Acton Free Press.

VOLUME XXXVIII .--- NO. 29.

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 16, 1918.

SINGLE COPIES---THREE CENTS

The Acton Free Press EVERY THURSDAY MOENING

States. All subscriptions discontinued the time for which they have been paid and expired. The date to which every subscrip-tion is paid to depoted so the address label.

Approximated RATES — Transient adventises nts, 16 cents per Nosperell line for first extine and 5 cents per line for such sobse-me insertion. Contract display advertise-ats, for 88 or inches more, per annual, 10

Advertisaments without apositio directions will be incorred till furbid and charged assort-Advertisements will be abanged once each month, if desired. For changes oftener than above mentioned the extra composition must above mentioned the extra comp be paid for at regular raise, All assesses collected monthly.

H. P. MOORK, Editor and Proprieto

Susiness Birectory.

MEDICAL.

TTHOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL L. E. C. E HORROSS. L. R. F. P. & R. GLASOW.

DOUGLAS LAKE, M. D. Physician and Surgeon

Licentiate of College of P. and S., Ontario, Minhigan and California, Peut Graduate University of Minhigan and of the Chicago and New York Post Graduate Schools and Hospitale; Late Clinical Assistant Reyal Lendon Opticalmia, Golden Square and Resembles Bouginals for disease of Kys, Ear, Hum, Threat and Lungs, London, England.

Also late special examiner for the United States Suream of Fernices, Washington, D. Hours: 2 to 2; 1 to 4; 7 to 8.

Office and residence Dr. Holmen' late premises, Mill Husset, Acton.

FORK M MACDONALD, M. D., C. M. Late Prop. and Hupt, Massey Hospital. Append of Women and General Surgery. Phone North 1000 100 Page Ave.

LEGAL

D J. MAHABB, Nort Fourth Division Court County of Halen, Conveyencer, Agent Fire and Life Americanes Seel Setate Agent. Money to loan, etc. Chryson-Perryman a Block AOTOM ONT.

DENTAL.

M. BELL D.D.S., L.D.S. idence, Corner Mill and Fre Homes GRADGITH OF TORONTO UNIVE The latest appositable wood if desired.

DR. L. L. BENNETT, DENTIST.

TOBANCIS HUNAN

Assess Books of all kinds made to order periodicals of every description exactly beand, rulps seekly and promptly done FARRIAGE LICENBER.

H. P. MOORH Legues or Manniage Legeners

Private Office. No witnesses required, Imme-Epon Francisco, ACTON

THIM HEMSTREET,

D J. KHRE

For the Counties of Wallington, Halton, Peel and Dufferin, and the city of Gualph. Sales nonducted with bathsfaction and upon Orders by letter to Mimosa F. O., or Caledon Orders by letter to Mimosa F. O., or Caledon telephone in residence in sommetion with the Deli, where arrangements as to dates and advertising our be made. Orders left at Fram Frame thing our be made. Orders left at Fram Frame office or with W. J. Gordon, liarness Maker, Asten, will receive immediate attention. Special attention to sales in Asten and violality.

TAMES MCDONALD LICENSED AUCTIONEES

For the counties of Wellington, Halton, Welseloo, Westworth and the City-of Guelph. Sales conducted on reasonable terms satisfaction guaranteed in every case, and, in For terms, dates, etc., apply to Box 206. Description—17 Sydenbara fil., GURLPH, Ont. Telephone 107, Guelph. Halel may be arranged at FREE Passes office.

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers | THE ARMY OF THE UNEMPLOYED

We are manufacturary and direct importers ... We sell kinds of Monumental and Headstrate work. We sell direct to our sustances at white said. We have the best appliances and the east measurant in the Dominion who can operate present to took properly. We can give references from hundreds of our sustances in formule add other places, where others have to compliant have to compliant and their stock of Granite in the largest and heart stock of Granite in the dend left units in order to collect. We have the largest and heat stock of Granite in the face readily exchange for dollers and controlled, or face than any three dealers in he West! We are legitimate dealers and out the play as equals, and do not amony or peat out.

Legious by skidling out ignorant against to policit practical officiousy of our methods. Write to-

HAMILTON & SONS

You Are Particularly INVITED

To see the Collection

Watches Clocks

DIAMONDS ...

Ebony Brushes, Mirrors and Brushes Gold & Silver Mount-

Sterling Silver Goods

JEWELLERS Guciph

Apple, Plum and Cherry trees. They have the best sursery soil in Canada and are the largest growers of trees in the Dominyour county.

