ed to run.

things the future might hold for her,

of which she as yet knew nothing.

For a moment she was terribly tempt

"Bad cess to the loikes o' you, think ye can scare me off," said Mar

Ann ly a shaking voice. "I'll stay til

That was half past eight. In hour and a half if all had gone well all did not go well. In fact there we finally it was necessary to go to ask blin if he might use the telephone.

mobile house in the city and asked that a machine be sent at once to to:

necessary before the rescuer arrived.

o'clock, it was very nearly two in the morning when Mr. and Mrs. Carrol got lo. Mrs. Carroll's first though was for the children. She rushed to their cribs and found both sleeping hours in which there had been t klasse at all, and then called Mr. Car roll in to see how sweet they looked.

Mr. Carroll came lo and admired a enthusiastically as was to be expected from so sleepy a father. "Mary An has left the light burning in th kitchen," he romarked, after the first important duty had been disposed of Carroll, indignantly. "And I'm try bill down." She hurrled into the kitchen and there received another shock, for the outside door was open

And then through the quiet of the

as ours as my name's Mary Ann."

hours, the longest hours Mary Ann had ever known. Her arm, almost ped the dish towel. Her voice, hours

"Kapa away now. Twill be a danger. But when at last the ide was improused upon her, and she crept wearily upstairs to beg, Mr. Carroll declared, "the boy who stood on the

"Don't laugh, dear," said Mrs. Ca

roll, gently. "Of course there wasn'

really risked her life defending ou

LUKE MOLUKE SAYS

The world is getting better. Ma

-Women are dyeing for more that

The spring hats are to be plain

But If a woman can afford a Bird

Paradiso she is going to wear it, styl

No woman can hold up her diguit;

when she has a busted corset garter.

Chickens and eggs all look good love letters to prove that he was le

Before martiage He insists that

He la & Devil and He Insists that He le

Another reason for the high cost living is that too many expert fare

No matter how mannish a suffra

wette trice to be, a bargain sale wi

No woman ever drove a man

As a rule a man who has only one coat has enough dandruff for alx coa

A good fellow usually makes a t

Some women are so wrapped up in a

Greet Work that they haven't time

why not out the words "lave, bonor and obey" out of the marriage .ceremony and insert the word "support?"

KNEW A BULLY FROM A BULL

tried about the soundness of a horse,

in which a clergyman, not well versed in sporting matters, appeared as a

-Ologianati Enquirer.

to sew buttons on Hubby's clothes.

drink by keeping her mouth shut.

hands have gone into vaudeville.

always got her goat.

is a Dovil and she insists that be i

Every wife keeps her husband's old living is held responsible.

or no style.

safety of her charges.

tell vo that."

"You don't mean it I" exclaimed Mr.

them home, another long walt was

Instead of getting home at ten

the mistress come, nivir ye fear."

Mary would have been relieved.

The Acton Free Press

Hirman mirright - One dollar per year on expired. The date to which every subscrip-Apventuino Mares - Transjeut advertise sente 10 cents per Nonparell line for first monte, for 10 or lushes more, per annum, it Advertisaments without specific directions sants will be changed ones sant south if desiral. You changes oftened that he paid for at regular rates, All accounts collected mostlely.

Susiness Birectory.

H. P. MOORK,

MEDICAL.

TITHOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILI. L. R. C. P. MDCHBURGE.

L. R. F. P. & H. CILASOOW. MEMBER REFFERS MEDICAL ASSOCIATION BUG. Auton, Ont.

DOUGLAS LAKE, M. D. Physician and Surgoon Licentiate of College of P. and H. Gutario, Michigan and California. Post Graduate University of Michigan and of Post Graduate University of Michigan and of the Chicago and New York Frost Graduate Schools and Respitals; Lake Chicken Assistant Reyal Leaden Opthalmis, Golden Hunare and Brompton Hospitals for diseases of Kys, Rar, Ross, Threat and Lange, Landon, England, Also late special examiner for the United States Bareau of Fensions, Washington, D. I Hosmi S to F; I to 4; Y to 8. Office and residence Dr. Holmes' late premises, Mill Street, Aston.

