A Scottleb lad had his leg injured at s factory, and was treated for some time by the doctor without much farprable result. His mostler had great faith in a local bonesetter, and wanted her son to go to him, but the hoy objected, preferring, as be said, the "reg'lar facuulty."

Finalty, however, he yielded to his mother's persuasions and was taken to the town where the famous honesetter resided. The leg was duly examined, and it was found pressury to pull it very severely in order "to get the bone in" as the quack express ed it. The patient howled in agency but at last the bane was "got in," and he was bidden to go home: In a few days he would be alright and could re-une work.

"Didn't he do it well?" said the jus our old lady, as they started bonse ward.

"Yes, be did, mother," said the lad, "be pulled it well, but I was non vio a fool se to gie him the sair leg!"

Whooping Coler LEFT A NASTY, DRY COUGHL

Mrs. A. Maiswright, St. Mary's, Oat. writes:- "I feel it my duty to write and tell you the good your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup did for my little boy. He had whooping cough, which left him with a nesty, dry hard cough. I took him to several doctors, but they did him failing day by day. I was advised to take him to another doctor, which I did, and he told me he was going into a decline.

I was telling a neighbour about it, and she told me to get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Hyrup, and give it to him regularly. Hhe then got to tell me how much good it did her children, so I got a bottle, and gave it to my little boy, and was so pleased with the result that I bought another one, and by the time he had finished it he had no cough. He is now fat and strong, and I would not be