BROWN BROS. CO. Brown's Nurcertes WELLAND COUNTY, ONT. the new year and the same of t

Green Grocer

E. K. COOK

FOREIGN PRUITS A SPECIALTY FRESH FISH TUESDAYS & FRIDAYS TROUT AND HERRING

TRY OUR PINNAN HADDIK GOODS DELIVERED

AGENT WANTED For Acton

Ehisterine

and ernamental trees in town.

BYART NOW and have your territory reserved. Weekly pay. Free ontils. Write for terms. STONE & WELLINGTON

HEADQUARTERS FOR O. A. C. School Supplies

NATURE STUDY BOTANICAL ETOMOLOGICAL DRAWING

41 Wyndham Street .. Phone 350

MAKERS

BOOK, NEWS AND COLORRO PAPERS

BARBER PAPER boyting wifts LIMITED

GROUGETOWN ONTARIO

Is never recruited from the trained workers. It is the bey or girl-without training that grows up a dependent, incomparent men or woman. Opportunity knocks at your door in vals, if not promptly welcomed with trained ability. GUELPH BUSINESS COLLEGE

THANK YOU!

The People have shown that they appreciate our efforts to make our store not only Big in Size, but Big in Stock, There are planeer souls that Big in Service, Big in Brightness, Big in Everything that is connected with Successful Business.

We Thank You!

The BOND HARDWARE Co.

WEARESETTLEDAGAIN

In our New Building, and have one the Largest and Best Equipped Estabshments of its kind in the Dominion A. D. Savage

"RIGHT AT THE POST OFFICE"

What Will This Year Bring You? WHY NOT A PIANO?

Certainly there is nothing you could buy that would give you as much enjoyment. A l'impo adds a touch of refinement to any home and there is no excuse why your home should be without one when you can buy such really good instruments on such easy terms as we are willing to make.

"The Bell" Is the Piano of to-day and tomorrow. Not only is the tone rich and full, touch sensitive. case beautiful, but it has many individual features which mark "Che Bell" Canada's leading

C. W. KELLY 133 Upper Wyndham GUELPH - ONT.

Something Coming In

If you ADVERTISE in THIS PAPER. It will LOOK GOOD to you. Try it out NOW. Je

The Acton Free Press

ACTON

YERY

BUS LING The undersigned respectfully solicits the patronage of the public. and informs them that Well Equipped and Stylish Riger

A comfortable bus meets all p. m. Careful attention given to every order. The wants of Commercial Travellers fully met. JOHN WILLIAMS

Fall @ Winter

where you have so many shapes and -sises-Take a look at the shoes in our windows and get acquainted with the new styles In our windows we can show but a few of an idea of what our stock is like. We now have a large assortment of high grade

"The Home of Good Shoes"

Boeten. "THE HOUSE BY THE SIDE OF THE BOAD"

There are hermit souls that live with-In the peace of their self-contest : There are souls, like stare, that dwell | behind in her work.

In a fellowisse firmament: their paths Where highways never tan': But let me tive by the side of And he a friend to man.

Lat me live in a bouse by the side of the rund Where the tace of men go by-The most who are good and the men who are bad

As good and he bed as I.

unr their lears.

Or hurl the cynic's ban. Lat me live to the house by the the road And he a friend to man. I see from my house by the the side of

would not alt in the scorner's se

the rund By the side of the highway of life, The man who press with the arder strife.

listh parts of an infinite plan-Let me live in my house by the side of the road hundred," laughed Blet Riley, a re-And be a friend to man. know there are brook-gladdened

And mountains of wearlsoms height That the read passes on through the long afternoon And stretches away to the night." But still I rejoice when the traveller And weep with the strangers that

Nor live in my house by the side of the Like a man who dwalls along. Int me live in a house by the side of

Where the race of man go by-They are good, they are had, they are week, they are strong, Wien fuelish --- am I. Then why should I dt in the soorner

Or hurl the cynlo's ben? -Let me live in my house by the side the road And be a friend to man.

-Bam Walter Foes.

Select Family Reading

总的形式的数据 The Courier

"Extra" By boatel Graham Bush

KRRY cksed the subscription besk with a thud. Across the room the editor's chair was vacant, the reporters had taken their departure upon various errenda, but pile of proofs for the workly edition of "The Courier" before ber. Jerry glanced around cautionaly, then leaned over the railing : .

