The Acton Free Press.

VOLUME XXXVIII.---NO. 12.

Every Subscription Paid in Advance

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 19, 1912.

Subscription Price, $1.00 Per Annem.

SINGLE COPIES---THREE CENTS

The Acton Free Press

TERMS OF SUPPLIESTION—One dollar per year strictly in advance. $1.50 to enhersibers in the United States. All subscriptions discontinued when the time for which they have been paid has expired. The date to which every subscription in paid is demoted on the address label.

Anytherappe Earss—Translant adverticements. If cants per Hospital line for first insertion and 5 cents per line for each subscription to the contract display advertibemeetion. Contract display advertibe for 20 or lackes more, per change, 20 r lack each (seartion. Yearly contracts inserted till forbid and sharped second-Transient advertisered sharped secondtere mentioned the extra comp t mid for at regular race, All becomes collected monthly, H. P. MOORE, Editor and Proprieto Susiness Birectory.

The state of the s MEDICAL.

THOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL L. R. C. P. EDGGGGGG. L. R. F. P. & R. GLASSOW. Manager Referred Manager, Association Bro Office - Frederick Street

DOUGLAS LAKE, M. D. Physician and Surgeo Licentinie of College of F. and S., Gulario, Mishigum and California.

Free Gendmate University of Mishigum and of the Oblings and New York Post Graduate Streets and Howyltake; Late Chinical Assistant Mayel Lember Opthalmia, Gelden Uppers and Reyel Lember Opthalmia, Gelden Uppers and Princets Mayel Lember Opthalmia, Gelden Uppers and Princets Mayeland.

Alto late special examiner for the United States Survey of Postione, Washington, D. C. House; S to F; I to 4; V to 6.

Office and residence Dr. Holmes' late premises, MGII Birest, Acton.

TORN M MACDONALD, M. D., C. M. Late Prop. and Hapt. Massey Hospital. Diseases of Women and General Surgery. 640 Pape Ave. Phone North 1986

LEGAL. J. MACKINEON

BARRISON, BOLIUTER, CONVEYANCES Ogyson-Mill Street, in Stovels' Block, J. MANABB.

Chart. Fourth Division Cours County of Hal-on, Chartymanor, Agent Fire and Life Americano Seel Setale Agent. Money to loan, etc. Correct Fortyman s Block ADTOM CAT.

DESTAL. Serve Grandate of Tonorto University

The latest amounthatic most if desired. DR. E. S. HARDIE, L. D. S. First-close Dontietry in all its branches. Other -16 Dougles St. (apetairs) - GURLPH

ER. L. L. BRUNKTT, DENTIST,

MINCHLLANDO SS.

ELGEWHOTE MAKEN

POOR NINDER ofysichese St., Gaelph, Onteria Learned Books of all kinds made to order periodicals of every description expensity bound promptly done

MARRIAGE LICENSES. H. P. MOORN Private Office, No witnesses required. Issued

Free Press Office, ACYCH

THYM HEMSTREET. LICENSED ADDITIONALS the Counter of Wellington and Halson charlest stille Frank Frank teller, Asten, or the promptly at-Also memer to lean on the most favorable seme, and at the lowest rates of laterest, in und of $600 and upwards.

T KEER For the Counties of Wellington, Halton, Peel and Dufferin, and the city of Gastab.

Contain by letter to Missons P. O., or Caledon belowed in residency in consection with the Steff, where archigeness is in date; and advertising the Steff of Will Process affect of with W. J. Gorden, Harmon Maker, Aston. will relate to letteradiate attention. Aston. will relate to page to Aston and visinity. Special attentions to page to Aston and visinity. Wallet To Smill on Bishr. FAMES MCDONALD

PANYON LICENTED APOTTONERS Far the counties of Welthagten, Halton, Waterlee, Westworth and the City of Mercaling proposited in every case. For terms, dates, ste-rapply to Box St. Restriction IT Sydenham St., GUSLIPSI, at. Telephone IS, Guelph, Seles may be stronged at France Print office.

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

W at all kinds of Mong montal and Hondston

ner Metfell and Wealwich Sie. GUBLPM

No jeweller in Montreal or Toronto has a price advantage over us in the purchase of Diamonds.

