The Acton Free Press.

VOLUME XXXVIII.---NO. 18.

Every Schotription Paid in Advance

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 31, 1912.

SINGLE COPIES---THREE CENTS

The Acton Free Press

then the time for which they have been painted as expired. The date to which every unburripten is paid is denoted on the address label.

Appropriate Haves — Transient advertisements, M comis per Nonpereil line for first secretion and 5 cents per line for each wahnequest insertion. Contract display advertisements, for 30 or inches more, per annum, 10 ments may inch much insertion. Yearly contracts will be inserted till forbid and charged assortingly. Transfest advertisements must be paid Advertisements will be changes oftener than mouth, if desired. For changes oftener than above mentioned the extra composition must be paid for at regular rates, All accounts collected monthly.

H. P. MOORE.

Enginess Birectory.

THOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILI

L. R. Q. P. RECEBURGE. L. R. P. P. & B. GLASSOW. CHARLES BRITISH MERDECAL ASSOCIAT See-Frederick Street

DOUGLAS LAKE, M. D. Physician and Surgeon Licenticie of College of P. and S., Ontario, Michigan and California.

Free Graduate University of Michigan and of the Otlings and New York Post Graduate Schools and Hospitale; Lete Clinical Amiestant Schools and Speciale; Lete Clinical Amiestant Scool Lendon Opthalmic, Golden Square and Reventure Republic for discours of Rys, Sar, See, Threat and Lungs, London, England, Also late special examiner for the United States Stevens of Panalone, Washington, D. C. Mozza; 2 to 5; 1 to 6; 7 to 8.

Office and runidence Dr. Holmer'into pressives, Mill Street, Acton.

TORE M MACDONALD, M. D., C. M. Late Prop. and Supt. Massey Bospital Discount of Women and General Surgary. Phone North 1386

LEGAL

J. MACKINHON HARRISTHE, SOCIOTION, CONVEYANCES. Oswicz-Mill Street, in Storels' Block,

J. MAHABB, Clerk, Fourth Division Court County of Hal-en, Conveyancer, Agent Fire and Life Assurance than Hambe Agent. Money to loan, etc. Correct—Perryman a Block

DENTAL.

T.R. J. M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S.

. Corner Mill and Frederick The latest amounthetic word if desired.

DR. H. S. HARDIH, L. D. S. Stree-class Deptistry in all its branches. Office-ID Douglas St. (upstairs) - GURFAR

E. L. L. BENNETT, DENTIST.

MINCHILLANDO DE.

TURANOIS NUMAR BOOKBINDER,

Wymilians St., Gnolph, Ontario (Over Williams Store.) Account Books of all kinds made to order periodicals of every description excelly bound. rules a month and promptly done

FARRIAGE LICENBER. M. P. MOORE

Private Office. No witnesses required. Ironed a moldenne in a craning. Free Press Office, ACYON by the Counties of Wellington and Halton adversion at the Frank Practs office, Assen, or i lyresidence in Aston, will be promptly ab-al led to Turms Responsible. Also meany to look on the most favorable erms, and at the lowest rates of interest, in uses of $800 and upwards.

KEYM HEMSTREET,

R. LANK

For the Counties of Wellington, Halion, Feel and Deferin, and the city of finelph.
Sales tonducted with satisfaction and upon Content by latter to Mimosa P. O., or Onledon belonhous in residence in connection with the Bell, where arrangements as to dates and adversing our be made. Orders lett at Futer Prince office or with W. J. Gordon, Surnant, Maker, Aston, will reserve immediate attention. Special attention to sales in Aston and visinity. PARTY TO SELL ON MEST.

TAMES MCDONALD

LICENSED AUCTIONERS equation of Wallington, Halton, O. Wentworth and the City of theles conducted on reprovedite terms Methodica treasure tood in every pain. For terms, dates, etc., apply to for see. L. Tolophone 107, Guelph. ... GURLPH,

The Old and Reliable

Granite and Marble Dealers

W s are manufacturers and direct importors of all hinds of Monumental and Headalpee We sell direct to our rectomers at whole sale prime. Here saving our enclosures of per sell members in the best appliances and he self members in the Donishes who can operate members to the property. We can offer members from hundreders our contempors in

Howard Watch

The Boward Watch has always been considered by the Watchmaking trade as the highest grade of American Watch but until recently the high price prevented many from handling it. A reduction in the factory prices now enables us to sell it.