"Miss Bates." be called roftly. The brown bead nodded, but the eyes travelled on to the end of the long column then smiled back at Jerry as the proof went onto the book. "I don't want to bother you, but I'd like to know why Joe Kinney was discharged"-Jeiry was Jue's successor-"I might make the same mistake, you wee, I've always wanted to be a-jour-Miss Bates needed again very decidedly. She was a great deal older than Jurry and the twinkling gray ever bit alike. Joe seemed to consider his sbout his work, his occasional trouble for them? He had a little experience the birds; and if you will listen in the work the most important in the establishment. I have thought sometimes that if this place caught fire he would have grunibled if anyone had saked was so much red tape about running a have belped him, but even if she were in the Christian Intelligencer. blus to carry a pall of water. He was newspaper," said Mr. Quayle. "I well be would not call ber out at that careful and methodical in a way, but terribly slow because he didn't like to listen to any suggestions as to newer. quicker methods of doing things; he sabugh when I called you up." buildently felt they reflected on ble own judgment. And of Joe is out of a job ly. Just then there was a ring at the telephone, "I'll attend to it. Miss Bates. Haven't anything special to

It was a mossage for the editor, and Jerry wrote it out carefully and put it on Mr. Robinson's desk. Then be watched the proof reader. How thoroughly she seemed to understand her work. "I wish I knew enough to help you," he said after a few mo-

The woman laughed. Don't take my criticisms of Joe's failings too literally. I am very much obliged, but don't want anyone to do my work pen to be a little behind to-night." "Yes, you stopped to take down home earlier!'stopped to make some queer marks on scribers, whose grisvance started practice, you know."

For the most part there was a genlittle satisfied smile on his face, the proof.s" areful about his accumitions. "I think you can eafely call it two porter. "Hurreh for Jerry !" Mr. Robinson smiled and said nothing, but that night Jerry found on his desk two finely bound volumes which would be very helpful to him to the study of his profession. He was alone in the refice when he made the discovery, his work was done and he had surely earned a rest. He dropped down into a chair, the pages looked fascinating and soon his surroundings ware forgotten.

Suddenly the telephone bell rang. Jerry sprang up with a little sigh. "I do bope it lan't"-but it was. Mr. hung up the receiver quite out of sorts. lation." Jerry put on his raincost more in an hour or so if the wires with a wistful glance at the volumes aren't down," un ble desk. It was gloomy enough outside. Some was turning into sleet and his wheel ing. dipped now and then on the pavement. He was muddy and somewhat out of breath when he mached the small pottage, but if Jerry had falt so nelined be could not have been out of worts with the delighted old gentleman who met him at the door. "I've been laid up with rhoumatism an' it's a real disappointment when the paper docen't come," be said. "I wish you'd step in an' set a spell." Jerry could not resist the invitation. He found Mr. Quayle genial and onterapportunity to get a start, don't you? delicious luncheon. 'He ate with a when he gets back to-morrow?' keen appetite; he had forgotten about When Jerry had finished telephonsuppor in his delight at Mr. Robinson's ling-he could get neither Murphy or gift but this was better than anything Riley-he sat down in perplexity, avoided them. beauted to implie outfidence. "I don't his landledy could have given him. The mon would be there to set up the with the carrier boys and the rival with Items his quick eyes and seruhad spring or summer. I am sure you will "Argue."

"I don't blante you," laughed Jerry,

coming up here. Whenever your be elaborated upon for the next edi- furnace fire.was out," "Ym, I see," said Jerry thoughtful- paper falls to appear, let me know." . "I'm so glad that I went," thought | be the main thing." Jerry as be rode away. "We understand each other better now! I've found out that they're real nice old people who get lonely enmetimes, and don't always have amouth sailing. in the office Mr. Quayle would enjoy

The week that followed seemed full son about them."