We select each inset stone separately, examine it carefully, and have it set in a ring to suit ourselves.

ESTABLISHED 1848

Oat Guelph

CHOCK CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY Ice Cream Season Hes Come Again And we are ready to supply you with the best in the land. We have made improvements, and will be in better position; to serve you in our

We will also be proposed to all al orders—large or small in bulk or brisks. Pincappine, Oranges, Bananas and Lemons at right priose, quality con-idered. Harold Wiles

THE ACTON CAPE - MILL Street

Contracting and the contraction of the second section of the

John R. Watson A. D. Savage, Guelph MANUFACTURER OF

Cement Blocks and The Laying Pavements, Cement Floor ing, Well Sinking & Curbing Pumps and Repairs

SATISFACTION ASSURED Orders left at residence, Main Street, Acton, or to box 424, will receive prompt

Green Grocer FRUIT MERCHANT E. K. COOK

Is: receiving daily Fresh Vegetables and Fruits and sells them at reasonable prices FOREIGN PRUITS A SPECIALTY GOODS DELIVERED

MILL Brezer

Waters Bros.

Quelph " HEADQUARTERS FOR

O. A. C. School Supplies NATURE STUDY BOTANICAL ETOMOLOGICAL DRAWING PAINTING

41 Wyndham Street Phone 350

..PAPER... MAKERS

GRORGETO WE. OMT.

BOOK, NEWS AND

COLORED PAPERS

JNO. B.BARBER

EDUCATION FOR SUCCESS A Large Lord and the party of the large la

GUELPH BUSINESS COLLEGE Own Explanation, in a courieses letter to Principal ManCorrect, is given in the works Thanks to your earlies training." His

W. WILLIAMS

BREAD BOXES

Hald little Milly Brown ;

too lb, capacity $1.65 CAKE BOXES This is the only way to properly keep bread, flour and cake. The above are metal, air tight boxes, nicely finished From morning until evening I just live teaching school. and attractive. A nice line is now on display in our window, and in our store. Attention is also called to our line

BIRD CAGES - TRAVS - BATHS -GARBAGE CANS. We carry a complete line of Tinware such as is not found elsewhere in Guelph. We have what you want. .

4 Sixes-- 80c, 85c. $1.00, $1.45.

FLOUR BOXES

ag lb. capacity 90c.

The BOND HARDWARE Co. Retail Phone 07 - - GUMLPI

ACTON

BUS LINO The undersigned respectfully solicite the patrousge of the pub-

Remissed and Stylich Rigar can always be secured at his A comfortable bus meets all trains between 10.00 a.m. and 6.10 p. m. Careful attention given to avery order. The wasts of Gots-mercial Travellers fully met.

JOHN WILLIAMS PROPRIETOR

GOING AHEAD

When alterations are completed Guelph will have the Largest and liest Equipped Optical Established in the Dominion. We are located temporarily with Sayage & Co., az Wyndham St. Phone 571.

Musical Wants knock at the door. piled Here

Violins, Guitars, Mandolins, Banjos, Autoharps, Accordeous, Monthorgans, Gramophones and Phonographs. Strings of Ar quality and repair parts all instruments. Popular Music, Standard and Secular

Chas . W. Kelly ISI Upper Wyndhau St.

> Our stock of Flour & Meals

Is Noted for Being Bought Right Freshness -Quality

Cleanliness Easy Prices

Oulck Delivery Let us prove it to your satisfaction.

R. NOBLE MERCHANT MILLER Acton, Onterto

Spring (D. Summer HO

Choose your shoes from our seperb stock where you have so many shapes and elses. Take a look at the shoes in our windows and get abquainted with the new styles. in our windows we can show but a few our latest, but those shown will give you an idea of what our stock is like. We now have a large assortment of high grade

Baetry.

TEACHING SCHOOL "I don't like doing housework."

"I don't like washing dishes.
Or sweeping cohwebs down.
I do not like the ironing.
Or making bread and pie; 50 lb. capacity $1.10 hate to do the scrubbing, And sewing makes me sight 'Hat there's one thing I do like In weather hat or cold -- > he varly every morning. I take my little broom, And teach blut how to hurry And sweep the sitting room 'And then I teach the duster The furniture to clean, Till everything is shining > That rooms four walls between.

