The Acton Free Press IN PURLIMIED ONINGOM YACKSURT YARYS

in advance. $1.00 to subscribers in the nion States. All especiptions discontinued sen the time for which they have been paid a applied. The date to which every exherig-on is paid to deposed on the address label. Appropriated RATES — Transless advertiserin, 16 comes per Nouperell line for first prilog and 2 cents per line for each subse-nt Incertion. Contract display advertise-monte, for 20 or inches more, per annum, 10 tente per inch such incertion. Yearly contracts or reading matter 26 cents per lack each incer-Advertisements without specific directions if be insurted till forbid and charged according. Translate advertisespones must be paid:

Advertisements will be shanged once such month, if desired. For, changes oftener than shows mentioned the extra competition must be paid for at regular ra on,
All accounts sollected monthly.

H. P. MOOME,

Susiness Birectory.

MEDICAL

THOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL.

L. R. C. P. ROUSERSES. L. R. F. P. & S. GLASSON.

MEMBER BRITISH MEDICAL ASSOCIATION BY

DOUGLAS LAKE, M. D. Physician and Surgeon

Licentiate of College of P. and S., Cotario, Miningen and California.
Free Graduate University of Minhigan and of the Caleage and New York Poss Graduate Schools and Hospitals; Late Gilnien! Amistant Royal Lendon Opthalmie, Golden Square and Brompton Hospitals for sistenase of Rys, Sar, Maps, Phreat and Langs, London, Ragiand.
Also late special examiner for the United States Surream of Punsione, Washington, D.
House I to 9; I to 6; 7 to 8.
Office and residence Dr. Holmes late promises, Mill Street, Aston.

YORN M MACDONALD, M. D., C. M. " Late Prop. and Hapt, Massey Hospital. Diseases of Wosses and General Surgery. 600 Pape Are.

LEGAL

OFFRIR-Mill Heywor, to becycle Block,

J HONABH Clerk Fours: Division Court County of Hal-is, Conveyancer, Land Fire and Life Assersance legs, depart Agent Money to loan, etc.

DESTAL. -----M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S.

Man at Monidanos, Corner Mill and Frederic House GRADUATE OF TORONTO UNIVERSE The latest appositionic need if destrod.

A BE. L. L HENNETT. DENTIST.

MISCELLANDOUS.

ABANGIS HUMAN

Account Hooks of all kinds made to coder periodicals of every description earefully bound ruling peakly and promptly done

MARRIAGE LICENBES. E. P. MOONE Privite of Manister Legisles. religio (Mor. Ho wilmoses required. James Free Press Office, ACTOM

LATM HEMSTREET.

LICENSED A POTTORER For the Counties of Wellington and Halton Orders left at the Farm Pause office, Aston, or at sayresidence in Acton, will be promptly ator the Counties of Wallington, Halton, Peel I Defferin, and the city of Guelpa, Deplets by letter to Missoon P. O., or Caledon Deplets by letter to Missoon P. O., or Caledon Lines by letter to Missoon P. O., or Caledon Lines by letter to reside to openession with the letter on the standard of the letter o

PARKS TO RELL OR MENT.

TAMES MODONALD For the counties of Wellington, Halton, Waterloo, Westworth and the City of Guelph. Metacifon gravationd in every case.
For thruse, dates, etc., apply to Bez Mt.
Emergence—17 Sydenham St., GURLPS, ut. Telephone 167, Guelph.
-aic; may be arranged at FREE Pares office.

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

With the Heaville property and direct important with the party of the property and direct important with the party of the

You Are Particularly

To see the collection

Watches

Clocks

All kinds of [ewellery

DIAMONDS

Brass Ware Ebony Brushes, Mirrors and Brushes Gold & Silver Mount ed Umbrellas Sterling Silver Goods

Savage & Co. JEWALLERS

Gueloh

Ont.