R. G. S. HODDER WILHON Ostoopathic Physician Graduate of American Hebool of Ostsopathy, under Dr. A. T. Hill, the founder of the Helence Houng: 9 to 12, 2 to i, except bloopeler, Mon-day and Friday, 2 to 9 p. m. Evenings or outside calls by appointment. Wyndbam and Cork lits , over the link - (lusiph, ()ntare

WORM M MACDONALD, M. D., C. M. Late Prop. and Hupt. Massey Hospital. Diseases of Women and General Surgery. Phone North 1346

· LEGAL

J. MACKINNON HARRISTER, HOLIGITOR, CONVEYANORS. Owner-Mill Street, is Hiovels' block,

DENTAL. TR. J. M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S.

Corner Mill and Frederick MORSE GRADGATH OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY The latest ansesthetic used if desired.

THE L. L. BENNETT, DENTIST. ORESTMENT RECORD ORGANITOWN MINCELY.AMEOUS.

MBANCIS MUNAN ROOKBINDAR"

Wysdham St., (Over Williams Store.) (iuelph, Onterio Assount Books of all kinds made, to order oriedicals of every description carefully bound, mirr measure and promptly done

MARRIAGH LIGHNERS. lesuan of Marriage Lightens. Private Office. No witnesses required. Imust . Free l'res Office, AOYON

WAXM SEMBTREET, ... LEGENSED A DOUGHER

For the Counties of Wellington and Halton Coders left at the Faux Paux affice, Acton, or at my residence in Acton, will be promptly at-tended to Torms Resonable. Also mency to loan on the most favorable terms, and at the lowest rates of interest, in terms of $500 and upwards.

LIGHERD AUGTIONERS

For the Counties of Wellington, Halton, I'vel and Dufferin, and the city of Gualph.
Hales conducted with editsfaction and upon reasonable terms.

Outers by letter to Minipes P. O., or Caledon telephone is residence in connection with the telephone is residence in connection with the Bell, where arrangements as to dates and adverticing on be made. Orders left at Yann Panes thing on be made. Orders left at Yann Panes thing on with W. J. Gordon, Harness Maker, office or with we less immediate attention. Acton will receive immediate attention. FARMS TO BELL ON REST.

TAMES MCDONALD LICKHARD AUCTIONERS For the counties of Wellington, Halton Waterloo, Wentworth and the City of Guelph.

Males conducted ou reasonable terms and atlanation guaranteed in every case. For perms, daths, etc., apply to liox 346. Restriction—If Sydenham St., GURLPH, Oat. Telephone Itt, Gualph, Sales may be arranged at Exam Passet office.

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

W see manufacturers and direct important of all hinds of Monumental and Mendatone work. We sail direct to our distomers at whole work. We sail direct to our distomers at whole with. We have the best appliances and the best. We have the best appliances and the only mechanics in the Dominion who can operate mechanics in the Dominion who can operate mechanics in the Dominion who can operate mechanics in the property. We can give references from handreds of our customers in the said that and best atoek of Granite in the we more than any three dealers in We are legitimate dealers and sentents, and do not annoy or pest succeeding out ignorant agents to solicit employ mechanics only and dely

HAMILTON & SONS

Watch Repairing

We were never in a better position to do your watch carefully and a satisfactorily to you as at the present time.

Send us your watch when in need of repair.

Savage & Co.

JEWELLERS Q. T. R. WATCH INSPECTORS Guelph

— THE

$1,000,000.00 M. 250,000.00

SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNTS

Interest at the current rate is allowed on all deposits of $1.00 and upwards. Careful attention is given to every account. Al small accounts are welcomed.

Accounts may be opened and operated by mail.

ACTON BRANCH:

A. A. ROLLIT Manager

Waters Bros. Guelph

HEADQUARTERS FOR O. A. C. School Supplies NATURE STUDY BOTANICAL ETOMOLOGICAL

41 Wyndham Street Phone 350

DRAWING

PAINTING

SPRING TOOLS

- POR THE-Mechanic, Farmer, Gardener & Householder

PAINTS and VARNISHES English Liquid Paints Fresco-Tone for Walls Chinamel for decorating, grain-

ALL OTHER SEASONANTE GOODS FOR HOME OF PARM

C. C. SPEIGHT

THE ARMY OF THE UNEMPLOYED e hever recruited from the trained workers. I is the boy or girl without training that grows p a dependent, Incompetent man or woman. powtunity knocks at your door in vain, if not rouppily welcomed with trained ability.