of catastrophes which succeeded each other with startling rapidity. Mr. Robinson was unexpectedly called out of town, and Peters, the night reportwhen I can do it myself : I just hap er, went over to "The Argus" at a larger salary. A careless young fellow-Len Murphy, by name-whose those notices so Miss Cady could go flippent sire grated upon Jerry, took his place. Some of the parrier boys "She had a headache," Miss Rates grew, pareless, and four of the sub the edge of her copy, 'and 'It didn't loe kinney's day, went over to the in; I saw the press room lighted, frallest systems are led into convalesburt me any. Just think how much rival paper in spite of Jerry's most Luckily I stopped !" people would miss out of life it they winning efforts to soothe their ruffled couldn't help some now and thee. But tempore. One boy was sick for two-!if you really want to study journalism | days, and Jerry, unable to find a you ought to understand proof-reading trusty substitute, had delivered the -I believe in a person's learning all papers bimself. Before the end of the lasen was evidently excited. he can about a profession he wishes to week the young man began to wonder outer. Here are the proof-reader's philosophically what would happen marks, you might study them." She next. Miss Bates was sympathetic; the editor took down the information action of the blood, which being took a pard from her deck drawer and they were both doling their best to banded it to Jerry ..... trep things running amouthly until began to pour it and he buckled down strongthening the bealthy, animal "Thank you ever so much. I'll put the editor's return, but the strain was I to work sgale with renewed seal. lot of work on them and perhaps I beginning to tall on the proof-reader's At six o'clock when Jerry started making activity a necessary result our latest, but those shows will give you out some time-just for nerves. Briday evening, when Jerry for his boarding house to get a few strengthening the frame and giving "All right." Miss Bates impaled little regiment of carrier boys, Miss crying the "extra" while an "Argus" naturally demand increased substance ment had occupied all of Joe Kinney's some of the favor he had received. moment, then besded his wheel toward By the opinion of scientists, the wine other lines of journalism. In a short lesse. Jerry watched them go with a pocket. time be had mastered the proof-read- feeling of relief that he was to have "I want you to explain, Mr. Quayle" strated the fact to Mise Bates on although he knew they would have work. son been at his post."

erel air of good fallowship among the tired, but he had always found a change bury, but he was here last week and members of the office force and a read- of occupation restful and he liked to told him about you and the Courier ince to belo each other put of difficul- feel himself proficient in another line and to do you a good turn if he could tion, but there was a keen spirit of of work than his own-perhaps he Well, well that's just like the boy!" rivalry between "The Courier," and could finish in time to spend a half Mr. Quayle stared delightedly at "The Argue"-an apposition sheet. hour or so over the volumes locked in the glasing headlines. Each paper claimed the larger circula- bis deck, which he had not opened | That afternoon Jarry met Best Hilley tion, but in spite of Jerry's loyalty to | since the night of his cell at the Quayle | at the offipe door: "Murphy's got his "The Courier" be did not feel sure that | onttage. That seemed weeks ago, and discharge and I'm glad of it; if he the distinction rightfully belonged to the thought reminded him that he was badn't conxed me off I could have belothem, and as the winter months came supportees and that some and wiches ed you out on that some this mornon, his plans to increase the circula- purchased at a restaurant on his way ing, ' he said sulkly. Jerry only tion kept him boay early and late. to the office were on his deak. He smiled. Mr. Robinson was beckoning One evening Jerry came in with a munched them slowly as he scanned to him.

"There," be announced triumphantly When the last column was finished, he is-will take Murphy's place. as be finished copying a list of names | Jerry ast back for a few unloutes, his linegine you'll be protty good friends, In the subscription book, "we have hands thrust deep in his pockets; then | and Jerry," in a lower tone, "I shan't one hundred more subscribers than he turned off the electric light over forget last night's work or some other "The Argue," if Smith's statement is Miss Bates' deck and went across to things I've discovered." correct, and we've thought he might his own particular numer. He had When Jerry received his next pay . A January thaw would be very acwe exaggerated a little," Jerry was just settled biquelf comfortably with envelope he found that the editor hie books when there was a call at the telephone. It was the long distance from Harrisburg.

"Hello, is this 'The Courier' office Well, I want Ames-Jerry Ames." "This is Amos," answered Jerry. "Oh, le it. Well, don't you want an law.

ecount of the fire for a morning 'extre' P' "What fire?" Jerry's ayes began

"Half of Harrisburg is in flames"

'Tell me all you know, please, I'm not a reporter-be isn't here, but rude in their replies. "Well write like lightning, then; we may get off before I can finish." And Jerry did write. His hand rac Quayle had not received the evening ed over the paper abbreviating as much paper. He was an irracible old gentle- as he dared. If he only knew stenono sidewalk edging the bit of road gen- shooting high in air and leaping on- said "Because." worked to hard to increase the circu- lingting. "I'll give you something this?"