Green Grocer

-AND-FRUIT MERCHANT

E. K. COOK

Is receiving daily Fresh Vegetables and FOREIGN PRUITS A SPECIALTY RESH FISH TURSDAYS & FRIDAYS

> THY OUR FINNAM HADDIE GOODS DELIVERED

-- - TAOUT-AND HERRING

DO YOU REALIZE

he money you can make selling fruit trees The present demand for nursery stock is the greatest is the history of the business Everybody who has the land is planting or preparing to plant. WE WANT NOW for fall and winter months a peliable man to sell in Acton and surrounding district Good pay, exclusive territory, and all the advantages in representing an old setablished firm Over 600 acres under cultivation. Established 35 years . Welte PELHAM NURSERY CO.

Fine Millinery

Misses Murray & Hayden HAVILL'S HALL, ACTON Now on display, all the latest styles of Fall and Winter Millinery and trim The ladies have already found us our new quarters and we are grateful for he numerous orders received. Prompt attention given all orders.

Misses Murray & Hayden

Waters Bros. Guelph

HEADQUARTERS FOR O. A. C. School Supplies

NATURE STUDY BOTANICAL ETOMOLOGICAL DRAWING PAINTING

41 Wyndham Street Phone 350

..PAPER.. MAKERS

BOOK, NEWS AND COLORED PAPERS

BARBER PAPER & COATING MILLS

LIMITED GEORGETOWN - ONTARIO

EDUCATION FOR SUCCESS Large Bustness Collins In a great Canadian pity had descripted in quick measured from a smilling hey walled in and approved the manager's part of the my

GUELPH BUSINESS COLLEGE

THANK YOU!

INVITED The People have shown that they appreciate our efforts

Business.

to make our store not only Big in Size, but Big in Stock, Big in Service, Big in Brightness, Big in Everything that is connected with Successful

We Thank You!

The BOND HARDWARE Co.

Retail Phone 97

WEARESETTLEDAGAIN

In our New Building, and have one of the Largest and Best Equipped Estab-lishments of its kind in the Dominion.

A. D. Savage Phone 627 - Guelph

"RIGHT AT THE POST OFFICE

CHERRIC MENTS HIS SINGLE SERVICE STREET Who Dosen't Want Music at Home?

Everybody likes some kind of music. You have only to pick the kind you want. This is where we make a specialty. Our store is filled with music and musical instruments of all kinds. We can easily supply all your wants and do gladly give our time and experience in selecting what will best suit you.

C. W. KELLY 183 Upper Wyndham GUELPH - ONT.

Let us Have Your Order

the other was The Flour & Feed Store

We beg to thank our many friends and customers for their patience and patronage during the removal and alterations in the Feed Store aud to invite all to visit the new site and inspect the improvements. We solicit your continued patronage and promise as prompt service as possible.

R. NOBLE MERCHANT MILLER N. F. Moore - Manager

ACTON

BUS LING

The undersigned respectfully solicits the patronage of the pal-lic. and informs them that Well. Equipped and Stytles Riger can always be secured at his trains between 10.00 z.m. and 6.19 p. m. Careful attention given to every order. The weats of Commercial Travellers fully met. JOHN WILLIAMS PROPRIBYES

where you have so many shapes and sizes. Take a look at the shoes in our windows baye a large assortment of high grade

WILLIAMS "We Home of Good Shoes"

BRINGT

The clock struck twelve in the tall church tower. And the old year alipped away,

WHAT DOES THE NEW YEAR

To be lost in the crowd of phantons In the Bouse of Dreams that stay All wrapped in their clocks of gray.

Then swift and sweet o'er the door's Come the youngest phild of Time, With a gay little how and a merry

And a voice like belle a chilar. Challenging frost and vime. He found there was plenty for him to

The strong and the weak were here, And both held out their hands to him. And gave him greetings dear, The beautiful young New Year.