Kach day I teach the disheloth

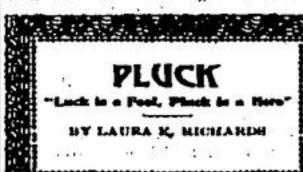

'To wash the cups and apoons.

And all the time we study We sing the gayest tunes. "I teach my little flatiron To gailop here and there, And leave the clothes behind him All shining, smooth and fair. I teach my little mopetick To scrub the kitchen Soor; He mys his lessons better : Rach day then e'er before.

I teach my little moodle To bem, to stitch and run And, oh, he smiles so proudly When well the lessons done Abnight, when school is over. And lessons are all said, The reacher off to bed."

-- Unidentified

Belect . Family Reading

strolled round by the wreck two or 46 Y KS," said the tron master, some errand, you understand, in that "first bonesty, and then direction. pluck-those are the things needful. Speaking of pluck."-He bouse aftre. The Italians are good stopped to answer the telephone, and workers, none better as a rule-but said "yes" and "no." by turns for five bis pick are went in and out three minutes and then resumed :

ing just now, reminds me of a story the beginning and god of which is wanted to, for though he was a mus that one word." We settled ourselves in our chairs, an eye that he had never done such We were sitting in the office of the work in his life before.

fron-works, and the air was full of the sound of great hammers, crashing and like rain, but he never stopped, never pounding; of the sharp hise of molten looked up, or knew that I or anyonmetal, and the clear ring of smitten slee was near-just pludded away. "I was sitting here in this very were nothing else in the world. chair," the iron master began, "one . " That's pluck,' said I to myself. day about seven years ago or maybe 'If he doesn't die he'll do.'

any rate, here I was sitting, reading think his strongth would last. Onickly and Satisfactority Sup- stranger. He was a young man, about pay with the rest, and thanked me twenty-five years old, dressed like a and went off.

gentleman, though his clothes had "The next morning I was busy and seen a good deal of service. Tall with although I thought of my gentleman his head held up, and grey eyes that once or twice, I didn't manage to get met mine fair and equare. my boy! If he looks you in the eye, work. he is worth trying. If eyes shift about | "When I got there I saw the Itali

Songs, Authors, Quarteties, Choruses and here and there, as if they didn't know and lying around on the ground or Music Books of all description, where to look, or were afraid of seeing squatting on the fences sating their where to look, or were afreid of seeing squatting on the fences sating their omething they didn't like - have xperience !" "Well this young man came up to my deak, and spoke without waiting | was enough for him, was it? And for me; yot it was no want of man- thought it would have been enough mers, for his manners were good.

strangers in that way and I don't re- with a great hunch of bread in one commend the practice at any time. "'No. sir.' I said.' 'We have so work bere. Sorry I can't secommitteed over his shoulder at the book. date you.' I took up my paper again, and looked to see him go out again without more words; but he stood startled him, and he looked up. I supstill. 'I must have work', he said. 'I pose I must have looked as astonished would try to give you estisfaction, sir, as I felt, for he smiled and said, and I tell you I must have it." my coat pocket, and as if he was de- I have learned several phrases. Buon termined to get it from me at any giorno gignore l' cost; yet perfectly respectable, yen know, with pothing I pould take hold | and working in that hole?" of and get angry about.

you to day.

again, air. Surely in this great place pretty well." there must be something a strong, I talk of waiting till a vacancy occurs, as bookkeeper, I saked, 'instead o I must have work now, to-day? It is this kind of thing ? absolutely necessary !!

at him again, and didn't may it.

"I saw that he was telling the truth. there was any suspicion of whining or State was any suspicion of whining or beed foud of open alread exercise, he sulvalling about him. If there; had added, with a guizzigal look at the been, out he would have kone in pretty quick time. But there was a look in now I'm getting lots of it." his eye-well. I hardly know how to describe it. but the man was desperate and had some reason for being so. " 'Any klad.'