GUELPH BUSINESS COLLEGE GUELPH TO . . --- ONT. oan readily exchange for dollars and cents, we have trained thousands of young people to become successful men and women. A host of bur graduates are living testimonials to the practical efficiency of our methods. Write today for particulars, or some in and talk it over with us at IF Upper Wyndham Street, Masonic block.

Malcolm MacCormack, B. A., Prin.

Doetry.

l don't care for Belde' now Since Tower's gone. Over by the parden gate. Hut now I have to dig slone, . Because he's gone.

N.1.1 den't want to swim no more Bince Towers a genr. Healling we t' with with me, There weren't no dog could swim

Big Hardware Store

Now Toward's gone. Hardware, Paints, and Oils, Resoling and Siding, Cement and Mortar Stain Tools and Mill Supplies, Linelcon, Oil cloth and Matting.

"We Have What You Want"

"Everything in Hardware

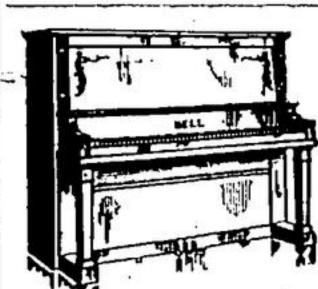

GUELPH'S

The BOND HARDWARE Co.

If Those Headaches

Are still keeping up come in and have your eyes examined at once. If glasses fail to give relief there will be absolutely no expense. It is our Lone Grinding Plant that makes possible the low prices Are still keeping up come in and have we ask for glasses.

"RIGHT AT THE POST OFFICE" MONK 627

'Bhe Bell" are the only pianos containing "The Illimitable Quick Repeating Action" now so popular in conservatories, colleges, schools, theatres and homes.

SOLD ONLY BY

C. W. KELLY

133 Upper Wyndham St GUELPH - ONT.

You can't grow good hay without sowing good grass soeds. We have ain stock the very best grades at reasonable prices. See the samples and secure your needs early.

Merchant Miller

R. NOBLE

N. F. MOORE ACTON

LIVERY

BUS LINO The undersigned respectfully solicits the patropage of the pub-Equipped and, Stylish Riggs can always be secured at his

A comfortable bus meets all trains between 10.00 a.m. and 6.19 p. m. Careful attention given to every order. The wants of Commercial Travellers fully met. JOHN WILLIAMS

PROPRIETOR

Fall @ Winter

where you have so many slapes and sizes Take a look at the shoes in our windows and get acquainted with the new styles In our windows we can show but's, few de our latest, but those shown will give you an idea of what our stock is like. We now have a large assortment of high grade

"The Home of Good Shoes"

Keep thinkin' how wo'd dig for Could swim 'ad dive, But new be's gone. Nd I just hate t'get the rows Since Towart's gime. A great big lump come in my the Nd it don't matter how I choke, Feelt fust stays, "

Nd when I go to hed at night. Since Towart's gone. tomehow I get thinking too. Of all them things we need to do, Au' O, how I just wish 'od wish He hade't good! -Ada L. Below.

Select Jamily Reading

X X X X X X X X X X X X X X The Heroism of Mary Ann

XXXXXXXXXXXXX YYHE big can of gasoline for use the automobile had been set in the back yard just about the time Mrs. Carroll was ready to leave the house. She stood in the doorway, ogarding it auxiously, while Mary Ann looked her over with admiration-What the Couvre le to plature lovers, Mrs. Carroll was to Mary Ann. She was proud to think she had washed and fromed the white dress Mrs. Carroll wore. It was almost like helping t palat a picture.