"The Old Year was a chest," Which I think was mean when the year was dead :

Such fate do dead years meet, To be spurned by scornful feet ! I will bring you the best a year can The newcomer stoutly speke,

The chance of work, the gift of true And the bread of love to break, If but my gifts you'll take." The noblest thing a year can lay In the lap of you or me. The brave New Year has brought thi

It in Opportunity, Which the wise are quick to see. -Margaret K. Hangater.

Select Yamiln Reading

THE STATE OF THE STATE OF THE STATE OF Why Not To-Day ?

ATTAUATTAILATTATTATTATTATTATTATTATTATTATTATTATT T T was New Year's Day. There had been a big storm, and, although the wind had spent ils force, the now fell stendliv. "Rogular winter weather and mistake about it," observed Mr. Rich. Inclined to stand on her head by way and Hunt, as he came in rather noisily, stamping the snow from his boots; of things. "but I like it, . He cold and brading." Mrs. Hunt, who was sitting near an | hall, as it was too heavy for her to ut open Binnklin stove, laughed. "I like tempt to carry; but she could smell the house best such a day as this," she | the coffee and took that package with wild, whivering a little. "I don't be- her, also two or three more. lieve I'd be willing to face the cold even for the sake of the bracing." "I think I heard you may you were joe full o' everything. Here's coffee guing to see old Mrs. Halfer to-day," Mr. Hunt remerked, as he seated tomorrer there's a big load o' soal blm-elf comfortably. "Have you a-comin'."

changed your mind?"

"Yes, I've changed my mind. have to walt until some other day Poor old Mrv. Helfer!" "Is she sick ?" "Some other day will do as wellwill it not?' she questioned.

"Not If she needs you to-day. Come, get on your wraps and I'll go with "Why, Richard Hunt; what's got Into you? I thought you never liked | face. "You thought right, my dear," bmilcalling, repecially at such planes." ing pleasantly, "but can you tall me what there is to prevent my turning ver a new leaf on New Year's Day ?" She laughed. "It would be a very good idea who unid," who said.

"Well, then, encourage me in it." "So I wIII." She rose at once and was soon ready | a-bin a-belpin' the Lord."

to face the storm, with a basket on ber arm. "What's in it P" Mr. Hunt asked, as e relieved his wife of the banket.

"Sugar and splos and everything nice," she quoted. A little mald opened the door when they reached Mts. Helfer's. To Mrs Hunt's question as to how the latter was, the child answered i "She'm not ery well, ma'am," and then lowering her voice to a confidential whisper, "I guess she'm lonesome. She bin orying." The weary old face brightened when little Polly led the callers lo, but both Mr. and Mrs. Hunt were observant, and read "between the lines" that the dear old lady was not only sorrowful but troubled

"I wish you a Happy New Year. Mrs. Hunt said, taking the thin ok hands in a close grasp. "Happy New Year," Mr. Hunt sebord, his greeting as pordial as his "Thank you," responded the ady, warmly, "and I wish you both a Happy New Year," "We had a fine turkey for dinner to day," said Mr. Hunt, "and I rather think day wife brought you a place," unbovering the banket, "You, sure

The trio chatted pleasantly for little while, and then Mr. Hunt arose enddenly. "I've thought of an errand or two," he said, "I'll not be gone He met the small maid in the hall, "Pully," he said, "I don't want to pry into Mre. Halfere's affaire, but I'mreally anxious to know if she has snough, here it is."

friend, you know, and a friend of my mother's. Does she need anything Polly P "Yes, sir, deed she do! but she didn't say on. Hhe ain't no onephainer, that's what she nin't. She nin't had no onfee since-since-" "Go oo, Polly, talk fast.

everything she needs. She's an old but Mrr. Helfer said, 'No. not now, Polly : some other time." "It dheen't seem hardly nongh in the house, Polly. Do you Acton. have plenty of onal?"

"That's what we don't, sir," she said, ith decision. "We'em jees about out. I guess by termorrer it'll be all gone. Mrs. Helfer's a'most a shakin with cold sometimes. She had two hell, but she took 'em off." Mr. Hunt had heard enough-quite "Poor, dear soul," he said to himself shawls aroun' ber when you rung the

He kept his promise-he was not gone long. He put a bunch of bright carnations into the old lady's hand and then be said to his wife, smilingly, that it was time to "move on."