We find it gives out customers entire satisfaction.

Guelph

NOTE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE Wie Hot Drinks Season Is Here Again

And we are prepared to give you The Best that Mency can Buy

If out walking have a Hot Beaf

Cordial before going home. Harold Wiles

THE ACTOR CAPE - MILI Street

Great announcement of the second

John R. Watson MANUFACTURER OF Cement Blocks and Tile

Laying Pavements, Cement Floor

ing, Well Sinking & Curbing

Pumps and Repairs SATISFACTION ASSURED Orders left at residence, Main Street Acton. or to box 484, will receive prompt

Fine Millinery Misses Murray & Hayden

Now on display, all the latest styles of Pall and Winter Millinery and trim mings.

HAVILL'S HALL, ACTON

The ladies have already found us our new quarters and we are grateful for he numerous orders received.

Prompt attention given all orders. Misses Murray & Hayden

Waters Bros. Quelph

HEADQUARTERS FOR O. A. C. School Supplies

NATURE STUDY BOTANICAL ETOMOLOGICAL DRAWING PAINTING

41 Wyndham Street Phone 350

..PAPER.. MAKERS

BOOK, NEWS AND COLORNO PAPERS

BARBER PAPER COATING MILLS LIMITED

GEORGETOWN - ONTARIO

EDUCATION FOR SUCCESS Large Spokene Office to 's great Dibeation atty bad distributed in aging processing for meanipotent sterographers. Just then a smilling boy welfed in and appropriately meaning of potent question. The Land

Therein to your parety training. Bile bappy experience is the lot many proper we have all property of the lot of the lot

Malosim-MacCormack, B. A., Prin:

Bond's Store

Joseph Regove Table Cetlery

is sold in it. We have the largest Cut- throughout the cities of Italy. lary, Carver and Silverware stock in Hark! Hark to the wind! "Tie the Guelph. The people know it and they buy here.

Our prices are right on these goods.

The BOND HARDWARE Co.

GOING AHEAD!

We are located temporarily with Savage & Co., 21 Wyndham St. Phone 571.

EXCLUSIVE OPTICIAN

ACTON VERY

BUS LING The undersigned respectfully solicits the patronage of the pub-Equipped and Stylish Rigo can always be secured at his A comfortable bus mosts all trains between 10.00 s.m. and 6.10 p. m. Careful attention given to every order. The wants of Commercial Travellers fully met.

JOHN WILLIAM

Musical Wants Quickly and Satisfactority Supplied Here

Guitare, Mandoline, Banjos, Autoharps, Accordens, Monthorgans, Gramophones and Phonographs. Strings of Ar quality and repair parts for Popular Music. Standard and Secular Sours, Anthems, Quartettes, Chorness and Music Books of all description.

Chas . W. Kelly

13 Upper Wyndhau St.

Our stock of Flour & Meals Is Noted for Being Bought Right

Freshbess Quality ' Cleanliness Easy Prices

Oaick Delivery Let us prove it to your satisfaction.

R. NOBLE

MERCHANT - MILLER Acton, Ontarto

Spring @ Summer

Choose your shoes from our superb stock where you have so many shapes and alses. Take a look at the shoes in our windows and get acquainted with the new styles. In our windows we can show but a few of our latest, but those shows will give you as the of what our stock is like. We now have a large essertment of high grade

WILLIAMS Hos Home of Good Shoes"

Boetry.

There is an old Italian legend which says that up the eve of the beloved feetival of All Saints (Hallowe'en) the souls of the dead return to sarth for little while and go by on the The least of All Saints is followed by the feast of the dead, when for a day only the sound of the Miserere is beard night, they say, . When all a sule poune back from the far The dead, impotten this many a day And the dead remembered -ay! long said.

and well-And the little children whose spirits dwell 1 In God's green garden of asphodel. Have you reached the content

From this time-worn world, where. your years were spent?

And then unravel life's tangle again.

O soule we know.