> "Who am I to thank for this?" inquired Jerry in hewilderment. . It

"Well, I guess Uncle Eph. Quayle, if anybody," was the response, and Jerry was rung off. He hung up the receiver mechanic- answer only "Cause," and then fly ing his scattered wite called up the responded to Jerry's summons with alsority, although he had been roused from a sound sleep. "Call up Tyler -the pressman-and Sones and Peet : taining; his ill temper had vanished. | toll 'em to be here by a quarter of bird would ask a question of them that His wife, a dampy, supny-faced little three. I'll be on hand and we'll have they began to cry, "Oaw, caw !" when woman, losisted no making Jerry a an extra out before "The Argus" is they saw anyone coming.

caught now and then but this was of bear them cry, "Caw, caw!" in the "Well now, I hadn't any idee there which importance. Miss Bates could meadows. - Hophia Wyckoff Brower, would think it would take the patience time of night. Puzzled he picked up of Job. I guess I'll try to have a little the sheets of paper scattered on the more next time. Texpect I was crusty floor and arranged them in their you had used his resor to sharpen order. After all, they needed little lead pencil with ?" change, they were clear and concise. "and I've been more than paid for as was needed in an extra; they could more bad words if I'd told him the tion if necessary. 'The beadlines would Jerry took down several old poples of extres and studied them, then set to the front door, or to the silver closet, work carefully writing out his notes you send for a looksmith. A looked for the typesetters, adding a word they've learned that newspaper folks here and there to make the sense daunting to the majority of people, more complete. He had not finished but not to blus: He simply makes a Hynds, G. B. Cooke; Property-James believe we have a lot of exchanges when Mr. Hobbs and his assistants new key, turns the lock, and then McLam, Robt. Holmes; Suppliesappeared. They carried off the first charges you for knowing how. looking over-I'll speak to Mr. Robin - pages to the composing room; everyone seemed willing and alert. Jerry to see opportunity through the keywas working builty with an axious car hole of a looked door. If the key is toward the telephone-it was nearly lost, make another. time for another call from Harrisburg. but how could be attend to both? The copy must be ready, .....

words, and before he had finished the in a sound, unadulterated state editor's coat was off and the notes remedy for many and grievous il The telephone bell rang. "That's Harrisburg," cried Jerry.

stayed after hours when there was an laffair they professed to consider and insisted upon his joining them; but opportunity to learn something of the worthy of mention in the next day's first Jerry pulled an extra out of his ers' marks and thoroughly demon- the office to bimeelf for the evening, be said, as told them of the night's several occasions when she had been done very differently had Mr. Robin- "Why, bless me, of course, that's Ted; my nephew, Ted Perry. He's Like white-winged dream He sat down at Miss Bates' deak going to business college at Harris

"Ames, Ted Perry-If you know who

as good as his word. WHY THE CROW BAYS "CAW"

Once upon a time seven little crows lived in a neet, and they were as quite a large class of music pupils black as any crows that you ever burn.

In those days crows could talk, and I am going to tell you how it happened that they do not talk still, These little crows formed a very bad habit; they disliked to be asked a question by any one; and were very

One day when they were near their home nest a woodpecker came climbing up the tree and stopped to speak to them.

"I wonder why your feet are different from mine," she said socially, man and fumed and reged over the graphy now. He made an inward re- showing one little foot to the crows. profesion in no gentle terms. Jerry wolve. The leaves from his notabook | Now the little grows knew all about it fluttered to the floor one by one as the for their mother was very wise an Mr. Quaylo's dimatisfaction was not bearty, boylab voice sounded clearly had told them that morning while unfounded. He lived at the end of in his care. The centences were short they watched Mrs. Woodpacker climb the main thoroughfare, his house set and graphic, Jerry could almost see a tree near by t but they did not care back in an ugly icg of the street with the burning buildings, the flames to be troubled to explain, and so only erally black with mud or filled with | ward and onward until whole blocks | Then Mrs. Wendpecker told them drifted snow during the fall and winter | were lapped into the flery flood; the about the nest she was making in months. "I suppose Danny Mulligan | shouts, the hurrying alarmed throngs, dead tree near by ; how she dug and thought be had a good excuse for and the "fire laddles," begrimed and dug into the soft wood of the trunk skipping the old gentleman to-night, breathless, working like tigers at their with her strong bill, hammering by but such work must be stopped. Mr. posts. "They've berges - splendid the hour until she had a beautiful Quayle pays for his paper and he ones! You can use the biggest capitals room ready for her balms, where they -bould have It as well as the rest of the you've got if you want to," the young would be quite safe. "Why do you subscribers. I must take it up to blos. fellow finished and there was a thrill not build such a nest," she saked, "infor I hate to lose a patron when I've in his voice that sent Jerry's nerves steed of agreat one on a platform like Trustess-J. Lasby, J. Stalker, J. Kon-

> The crows looked very disagreeable at that, and said as before, "Because" and nothing eles.

