Improving the Church Choirs Special efforts are being made in al the churches to improve and strengthen the choirs. Knox Church Choir have engaged a new leader, Mr. Wilson of Toronto, and the Methodist Chole has sogaged Prof. Charles Kelly, of Guelph, to take charge until after Easter, and possibly for the year. The services of song will no doubt show marked improvement as an outcome. Our citizens will look forward with pleasurable antidipation to several enjoyable choral concerts as among the Spring's musical attractions.