I lean to the dark-Hush !- was it A. D. Savage, Guelph Or the painted vine-leafs that rustled Or only a night-bird's schoing cry? -Virna Sheard, in the Canadian Mag. and abstracted. She didn't under-

Belect Jamily Renbing

TWO HALLLOWE'ENS

fate in every possible way tonight-always excepting the witch. Shall we consult her next Hallowell's eves denced boylably, as be put out a belping hand to the girl who was making a perilous backward story short, I saw you."

descent of the broad stairway, ber fluffy train thrown over one arm." lighted candle in one hand and a si ver-backed mirror in the other. "Per hape it's superfluous," be added mi chievously, 'wince I am poritive you eaw my face in the glass just now." "Ob, I am willing to give your loophole for escape," Miss Frost retorted as she stepped once more to the leve tembled bland pompadour and big odd eyes, who looked almost elflike in the corio light of the hall. "No one bu Both Marklie would ever have thought of patting electric bulbs inside pumpkins. These twentieth century jack-o'-lanterne make me positively creepy. Yes, I am ready for th witch if you are. I've done every thing else indoors, and I decline walk down a muddy drive at midnight chance of picking up the sort of wick

In high-heeled alippers, even on the who is to occupy the blest position of my future husband. Come along." She led the way through the great niture, and decorations to make room for Halloween reveries, paused to encourses the endeavors of a statuesque directions which promised a written all " solution of fate's problem for those who were patient enough to unfold its mere and flad an end, and finally arrived before the fire place in the last room of the suite, in front of which the witch was holding her court. THE WITCH'S PROPHECY "You see that copper kettle swipgful through the loop of a key bandle. which you hold, luto's pan of cold cools into the form of implements suddenly Evelyn left her chair by the which-oh, Nell-" she interrupted table and promed over to where he herself to call to the latest of the stood.

witch's patrons. "Lot me see whee, it looks like golfsticks !"

the others took her place. "What will I got?" Miss Front's eyes were wide as a child's, ber red line parted. "Are those pens ? Goodness. you'don't think I'm in for some frightfully learned person, do you? And that queer - soules, you say, Old Witch? Not to weigh sugar, I hope?" "They are the scales of justice," Hallowell interposed with beenming gravity. "Have I told you that law is my shoren profession ?" "You told me a good many things in the three bours since we met." Miss Prost replied, and her small ohin tilted disdainfully, "but I am not sure that this was among them,"

"And I have still more to tall when here is unother three bours at my light but the girl's eyes dropped under ble. "Now for my future wife's calling -what does she do?" "A RICH WIFE YOU'LL BE GETTING?

"Wastes her time, apparently," said Miss Frost, "if the contiseed appear ance of that lead counts-" "Wears strings of diamonds -bem," droned the witch. "It's a rich ady you'll be getting, sir, and..."

someones. It is time to go home, any. ready for bucking, and onts at thresh-Mr. Hollowell?" She held out her their pale tint, becked by autumn her?"

girl's hand was tight enough to be quaint shuck baskets (that sounds painful, "Don't tell me not to, for I frightfully unromantic, doesn't it? can't obey you; I sen coming to see piled with nuts and vory applies an

"I am staying with my sister, Mrs. Martin, I thought you knew-236 Mercer Street-Thursdays-but you needo't think-let go of my band, Mr. Hollowell, some one will seegood night." Hollowell watched the last of ber many ruffles disappear around the curve of the stairs, then turned away with a umile.

"And you needn't think, my little Hallowern fairy, that I am going to give you up without a struggle." "It was awful pretty, wasn't it? and ghoulish, too. I do adore Beth's parties, don't you? They are so different-do you take sugar ?" Miss Frost across the teacupe smiled into Hollowell's grave faor, and wondered why she should feel nervous. She had noked forward to this Thursday afternoon, and now, with Mrs. Martin discretely occupied at the other end of noticing, their tate-a-teta promised be a failure. He had said there were so many things he wanted to tell about, and, though also had given him his opportunity, he was sitting silent

"Yes to your last question. spoke soberly, "and it was certainly pretty and ghoulish. As to it being different, I can bardly judge, for have no standard of comparison. never saw a party before."

"Never saw !" Miss Frost stopped with tongs poised in mid-air. don't understand," then she realized that Hollowell was still speaking.

