs. In the first game they thrashed the home team, and the cheering rain fell for about an hour. Both teams were in fine shape and when the rain came the score was 1-1.
At four o'clock the stadium was packed and the crowd was in the second game. It was exciting from start to finish. The well sustained team playing of the Judsons outclassed the home players, however, and almost shut them out from scoring. The score was 7-1 in favor of the visitors.
The Judson battery was Flood and Freeman and the Acton's was Lee, Waddell and Nelson Ryder. Gunner Goodcup umpired both games.
During the afternoon the athletic contests were run off and resulted as follows:
RUNNING BARS—N. Ryder, Milton; J. Hooper, Toronto.
FIVE MAN'S RACK—Dr. Cox, Robt. McPherson.
THROWING BALL—Lee, Waddell, Frank Holmes.
BALL PLAYERS, 100 YARD RACK—N. Ryder, J. Hooper, and Waddell.
GIRL'S RACK, UNDER 16—Clara Hinton, Clara Workman.
LADIES' RACK—Lottie Mason, Hazel Mason.
THREE-LADDER RACK, BALL PLAYERS—E. Waddell and F. Holmes.
SMOKING RACK—Alex. Mann, W. Perkins.
SHOOT RACK—G. Caswell, R. Spelght.
BOYS' RACK, UNDER 16—W. Hannagan, Richard White.
THROWING BALL, UNDER 12—Ernest Spelght, Arthur Anderson.
The members of the Committee deserve credit for the successful manner in which the day's proceedings were handled.
The proceeds will add a considerable sum to the Eddie Waddell benefit fund.

THE DYNES HOUSE WAS RAIDED
By Provincial Officers Last Saturday Night and Considerable Liquor Was Recovered.
DYNES TO BE TRIED SHORTLY
For four weeks past complaints have been made to the authorities that Edward Dyne was illegally dispensing liquor at his home on Church Street. What caused suspicion was the fact of frequent cases of beer being delivered in large quantities than any ordinary family, even with a false name, of this party's name to the constable. Added to this the class of men seen frequenting the place after night and Sunday, naturally created suspicion.
The Provincial officers have for some time been surveilling the place and have obtained a long list of the names of the frequenters.
To make the case the stronger the Department decided upon a raid last Saturday night and detailed two of their most experienced men to this place. The raid was made between nine and ten o'clock. Evidence of the suspected character of the place was found, and Dyne was caught unhandcuffed with a fresh supply of whiskey and beer he had just brought from Georgetown.

The case is a serious one and will be tried under the new law, in which heavy penalties are provided. The time for the trial will be set by the Provincial License Department.

THE BURGLARY AT STATHAM'S

Most of the Loot Recovered from an Impudent Cuckoo
A WARRANT OUT FOR BURGLAR
For some three days last week Chief Lawson and his assistants searched for their missing class he had secured for the effort to locate the booty scattered from the store of T. Statham & Son, on Sunday morning, 29th ult., and to secure the burglar.
On Thursday he got pretty hot upon the trail and late that night came upon the most of the stolen tobacco, olive oil and sardines.
As was stated last week the route from Statham's shop was by the back way, through the garden to the rear of the store of Messrs. Henderson & Co. and Geo. Super. Here the trail was lost. It was subsequently ascertained, however, that an acquaintance affected to the hall over Statham's store and those premises were made the rendezvous of the young man guilty of the burglary.
After getting the various commodities from the hall, he pulled out the bag, deposited the tobacco and other commodities in this hiding place, then scrawled on the back again and replaced the instrument into the customary place. His only explanation was that he had gotten the worse of liquor at the Provincial Officers of the License Department the following Saturday night, and did not realize what he was doing.
The young man belongs to one of our leading houses, and by his fatherly hand he has brought his own sorrow to the hearts of his parents, who have always striven themselves to provide a comfortable home and attractive surroundings. For their genuine sympathy will be felt by all.

Mr. T. Statham laid an information against the young man on Friday afternoon. A warrant was issued, but up to the hour of going to press the Chief has been unable to locate the offender.

METHODISTS BACK IN THE GAME
They Write by a Clean Score from the Anglians
On Thursday the Methodists got back into the fray and pulled off a game with the Anglians. They scored the first run and then the Anglians pulled up and tied the score. Later in the game, with Waddell on second, Glad played a pretty one and Waddell managed to cross the plate.

THE CLOSEST GAME THIS YEAR
On Thursday the Methodists got back into the fray and pulled off a game with the Anglians. They scored the first run and then the Anglians pulled up and tied the score. Later in the game, with Waddell on second, Glad played a pretty one and Waddell managed to cross the plate.