Polly led them out of the front door Returning to the room, she found the old lady in a rupture of joy. "Look, P lly," she cried, in a gle that was like a child's. And Polly looked and laughed

What she saw was sliced turkey dainty biscuit, a print of butter, minos pie, a frosted plum cake. oranges, grapes, nuts, raleins and "Oh, my," cried Polly, what a fine

Presently the grocer's boy delivered a beavily-filled backet with a mee-"Tell yer inlesis Buck Peters" se be'd be here termorrer mornin' at

New Year we do be bavin' after all!"

eight o'clock, sure." "What for!" saked the amesed "What for?" mockingly, "Why, to

"Oh, my ! I b'lieve there's fairles aroun'-I do so!" And, after closing the door on the grocer's boy, Polly felt of celebrating the delightful new state She left the basket standing in the

"Oh, Miss Helfer," she exclaimed "another big hasket's come, an' it's for you-an'-an' tes, an' sugar. An'

"Yes, mum." "What does it mean-all that great basket of things you're telling about and the onal coming to-morrow?" "I dunno." "But who sent the groceries? Who going to send post?" Polly looked mystified. She stood boring the toe of berold shoe late the rug. Suddenly a light broke over ber "I guese it's the Lord, ma'am. You said the Lord ud provide-I beard you -an' he's done it." The old lady folded her hands.

"Bless the Lord, O'my soul," "I've thought of something, Miss Helfer," Polly suddenly broke out, excitedly. "I guess Mr. Richard Hunt's

The old lady smiled.

WHATTHE PRISONERS SAY Not long ago I heard this very remakable testimonial concerning the value of total abstinance in the home from the lips of Mrs. Bullock a distinguished lecturer on the temperance platform, and a resident of Bimire, New York. In the course of the address Mrs. Bullook told this loci-

"In my work it is frequently my privilege to speak before inmates of jails, prisons, pesitentiaries and reformateries of one sert or another, and in the course of my address I usually ask the prisoners three questions First, "How many of you have ever attended Sunday-school?" several hands will be relead. ask, "Were any of you brought up in Christian homes? And usually I see some lifted hands. Then the third thinking of home, and friends and question, "How many of you were everything that life holds dear. Then brought up in total abetinence homes? the thought of God's care for all that But often as I have saked this, I never he has created came to me with pecureceived a single affirmative reply." liar force. If He so cared for the Now Mrs. Bullock's teetlmony is cer tainly strong evidence that total abatinence in the home is a very strong safe-guard for the children in that Our Munday-schools are falling of their duty if they do not in some way manage, to impress the homes of the community, not only with the importanbe of heading the boye and girls to the Sunday-school, not only with the Importance that fathers and mothers should be Obristians but with the necessity that they shall be such thoroughgoing and intelligent Obvistians that they shall put an absolute taboo upon the admission of any intoxicating liquore to their homes.-By Bev.

James Etmar Russell. SHALL IT BE A NEW YEAR? Shall it be a New Year. in deed and

JESUS, LOVER OF MY SOUL

"Jesus, lover of my soul," Sang a centinel one night, As he paced his kenely heat In the pale moon's waning light. Jeens, lover of my soul. Let me to thy bosom fly :

Plaintively be song, and low, While he felt that death was nigh "Cover my defeneriese brad"-Softly on the still night air-With the shadow of thy wing." Trustingly he sang the words,
Thinking only God would hear,
But the night winds wafted them
To the bidden forman's car.

Through the mirky shades of night There had crept a daring scout To that picket's lonely stand. And with sure macring alm. On his foe had drawn a bead, When in supplient tone, he heard "Cover my defenctions head."

