ROYAL LOVE MATCHES

Many Princes Have Renounced Their Ranks In Order to Wed. The fact that the Archduke Ferdinand Karl of Austria, nephew of the Emperor of Austria and brother of the Archduke Franz Ferdinand Heir Presumptive to the throne, has resounced his rank in order to marry Bertha Czuber, a most beautiful woman whom he met at a ball in Prague some years ago, adds one more to the long list of princes who have obeyed the dictates of Cupid in defiance of the state rule that royalty shall only mate with royalty. Franz himself decided to marry the woman he loved, the Counters Sophia Chotek, now known as Princess of Holienberg, although by an doing he had to renounce the right of any children of the marriage to succeed to the thrones of Austria and Hun-gary. The late Archduke Henry mar-ried Leopoldine Hoffman, a member of the company of the Karl Theatre in Vienna, although the marriage was forbidden by the Emperor, while in 1869 the Archduke John married an actress, Milly Stubel, in London, He renounced his rank, took the name of John Orth, and was last heard of serving as a sailor on board the Margerita, a ship that disappeared on a voyage from Buenos Ayres to Callan The death of the archiuke has never been definitely established, and from time to time rumors have been circulated that he is still living. In fact, it is said that he is living on one of the South Sea Islands with his eccentric brother Louis, who spends practically his whole life on a small aland in the Ionian Sea. This last theory is strongly held by the Arch-duke Leopold Ferdinand, another Austrian prince who married an ac-tress and renounced his royal rights. The archduke is a naturalized Swiss citizen, and lives, or at any rate was living until a short time ago, at Lucerne under the name of Wolfing. Several German princes have married women of no rank. There was Prince Adalhert, who was commanderin-chief of the German navy at the time of the France-Prussian War, and who, in 1850, married Terese Elser, a well-known dauter. Then there was Prince Augustus of Prussis, whose morganatic wife was the popular play-er. Marit Arnit, aterwards created Baroness Priliwitz.

In Bavaria we have an instance of a royal prince having made two morganatic marriages. Prince Ludwig, the elder brother of the royal oculist, Duke Carl Theodor married first in 1869 an actress, Praulien Mendel, who was created Baroness Wallersoe, and after her death in 1891. Fraulein Barth, who was given a patent of nobility under the style and title of Frau von Bartholf. He had, before marrying, also to resign his rights and patrimony to his younger brother.
The eldest daughter of Duke Carl Theodor, Princess Sophia of Bavaria, made also a pure love-match by marrying the Count Torring Jettenbach, a scion of an old Bavarian no ble house, but not of royal blood.

Escaped From a Pythen.

There is no member of Debrett who enjoys more good luck that Bir Claude Champion de Crespigny, who was an interested spectator at the Boxing Test in London the other day. He is credited with possessing more lives than the average cat.

In the matter of broken bones alone he holds a record. He had two leg bones fractured in a balloon accident; three arm bones while hunting; three ribs by a fall during a steeplechase, and another by a more procale cab socident, not to mention various fipgers broken by boxing or from kloks

Sir Claude is one of the few men living who lieve survived the crossing of the North Sea in a balloon, or to tell the tale of their escape from the coils of a python. He is the buly European who has ever swith the narrow gut of the First Cataract of the Nile.

He himself tells how he did it. "Some natives who were cruising about said that if any European ventured to attempt the feat he would most surely go under and never come up alive. I argued to myself that they had no better lungs than I had, so in I went. And I came up very much alive, too." .

Compensation.

A certain young fellow received a government berth, for which he had to undergo a very strict examination. One day a friend of his who had been noticing how little work he did to earn his salary tackled him.
"I say, Walter, my boy," he began, "you don't perform a great deal of labor, do you?"
"No, I don't have to."

'Aren't you expected to work?"
'Of course not," was the candid re-'It takes so much hard work to get a job like this that the authorito do anything more to earn his salary after he gots it,"

HIS REASONS

A good citizen open declared that he had seven good reasons for working for temperanor. Asked to name them, he replied, "Four sons, and three daughtere." Among the reasons which should lead you young folks to repouse the cause of temperance, two should meet with egpecial emphasis, your father and mether.

KAMBUK HAR HEALED IT!

Mrs. Wilson, 110 Wickson Ave., Toronto, says: " About four years ago a sore sput appeared on the right side of my face. This spot increased in size until it became about half an inch the diameter and very painful. I went to a doctor, but the ointment be gave me did not have any good effect. The sore continued to discharge freely, and was most palaful. had it cauterised, tried positions and all kinds of salves, but it was no good, and I continued to suffer

WHOOPING COUCH LEFT A NASTY. DRY COUGH.

Besters Could Be He Seed.

Mrs. A. Mainwright, St. Mary's, Ont., writes:-"I feel it my duty to write and tell you the good your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup did for my little boy. He had whooping cough, which left him with a nasty, dry hard cough. I took him to several doctors, but they did him failing day by day. I was advised to take him to another doctor, which I did, and he told me he was going into a decline.

I was telling a neighbour about it, and she told me to get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and give it to him regularly. She then got to tell me her regularly. She then got to tell me how much good it did her children, so I got a bottle, and gave it to my little boy, and was so pleased with the result that I bought another one, and by the time he had finished it he had no cough. He is now fat and strong, and I would not be without a bottle in the house on any