" Your moon that ! " I do, Anything that will put to be back at his grammer. from Canada two days agu, with my evening, shaky again; but smilling as strike him, and great Scott! I hit the this driving hurry? Are you getting approaches nearest perfection of any. ACTOD: wife and three childred, and was rob. If he had had an excursion down the station master in Edinburght"

not a penny !"

thought of a way to test the metal of | Mronger-if comething hadn't turned which he was made.

days before, and I had a gang at work came Green, from the boilerworks clearing away the rubbish. A dirty over the way, 'Morning,' he said job it was: the men were up to their 'Do you know of a book-keeper? Ou rusty iron and burned timbers and getting another." what not-looked like the end of the world and the wrong end at that. The gang I had on were mostly Italians-it was too dirty for a Yankee to touch, and even the Irish were aby of it. They were little, dark, monkey-looking fellows, at work, and known him four days. I can answer chattering in their unearthly gibber for bis power of work, and I told the on Sunday afternoon, and referred lah. I glanced from them to my man's story. gentleman, with his clear white skin and hands that showed that whatever young fellow, liked his looks, and sotrade he had worked at clearing away gaged him on the spot. He finished Church, Bloomfield, N. J., is publishwreckage hadn't been part of it- his day's work, came out of his hole in lng "The Worker," a neat little monththough he looked like one who might the mud, shook hands with me, and ly, in connection with the church. athletic sports.

one I know of. How do you like it?" and he has been at the boiler works "Well enough,' he said as cool as ever since. If he's not to be made " You'll get a dollar and a half a day, and that is what put him into my day.' I told him. 'You'll get your bead when you were talking about death, too probably. When will you pluck just now. That man, sir, had go to work ? went, and I hardly expected to see him | don't talk to me about blanct succeed again. But before the hour was out log in life. Going? Well good morn took his pickage, and down he went | Pluck!"-Youth's Companion. Into that hole as if it was an evening party, sir. "Well, I went back to the office. I couldn't be hanging around watching the men, or the boss would have been making trouble; but my new hand stayed on my mind, somehow, and I three times in the afternoon, making "That man was working, sir-like a times to their twice, and there was no "Speaking of pluck, as you were do chattering in his owner of the hole. He had little breath to talk if he had cular fellow, you could won with half

> "The awest poured down his face awinging that pick as though there eight. Time goes so fast, I hardly try "For all that I thought be won to keep count of it in these days. 'At give out after the first day-didn't the newspaper, when there came a he came in for his pay at night be was slunky and pretty tired looking ; but "Come in !" I said, and in walked a be never said a word; just took down to the wreck till noon, soon after "Always look first at a man's eyes, the whistle had blown for knocking off nothing to do with him : That's my lng away as usual : but no sight of my gentleman in the flaggel shirt. "Oho, said I to myself, 'one day for me. too. When you are not used "Good morning, sir!" he said; and to the swing of a pick, the way his volce had a clear ring to it that'I takes you in the back is something liked. I want work. Can you give beyond baller. I turned to comeaway and lo, there he was, sitting off in a "I shook my head. 'We meyer took | corner by bimeelf, all proposed up band and a book in the other. "I strolled up behind him and loo was du Italian grammar, sir. "My shadow falling on the book couldn't afford to lose such an oppor-"He spoke as if I had the work in tunity! The bose is very friendly, and

"Are you a school master.' I asked

" 'No,' he said quietly, "I am a book "My good sir,' I said, putting the keeper. It is a great advantage for paper down, there is no vacency in bookkeeper to be able to read and ansthe place. If you give me your name | wer foreign letters, and although and your references I will make a note have some knowledge of French, I of them and some day when we do has never come in my way to hear have a job to dispose of, I will remem- Italian spoken. So now is my chance ber you, That is the best I can do for I got this grammar for fifteen cents he added, turning it over with a smile "The young man shook his head. the book was pretty ragged and one That won't dol' be said. Think loover was gone, and I'm getting on

... Why, in the name of everything willing man cen do.: It is useless to foolish didn't you apply for a position "Nobody will take a bookkeeper ""It was on the tip of my tongue to without references. I shouldn't think tell him that it was absolutely neces | much of a firm that did, Lauppose, " he sary for him to leave that office and added, flushings little. My reference close the door after him ; but I looked were in my wallet that was stoled and it will be a work and mure before I get new once, as my native town and that be must have work It was off the main lines and letters take not that he looked shabby, or that I good while to get there. I've siwaye been fond of open alrand exercise, be hole where he had been digging, 'and · Back stiff ?'- I ourgested, ----