Down his deadly rifle came; He, bimself a man of prayer, Could not take the life of one Trusting in his Saviour's care. Softly from his povert then In the skedows be withdraw Leaving still that beart to beat. Which he knew was brave and

"Jesus, lover of my soul, In life's tempest be thou nigh; And smid its gathering gloom Let me to thy bosom fly bring— Onver my defenseless bead With the shadow of thy wing." THE SECURL TO THE SONO A party of northern tourists formed part of a large dompany on the deck of us excursion steamer that was moving slowly down the historic Potomac one evening in 1881. A gentleman, who has einos galned a national reputation as an evangelist of song had been delighting the party with his happy rendering of many familiar hymns, the last being the sweet petition so dear to every Christian heart, "Jeous Lover of My Boul." The singer gave the first two verses with much feeling and a peculiar onphasis on the concluding lines that thrilled every beart. A hush had fallen upon the listeners that was not broken for several seconds after the mu-lost notes died away. Then rentleman made his way from the outskirts of the crowd to the side of the singer, and accounted him with :

"Beg your pardon, stranger: but war ?" "You sir." the man of song answereral Grant." "Well," the first speaker continued my fighting on the other side, and remain until spring. duty. We of the south had sharp Saviour was complete. business on bandt you were one of the enemy. I crept mear your post of duty, my murderous weapon in my hand. The shadow bid me. As you peoed back and forth you were humming the tune you have furt sung. raised my gun, and almed at your beart; and I had been selected by our commander because I was a sure abot. Then out upon the night rang: "Cover my defenseless boad With the shadow of Thy wing. Your prayer was answered. I coul not fire after that, and there was no attack made on your camp that night I felt sure when I beard you sing this evening that you were the man whose life I'was spared from taking." The singer grasped the hand of th Southerner and said with much smo "I remember the night very well and distinctly the feeling of depres sion and localiness with which I wont forth to my duty, as I know my post was one of great danger, and I was more dejected than I remembered to have been at any other time during the service. I paped my lonely beat prested to his own image; and I sang the prayer of my beart and ceased to never knew until this evening. My Heavenly Pather thought it best to keep the knowledge from me eighteen years. How much of His goodness we shall be ignorant of until it is revealed by the light of sternity ! 'Jesus Lover of My Soul' has been a favorite bymn; now it will be inexpressibly dear." The incident related in the above sketch is a true one, and was related

BEFORE LOOKING FOR PROMO-

by . lady who was one of the party on

Unless you know more than you in truth, or only the same old story? have no right to look for promotion. "Since her money took wings an Arenewpurposes, newdeterminations, Why should you wish a more responflew. I dunno where it flew to, but new loyalty, to leaven the months from sible position, when you are only equal Pietre Bandinelli. During those in. It brother. You know how it is done. that's what someone asidwit flew an' January around through December, to the demands of that which you hold | tervening years Platro had been at | One threw down a dollar that he hald she don't her butter no more. I want or shall the record of selfishness and at present? Why should you expect to Rouse studying music, had met wish he could not afford to give his wife two weakness be repeated? Put woongh screece in salary, when you are incop- svil companions, but given bimself up bours before, and treated the bunch. dynainic energy into the starting of able of an increase in usefulness? A to drinking and gambling, had fallen The others did the same, and so on, the year, snough thoroughgoing young man must been shead of his into shameful dissipation and crime, until the bestender had sorved six loyalty, enough sourage and steadfast. | work, a good way about in the many was the model for orders, thirty-six drinks, and had

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Bits From Our New Year Wesk's The new school is now tenanted The Baptist Churches of George lown and Acton have given a call to

Rev. A. E. D. St. Dalmas, of St. Cath-

The new officers of . Walker Lodge, . P. & A. M. :- 25 M .-- J. Lawson; . M .- W. Stark ; S. W .- J. Kenney. Jr.; J. W .- I. Francie; Chap. - Jov. Anderson: Treas. - J. B. Pearson! Secretary - W. Kenney: S. D.-H Jeans; J. D.-Thos. Kenney; D. of C. - Fred Secord; Organist - A. O.