"I've been too busy all my life and toopoor," be was watching ber narrow ly, "forsuch things. I don't expect you to understand, but when I met Jin Marklie in the street last week-we had been friends as boys-and he sleted upon my coming to his Halloween party, I hadn't a notion of what it would be like or what would be expected of me. I only went because Jim insisted, and then, to cut the REALLY THE RICH LADY "You must know what that mean to me-I don't think you could bel knowing-and when we parted that night I had made up my mind to wit you. Of course, I knew it wouldn't be many, but I had worked for every thing I had got so far in life, and saw no reason why I shouldn't work for the thing I wanted most-my life's "The pext day-I was talking to Mrs. Marklie-I found out that you-

the Halloween fairy, I had called you -were really the witch's rich lad with strings of diamonds, and I went out and kicked myself for a fool. Wi was I to dare sak a woman like you t share my little? I knew I could neve sit by quietly and see some other man who was more worthy, carry you of so then and there I made up my min to go away and never see you again. "After a man has once reached decision of this sort, it is suppossble that he will abide by it, but-I could not. I fought the hardest fight of my I had to some, and I had to tell you sweep of rooms, bereit of ordinary fur- life and was worsted. It was no use-If you cared even a little, and were young person in a Paris gown to min all you should have—then there was the way folks are on the map of that possession by hobbling frantical- no road too rough to travel, no ob- Burope, course they must get used to CLEMENTS-HARRISON—At the home of Johnly for apples in a chrysanthemum im- stacle too hard to overthrow for your each others' talk enough to make each bedded tub; dudged a network of sake. Evelyn, was it worth while for current carda, stretching nobwebwise in 'all me to have come? Do you care at "No." said Miss Frost. "No-I ato sorry, but-I-" The tonge she had.

When he raised his bred she new that be was very white, and his eyes were dulled like an animal's in pain. "Thank you for being honest - pering over the fire," Miss Frost said to haps-it is better-" His voice was her companion. "It is full of molten not quite steady. He turned from lead, and the witch will pour a spoon- ber and looked toward Mrs. Martin gayly chatting with a latecomer, at the far and of the room. "Your alswater-too, she is doing it now-and it ter," he began, uncertainly, and then been holding clattered to the floor and,

Hallowell stooped and picked themap.

"Louise is talking, she is always pay for it, he attempted to appeal to all. talking," she laughed, but there was a her sympathy. "Then I must be going to reward trace of tears in the laugh. "You-Arty's life long devotion after all," re- you make it so hard for me-" Her glad to saw and split the wood, I'd be ton. torted the other, with a rogulah glance | voice died almost to a whisper. "Can't | glad to do anything, but I'm not phy at the young man who had been ber, you understand? It isn't the money or sloally strong. I have a weak heart shadow for the entire evaning, "for things like that that matter-and per- madam, and I have to look out for li golf is ble only visible occupation, un- haps, though I don't care now-per- You see, I carry my life in my hands. less you count me." She moved on, hepe-" Hollowell wheeled sharply as it were," he said, with what was the devoted Arty still attending, and about-"You mean?" he said, "you mean?" down while I give you another cup."

> "I have just come from the Hallowell-Frost wadding, where I figured as matron of honor," wrote Mrs. Jim Markile to a bosom crony, still lingerlag on her summer wanderings, "and when I have told you about it, you will never ocase regretting that you missed so important an event.

"You see, Evelyn and Mr. Hollowell first met at my Hallowsen party' two years ago, and he fell in love with her right away. I don't think she saw it quite his way then, but now she is percommand." Hallowell's .tone was feetly crasy about him ! They had 's romantic notion about being married on the anniversity of that first most-ing and having a Holloween wedding, and you know what Kvelya wante

They were married to St. noon, and the little church looked like a veritable 'rabin kirn,' as Burnh would call It, with grains and fruits and nute for decoration, instead of "Puhaw I" Brelyn Frost's enthusiasm flowers. My dear, bave you any you again?" Hallowell's greep on the simply featinating? Can you picture - you live here in the city. I (actually) pumpkins, appearing in an occasional alcove that is banked with

"If you have any notion of what . this is like, then possibly you can dream of the charme of that wedding

"Kvelyn went up the side between white and yellow ribbons, held up by tiny children, dressed as Hollowee fairles, who scattered unte, not flower petals--in her path. She wore white natio, of course, and carried a bouque of winte oryeanthemume. but m gown and the bridgenuids' were palyellow-thank goodness, my complex on will stand it!

