My paw comes whistling home And swingt ' his tin pall That mother keeps his lunches in, And jumps the creakin' rail
On our back fence, and shout
"Hallo!"

You care look good to me!" And "Where's your Mother, litt And suplies all twinklunly.

And have our beart to heart !" tell him all about the day Right from the very start ! And he's as pleased as he can be, As if I was a man His own size, talkin' serusly About som 'portant plan

And mother lissens with her eyes. And dries the dishes two. And Paw, he says : "I'm feelin' Because I've gut you too!" And then we play most everything. And have the greatest fun, Till paw takes out his watch and

"My bow this evening's gone!" And then we get the Bible down. And have our evening prayers, Then paw be lights my little lamp And comes with me upstairs; And then he kisses me good-night, The longest slowest way. And talls me kind of deep and low; "I've lived for this all day."
