BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

Who said: "We'll have an early spring?"

"We're more snow now than at any previous date since winter opened."

"Tumbling continues to be brisk. Farms and forest commodities are coming in lively."

Nine Chinamen were arrested at 4 o'clock Monday morning in Ham Lee King's laundry, Gosport, while gambling.

W. J. Watson, editor of the Oshawa Vindicator, formerly editor of the Milton News, has been appointed Police Magistrate for Oshawa.

The Good Roads Association recommends that the license fee on autos should be raised from $4 to $25 a year, and the revenue applied toward road-making.

The first real red-finished bilizard of the winter season on Sunday morning! It may be safely said that March came in like a lion. The cooling will be more pacific.

Regina Hutcheon, of Gosport, has accepted a position in the Department of Lands and Mines at Toronto. She will reside in Gosport for the remainder of the year.

Brampton is to have a letter box system. In addition to those already placed at the Grand Trunk and C. P. R. stations there will be twelve boxes distributed throughout the town.

The fire alarm on Sunday evening, just as the ministers of the various churches were getting through their "ameny," was rather startling. It was a somewhat tentative sounding of their respective congregations.

If ever there was a pleased fellow it was the Star man the other day at Acton when the County Good Roads Committee met. The committee was seven or eight rollers in the County this season and only four to do the work. Oakville is in the happy position this time. If we had not one we would stand a mighty poor chance of seeing a steam roller this year, Oakville Star.

BALLMAD

On Saturday a load of young people from the fifth line attended a quilting bee at Mrs. J. Rossell's, York Street, Acton, and spent a pleasant afternoon along with a few Acton ladies.

On Tuesday evening the Epworth League of the Methodist Church, Ballmadd, held a song service which was largely attended and much appreciated.

Miss Edna Thompson has resigned her position as organist in the Presbyterian Church, Ballmadd. Miss Waddell has accepted the position. We are sorry to know that Mrs. (Rev.) Waddell is still under the doctor's care.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Institute was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. Thorold.

ELECTRIC LIGHT DEPARTMENT

Electric fixtures for the parlor, den, dining room, hall, bed room, supplied our customers at a small advance on manufacturers' prices; also shades and reflectors of every style.

Apply to the Electrician, or to the Chairman of the Fire and Light Committee, Acton, January 21st, 1935.

N. A. JARDINE, Teacher.

Remember, you work for yourself when you work for others.

Wedding invitations come under the head of "pressen" difficulties.

A man is seldom clever enough to realize how unimportant he is.

More people die from heart trouble than from cancer.

It is almost impossible for a woman to pass a barber shop without looking in.

How's This?

Who after One Hundred Dollars Returned for my Order? I have been asked to return my order for $100.00. I have never received my money. I have written you many times and have never heard from you. I have written you many times and have never heard from you. I have written you many times and have never heard from you.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

Enlarging the Business

Mr. George Hoyer is enlarging the business and is taking in the second floor, formerly used as a lodge hall. A central stairway has been erected so as to give direct access. The china department will be removed upstairs and a stock of staple dry goods will occupy the shelves vacant.

Burning Chimney Causes Alarm

On Sunday evening about seven o'clock a fire alarm was rung. The cause was a burning chimney at the house occupied by Israel Hoskey, on Church Street. The fire had subsided before the fire bell ceased ringing. The high wind prevailing caused the chimney to look dangerous, but the chimney soon burned itself out, and with that the danger was over.

Must be a Profitable Business

It is rumored that Mr. Charles Decker, the new proprietor of the Dominion Hotel, has been approached during the past week by a Toronto man with the offer of $20,000 for the property. This is an advance of $4000 over the price paid by Mr. Decker a few weeks ago. Mr. Lehman will begin to think he disposed of the Dominion too soon.