AND THEN THE PRINKNTH "Mr. Hallowell gave the ushers the dearest stick pike, topped with tiny pumpkin beads, and Evelyn's present to us were belt buckles of gold and topes, with two fairles clasping hands I am wild for you to see mine.

"There was nothing at the house except a tlay breakfast for the wed notion carried out on the table. we had boxes for the cake shaped like miniature pumpkine. There is to be big conventional reception by and by I believe, but just now they are in the south on their boneymoon. Afterward-well nobody who saw the look in Kvelyn's eyes when they were rel ed to meet his can have any doubt as to what their lives will be."

A WARNING

A customer, during the trying-on. saked her dressmaker, whose son was at college, if he were pursuing a general course, or specializing in any particular branch. The answer came promptly through a mouthful of pine in Sanekrit. I can't say but I've preferred comething a hit more usual the way of education -comething more plain tailor-made for every day, like Hanskrit's such a fusey study." Her criticism, if oddly worded, was comprehensible and not unintelligent. Less reasonable, and equally unexpected, were the remarks of an old farmer in a remote hill village upon the favor Itestodies of his sun. He had always been suspicious of the higher educations, and was far from pleased when bis Joe, whom he wished to keep on the farm, obtained a scholarship. "Languages may be all right for folks that's born to 'em in foreign pressive deliberation, "but a man that ain't had better talk plain Yankee and do things. "To see that boy of mine set down with a book ye can't read, saying over words ye can't sense, -jest putter, putter, mutter, mutter, sputter, sputter, -why, it makes upe fair wick. for all be's been at it most a year. can't make those Italians on the highperta," he declared, recently, with im

He owns bimself he can't." "Is it Italian be is studying, then?" the listener tourmured, politely.

and so I told him. "'I don't care if 'tain't their own Cameron, Levi Lambert, Albert Laing, lingo, Joe' says I, 'it oughter come a John Warren, James L. Warren, Wes. sight nigher to it than jest United Hampshire, J. C. Miller and John Milwilling to wait until I could give you States talk. Squeezed all up together ler.

other out. " Bet youmy Sunday go-to-meeting bat,' I told blm, 'if yo talked ree German to those Italians they'd under

"But he can't : all he can do'e to se in his corner with his book, putter puttering and sputter-sputtering. "Don't ye talk to me about colleges Joe's a warning."

TOO GREAT A RISK Although the tramp had seen great deal of life, he was no judge character; otherwise he would no ave said what he did to Miss Cornells lawking. When she said that she would give him a good dinner if he would saw and split wood enough to

"Madam," he replied, sadly, "I'd b meant for a wan, pathetic smile. "Indeed!" and Miss Hawkins gave "I mean," said Miss Frost, "that you | an incredulous eniff at the palms outhave let your ten get get cold-and if stretched for aid. "I suppose that's cannot write a song that will live, exfear of getting drowned?" THE WELEH VERSION The locumbent of an old and historic church in Weles, who had been show ing a party of Americans around, sak ed them to visit his parachial school of which he was very proud, in th fond hope, or so Cassell's Journal hints of a liberal donation.

them to question the scholars, and one of the party scoopted the invitation. "Little boy," said he to a posy-faced lad, "can you tell me who George Washington was P" "les, surr," was the smiling reply.

After a recitation or two, be invited what George Washington was remark- undigested foods and foul gases. . "les, surv. 'B was remarkable 'one was a 'Merican an' told the treath." The rest was allego-and it was not TOO EXPENSIVE "Why don't you marry Evelyn 2 my own work.

followed by a donation.

'H was a 'Merican goo'ral."

way. Shall we my good-bye now, ing time? .. Would you believe that Don't you think you pould support I'll we do when am I golug to see coloring, make a color scheme that is even pay for her complexion."