- 'So? So! I'll manage though, often been worse after a day's rowing, and " 'What kind of work do you want?' | this is just as good bread as any other. said, putting down the paper again. and he took a life out of his lunch.

bed on the train of my wallet. I have harbor. So it went on till the fourth day. Ever day I looked to see him. " Come with me !' I said and be fol- quit; but his pluck kept him up, and lowed me out of the works. His story It's my belief be would have worked might betrue or it might not, but I in that hole and got stronger and

"The Stark Mill, in which I had some The fourth day I was sitting in the interest, had been partly burned a few office, when the door opened, and in walsts half the time in mud and water | poor fellow who's been sick for so long and the whole place was a muddle of died yesterday. Thave to think about

"I shook my head, but ait bles came

"Will you take a man on trial?" "What kind of a man? " 'Well, I hardly know,' said I. think he's pretty good, but I've only

'Green went out with me, saw the rest of his life.

"That is seven or eight years ago, partner soon. I've been misformed tocar has already gone from Actor. the real article : and when a man " 'In an hour,' he said. Well, off he I the real article and is hopest to boot he was back again, in a flannel under- | ing | Good luck to you in your new shirt and a pair of old trousers. He venture, and let your watchword be Over $900 has also been subscribed

"OLD LIMPY"

He was a young amm, and he had only recently been promoted to the position of conductor; so for both ressons he made the mistake of thinking that a post, authorative manner increased his importance. One day as the train was ready to pull out of the station, and he stood on the platform with hand on the bell rope ready to give the signal to start be noticed a middle aged plainly dress ed, lame man standing quietly outside and evidently waiting to take the

"Get aboard, old limpy," ble accorst once pert and condescending, 'wat aboard, old limpy, or you'll be left." As he gave the signal the old gentleman quietly stepped aboard and walk ng into the our took a seat by himself

A little later when the conductor in taking up the tickets came to him with the brusque demand, "Fare," be an-"I do not pay fare on this road. "Then I will put you off at the next station," was the snappy reply. without giving the old man a chance for an explanation he passed on a little more swelled up with importance 'A few seats farther on a passenger who had noticed the incident; as he handed out ble ticket said t

"Did you know that old gentle-"No. I did not," with a haughty

"I thought not. Well, he is President of this mail." The young conductor flushed and olt his lips. At once he realised what ble mistake meant to him. But it was too late to undo it. In's moment he had undone all the hard and faithfu work that had gone before, and as all his hopes and ambitions crashed down around him he grew almost sick There was, be felt, but one thing for him to do. He went on and finished the task of taking up tickets. When that was done he walked back to the seat that held "old limpy," and said "Bir, I reelgo my position as conduc-The bluster was gone from his manper, the insolence from his tone. The old gnotleman looked at him keenly. new growth of bair.

He was accustomed to reading and mettle in the lad. "Sit down here, young man," he said kindly, making place for him, "I do not wish to harm you, but you must understand that we run this road for profit, and to accommodate the public. known. Make it an invariable rule to treat every person with perfect civility chemists. whatever clothes be wears or whatever infirmity be suffers. This rule is imperative upon everyone of our employees. I shall not remove you for what you have done, but it must not be repeated." have had my lesson. This is a true incident. The 'old Impy," was the Hon, Kralus Corolog. of New York, a member of Congress, and at that time one of the leading railroad papitalists of the country. As for the conductor he had learned the lesson on many hays lack, that to treat the poorest-dressed stranger rudely is not only ungentlemanly, but unsale. The Boys' World.

GOING BOND

A Scotchman, a Frenchman and an American bappened to meet and dur ing their conversation the American boasted of ble beloved "America." He twangled, "I guess we huatle. over there that as you ness the between two rows of bouses!"

the telegraph poles on each side of the not given the man any address. He rallway look like one big hedge !" The Scotchman listened with a coo- going anywhere. and looked at his book as much as to temptyons smile, "Once I was travel. A great many people experience a naturally demand increased appetite. North say he had talked enough and wanted ling from Glasgow to Edinburgh," he great deal of satisfaction out of the man & Lyronn, of Toronto, have given

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Items From Our Issue of Thursday September 22nd, 1802 It is reported that the potators are beginning to rot again this fall. Mr. T. H. Harding has been laid for several days as the result of over-Fait apples are very cheap. - 25 to 35 male a bag are all they being at pers-

'A gravel walk is to be put down Main Street west from Thos. U. Moore's lane to James Brown's. * Rav. J. Edge is preaching a course of sermons on "The Beatltudes."