BY GRICTHUBE LEASON

"I hate to leave all that gasoline ou in the yard," sighed Mrs. Carroll. For all that she could look like a picture on occasion, she was a very practical little lady and a very anxious mother. you'll be careful about it. won't you. Mary Ann P"

"Hurr, I will that. But what can it do, anyhow?" demanded Mary Ann, eyelog the blg our with laterest. herophilan Ti looked very harmless. "Why it might explode, Mary Ann. If fire were brought near it, you know. And then the house might burn up and the children too." Mrs. Carroll actually torned pale as shoonquierated the possible discoture which might result from bringing five near this inno-dent looking can. "To think, now, 'twould be that wicked!" exclaimed Mary Ann, much inpressed. "I'll see that no fire gots war it, ma'am." Mrs. Carroll having reached rout door, came back for a last aution. A young mother leaving the wo loveliest children in the world in the care of an incompetent little Irish girl is likely to find a good many last words that need saying. "Mary Ann, I expect to be home shout ten o'clock. But when one is in an automobile one cannot be exactly sure. If I am not here by ten you may to bed, if you are certain you our the children if they should cry." "I will that, ma'am," said Mary Ann as solomnly as if she were taking ber oath in court, and Mrs. Carroll belleved her. For though this little maki was gnorant and inexperimend she had one quality which is not always found in high pulced "help." Hhe was fulthfulness itself. Next to Mrs. Carroll she loved the Carroll children, blueeyed Frank and baby Ethel. would have given her life before she would let harm come to them, while under her charge. And though she sald nothing of all this, there was a ring in her voice as she answered Mrs. Carroll, which sont that little, lady away quito at mane. The rest of the day passed very quiotly at the Carroll cottage-a very | the burface. modest outtage in spite of the automobile. This was supplied Mr. Carroll by his employers, and as a rule was sane when she married him. used strictly for business. To-night was to be an exception, for the Carrolls had been invited to the house of some friends living in the country some twen(y miles out, and they had resolved to hiske their gala time still more festive by enjoying a long ride in addition. Little Frank was old enough to legales frequently as to the whereabouts of his mother, that he was fond of Mary Ann, and when suppor time came, ate his broad and butter without a whimper. At half past seven both children went to sleep. Mary Atta sat down in the kilohon to write to her mother in Ireland. Her mother could not read it, to be sure, but somedon would read it to ber. It had been very hard on the mother having her baby go away from home. And It had been hard on Mary Ann, too. In spite of her big, well-developed body she was only sixteen. In twenty minutes Mary Ann had written half a page. Then she rose, feeling very hot and tired, and went to the door to seel off. And then with a cry of dismay, who solved a dish towel and ran into the back yard shricking, "Got out of this and bad All around the can of gasoline were little flitting lights, as if fairy automo-1 bilists were taking an evening spin. witness. He was confused in giving vach with his lamp lighted. To poor bis evidence, and a furlous and blust-Mary Ann their tittle glowing lights oring barrister, who examined him, were as dangerous as a shower of | was at last tempted to exclaim ! "Fray sparks, Hrandishing her dish towel, sir, do you know the difference be also soon, pleased a space about the tween a horse and a cow?" can. But to spite of her effort, she pould not drive the firellies for. The air was allve with thom.

A sudden thought turned Mary Ann- cow, or a bully from a bull, only a bull, cold. What if in spitu of her vigilance I am told, has horne, and a bully," one of those sparks should fall upon | howing respectfully to the barrister, Acton. the can of gasoline, and the explosion "luckily for me, has none."

HOMBLY HINTE

of which her mistress had spoken should result. 'There'd be nothing of Always use soft water for washing me left at, at all," said Mary Ann. Hhe purposes, when possible. began to think of the old mother i To keep a sing-covered kitchen table Ireland. She thought how pleasant bright, rub it occasionally with a cloth was to be allve, and how many nice dipped in vinegar. To take away the oily tusts when using oil for frying, make the oil bot and then fry a plece of onion it; when

To remove machine-oil stains, cover with lard for several hours and then wash with somp and water. When the lard is washed out the spots will have disappeared. When darning stockings run a thread ferrand each hole before beginning and a long time that the automobile did makes the hole appear amaller and it not go at all. And Mr. Carroll had will be easier to mend. taken off his coat, laly on his back in Four scalding water over pranges the road and screwed and unacrewed that you wish to peel, and let them things, and had grown quite hot an stand five minutes. The thick white angry without the least effect, and skin that is usually so hard to remove will readily peel off with the outside farmbouse and wake up a farmer, to

And when he had called up an autowith powdered whiting mixed to paste with ammonia and water. Use chocolate creams for cake filling poeling and the fruit will be ready to also place on top and then frost over Frost cranberry pie instead of using an upper crust.