TWENTY YEARS AGO Items From Our Issue of Thursday,

The new school building is nearing expletion. The coopers have had a very busy all and are still rushing out the apple barrels of apples have been shipped here already. Mr. Conner, of Dufferin Lake, le aproving his double bouse on Church New Instruments have been put in By sticking to the bush while all the the Bell Telephone central office, and with the new metallic circuit conversation can be carried on between here and Toronto almost as easily as with local subscribers. Mr. W. Hemstreet has arranged the sale of the William Moore farm, lot 31. on. 2. Esquesing, to Mr. James Quan-

Lic, for $4.500. A sixteen-year-old escaped prisoner from Berlin Jall, whom the constable from Preston was bringing back from Toronto, while the 0 p. m. train was waiting at Acton for the crossing, managed to free himself from one of his steel bracelets to the closet of the car, and subsequently escaped through the window. The constable gave chase in the darkness, but was obliged to return home slone.

Mr. Donald McLean, an old resident of Krin township, was found dead on the roadway near his bome. line, on Tuesday, Heart disease wanthe cause of death. He had resided in Krin for over forty years. A trained bear, led by two Freechgrove, but staying over night, escaped and passed quite a flurry of fright there before be was captured. In the Public School Board, after examining sample desks from Water-"Sanskrit, ma'anı. He's specializing loo, Preston and Walkerville makera shown by representatives of the firms, it was resolted, on motion of Mesers. James McLam and Robt Wallace, that the tender of the Graybill Co., of Wat erioo, be accepted, and that an order be given for 40 No. 2 deeks and 16 No 8.8 rear scats and I teachers' tables

> No definite action was taken re a new Mr. John McGregor, teacher No. Bohool, Nassagawaya, has resigned. and will take a school at Ponsonby. Rev. James Gray, of Toronto, a wellknown Methodist minister, died and danly on Sunday. Mr. James Shorthill, teacher of Dub in School, has been engaged for the seventh line school near his own home. Mastre, A. K. Nickiln, Wm. Jeans and Geo. Agnew left on Tuesday on a hunting expedition in Georgian Bay

These visitors were noticed at the Provincial Hunday School Convention at Guelph : Revs. J. W. Ras. Joseph Edge, Mrs. Edge, H. P. Moore, George Hyads, Mr. and Mrs. W. McPhail. Mrs. O. S. Smith, Mrs Halsted, Mrs. way understand three words together McGill, Mrs. Arch. Campbell, Mrs. Reid, Miss Klizz McPherson, Miss M. Worden, Mrs. Anthony Htephenson Miss. Maggio H. Matthews, Miss Mary "No. 'tain't : it's German," admitted | E. Brown, Miss Wright, Misses Lily the old man in a reluctant growl. and Meda Nelson, Mrs. Dr. Uren, Miss "But a precious poor excuse I call that | Maggie Brown, Mrs. James Brown Mrs. Wm. Brown, Issao Francis, John dance of Mrs. John Chaplin, sloter of the bride, Mr. Wm. G. Bruce, to Miss Eate Law-son, both Chayenne, Wysming. Whiven-On October 18th, at the beans of her brother-in-law, Mr. John Williams, Aston, Mary Elien, daughter of John Wes-ver, Hope Bay, aged 22 years, and 2 months.

> VALLING MAIR. DANDRUFF AND BCALP ITCH VANDEHER PARISIAN Stage will quickly and all hair and scalp troubles and make you bair so silky, luxuriant and lustrous that all will admire it. Banishes scalp ltob over night.

(Heans up dandroff in short order and kills dandruff germs. After the first bottle your hair will be lustrous and so full of life that It will be admired by Be sure and get PARISIAN Sage. Girl with Apburn bair on every car chickens come home to rocat, and no

It is not a dye or a hair dope-but a clean, refreshing, invigorating tools. At A. T. Brown's and droggists everywhere. Large bottle lifty cents.

CITTERNEHIP Every one of us should leave some mark on our nation's life. Perhaps we you are a sensible man you will sit the reason you don't wash 'em-for tolling the virtues of patriotism, nor perform a deed of courage that will become an inspiration to others; but we can at least give the country one more true and worthy life, though it all lile to which flesh is beir. What be only a lowly one-a life in which | would relieve one ili in turn would. homely virtues shall shine and which aggrevate the others. We have, how shall leave behind a record of kindness ever, in Quinine Wine, when obtained and of good wrought. He who has in a sound, unadulterated state a done this has made himself a blessing remedy for many and grievous ille.