-J. Kenney, Sr. G. T. R. trackmen and their friends andered an oyster supper at the Do-Garstrang, Thor. Wenham, C. Hilden. He was just where we had left him.

ed were :- For Reave-James Brown I trouble you. The heat thing in the for Councillors-H. Grindell, W. R. world is not gold and silver or food Smith, Thos. C. Moore.

the greatest majority ever given in a mayoralty contest. Pleming's major-Ity over Sheppard was $101. Ray. Daniel Stranhau has accepted | can be useful." You will have a life be call to Hespeler. Mr. Thos. Blair, of Kilbride: visited kings will envy. friends in Apton.

The Misses Gordon, of Krin, were guests at the old home. Gordon Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coleman and Mr. were you actively engaged in the late bere during the week. He has been a tobecoo as well as strong spirits. A od courtequaly. "I fought under Gen- Adamsville was the first name of this feam, including all the point winners hamlet, after his ancestors. with something like a sigh. "I did for Newark, N. J. The family will other times. The sporting writer of think, indeed I am quite sure, I was ' At the dawning of the New Year notable victories won by American very near you one bright night 18 Miss Jessie Warren passed away. She athletes over those of England. An years ago this very month. It was was a general favorite with those who English team had come to News York about such a night as this. If I am knew her best, and ber spirit of resig. for an international meet and expected Herran- In Mequating on Jan. - Jat. Mrs. Jan. M. Boyder, a daughter.

MARRIED

DIED

THE STORY OF A MASTESPIECE tient labor and, as a result of that change. labor, it is perfect in its naturalness of expression and sublime in its story of love. In addition to these qualities t has up incident lo its history that t the great tosober that It is. majo-tio in its awrotness.

the painter happened to meet one lasked, is a weight from which the Pietro Bandinelli, a choir boy of ex- con-clause is never free. Just how the prayer was answered I | quislie voice, belonging to the Cathedral. Being struck by the beautiful 1918. Right the wrongs that are betestures and tonder manner-that he I bind-you, Instead of dragging then anoke an ungelic woul, the artist in- into the effort and aspirations of, toduced the boy to be the study for the day. Retues to be burdened with the painting of the face of Jesus: All was accumulated errors of the past, and on done most carefully and reverently, the first day of January start fair. but the picture was as yet incomplete. for the face of Judas was absent. Again the painter, with the seal of a > true lover of his art, set about in search of a countenance that might serve for the face of the traitor, ... Some years addigos, the man looked up at him and | line up in front of a har, and in less the painter learned that the man was | insulted if any one of them should call model for the lace of Christ .- Bel.

NEW YEAR'S MOTTOES

asked the New Year for some motte Some rule of life with which to gaide and low. "God's will to know." Will knowledge ben suffice, New Your ! I miled : But ore the question into silence died, ber, too-God's will to do." Once more I maked; "IEThere still more to tell P

> God's will to love." -Christian Commonwealth.

DR. GRENFELL'S ADVICE TO BOYS I was reading to-day a latter from a man called Tertullian. It was written to his school, and the letter is nearly eighteen hundred years old. I expect worth while when trouble comes, you must keep yourself hard and fit. In Labrador we have no penny. blood-curdling novels and five editions Beardmore; L. O.-G. O. Clark; Stew- of a newspaper dally. Lots of our ards-Jas. McLam, Jos. Perkins: Tyler | hove cannot read and write. But they can sudure hardness like good soldlers. Last winter one boy of fifteen was left with two teams of hugo wolfish minion Hotel last week to Mr. A. Kekimo dogs, while the doctor and his Bruce, roadmaster, who has been re- men travelled off to kill some deer. moved to the Guelph-Stratford divis. He was warned not to move, or they ion. After supper Mr. H. S. Holmes, would be lost. As it happened, the speaking for those assembled, express | men gut parted by heavy storms, and ed regrets at Mr. Bruce's removal and lonly found a house fifty miles away on seed an appreciative address; and Mr. I the third day after. They at once Con. Hildenbrand presented a gold- sent out a gang of nice to look for the beaded cans, and also a silver tea boy. Do you think he had run away service for Mrs. Bruce. The address in all that long time, and during those was signed by Patrick Mahoney, John | dark, cold nights? Not a bit of it!

