SOMEBODY'S CARLINO

Somebody watches and walt-for you-Thinks of you delly and dreams Well may the sky of your life be blue, Your hope of the luture bright !

Over the land and the waters far Homebody's wondering where you are, Praying his love may be like a star.

Lighting you bonse for sourchody. Ah, I wonder if ever for me Homebody's heart will grow heavy,

Ah, I wonder if I may be A star to shine in somebody's night Will somebody ever call me "dear," And say "My darling, you need t You need not trouble, for I am here

HE WAS LONELY

One night after the curtain was rung up at a certain English theatre, "Standing Room Only" was not needed, a small boy was dispovered sobbing in front of the box office. The manager of the thestre went to the lad and kindly asked him what the trouble was. "I want money back!" sobbed the boy. surprise the manager saked the reason for such a request. "Because because I'm afraid to sit up in the gallery all alone I" be walled. His money was

The transition from winter's cold to summer's best frequently puts internal complaints always painful and often serious. A common form of disorder is dysentery, to which many are prone in the spring and summer. The very best medicine to use in subdaing this painful ailment is Dr. J D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial. Itis a standard remedy, sold everywhere.

A Pleasant Purgative.-Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are so completed as to operate on both the stomach and the bowels, and so that they ant along the whole alimentary and excretory passage. They are not drastic in their work, but mildly purgative, and the pleasure of taking them is only equalled by the gratifying effect they produce. Compounded only of vegetable substances the curative qualities of which were fully tosted, they afford relief without chance of injury.