> neme in the list of the immortals. SALLOW SKIN LIVER SPOTE, PIMPLES, DARK CINCLES UNDER THE

are all signs of the system being clog-Iged. The liver and howele are inac-"Quite right. And can you tell me live and the stomach is weak from FIG PILLS

Winnipeg, June 27, 1911.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

One day in huckieberry time, when little Johnny Flails and a helf a dozen other boys were starting with their palls

To gather berries, Johnny's pa in talking with him said That he bould tell him how he'd come out ahead. 'Piret, find your bush' said Johnny's ps, 'and then stick to it till You've picked it clean. Let those go cheeing all about who will in search of better bushes; but picking tells, my son. To look at fifty bushes doesn't And Johany did as be was sure enough he found others chased around n search of better picking, 'twee as his father mid. For while the others looked he ed, and so came out shead.

And Johnny recollected this when became a man. and first of all be laid him detirmined plan. So while the brillient triflers failed with all their braise and push. Wise, strady-going Johany won by

'sticking to the bush. CIGARETTE FIENDS ARE AT A DISCOUNT the creatures in human form that amoke olgarettes. Whether to plty them for the injury they do themsolves more than blame them for the barmsthey do society, is a problem. They are an ungulary lot. Chief Croker, of the New York City Fire Department, has no use for cigarette flends. When these chaps get into the thick of smoke their lungs cannot stand the strain. Croker says: "I want some men with brains, yes: men who were passing through Asbbut I want all of them with lungs." Looking among cigarette fiends for men with brains and lungs, too, is a hopeless task. There may be some traces of lungs among them, but the brains, in large measure, never exist

Olgarette flends are not wanted in any positions of trust or responsible work. They are unreliable physically. mentally, and morally. A boy or man who will give himself over to the consumption of "coffin nalls" is simply expediting his steps toward the coffin, and yet be is not fit for the coffin, or what is beyond the coffin: he is no good in life, less good in death, and worst off after the coffin rete bim. Boys, especially, who become addicted to the cigarette habit, become slaves to it before their thirtieth year. and are so wrecked in mental and morel status that the incape asylum is a safer place for them than any bome or business office or working posspection. More and more the brand of fallure

s being stamped upon cigarette users. -Michigan Christian Advocate.

WHY THRY DIGHT RISE The late Patrick Collins, of Boston, was elected president of the Land League and visited Ireland soon afterward. A barber in Dublin was shaving him. "You're Mr. Collins, I'm thinkin'," said the barber respectfully. "I am," assented Collins through the soep. "Well, thin," declared the barber, flourishing his resor, "I want to tell ye that we've twenty thousand brave sons of ould Ireland ready to rise at a moment's call and throw off the cureed yoke of Rogland!" Collins preserved a discreet ellence until he was shaved. As he was putting on his collar be asked: "Why don't you cursed conshtabulary won't let us !

NAMESTRED A STILL TOK The young man who site at bome in in lordly fashion, criticising his sistors with squall regard for their feelings. and letting them wait on him without troubling himself to say thank you, has very little real chivalry. In his make on. The boy who is always sure of the most comfortable chair at home is not quite a gentleman, no matter how ready he is on the street car to give his seat to some stranger.

THEY COME HOME TO ROOST You cannot bate another without injuring yourself. You cannot utter an unfair criticism of an acquaintance and not loss something of value. The old proverb says that curses like truer word could be spoken. Kvery bitter thought, every unfair speech, every act of unkindness reacts upon the thinker, the speaker, or thedoer, to work him barm.

People who build castles in the air

A man may be one in a thousand without inspiring envy in the other are pover sure of their ground.

There never was and never will be universal panacea in one remedy for to his country, and has written his By its gradual and judicious use the frailest systems are led into convalescence and strengt by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restpratives. It relieves those to whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and by tranquillains the nervee disposes to sound and refreshing along-imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the veins, strengthening the besithy, snimel making activity a necessary result strongthening the frame and giving rop & Lyman, of Toronto, bave giver. to the public their especior Quining.

the great fruit remedy, will make you functions of the system, thereby After taking three boxes of your life by the digestive organs which Fig Pills for stobach and liver troubles | naturally demand increased substance By the opinion of scientists, the wine