An uncenny venture under the train by Mr. C. Quittner's pet dog cost him his life on Saturday evening. Rev. Mr. Norton preached an pressive exmon in the Beptist Church specially to the late Charles Lipping-

Hev. C. A. Cook, of the First Beptist have taken a good deal of exercise in the next day found a bome for the . The deck on the roof of the new fifty applied for the place. Out of the school is nearly fluished and the interior work will now be pushed for-About 0,000 barrels of the splendid who was present, "on what ground apple crop in this section have been purchased by a Clinton firm of buyers who are now buying and shipping. A

> The entire crop will be shipped to Liverpool. The canvamers have secured several hundred dollars towards Mr. Harvey's 1,500 dollar roller mill proposition by Anton citizens. Mr. Geo. Havill has been given the contract for a new tin roof to be put ly and repectfully, showing that he on the town hall at a cost of $40. Mr. IL McNabb has gone to visit friends at Kirk field.

Mosers. Arch. McNabb and W.

bridge, where they were engaged that he was careful. making additions at Beardmore's Dr. M. Forster, of Palmerston, was Acton un Saturday and called on a

Mr. and Mrs. NAF. Moore are visiting at Loudon and Florence. Miss Sarah Laird has taken a situation at Bobcageon. stead of being tipped with jet, like Mrs. Asa Hall has returned from a four weeks' visit to Orillia and Pena-

Mrs. John Speight has returned from London and is gradually regalaing her strongth. Mrs. Andrew Dobbie, of Requesing. Mrs. William Martin, of Hanover. Mr. William Dobble, Esquesing, and his son, Andrew, twelve years of age. comprising representatives of four generations, all took ten at the home of Mr. Chas. Kirkpatrick, Church Street, on Friday. Mrs. Dobbie la Mrs.

Kirkpatrick's mother and is in her ninety-fourth year. HTEWART—In Enquesing, on September Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, a son.

Suikr-In Mequesing on Heptember 16th, Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp's daughter. MARRIED

LASHY-ARDERSON—At the Manne, Acton, on the 16th of September, by Rev. J. W. Ren. Mr. Wallace & Leaby, to Jessie, daughter of Mr. Poter Anderson, all of Acton. LIMBERT-IN Erts. on Heptember 8th, Ob Lambert aged 60 years Brawkay-in Requestity, on September 5th, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hiewart. Brack-At Rockwood on September 18th, Mary Munn, widow of Dopald Rinck, of Measures, aged 64 years.

BALVIA IS A PREPARATION THAT to Jim. But the deacon, according WILL GROW HAIR ABUM-DANTLY This is an age of new discoveries.

To grow helr after it has fallen out to-day is a reality. SALVIA, the Great Hair Tonic and Dressing, will positively create a 'It's like this, deacon. You see, last If you want to have a beautiful felt dime. But don't tall nobody." fudging men and he saw the real head of hair, free from dandruff, use

BALVIA opes a day and watch the SALVIA is guaranteed to stop falling hair and restore the bair to its natural-color. The best Hair Vigor his ring. 'SALVIA is compounded by expert Watch your hair if it is falling out If you don't, you will sooner or later SALVIA provents baldness by festening the hair to the roots. Ladies will and SALVIA just the "Sir," the young conductor's voice hair dressing they are looking for. It was not quite steady, "It never shall be, makes the hair soft and fluffy and is not sticky. A large bottle, blc.

"Was It so long ago?"

MOSTAUMUBNI NA "How old are you ?" asked the browbeating lawyer of the lady witness.

"I do not know," she replied sweet-

"In what year were you born !" "I don't remember." "Weren't you there ?" "Yes but I haven't even a recollection of it."