Solt was, day after day. No matter of the street lamps were out, the rain seemed as though be must be dream what question was asked of those birds, there was just always the one answer, "Because." After a time "Bocause" seemed to J. F. Uren, J. R. Wilkinson.

long a reply to make, and they would ally in his astonishment then collect-They became so disagreeable and foreman. Mr. Hobbs was an old and stayed so much by themselves that, in trusted employee of "The Courier" time, they quite forgot how to talk with a deep interest in its welfare. He and could only say the one word, "Cause," and even this they later shortened to just "Caw," which seems ed oasier.

They became so afraid that some nalist, and I think it is a pretty good oup of ouffee and setting before him a awake. Won't Robinson be tickled They said it so much and grew so ill-tempered that their voices became bareh, and finally the other birds conved to speak to them and often All this was years ago, but the crows think you need to worry, you aren't a B-fore by realized it, Jerry was telling copy but who would put it in shape even now have very few friends among

PERVED "Was your husband unnoyed when

"Annoyed? He couldn't have sal

BE A LOCKSMITH When somebody loses the key to were appointed auditors. door and a lost key, are a combination G. B. Couke as Chairman. Commit-Be a looksmith: Don't be satisfied

There never was and never will be universal panaces in one remedy fo Just then the door was flung open all lile to which flesh is heir. What and Mr. Robinson entered, swit once in | would relieve one ill in turn would band. "What's happened, Ames?" , aggravate the others. We have, how Acton friends. Jerry explained without wests of ever, in Quinine Wine, when obtained were in his hand. "My train just got By its gradual and judicious use th cence and strengh by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves those vacation, and entertained a number of "I'll attend to it i go on with your whom a obrunic state of morbid her young friends and former comwork Ames, you se all right." Mr. Rob- despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and by tranquilising Jerry had finished and was watching the perves disposes to sound and with admiration the same with which Trefreshing sleep-imparts vigor to the coming over the wire, when the prople I stimulated, opurees through the voing functions of the system, 'thereby dollar unusual atter sending off the bours' sleep, the newsboys were out 'life to the digestive organs which the last bit of copy on the book and Bates chair was supty, her work still reporter looked on in blank amaze -tosult, improved appetite. North- that late hours were had for one? unfluished. He smiled to himself; ment, "The Courier" had won! He rop & Lyman, of Toronto, have giver, saked the father at the breakfast many friendly courtedes. He often later, then hurried away to some were just citting from to blookfast on the angles. All finguish to it.

SHOWFALL AT NIGHT

From the breathless height, Of the brooding night, Flake upon flake of silvery white Over the town,

Grow speedless and white,

Into the street, Here at my feet. Keep sifting down, upper deep. brough autilly atmosphere of The paths of the night.

The stains of day are hidden from While o'er the town.

Till norning brooks, The allvery finkes Keep sifting down, make, when the still white night gives way. faulties path for the feet of day.

-By J. C. M. DUNCAN, in the Canadian Magazine. TWENTY YEARS AGO

Notes from the Free Press of Thursday, January 19th, 1966

The old bell down't fit the ne school very well. La Grippe continues without fear or

Mr. Gray, a student from Turonto, conducts services every Bunday in the Disciples' Church. Miss Struchan, of Rockwood, ba

Mr. Wm. Turton, while hanging a ploture in his parlour, slipped from the bux on which he was standing, and full breaking one of his fingers. Mr. Isalah Coon, while teaming lumber to Campbell's now building had his load upset and was buried beneath, but the deep anow saved him from serious and possibly fatal injury. His shoulder and side were badly

Knox Church choir, on Friday even ing after practice, were invited by their leader, Mr. A. T. Mann, to Mrs. Adam's oyster parker, where a well-prepared oyster supper was tendered. At the Brick Church on Sunday svening Rev. Mr. Obristis held a reception and baptismal service. Rev.