Here is a thing he says: "An overfed body may be good for the beasts, but is is no good to God."

I have had to look death in the face Acton Municipal elections :- Reave once or twice, and there is nothing in J. B. Pearson; Councillors-George | the world that helps you to give him Havill, Jos. Anderson, John Williams, the slip like not having the skeleton of J. R. Corry. The candidates not sleet. an impure life to weaken you and

If I left a watchword with you, it would bet "Learn to keep your eyes open, and to see clinness where you then and a career behind you that

TOTAL ABSTAINERS WIN The American athletes who astonish holm were trained under a rigid their old-time superiority over all other nations. The evening before the opening of the events a few of the Americans dropped into the British beadquarters and were astonished to find several of them sipping als. Inreply to their expressions of surprise. the Englishmen protested : "O. we always drink our ale, but not much of it." In the ensuing contests Great ing seriously of the United States' rise in the athletic world, and are be-

START FAIR WITH THE YEAR In a business house where effairs

.. THE TRUATING SYSTEM

Hone Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, says: "One of the worst phases of saloon passed before his search was rewarded life is the treating system. I have and the picture finally completed. As seen a half dozen choice American the artist was about to dismiss his citizens, leaders in their line of work, said, "You have painted me before," I than thirty minutes come out indecent Horrified and dumb with amazement I jabbering lillots. / A bog would feel ness to make 1923 a New Year to more ity or cases, before tooking for promo I the face of Judas had once been the pucketed the change of alk American asked and paused. It answered, soft

The answer came, "Nay, this remem-

And once again the answer softly fell, Yes, this one thing, all other things

Knox Church anniversary this year you will hardly believe it, but the had in place of the usual tree a fine school was really and truly to prepare the children. It was named "John bravely, and not flinching at the suf

If you are plucky and brave, and

and clothing-no, not by a very long In Toronto R. J. Finining was given | way.

and Mrs. W. A. Coleman, with their ed the world by their wholesale vicchildren, visited at the old house at tories in the Olympic games at Stock-Mr. Eara Adams, Drayton, was system which eliminated beer and familiar figure here for sixty-three poli of the men themselves is said to years. He came here from Quebec. have shown that practically the entire of importance, were total abstainers Mr. Chas. Quittner left on Tuesday | not only while in training, but at all a large Bastern daily tells of the first not mistaken, you were on guard nation proved that her trust in her to have an easy time maintaining WANNEN-In Mequesing, on Jan. lat, Jemis, Britain was badly beaten. Sportsmen youngest daughter of John Warren, Heq. in the tight little lale are now speak-Mouldering away on the wall of the gioning to admit that the American old monastery in Milan hange the system of no intoxicants and no toamous "Last Supper" of Loonardo | bacco at all times must be adopted if da Vinci. Like every masterpiece the the mother country can hope for the painting required many years of par remaining of her lost laurels. - Ex-

contributes not a little toward making | were rather loosely managed, a bookkeeper made an error in his accounts It is said that the artist, in painting | which he was never able to discover. he faces of the Apostles, studied the And so he carried it over from month counterlance of good men whom he to month and year to year. At the thow. When, however, he was ready top of every new page appeared the to paint the face of Joins in the plature old error. He could never start fair. he bould find more that would satisfy . Some knung people are making the his conception; the face that would same mistake in matters more imporserve as a model for the face of Christ | tant than the keeping of a set of books. must be dignified in its simplicity and The old quarrel runs on and on, onebittering the years. The wrongdoing. After several years of careful search for which no forgiveness has been Carry no errorr over from 1912 to