BESHWYNA DRITTED UCY BEA A noted Englishman used to tell the story about himself which has a lesson for twentieth century Canadiane, He Well rather. The trains go so fast | was late to an important engagement and calling a cab, he ordered the ing cabman whipped up his horse, and, stimulated, courses through the veins way stations you think you are going driver to drive very fast. The oblig-"Ab," said the Frenchman proudly, the passenger had been well joited strengthening the besithy, animal We Paris the trains go so quickly that before it occurred to him that he had functions of the system, thereby was going rapidly, but he was not

IT NEEDS YOUR HELP

Do you wish the world were better? Let me tell you what to do: Set a watch upon your actions, Keep them always straight and

Rid your mind of selfish motives Let your thoughts be clean bigh,

You can make a little Eden Of the sphere you occupy.

Do you wish the world were wiser? Well, suppose you make a start, By accumulating wisdom to the scrap-book of your beart; Do not waste one page on folly : Live to learn, and learn to live. If you want to give men knowledge

Do you wish the world were happy Then remember day by day Just to ecatter seeds of kindness As you pass along the way : For the pleasure of the many May be oftlimes traced to one,

WHAT RECOMMENDED HIM A gentleman once advertised for a boy to seeist him in his office. Nearly one, and sent the rest away. "I should like to know," said a friend you chose that boy. He had not one recommendation with bim."

"He wined his shoes when he came in, and closed the door after him, showing be was tidy and orderly.

"He took off his cap when he came in, answering my questions promptwas polite.

"When I talked with him I noticed that his clothes were carefully brush-as white as milk. "And he weited quietly for his turn instead of pushing the others aside, showing that he was modest. "When he wrote his name I observe ed, that his finger nalls were clean, in-those of the bandsome little fellow in the blue lacket. "Don't you call these things letters of recommendation? I do, and what eyes for ten minutes is worth more

AN KABY TASK In his day, Herr Lauterstein had been a busy instructor of many music students: promptness and economy were two of his watchwords. Now that he had grown old and taught but sparingly, his habit of speech often the music-master, "but be brompt, so as not to vaste my time nor your own.

Understand P" HIS MOTIVES Senator McCumber at a dinner in Washington said that all nots should be judged by the motives that into avoid going wrong. Jim Bludge, of Wahpeton, was a very bad man, but one Kaster he turned up at a church service. Everybody was delighted. Everybody's heart warmed him after the service. said cautious-

HE XNEW inquired the smooth-tongued book-agent of the little boy who answered "Nope," said the boy. "Little boys should not tell falseboods," said the book-agent. "Isn't that your father reading the newspaper there by the window?"

"I have noticed that a little palm oil often sures deafness." There never was and never will be a universal panaces in one remedy for

"At the station the rallway idea that they are busy always, hurry-

You must get it ere you give.

As the hand that plants an acorn Shelters armics from the sun.

-Rila Wheeler Wilcox.

whole number he is a short time chose

"You are mistaken," said the gentleman: "he has a great many.

"He gave up his seat instantly to that lame man, showing that he was kind and thoughtful.

"He lifted up the book which I had purposely laid on the floor and placed it on the table, while all the rest step-Speight have returned from Brace- ped over it or shoved it saids, showing

ed, his bair in nice order, and his teeth

I can tell about a boy by using my than all the fine letters he can brimg caused a smile. "What time shall I come for my esson to-morrow?" asked one of hi few pupils. "You come ven you get reatty," said

"'Well, James, I'm glad to happen to come?

bearing."

you at meeting; but how did you

" 'He, be, he !' Jim Bludge chuckled, Thursday morning I found a counter-"Is the master of the house in?"

"Yep," was the answer, "that's pa all right, but ma is out."

"That attendant seems to be hard of all lile to which flesh is belg. What would relieve one ill in turn would aggravate the others. We have, how ever, in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound, unadulterated state a remedy for many and grisvous lile. By its gradual and judicious use the frailest systems are led into convalescence and strengh by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves those to whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and by tranquilizing the nerves disposes to sound and refreshing sleep-imparts vigor to the cotion of the blood, which being making activity a necessary result strengthening the frame and giving life to the digestive organs which naturally demand increased substance bread in the mouthe of—'he choked a "I walked off and didn't see him porter clumelly let my value fall and ing always. But that is not enough, little, and stopped. "Then, 'I came again till he came for his pay in the just as the train started I tried to What are you accomplishing by all on the market. All druggists sell it.