Medical Students at Milton

While in the country town on Friday the Puxac Puxac learned that the transformers have arrived and P. L. Robertson Co. Ltd., expect the power to be turned on for the use of the saw factory within ten days. The arrangements for the lighting of the town will not be completed so soon, but will take place in March or April. The pole and wire gangs engaged in Acton all fall are busy in Milton now. The transmission line is approaching completion.

Climbing up the Ladder

Mr. O. K. Hurling, the city ticket and passenger agent of the Grand Trunk Railway, Toronto, has been appointed to succeed Mr. A. E. Huff, as District Passenger Agent at Toronto. Mr. Hurling was ticket agent at Gosport for nearly ten years, and his innate ability and uniform courtesy won for him friends with the public generally. He is the recipient of very sincere congratulations on all sides upon this very distinctive promotion.

30 Teams Hauling Logs

Mr. Henderson, of the saw mills, Add to the Faxon saws on other day there was no exaggeration in the statement that 25 teams were busy hauling logs to the mill. "I have just counted the lot," he said, "and I find that 30 teams are engaged in hauling logs. Of these 10 are driving in custom logs, 10 are hauling timber that we are buying from the owner, 7 are hauling from our own timber bush, and one has been steadily engaged for two weeks hauling lumber to the G. T. R. for shipment."

Celebrated her 85th Birthday

Mrs. Mary Wilds, who resides with her son-in-law, Mr. David Williamson, Gosport Street, celebrated her 85th birthday on Tuesday. The old lady is enjoying good health and is quite active for one of her years. She enjoys reading and spends much time each day in knitting lace and hosiery. Mrs. Wilds came to Acton fifty-five years ago and is perhaps our oldest resident. A number of friends and neighbors called on Tuesday to extend congratulations and were cordially welcomed by the old lady.

The Late W. H. Storey, J. P.

It is fifteen years this week since the death of W. H. Storey, Esq. He was a prominent member of the Grand Trunk Railway, and was one of the most useful citizens who ever honored the place with residence here. His home and surroundings made a worthy abode for a man of his standing and position. He was a man of many positions and attainments. He gave employment to large numbers and thereby did much to build up Acton. His name is revered by many.

Headling at the Chopping Mill

The Electric Chopping Mill on Mill Street is paying a growing volume of business, satisfactory to Mr. Caldwell, the energetic proprietor, is being done. The power and speed of the electric motor ensure superior results both in the chopping and rolling, and the patrons of the new mill express much satisfaction with the products they receive. Farmers are coming from long distances with their grain and their numbers are increasing every week. Last week over 1100 bags of chopped and rolled grain passed through the mill.

A Mid-Winter Picnic

Mr. James Brown sends particulars of a picnic to be given at Gosport on Long Beach, California, on the 12th of February, for their annual Canadian picnic at this point on the Pacific coast. A local newspaper estimates the attendance at 5000. A sumptuous repast of Prime Albert, Steak, and was served by the Canadian residents. The picnicers were welcomed by Mayor Hatch, and addresses were given by Rev. Dr. Kirby, Calgary; Prof. N. P. Dupuis, Kingston; Judge Caldwell, of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan; and Rev. Dr. Fraser, Vancouver. Canadian songs were sung and the proceedings concluded with the National Anthem.

DUELISM

Mr. Angus Keith's dispersion sale last Friday was very successful.

Since the good weighing campaign has been lively. Most of the farmers have taken advantage of it.

The farmers of this section appreciate very much the operation of the electric chopping mill in Acton. The work it is turning out, too, is highly spoken of.

The neighbors and friends of Mr. Angus Keith met at his home on Tuesday evening to spend in a hour or so with him and family prior to their leaving for the Northwest. A pleasant social time was spent. During the evening a much appreciated farewell address was read and Mr. Keith, Misses May and Coey and Mr. Hart were each presented with a purse of gold. Mr. Keith was quite overcome by the kind words, spoken and the presentation of his friends and neighbors and would never forget the days spent in good old Dubu, where so many warm-hearted friends dwell.