When a small hole appears in your umbrells, mond it with black court planter. Never put umbrollas away reacufully, and she kissed them a good many times to make up for the long

If paint spots stick to window panes do not use a knife to looses them. A cloth wet in hot vinegar will clean then perfectly. In pold weather when it is so to keep the broad sponge warm enough to rise well, try making it up at night as warm as the yeast will allow and putting it in the fireless cooker or if you haven't a cooker, take a candy bucket, fill with fine hay, chaff or sawdust, leaving a hole in the middle for ng so hard to keep this month's gas your vessel of sponge. Put your sponge lo, put a cushion on top and throw a comforter over all and see how nice and light your spongels next night, she heard a rather hourse and During the extremely ookl weather weary voice raised in a defiant shoul if the clothes pins are put in a dripping "Kape off thin. Sure ye might as pan and heated hot, the hanging out well go home, for ye'll nivir git hearer of clothes will be made much more comfortable. Do not carry out a full Mr. Carroll, summoned by his wife's basket, or all the pine. A second trip call of alarm, came in haste. Together will be more than repaid by the comthey investigated. Mary Ann was standing guard over the can of gaso-Before cooking a ham take off all line as she had stood for over five long the "shaving," also the rind, and see how much ploer flavor your ham will paralyzed by the weariness, still flopthe trap of the kitchen sink will prewith oft repeated warnings, still hur vent the drain pipe from freezing over ed defiance at the foce, threatening the Linings for clothe backets lusure the clothes being kept clean. These day for the wan that comes close, I Unings are of unbleached muelin, just the shape of the basket, and tied into It was not the easiest thing in the place with tapes. world to persuade Mary Aun that there was not and never had been any

When hot clothes are needed, inwater, heat them lu a steamer.

THEOURE

ant down upon the stops and laughed until the lears came. "After this," he the was not an attractive girl in any way, and she know it. She was restburning dock len't in it with Mary less and cross and unhappy and growing more unattractive in looks and manner as she became older. Then an aunt, visiting at her home after a long any danger, but Mary Ann didn't residence in a distant city, sixed up the situation, and out of pity for both the just as much of a herolne as if she had girl and everybody with whom she came in contact undertook to prescribe the sure cure.

> "Madeline, do you want to be a ton ment to yourself and everybody about you all your life?" was the blunt and astounding question she put to her niece one day.

sopranos and side whilekers are getting "No, of course not," was the promp and half frightened reply from the they used to do, and the high cost of satonished girl. "You'd rather be sweet and lovely and happy " came the next question and it brought a sincere affirmative this time. The aunt handed her s folded paper and smiled as she said very kindly now; "Follow this magic prescription, and you will be what you want to be." And she was gone.

Medeline read : "Kvery time you want to frown, smile. Every time a cross thought comes, think a pleasant top. one. Every time something nice i done for you, do something nicer for Haint. After marriage she insists that For a few minutes she was prosecthan over. Then common sense asved the day. She tried the cure, honcetly sincerely prayerfully; and to her lifelong joy, to say nothing of everybody else's, there was soon no happier, more attractive, more lovable girl in the place than she.—Onward.

> AN OPENING FOR AN ANGEL One of Oscar Hammerstein's scen painters came to him at the Hammer

eteln London Opera House one day

when Hammerstein was in the midst of ble difficulties and said : "Oh Mr. Hammereteln, I have fue painted a beautiful scene, a most ex-As a remedy for the divorce evil quisite scene !"

"What is it?" demanded Hammer

"It is a sylvan dell-a most charm ing landscape l' "Bah!" shouted Hammerstein, "and what do I want with a sylvan delt? Paint me a banker! Paint me. Once at Worcaster, Eng., a case was Danker!"-The Philadelphia Saturday

THE OLD MAN'S HINT

Evening Post.

Mother (at 11.30 p. in.) -- What's the patter, John F You look disturbed. Bether-I thought I would give that "I acknowledge my ignorance," re- | so I walked right into the parlor plied the clergyman ; "I hardly know | deliberately turned out the gas. Mother-Oh my, and did he get the difference between a horse and a Father-Angry? The young jack- it. napos sald, "Thank you."-Boston Transdript.