Mr. Edge, of Acton, administered the rite of baptism to five adults and fourteen persons were received into full connection. Sons of Scotland officers: Chief-J. McTavish, Chieftain-J. Agnaw, Past Oblef - Arch McNahh, R. B. - H. Swackhamer, F. S .- T. H. Harding, Trees. - R. Johnstone, Chap. - D. Grant, Marshell-A. Ramshaw, B. B.

-T. Chisholm, S.G.-R. Forbes, J.G.-

T. Miller, Camp Physician -J. P. Uren.

Court Star, A. O. F., has been or ganized with these officers: P. C. R .-H. Grindell, O. R.-I. Francis, H. O. R. -Geo. Lawson, Treas.-T. A. Mason, Sec .- A. R. Nicklin, S. W.-H. Jeans, J. W.-Q. S. Smyth, S. B.-H. H. Worden, J. B. - H. Atkinson, Med. Off. - J. F. Uren, Trustees-A. Wright, Rav. Austin Putter, of Clifford, will lecture on "Renfiniscences of the American War," in the Methodiet Church on Jan. Blut. Being an ex-endler of the times, the address will be very Interesting. The Epworth League have engaged bim.

went up from Acton to the social in the Congregational Church on Tuesday evenling. Mr. D. McMillan, 10th line, Rrin. found one morning recently that his grain bins' floor had given into the cellar. Much loss results from the mixing of the grains, as well as the killing of one oow and injury to Acton Council met for organization on Monday, with one solitary apectatur present. Reeve Pearson outlined some items of business for the year. A new municipal map, eyetematic tree planting in the park, renovating and repairing town hall, printing by-laws, streets and walks. Committees were formed : Pinance-Geo. Havill, J. E. Corry : Streets, Walks and Lamps, -John Williams, Jos. Anderson: Town Hall-Reeve and Goo. Havilly Cometery -Geo. Havill. John Wil Hamet Park-Reeve and Council, and Meury, John Cameron, James Matthews, Anthony Stephenson, John Harvey and James McTavleb. Memre. L. G. Matthews and W. R. Konney

Five large sleigh loads of visitors

School Board organized wish Rev tore! Finance-T. H. Harding, Goo. Geo. Hynds, Rubt. Wallace. Mr. Fred Second arrived home this and is now in Ohleago.

Mr. Geo. Statham has left Coloredo

Mr. and Mrs. Torneman Hall, of Orangoville, visited Acton friends. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Tubby, of To ronto, visited at Bunderland Ville. Mrs. Wm. Milne, Ripley, visited Felle, at Mr. Samuel Laird's. Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson, Burlington at his brother's, Mr. David Miss Knima M. Moore, Toronto General Hospital, home for a short

Mr. and Mrs. Huggins, of Magara

panions, on Monday evening. Attitude—In Toronto, on January 18th, to and Mrs. J. E. Atkinson, Secretary Canad Free Association, a daughter.

GOOD FOR TWO "Did you ever tell that young man time, but Jury found opportunity for Murphy and Riley came in a little the Quayle residence, The old people approaches nearest perfection of any daughter, "late hours may be ball for

All scions and budsticks been in their employ many by using the wrong scions or buds. Send for catalogue or write for agency, as they have some unoccupied territory in

FRUIT MERCHANT

J. MACKINNON ARRIVER, BOLIGITOR, CONVEYANCE. OFFICE-Mill Street, In Storels' Bleek, MIRCELLANGOUS.

BOOK BINDER, Guelph, Osteri Wyndham St., Quely (Over Williams Store.)

LICENSED AUGISOMENA For the Counties of Wellington and Halton Orderstoff at the FREE PRESS office, Auton, of the presidence in Leton, will be prompily at-unded to Torms Ressouble. Alse maney to loss on the most favorable erms, and at the lowest rates of interest, in same of $400 and apwards.

VARMS TO BELL OR MENT.

Majcolm MacCormack, B. A., Pris

All kinds of lewellery Brass Ware

ed Umbrellas

Savage & Co. Oat

Are lamous for their fine Peach, receiving daily Fresh Vegetables and Orders now being taken for spring delivery ILLS. Prospects bright for the season's trade. Experience unnecessary. We instruct our missions bow to sell fruit trees in the country

Waters Bros.

PAINTING

with us at the lipper Wyndham Street, Masoule

Phone 627 -MURSERIES

Quelph

..PAPER..

WILLIAMS

rose from her chale.