Sir Thomas Lipton tells the hunger ous story of a Scotchman who went a race meeting for the first time in his life. The old man's friends persuaded. him to risk sixpence on a borse, a forty to one chance.

With much trepidation the Scotch man handed in sixpense, and, strange to relate, the horse won. When th bookmaker banded out a sovereign and sixpence to Bandy, the latter could not believe his own eyes. "Do you mean to tall me I get all this for my saxpence?" he asked. "You do," replied the bookmaker. "Ma onneclanor !" exclaimed Sand) "Tell me, mon, how long has this thing been going on P" Though Sandy had "greenhorn's luck" and "picked the winner" on his first venture, he might not do so again in 90 times out of 100, as those who "follow the ponies" could tell him.

150,000 Free Homesteads ALONG THE LINE OF THE

CANADIAN NORTHERN RAILWAY Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta

The Government has thrown open for entry to see Free Homesteads—the acres each—along the lines of the Canadian Northern Ruitway in Manitoba, Hashnichewan and Alberta. At least 35,000 of these are within a radius of so miles of operated lines of the Company, while the balance will be served by Branches now under construction of the large test. Alberta, the Province already noteworthy for its feetile lands and minbrious Cibrate-takes first place in the total of homesteads offering. But the wonderful Wheat Lands of hankatchewan are well represented in the free Parms which have been thrown open for entry. Manitobs—the oldest settled of the three—holds out a large number.

Saskatchewan, 48,080 Alberta, 74,000 Manitoba, 21,800 Western Canada is so big that pratically every farming condition is met with in the combined total. There is open prairie, the bluff country, which needs some clearing, and also the rolling land where loans and climate are admirably adapted to the needs of mixed farming. The atmosphere—Clear, Dry and Invigorating—makes this land the best land to . The best Homesfeads are rapidly being taken up, and intending settlers will be well advised to make their selection without delay.

Write for a free booklet giving the location and a description of the land being offered. A copy will be mailed to anyone making application to R. L. Pairbairs, Asst. General Passenger Agent, Canadian Northern Building, Toronto, Ont.