TWENTY YEARS AGO Notes from the Free Press of Thursday, April 20th, 1808

Brown's new mills started the see son's cut on the 18th. Councillor Havill is having the old frame building on ble Mill Street le removed, preparatory to erecting his Mrs. Bonny brought onions and new brick store. -Mr. Thory (). - Moore has purchased from Mr. Thos. Kaston the lot on Lake Avenue, next the pound, He will probably build there this summer. Mr. Thes. Perryman, Br., is excavat ink for the foundation for bis new brick front on Mill Street. He will remove the residence on the corner draw until the edges lie flat. This the rear of the building to be erected Rev. Wm. Smythe, of Clinton preached the annual sermons in con pection with the Educational Bociety of the Methodist Church on Sunday The givings were in advance of those of last year. At the Municipal Council Mesers, W Turton and If. Jeans made request for With no napking to a grant of $50 for the purchase of Acton Citizens' Hand. Meers. W. P. Campbell and Wm. Edmiston presented a petition signed by about 100 ratepayers asking for a bridge over the stream and the opening of Brock Street from Main to Cook's survey. Both deration. " lu the Public School Board an a count of $12.45 for blinds for the new school was passed and the secretary was instructed to under a 28 loch 226 fast. 1b. "Blymer" bell from the Cincinnati

matters had to be left over for consi

Hell Foundry Co. Editor Pirie, of the Dundas Banner, thinks it abourd for Hamilton to call Itself a city "when it has tall gates right within the city limits. It is wonder that it doesn't do away with street lights and let the citizens carry

Mrs. Abram Stauffer, of Buffalo, h visiting at the home of her son bere. Mr. Arch. McNabb attended the Grand Camp of Hone of Scotland at Guelph this week.

Mr. Wm. Brown and family have removed from Kequesing to their new Mr. Chas. H. Taylor and Miss Annie Taylor attended a wedding at Elmira last week, Miss Taylor acting as brides-

Rev. J. Edge presched Sunday School sermons at Olinton on Sunday night; addressed a service there on Monday evening and gave his lecture "Take Home the Things you Borrow, at Clifford on Tuesday evening. Miss McGibbon, of Sarnia, who was An bunce of coarse sait dropped in | visiting here at the home of her uncle, Mr. D. Henderson, M. P., was almost distracted at the news of the sudden death of her father, Mr. Finlay Mo-Gibbon, on Haturday. Mrs. Henderson accompanied her home, and Mr. Hen derson followed by next train.

Mr. W. J. Nicklin, who some year ago served his time as a printer in the Fuxx Pupus office, died last wook in stead of wringing them out of boiling Gloversville, N. Y. His sister, Mrs I. Francis has been with her brother for about a month. Mr. R. B. Nick lin, of Stewarttown, and Mr. Francis went over for the funeral.

> Mr. J. W. Husband and family have removed from Nassagaweys, to their new home in Exeter.

MIDRIGHT RACE DOWN A MOUNthe first section of the Fast Line East ling a dramatic entrance, flashing on night. Moreover the first section had reliable, painstaking and efficient may left the Union Depot in Philadelphia come through very ordinary work, but half an hour late. It was mostly a such a chance is often the gateway train of baggage and express cars, but into splendid success. on the end were two day coaches. The sleepers were left for a second section. There had been a landslide near Allegrippus and three delayed roal trains had been hurried up the moun-slope when it should have passed the fordoing a little kindness to semsledy "You want to keep a move on," called out a helper engineer. "We're going to chase you down into Altoons yard shead of the second section." And the town at the express throttle laughed. The fast train was presently sliding down the mountain grade with the steam shut off. It was when the fog shifted off the patch of scenery lying between the two sides of the florseshoe Bond that the engineer which he did not laugh. Over across the valley a lone engine with headlight glaring and furnace door wide open, was thundering down the grade at terrific speed. The express had been coasting under light brakes. Now the brakes were thrown off and steam crowded on. With a lork and a jump the pursued train took on speed. Hehind sounded the prolonged signal of an engine out of control. One of the helpers from the top of the hill had broken loose.

express had clattered through the out and out upon level ground the wild machine was a hundred yards behind. In a moment more there was a crash, a thrill through the length of the Fast Line section, a pressure tremendous upon the vestibuled platform-Then the peril was over. The collision loosened the caught levers which had made the helper's engine helploss. Under control once more the big young man calling on our daughter a freighter stopped, panted heavily for vigorous hint that it was time to go, breathing space, then slid away into

> When a lawyer gets husy and works with a will he is almost sure to break

THE SURRY STORY

A families of bunnies lived under a big They were merry and frisky and play Jul and plump ;
All the evening they skipped by the light of the moon and begred Mrs. Bunny to get dinner in the shell-

Where the Lenderest radials she knew well -With a carrot or two on a cabbage oh, how they ate! They had napking of lettuce leaves tucked snugly in. that covered them up from their tons to their chin; They nibbled the good things, and

Said Mrs. Bunny : "Houskeeping Is a thing I can truthfully may I don't

For my work is so light and my duties

WHILE HIS WIFE IS AWAY "Glovege !" "Y-"

"Oh, yes, there's nothing to that." "All right. And you can get your wn breakfast? I ordered everything." "You doar, I'll get my own break-

"Now, promise me one thing, you'll wash the dishes, won't you? Don't pile the dishes in the sink.

"All right, I'll wash them." "And be sure and close all the win dows before you go away in the morn ing. It may rain, you know."

"And water the rubber plant."

"All right." "O, yes, and be sure you don't for get to put out the milk bottles overy

"I will if I think of it." "But you must think of it. I promised him that he would get it last Monday." "All right." "And don't forget to feed the cat."

"And remember the pen under the ice box has to be emptied twice every "Twice a day for the pan."

the heater going." "Put the laundry on the back steps

"All right," "Now, dear, kies me good-bye. Th train is about to leave. You won't be lonely, dear, will you ?" "No, my dear, it doesn't look at though I will."

BUCCESS A successful man once said that he found his opportunity washing the windows in the store where he was employed. Young people are very It was no ghost train which chased likely to think of opportunity as makdown a mountain side and into Al- the view in brilliant array. Instead toons, Ps., one midnight a quarter of it may come to your door as humbly as a street pediar, and in as poor a Plenty of wind, rain and fog that guise. The chance to show yourself

ROOM FOR A LAUGH MACH DAY It is an unusual day that has not room for a good laugh in it. The hour which affords no opportunity for un tain after the delay, so the first section uplifting thought is an anomaly among of the Fast Line found six helper its brothers and sisters. And when engines waiting to follow down the the hours go by, and you see nothance

It is pretty plain that you need a pair DOING A THING BY HALVES

Nothing is worth doing by balves. If it is worth attempting, put some parnestness into it, so as to make it plendidly successful, and if not worth whole-hearted effort, leave it strictly alone. To do a thing by halves is an nault to the enterprise that is worth while, and to attempt anything into which you cannot put your heart is an

There never was and never will be a universal panaoea in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is beir. What would relieve one III in turn would remedy for many and grievous lils. By its gradual and judicious use the frailest systems are led into convalescence and strongh by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and by tranquilizing the nerves disposes to sound and refreshing sleep-Imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the veins, strongthoning the healthy, animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result strengthening the frame and giving naturally demand increased substance -result, improved appetite. North rop & Lyman, of Toronto, have giver. to the public their superior Quinine. By the opinion of scientists, the wine looked back and saw something at insult to yourself.

aggravate the others. - We have, how over, in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound, unadulterated state a When the grade was passed and the restoratives. It relieves those t life to the digestive organs which

A man will never reach the top who | approaches nearest perfection of any is too lary to move until he is pushed, on the market. All druggists sell it.

leaf plate,

And the young bunnios chatted, and wondrous to state, They also devoured both their napking

GEORGE WON'T BE LONESONE

"Are you sure that you can make

"And give the canary his bath every

"And sweep the kitchen floor nor and then.

"I won't." "() George, I owe the baker sixty cents. Drop in and pay that some

"And whatever you do, when you ake a bath don't go away and leave every Tuesday.

OFTEN THE GATEWAY INTO